FREEDOM OF INFORMATION AND PRIVACY ACTS

SUBJECT: COMMUNIST INFILTRATION-MOTION PICTURE INDUSTRY(COMPIC) (EXCERPTS)

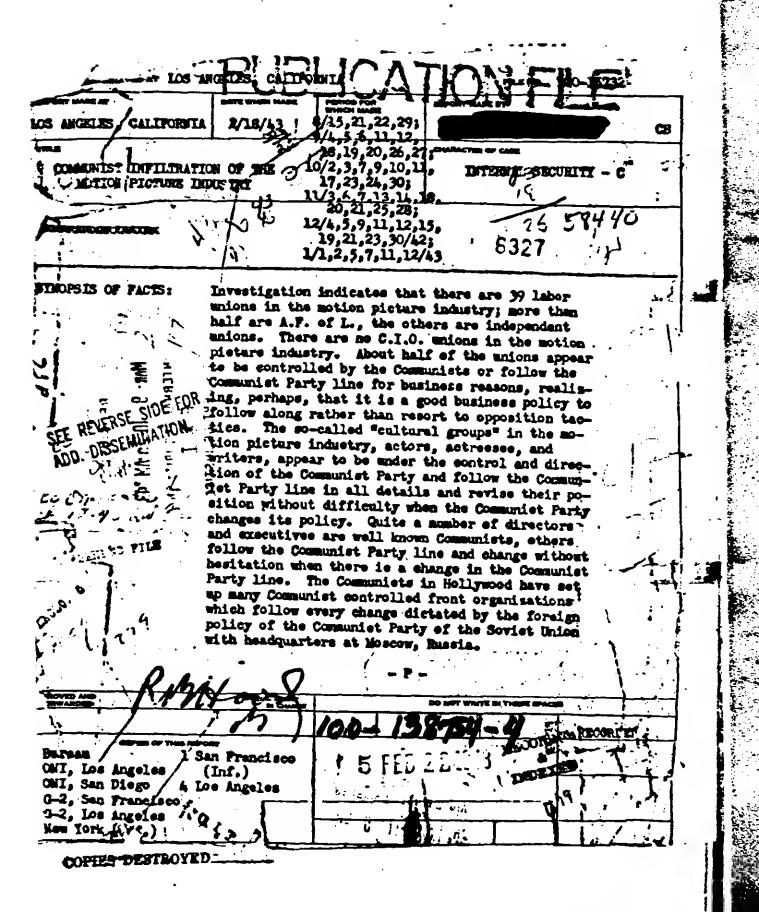

FILE NUMBER: 100-138754

SERIAL:4

PART: 1 OF 15

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

'CONFIDENTIAL

Photostatic copy of portion of the proceedings of the I.A.T.S.E. convention at Louisville, Ky., June 3-6, 1940 - Pages I to 12, inclusive.

Exhibit II

Photostatic copy of portion of the proceedings of the I.A.T.S.E. convention at Cleveland, Ohio, June 6 to 9, 1938 - Pages 1 to 10, inclusive.

Exhibit III

Page I is photographic copy of Page 31 of the May, 1941 issue of "The Clipper", which is headed "In Dafense of Culture" and is a call of the League of American Writers to the "American Writers Congress", June 6 to 8, 1961 at New York City.

Page : see photographic copy of Page 3 of Ame August: 1971 issue of The Ullpper //wmich is headed : A Communication to All Writers From The League of American Writers !

RE. COMMUNIST INFILTRATION OF THE MOTION PICTURE INDUSTRY INTERNAL SECURITY - C

L.A. File 100-15732

1 874 23,874

CONFIDENTIAL

MAL BUSINESS

100-1387-4

W

(#17. W

STREET, STREET,

REFERENCE:

Letters from the Bureau, August 14, 1942 and November 9, 1942.

58441

DETAILS:

AT LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA:

The Bureau instructed that a comprehensive report be prepared indicating the Communist infiltration and possible control of the motion picture industry. It was suggested that the report cover the activities of the Communists in the field of labor organisations, showing the extent to which the Communist Party has gained control and direction of the activities of that section of the skilled, unskilled and technical workers in the Hollywood studice. It has been found in this field that there are thirty-nine separate labor organizations which operate as bargaining agencies for their individual groups, with approximately 20,000 members.

The first portion of this report deals with labor organisations and groups, while the second main portion of this report deals with the activities of the Communists among the writers, actors, actresses, executives, directors, and the so-called intellectuals in general.

While both of these groups have been subject to Communist penstration, and while the methods of penetration have not been the same, it being necessary to approach the working man from a different angle than the intellectual, nevertheless both groupe form a part of a broad campaign to influence the motion picture industry as a whole, and the binding and directing force is clearly traceable to the activity of the Communist Party.

It has been found that the Communist activities in the motion picture industry are not in any sense local but on the contrary they form a part of a gigantic world-wide conspiracy of control which has its origin and direction in the Communist Party of the Soviet Union.

It has been observed that the activities, whether they be in the Communist controlled labor unions, the Communist controlled sultural groups, or the Communist front organizations under Communist control, follow every change dictated by the foreign policy of the Communist Party of the Soviet Union.

In each instance when the Communist International, which has its headquarters in Moscow, Rassia, sets up a policy to be followed by the Communist Parties throughout the world, these Communist groups in Hellywood have followed "The Communist Party Line".

CONFIDENTIAL

For example, from August, 1935, when Constitutional, in the Seventh World Congress of the Communist International, held in Moscow, Emssia, laid down the formula for what was called "The Popular Front", up to the time of the signing of the pact between HITIER and STALIN on August 23, 1939, every Communist controlled organization in Hollywood labor unions, cultural groups and front organizations followed that policy. On August 23, 1939 the non-aggressive pact between HITIER and STALIN was announced to the world, within a period of sixty days these same Hollywood organizations completely reversed their position and began advocating isolation, opposition to the lend-lease policy, and called the war an imperialist war (()).

Again on June 22, 1941 when HITLER attacked Russia and the Communist Party line was changed, these same groups changed likewise and are now for all-out prosecution of the war and pretend to be bending every effort to defeat HITLER in accordance with the announced Communist Party line.

NATIONAL COMMITTEE, COMMUNIST PARTY, U.S.A., NEW YORK CITY, RETAINS ITS SPECIAL JURISDICTION OVER HOLLYWOOD CULTURAL GROUPS FOR PURPOSE OF PREVENTING EXPOSURE

Source A has stated that as far back as 1934 the Communist Party began to lay plans to utilize Hollywood and the motion picture industry for the Communist cause, but it was not until the fall of 1936 that a full realization of this possibility was reached. On November 13 and 14, 1936, there was held in San Prancisco a conference of writers from all over the United States. It was called the Mestern Writers Congress. The call for this congress was issued by HARRY CARLISIE, an important functionary of the Communist Party in California at the time. He had been centering his activities in the Hollywood section. CARLISIE was a member of the National Council of the League of American Writers which was organized in the spring of 1935 in New York City. This national council was affiliated with the international Union of Revolutionary Writers where headquarters were in Moscow, Russia. CARLISIE had also been national organizer of the JOHN REED CLUB, a Communist group which preceded the formation of the League of American Writers.

Representing the Central Committee of the Communist Party at this congress were VICTOR J. JEROME and MICHAEL COLD. JEROME was a number of the Central Committee of the Communist Party, and GOID is the well known Communist writer on the staff of the "Daily Worker", the official paper of the Communist Party in America, located in New York City.

Writers and personages from, or connected with, Hellywood, attended this conference as delegates, and were:

58444

DOROTHY PARKER, a Hollywood screen writer.

VIOLA BROTHERS SHORE, Hollywood screen writer.

DONALD OCDEN STEWART, Hollywood screen writer.

ELLA MAE WINTER, Hollywood screen writer, magazine writer, widow of LINCOLN STEFFENS, and at present wife of DONALD OCDEN STEWART.

CERALD STRANG, Hollywood screen writer.
CLARA WEATHERWAX, Hollywood screen writer.
UPTON SINCLAIR, author and screen writer.
JOHN STEINBECK, writer.

CAREY McWILLIAMS, writer and lawyer who was Commissioner of Housing and Immigration of the State of California during the Governor OISON administration

MICHAEL QUIN (PAUL RYAN), columnist of the "People's World, the official Communist publication on the west coast.

It was at this congress that the possibilities of the motion picture industry as a field for Communism were brought to the attention of the Central Committee of the Communist Party with striking force.

Source B furnished to the Los Angeles Bureau Office a letter received from the WESTERN WRITERS CONCRESS, Room 214, 604 Montgomery Street, San Francisco, California, dated January 27, 1937, signed by HARRY CARLISIE, Executive Secretary, on which appeared a list of the sponsors of this congress. This list is as follows:

LINCOLN STEFFENS LOUIS ADAMIC JOHN R. ADAMS GEORGE P. ADAMS HENRY G. ALSBERG HOWARD BAKER BETTY BALLANTINE JOHN BARRY ERNEST SUTHERLAND BATES CHARLES BONNER B. A. BOTKIN JOHN H. BRADLEY, JR. CALVIN BRIDGES JOHN/BRIGHT ARTHUR BRODEUR GILBERT BROWN H. C. BROWN R. L. BURGESS

WITTER BYNNER JAMES CALDWELL HARRY CARLISLE OLIVER CARLSON ARTHUR CAYLOR HAAKON CHEVALIER HUMPHREY CORB , HOWARD MCKINLEY CORNING CLARKSON CRANK H. L. DAVIS HAROLD EBY GARLAND ETHKI GUISEPPE FACCI HARVEY FERGUSSON SARA BARD FIELD HILDEGARDE FLANNER MARTIN FLAVIN MIRIAM ALLEN de FORD

CONFIDENTIAL

- 4 -

ALPRED FRANKENSTEIN KISA GIDLOW MICHAEL COID DAVID GROWKOWSKY JOSEPH HARRISON ADA HASTINGS HEDGES HOWARD HILL CHARLES HILTON JAMES HOPPER HELEN HOYT FLORENCE BEAN JAMES ALEXANDER KAUN HERBERT KLEIN ROBIN LAMPSON PROF. B. H. LEHMAN JANET LEWIS MARKI DODCE LUHAN DR. LILLIAN J. MARTIN REDFERN MASON EDWIN JUSTUS MAYER CARET MCWILLIAMS ALEXANDER METKLEJOHN SKIDEN MENEFES H. G. MERRIAM LOREN WILLER MAI MILLER FULLIER MOOD RICHARD NEUBERGER ALBERT M. OTTENHEIMER LANCASTER POLLARD LAWRENCE CLARK POWELL MICHAEL QUIN has stated that early in 1937, VICTOR J. JEROME was sent to Hollywood to direct the activities of the Communist Party in the motion picture industry

PETER QUINCE BOWARD RADENZEL KKNNETH RESCROTH HAROLD SALEMSON WILLIAM SAROYAN GEORGE SHAFTELL IRMIN SHAW. VIOLA BROTHERS SHORE UPTON SINCLAIR tess slesinger PAUL JORDAN SMITH JOHN STEINBECK IRVING STONE ROBERT TASKER LLOYD THOMPSON ANTHONY M. TURANO ETHEL TURNER FRANKLIN WALKER CLARA WEATHERWAX MARIE de L. WELCH GEORGE WEST NATHANIEL WEST T. K. WHIPPIK ROBERT WHITAKER LESLIE T. WHITE STEWART EDWARD WHITE ALBERT RHYS WILLIAMS GEORGE WILSON ELLA WINTER SOPHUS KEITH WINTER CHARLES ERSKINE SCOTT WOOD BERTHOLD VIERTEL JAKE ZEITLIN

After his arrival here a decision was made that owing to the importance of Hollywood and the prominence of those personages, asters, actresses, writers, directors and others who were drifting over into the Communist Party and the various front organizations, it would be necessary to separate the Hollywood activities of the Party from all connection with District No. 13 of the Communist Party and place it directly under the jurisdiction and supervision of the Central Committee of the Communist Party in New York City. This arrangement applied only to those units of the Party which

CONFIDENTIAL

- Henry

were composed of prominent actors, actresses, writers, directore, and executives. It did not apply to rank and file Communists who were members of labor unions $(\mathcal{W}_{\mathcal{C}})$

This decision was carried out and from that time on the Hollywood cultural faction was completely independent and had no official connection with the local management of the Communist Party. (U)

To further protect the Hollywood luminaries who were then flocking into the Communist orbit in such numbers, directives were issued that all party membership books were to be destroyed and all documentary evidence of every kind was also to be destroyed.

In addition to the foregoing precautions, all units to which personages belonged were made "closed units". A "closed unit" is one which retains the same membership continuously, taking in no new members, thus preventing a leak.

Members of these units, when paying their duss to the party, merely bought the required dues etamps and then destroyed them.

Source D furnished to Agent a copy of a "strictly confidential" report dated January 22, 1934 which was prepared by a party who had been a member of the Communist Party and who may have been a member of the Communist Party at the time the report was made. This report was made for the "Association of Motion Picture Producers, Inc." and contains much valuable preliminary information as this was approximately two years before the Central Committee of the Communist Party, U.S.A. at New York City began to realize the possibilities of the motion picture industry to the Communist Party. This report is copied herein:

"Subject: Activities of Individual Communists and Organizations in Hollywood.

"The following information on individual Communists and Communist organizations, subsidiary and otherwise, operating in Hollywood, is furnished for your information ()

The Loe Angelee cub-district of Dietrict 13 of the Communist Party USA, now has a total of 105 units functioning in Los Angelee and immediate vicinity, with a total membership of approximately 1750 persons. This, however, does not include membership of several thousand in their numerous cubeidiary and auxiliary organisations.

CONTINUE TIME

"In Hollywood proper, there have been established six separate units of the Communist Party during the past five months, at the beginning of which there existed only one unit whose activities were somewhat limited, and the spreading of its influence to the extent of the formation of six units is a significant barometrical reading of the growth of the party in Hollywood ()

While there are six units that are acknowledged, there is a seventh which might be termed a shadow unit, which is being kept secret until some time after Fsbruary. This seventh unit is composed mainly of former Socialist Party members who have broken away from the Socialist Party and have become affiliated with the Communist Party and the existence of this unit will not be made known until after the state convention of the Socialist Party. Among the notable members of this latter unit, are Mr. and Mrs. NASH, having been identified as state secretary of the Socialist Party.

"The former Socialist Party headquartere located at 1453 Vine St., Hollywood, has been taken over by the Communist Party and its subsidiaries. Among some of the organizations holding meetings there are the JOHN REED CLUB, the Pen & Hammer Club, and a recent newly organized social group of the motion picture workers. This headquarters is known as the Commonwealth House. A) (A)

"One of the Communist Party units held its meeting at the Commonwealth House on Thursday, January 11th, at which comprehensive reporte on the activities of this unit and ite members during the past and on its future work was rendered. The major concentration decided upon the building of the Motion Picture Workers Union

"A Mr. WOLF, an organizer of one of the Hollywood Units of the Communist Party, known both as HERMAN WOLF and HARVEY WOLF, is the organizer of the new revolutionary union, which is known as the "Motion Picture Workers Industrial Union." It appears that WOLF was formerly employed as a laboratory worker in a studio and has a wide acquaintance among the workers in the motion picture industry, and he is now applying himself assiduously to the building of this new union.

posed of WCIF, NEIL BRANT, the COLDBLATT brothers (Young Communist League members) EDDY CLARK, BILL CHIER, HELMAR BERGMAN, LOU HELFELZ, Mr. and Mrs. COMDON, Gardenia, and a few others. Not all the fraction members are members of the Communist Party, and though this is semewhat of an unusual situation, it is permitted in this instance because of the superlatively revolutionary psychology and ideae of the persons involved. They follow the party line and decisions unerringly ();

53 947

"From confidential reporte, WOLF is being careful in hie selection of members for the union and appears to be concentrating on the carpenters, painters and other laborers, and is shying away at this time from the writers. This is mainly because the inarticulate worker is more tractable than the intellectual and can be counted upon to follow the leaders' instructions or appeals in the case of an emergency.

"The policy in building the new motion picture union is to carefully build up a solid membership of the studios employees, then when the membership is sufficiently etrong enough, WOLF and the other party members will propose affiliation with the Trade Union Unity league and it is believed that the rank and file of the membership will have by this time been sufficiently impregnated with Communist Party psychology. After this move has been accomplished, the writers and other more temperamental of the workers will be solicited for membership.

"As a means to an end, an association of motion picture employees has been organized. This organization bears the front of a social organization, but is in reality utilized as a recruiting field for the new motion picture employees union. (E)

"This social group meets with and listens to HEIMAR BERG-MAN and other smooth tongued Communiste, and absorbs Communiet germs without realizing it. WOLF refers to the social group as the "educational" group and is frank among the comrades in the party in Hollywood to admit that it was organized for the purpose of lining up prospects for the union. (1)

"Other brevities on Communist Party activities in Hollywood include the following $\{X|X\}$

"The Hollywood section of the Communiet Party commemorated the passing of NICOLAI JENIN at their own section, Sunday night, January 2let at the Commonwealth House, 1453 Vine St. (rear) at 8 p.m.; Dr. TASHJIAN was the chairman of the meeting, and NEIL ERANT was the main speaker (1)(L) members of the Hollywood section of the Communist Party have received instructions from the sub-district headquarters in Loe Angelee that the election campaign will be one of the major campaigns of the party thie year. Every party member stands instructed to register "Communist". The old evasion of "declins to state", is definitely abolished and all party members must register "Communist."

1/1

planning to establish the Daily Worker in Hollywood (The Daily Worker is the official organ of the Communist Party in the United States). It appears that after considerable dickering, they have made arrangements with the owner of a newsstand located at 6363 Hollywood Blvd. to stock and carry this publication and copies may be procured at this address at the present time ()

"One of the outstanding activities of the Hollywood section of the party is the maintenance of a propaganda group as the "Hollywood Discussion Club," which trading on the leniency of the School Board in its policy of permitting Communist subsidiaries and Communist camouflaged organizations to use the school buildings for their propaganda work, organized a committee to arrange and conduct meetings of the Hollywood Discussion Club. The committee first secured the Vine St. School for these meetings. Meetings were held in this building for a matter of several months, then it became apparent that the location was not the best so far as drawing power was concerned, and accordingly, the committee sought a more advantageous 10cation, with the result that the school building located at the corner of Santa Monica Blvd. and Van Ness Ave. is now being utilized for dissemination of all sorte of Communist propaganda. Party members believe that larger crowds will be attracted in this location and that the party's influence will grow among those attending these meetings in the near future (UL)

"A Communist Party member named WILLIAM CHIER, who is also an actor and now employed in the studioe, has conducted negotiations with the School Board for the use of the echool buildings. In his applications for permits to the Board and when appearing before them, he is known as WILLIAM CREEN, and it appears from his talk or cover with members, that he wears the ultimate in the matter of facial innocence and expression, and is never suspected of being a Communist. In the past, at regular intervals, it has been necessary for him to appear before the School Board for a renewal of the permit to use the building, and at these times this mild appearing Communist used the fictitious name of Mr. WILLIAM CREEN, impressing the Board members with his integrity.

"Several interesting new members have been added to the Communist Party units in Hollywood, among them being, DON GORDON, the writer, BEN PRIVAL, the artist, who has a small studio located at 6768 Hollywood Blvd., PRIVAL has been active in the John Reed Club; his wife, ZORA PRIVAL is also a party member. Another recent party member is PAUL HYAN, who conducts the Hollywood Book Store on Holly-wood Blvd. RYAN is a student and a clever writer and ie, incidentally also very active in the John Reed Club. His nom de plume is MICHAEL QUIN and he is on the staff of the "Partisan", the John Reed Club publication, and is now attached to Unit #4 as Agitprop director, but will only remain until such time as this unit develops sufficiently to provide an agitprop director to take—his place. By territorial division he belongs to another of the Hollywood Units ()()

"The "Partisan" is the official publication of the John Reed Clube of Hollywood, Carmel and San Francisco with mailing address Box 2088, Hollywood, and is termed the "revolutionary journal of art, literature and opinion." It is published in Hollywood, Cal. and made ite first appearance in Volume 1, #1, December, 1933 (V)

"The writers and artiste union of the John Reed Club meets separately every Wedneeday night at the Commonwealth House, 1453 Vine St., rear. (1)

"One of the other units of the Hollywood eection of the Communist Party is concentrating on agitation among the laundry workers in the Hollywood territory. Leaflete have been distributed among workers in the Hollywood Laundry at Sunset and Tujunga, and others at the Community Laundry and the Pride Hand Laundry. NEIL ERANT is the director of the laundry activities of the Hollywood section and will present a plan of action for the units in the near future. (%) ()

"Other Communist subsidiaries existing in Hollywood proper include: Two branches of the International Labor Defence, namely the Ben Boloff Branch and the Karl Leibknecht branch, German speaking. Two units of the Young Communist League, and two Young Pioneer troops, and International Workers Order, adult oranch and International Workers Order, youth branch; a branch of the ICOR and a unit of the Workers Ex-Servicemen's League. Also the Communist Party has fraction members in five groups of the Bellamy Clubs; one of said groups sends delegates to the "Anti War Conference" and to the "United Front Conference Against Fascism."

"There also exists in connection with the John Reed Clube, the block of painters engaged in freecos and mural paintings; a branch of the W.I.R. (Workers International Relief) is in process of formation. Already there is functioning a Workers Film and Photo League, under the leadership of the W.I.R.; it is composed chiefly of petty bourgeoisis elements, but it holds alluring possibilities for exploitation by the Communists; CLARK, a cameraman and member of Unit #4 Communist Party is assisting in the extension of this organization. There is also a branch of the National Students League in Hollywood, which was organized by the Young Communist League.

CONFIDENCE

==

"The "Red front", an organization of Communist members for use as defense squads and strong arm tactics when coming in conflict with the police, here been organized during the past several months. It is described by the Communists as the vanguard of the Communist Party and members from each of the 105 units are assigned to this organization. The "Red front" is already well organized in New York, Chicago and other metropolitan centers, and will always be found at the front in fights, demonstrations and other places where serious struggls is anticipated on the part of Communist Party leadership.

"The Relisf Workers Protective Union is a Communist organization of workers on county relief roll; has two locale located throughout Hollywood, as well as a Communist Party fraction working in one of the Hollywood Unemployed Cooperative Relief Association units

"Will endeavor to keep you advised from time to time of any outstanding progress being made by the Communists in their endeavor to penetrate into the motion picture industry, or any other activities that may interest you."

Source D also on February 20, 1933 furnished to the Association of Motion Picturs Producers, Inc., a report in which Source stated that the Communists "John Reed Club of Hollywood was a branch of the international Union of Revolutionary Writere and Artists," members of which are to be found amond the writers, actors, actresses, artists and scenic painters and others employed in the various motion picture studios ()()

Source further etated that a communication from the workers International Relief" addressed to JOSEPH TURCHINSKI was available which made mention of the fact that SAM ORNITZ; a writer, was employed by one of the studios and that a copy of a letter of ORNITZ! addressed to the International Labor Defense in Los Angeles was also available ()

Source then stated "The Workers International Relief is a Communist subsidiary and auxiliary mass organization having a dual mission, that of rendering assistance and relief in strikes, and has charge of proletarian cultural activities, presenting propaganda films and entertainment, and the establishing of Communist children's summer camps." It further stated that the national chairman of the Workers International Relief, BISHOP WILLIAM MONTGOMERY BROWN, is an avowed Communist and its national secretary, ALFRED WACENKNECHT, is a member of the Central Executive Committee of the Communist Party, U.S.A.

12

was addressed, is an active and militant member of the Communist Party, in charge of Workers International Relief in this section. Source further stated that "The International Labor Defense with which SAM ORNITZ is connected, is another of the Communist subsidiary and auxiliary mass organizations, functioning for the defense of persons (particularly Communists) arrested for seditious activities against the Covernment, and the defense of Communists and sympathizers arrested for unlawful activities during strikes, demonstrations, riots, and other disturbances (())

CONTEMPORARY FILM DISTRIBUTORS

Source E in 1935 made a report to the employer of Source E relative to the above-named organization. This report is copied in full below:

"RE: Aaron Brodsky

"Contemporary Film Distributors". Those comprising the group are AARON BRODSKY, KATE BRODSKY (his wife) CHANDLER WESTON and his wife. AARON BRODSKY is the general head of the group.

Garrison Film Company, a company producing liberal and revolutionary motion pictures in the east. It is controlled and financed by Communists, although this fact is shrouded in secrecy. The production of these films is a part of the propaganda program of the Communist Party.

"Naturally, BRODSKY handles principally Carrison films but he is not restricted in this matter. A brief review of the circumstances leading up to BRODSKY'S present enterprise, is necessary to an underetanding of the situation as it exists today.

"In 1935, AARON ERODSKY joined the Communist Party. He was also a member of the Film and Foto League, a left-wing group of Bohemian type persons who had aspirations to become actore and actresses.

"New Film Group" supplanted it. After a brisf existence, this organization was in turn dissolved in February, 1935. One half of the memberanip, interested in the production end of the business, is still loosely holding together, talking about making revolutionary or liberal pictures, but actually doing nothing. The other part of the membership, less interested in the "arty" phase of the business than in the more lucrative "showing" of the pictures, eet itself up in business. In spite of the fact that the name they adopted (Contemporary Film Distributors) gives the impression of big business, there are only four persons in the entire organization, and they are Communists.

THE PARTY OF

.3

"BRODSKY himself, makes a salary of from $150 to $200 per month, at present, on the showings of motion pictures. This salary is based on "labor charges" he makes for ehowing pictures to various organizations, groups, affairs, etc. When sound pictures are shown, a larger charge is made than for a eilent picture. In addition to this, BHODSKY receives a 10% commission from the Carrison Film Company, when he shows a Carrison film. However, his eteady income is derived from a job which he holds, but which is not known to this writer.

"Every effort is made to delude the public as to the true character of the revolutionary films, not only by BRODSKY but by the Communist Party as well - IF - it is thought that only by such deceit can they guarantee that the pictures will be shown. For instance, it is known to a few leading Communists, that a woman known as Mies WIISON, bargained with the Public Library for the showing of certain pictures. Mies WILSON assured the Library employee that these pictures had no connection whatever with the Communiet Party or with Communism. She produced a card (one of which is attached hereto) showing that these pictures were to be shown in the Hollywood Women's Club. Her lietener was convinced that if the pictures were to be shown in so reputable a place, they must be above criticism! But - these cards were on display in the offices of the Communist Party, and the "Modern Film Group which purported to be presenting the pictures was actually a small group of Communists attached to the Professional Section of the Communist Party.

"Another card accompanies this article, which lists four of this same group of pictures and showing that this group of pictures was to be shown in the Industrial Section's Headquarters. The Industrial Section is a section of the Communist Party. In comparing the two cards attached, it will be found that pictures, 2, 3, 4 and 5 are the same in both instances. It is ridiculous to assume that the so-called "Modern Film Group" would have no connection with Communism or the Communist Party, with evidence like this on hand.

"It is timely to suggest that organizations, clubs, stc., which are approached by personable men or women who make attractive offers for the showing of motion pictures, enould make a thorough investigation of the persons approaching them, and of the film or films offered, before making any arrangements. These Communist agents have developed a finished technique and can make a thorn appear as attractive as a rose.

"This policy has been adopted by the Contemporary Film Distributors, as well. Mrs. AARON BRODSKY is the "front" for the organization, making contacts with various organizations and groups and attending to all business arrangements. BRODSKY attends to the technical end of showing the films. Mrs. BRODSKY is the bookkseper for the group, as well."

The first "card" referred to in the report above is identified as follows:

"The Beet of Foreign Films at the Industrial Section, 5462 S. Spring St."

The eccond "card" is identified as follows:

"Modern Film Group presents
Five internationally important Sound Films!
Hollywood Women's Club, 7078 Hollywood Blvd."

The five films mentioned on card No. 1 are the following:

"Thunder Over Mexico"

Mexican Film by EISENSTEIN and UPTON SINGLAIR

"Crime and Punishment", French Film with HARRY BAUERS

"Alone" - Ruesian Film

"A Nous La Liberts" French Film by Rene Clair

"The Wave"
Beautiful Film of Mexico today

day do

APPENDE

The five pictures mentioned on Card No. 2 are the following:

- "Youth of Maxim" Russian
 Directed by KOSINTSEV & TRAUBERG
- 2. "Crime st Punishment" Franch Directed by PIERRE CHENAL, with music by HONNEGER
- 3. "Alone" Russian Directed by KOSINTSEV & TRAUBERG, music by SHOSTOKOVITCH
- 4. "A Noue la Liberte" French Directed by RENE CLAIR
- 5. "The Wave" (Redes) Mexican
 With photography by PAUL STRAND

It will be noted that four of the five pictures are listed on both cards. It is reported that all of these films are of a propaganda nature.

WORKERS' FILM AND FOTO LEAGUE

Source F furnished to Agent a copy of a confidential report concerning the activities of the Workers Film and Foto League which held a mass mesting on February 6, 1935 at the Commonwealth House, 1453 Vine Street, Hollywood, California. Several of the Communist Party members who were most active at that time are still active in the affairs of the Communist Party in Los Angeles at the present time. SAM ORNITZ, the featured speaker on that occasion, is one of the staunchest Communists in California today. This report is as follows:

"Preliminary activities are in progress in Hollywood, for the organization of a bona fids Workers' Film and Photo League. These activities include the holding of meetings to which the public and persons interested in the production of motion pictures, are invited. Interesting talks, as well as the showing of motion pictures, are provided for entertainment. The talks are designed to inform the people of the aspirations and plans of the new organization.

"In the past, there has been in existence a small group () which called itself the Workers' Film and Photo League, but this small group was handicapped for lack of funds, for want of support from technicians and was in reality a one-man organization. J. SIMINOFF owns the camera and some of the paraphernalia, and he has done most of the photographing and other work alone. Now, however, it is planned by certain of the Communist Farty members, to make a real organization out of the remnants of the old, with a Party fraction guiding the organization. Among those Party members who are active in forming the new group, are BETTY SWITH, recently arrived from New York, Mr. SALTER, also from New York, EDDIE O'TOOLE, BILL WILLER, BILL CHIER and the WALLACES.

"On Tuesday, February 6th, SAM ORNITZ was the featured speaker at one of these meetings. The meeting was held in Commonwealth House, 1453 Vine Street. Approximately 65 people were present. An admission charge of 15¢ was made.

"OFNITZ said that the purpose of the League was to eventually produce motion pictures, depicting events in the class struggle, etc. In order to produce pictures which may be put on a paying basis, it is necessary to draw into the League film technicians, camera men, grips, cutters, electriciane, etc. ORNITZ warmed his lieteners that they must not come into the Workers! Film and Photo League with the expectation of winning personal glory or fame. They must not come in for "art's" sake. They must come into the League with the full understanding that association with the organization will place upon them the stigma of being called a Red; They must come into the organisation understanding that they will have to face HYNES and his murderous Red Squad; they can expect that when they go out to photograph scenes at a demonstration, they will probably be thrown into jail and get their heads bashed in, as well. However, ORNITZ added, the membere of this League will have the compensation of a conscience which reets assured in ite conviction that the owner of said conscience, has done his best for the revolutionary cause. "Personally", said OFNITZ, "I don't eee any fun in living unless you can take these chances. I don't know what justification there is for your living unless you are willing to be beaten up or jailed for the cause of the revolution."

"ORNITZ sneered at the type of motion pictures which is being produced. He said that the actors are tired of love scenes and "all that rubbish". They want to make revolutionary pictures, which actually deal with the class struggle. He declared that it was a revelation to him when he found that so many of the actors and extras are Red.

~~~

"ORNITZ epoke of having been in Kentucky and of seeing the hunger, misery and want of the poor people there. He said it would have been invaluable if he could have made pictures of the children with their bodies emaciated from hunger, and their little lege that looked like cticks. He added that he is under indictment in Kentucky and that he was exiled from there.

The state of the s

"He declared that the major studios are now considering making some Russian pictures. He told of the gradual radicalisation of some of the greater lights in the picture business. He referred to "Red Square", the picture which Columbia was preparing to make. He said, in connection with this, that LAWRENCE STALLINGS was assigned to write the script for "Red Square". STALLINGS had always been viciously opposed to the Soviet Union. In fact, he became furieus when the revolutionary country was mentioned in his presence. In order to gather the proper information for his assignment, he went to Russia in the company of MILESTONE, the director, who is a Russian by birth.

"After spending a little time in Russia, MILESTONE and STALLINGS returned to America. STALLINGS sentiments towards the Soviet Union appeared to have undergone a complete change. He is now quite sympathetic towards Russia, and the script which he wrote for "Red Square" proved to be exceedingly sympathetic towards the Red Government.

"At this point, IOU HEIFETZ, who was sitting in the audience, asked ORNITZ for permission to make a statement. ORNITZ begged that he do so, and HEIFETZ said, "Comrades, I have bad news for you. I was at Columbia today and they are not going to make "Red Square". I saw the script which STALLINGS wrote and regard it as the finest piece of literary work I have seen for some time."

"ORNITZ displayed great chagrin at this announcement.

HEIFETZ added further that the publicity man at Columbia said to him,
"There's no use talking - we've got to sall the Americans on Russia."

"The meeting them continued in ite informal way, with questions from the floor, and either ORNITZ or O'TOOLE answering them.

"Someone in the audience asked if any technicians belonged to the Film and Photo League as yet. O'TOOLE replied that there are camera men, cutters and writers in the membership at present. It might be mentioned at this point that he announced that HARRY KOMER, formerly a member of the YCL, is a cutter at M.G.M.

"Scraps of pictures which SIMINOFF had taken, were shown, at this time, but because they were shorts and were not correctly assembled the effect was bad."

Cin

JE

LARCE FINANCIAL CONTRIBUTORS TO THE COMMUNIST PARTY AT AN EARLY DATE (1935 - 1936)

Source G furnished the Agent a copy of a report which was prepared early in 1936 for certain picture producers. This report is as follows:

"From among the fabulous-salaried executives, directors, actors, scenario writers, stc., of the motion picture industry, have come the Communist Party's most liberal financial supporters. Without the huge monthly contributions of these persons, the Communist Party would have been handicapped in maintaining the extensive headquarters at 224 S. Spring Street and at 230 S. Spring Street (C) (L) wThese contributors are given the utmost in protection by the Communist Party. One trusted Party member acts as collector, and once each month, visits the various contributors for the purpose of making the collections. An official receipt is given. Only a trusted few of the Party members know the names of the contributors. There is one outstanding example of exposure, and that was the case of where JAMES CAGNEY'S name was broadcast after letters had been found, identifying him as a Communist sympathizer and supporter. This experience caused a tightening of the apparatus handling collections, etc. (1/11)

"JAMES CACHEY'S name is among those at the head of the list of heavy contributore. He can be counted upon to make additional contributions in emergency cases, as well as to maintain his regular monthly payments. (SL())

"FRANK DAVIS, assistant producer and director, whose home is at 338 N. Barrington Drive, Brentwood Heights, makes a regular monthly donation of $500.00 to the Communist Party. DAVIS recently flew his own plane to Yuma, where he was married to TESS SLESINGER. TESS SLESINGER, incidentally, divorced her former husband because he did not share her radical ideas. She is a scenario writer. She, like DAVIS, is a staunch supporter of Communism (N/W)

What May, FRANK DAVIS, accompanied by Mrs. BERYL LA CAVA, wife of GRECORY LA CAVA (motion picture director), went to Russia, He declared that his purpose in visiting Russia was to determine for himself, that HEARST was printing lies about that country. DAVIS said he was going to fly over the Ukraine and convince himself that etarvation was unknown there.

"Before leaving for New York, on the first etage of the Russian trip, FRANK DAVIS made a gift of a Ford V-8 coupe to the Los Angeles Section of the Communist Party. The Ford had been one of his personal cars and the signing over of the certificate of ownership seemed a trifling thing to him. At the time he left for Russia, he was donating $100.00 per month to the Party. The increasing of the monthly contribution to $500.00 apparently indicates that his devotion to Communism has increased considerably since that time () ()

)\b

"It may be interesting to note here that last summer, the C.E.C. of the Communist Party sent a man known only as "LAPRENCE", from New York to Los Angeles, for the specific purpose of organizing the wealthy sympathizers into a disciplined group. These wealthy Communist sympathizers were told that the Party needed their support and would protect them. Since that time, the monthly collections have been made in an organized manner and the income of the Communist Party has been incredibly increased. A certain percentage of all collections remains in the treasury of the Los Angeles Section, some goes to the District and the balance to New York.

"MARION AINSLEE, scenario writer, was also among the contributors to the Party. Last summer, she was donating $50.00 per month. In September, she went to Russia to join her husband, who has been a student in the University of Moscow for about three years. He is majoring in "Organization" and upon his return to the United States, the Party will assign him to some major position in this field. MARION AINSLEE will return to America with her husband, and without a doubt, her donations will resume their regularity.

"SAM CHNITZ, writer, has long been identified with the revolutionary movement. Hie monetary contributions to the cause of revolution and the sovietization of the United States, are made through the International Labor Defence. Besides his monetary contributions, he contributes much in writing. He also speaks at various radical affairs and is mightily interested in the production of motion pictures which will act as mediums for the dissemination of revolutionary propagands.

*GUY ENDORE, writer, is also listed as a sympathizer and contributor ()

"RUTH CHATTERION, the etar, is described as being extremely sympathetic and can be counted upon to make liberal contributions when called upon ()

"LIONEL STANDER, the comedian who is becoming so popular, is a member of the Communist Party and is probably assessed by the Party, for a considerable percentage of his large salary (%)

otees to the Soviet idea. The extent of his contribution to the movement, has not been learned by the writer, but it is understood that he is most liberal. His wife, TANYA, was the sponsor of a large affair held at the fashionable Trocadero, some time ago, the proceeds of which went to the Scottsboro Defense.

pathizer. He contributes heavily. Last sugger, he attended the "protest meeting" held at the Vine Street Playhouse in Hollywood, which was held for the purpose of the so-called attack upon BILL CHIER. It may be recalled that BILL CHIER, a member of the Communist Party, was assisting in the presentation of the anti-fascist play, "Till the Day I Die", at the Vine Street Theater, at that time. One night, he claimed, he was way-laid as he left the Theatre and severely beaten. Communists and sympathizers immediately arranged the protest meeting, at which CHIER, leaning heavily upon a cane and attempting to look wan, was the star. EDWARD G. ROBINSON attended this meeting, occupying a seat down front. He was among those most vociferously voicing their anger at the attack upon CHIER.

"It was learned that KING VIDOR is beginning to show leftward tendencies. At a meeting of writers and press correspondents, KING VIDOR remarked that Russia is making the very best motion pictures being produced anywhere in the world today. He attributed this fact to the fact that the producers "are not hampered by having to consider box-office results", as the Soviet Union is not interested in profits.

"VICTOR SHAPTRO, publicity man at Twentieth-Century Fox, has joined the band of Communist supporters. He is willing to contribute not only money but his ability as publicity man, as well, offering all of the facilities at his command, for conversion to Communist requirements. (44)

~~; z;

"It has been reported that LEWIS MILESTONE is rapidly becoming a believer in the Russian precepts, and that he is willing to contribute to the cause in any way he is able to.

"It may be apropos to make some reference here to the play, "Bury the Dead." On March 29th, this play was read at the Womene' Club on Hollywood Boulevard, with FREDERIC MARCH and his wife, FLORENCE EL-DREDGE, reading the major roles. Among the notable attending this reading were JAMES CACNEY, LIONEL STANDER, ONSLOW STEVENS, DUDLEY NICHOLS (who recently refused to accept the academy award, claiming that it was not a fairly conducted procedure and that it is an empty gesture), FRANK TUTTLE and his wife and JOHN CROMVELL, the well known director who has a magnificent estate in Hidden Valley.

CONFIDENTIAL

"It is understood that there has been considerable friendly rivalry among the directors and actors, in attempts to secure the coveted roles. A clipping from the ""estern Worker" indisputably identifies some of these motion picture celebrities with the powerful anti-war play. (enclosed). In the los Angeles Times of April 19th, 1936, an article appeared, wording of which was as follows,

- " BURY THE DEAD! TO BE PRODUCED.
- "The reception accorded 'Bury the Dead' in New York has prompted Contemporary Theatre to produce this anti-war play in Los Angeles.
- "Following a conference with JOHN CROMMELL and ECON BREECHER, who will co-direct, Contemporary Theatre has announced that 'Bury The Dead' will go into rehearsal immediately. According to the present plane, it will open in May.'

"ŒORŒ HEILŒEN, who is credit manager for the loan association conducted by the Fox Studios, and who is head of the safety department as well, is a heavy contributor to the revolutionary movement. He contributes to every campaign and activity. He is employed at the Fox Westwood Studios. (Www.)

"CLIFFORD ODETTS, well known writer, is another Communist Party member and supporter. He came to Hollywood recently from New York and accepted a position at $2500.00 per week at Paramount Studios.

"Regarding: CLIFFORD ODETTS.

"The following was learned today from a reliable and extremely confidential source.

"CLIFFORD ODET'S is the author of the anti-faccist play,
"Til the Day I Dis" and of "Waiting for Lefty". These plays created a great furor when presented. For a long time, ODET'S, although a well known writer and playwright, had been struggling for a livelihood in New York.

"After the smash successee of his plays, the motion picture producers set up and took notice of him. He was offered an enticing job at the salary of $2500.00 per week, in Hollywood. It appears that ODETTS did not even have to make up his own mind on the matter, for the C.E.C. of the Communist Party - upon learning of the offer - instructed ODETTS to go to Hollywood without delay and accept the writer Lies at ODETTS carried out his instruction and upon reaching Hollywood, signed a contract for two years or so. ODETTS draws a salary of $2500.00 per week which is promptly conficcated by the Communist Party, and ODETTS is given a small allowance by the Party."

Sy

INTRODUCTION OF COMMUNIST PARTY ACTIVITIES IN HOLLYWOOD MOTION PICTURE LABOR UNIONS

Source H has stated that it was not until 1934 that the Communist International (Comintern) headquarters in Moscow, Russia discovered the tremendous possibilities of the motion picture as a means of propaganda to serve the foreign policy of the Soviet Union and spread its brand of Communism everywhere throughout the world where motion pictures are shown (1) (U)

Source stated that up to that time, which was the latter part of 1934, the Communiet Party in the United States had had no specific instructions to concentrate on the Hollywood motion picture industry with the object of capturing the labor unions of the workers in that industry and influencing others in cultural fields in Hollywood.

Source stated that this is correct is borne out by what took place at a meeting of the Communist faction of Loe Angeles County held at 2500 Brooklyn Avenue, Boyle Heights, in the fall of 1933 at which time SARUEL DARCY, then the Communist Farty organizer of District 13 of the Party under which the territory of Southern California operates, severely criticized one of the comrades for mentioning the possibility of penetrating the motion picture industry. DARCY said at that time that Communists had no business wasting their efforts in "swanky Hollywood". Their place, he said, was down in the industrial districts, the shipyards and the harbor where the real Communist work was to be done.

Source H stated that at about the same time, or shortly before that time, a Russian motion picture director, SERCEI EISENSTEIN, had made a picture in Mexico in cooperation with UPTON SINCLAIR, called "Thunder Over Mexico". This picture was called "an epoch of revolution" by Communists and sympathizers. It was exhibited extensively in the United States and at the Lux Theater in Hollywood.

KISENSTEIN came to Hollywood at this time and was received with much acclaim by executives, writers and actors alike. He was mined and dined and shown every consideration. He was much impressed with the industry but criticized the type of pictures made. He stated that they were not sufficiently socially conecious.

CONFIDENTIAL

VOILLINE

Source etated that late in 1934 EISENSTEIN returned to Russia and has never returned to the United States so far as Source is informed. Source further stated that not long after EISENSTEIN arrived in Russia an article was published in the "Communist", the official monthly organ of the Comintern in the United States. [In this article the possibilities of Communist penetration of the Hollywood motion picture industry was stressed and propaganda possibilities of the motion pictures were enlarged upon. Source further stated that in the spring of 1935 direct orders came down in mimeographed form (these communications are called "directives") from the top structure of the Party to all units in the Los Angeles section that there must be an intense concentration on Hollywood and the motion picture industry. The article emphasized the fact that the Communists must try to capture the labor unions for, if this could be done, they could be of much service in influencing the type of pictures produced and thus serve the Soviet cause. The article emphasized that at the same time work must be done among the cultural group, writers, artiste, actors, actresses, and others, to enlist their assistance toward the Communist cause.

There is being set out below a history of activities of the Communist Party as they were applied to the labor unions in the motion picture industry in Hollywood from the year 1934 when the Communist Party decided to enter that tield, until the present time.

HOLLYWOOD STUDIO UNIONS

Source.I, who has been a member of the A.F. of L. labor unions in Hollywood for many years, has stated that the International Alliance of Theatrical Stage Employeee, an autonomous group of local unions identified with the American Federation of Labor, is one of the oldest group of unions now in existence in the United States. In fact it is older than the American Federation of Labor itself.

When it affiliated with the A.F. of L. in the early nineties of the last century it was granted juriediction over the working crafts in the theatrical business, stage carpenters, stage electricians, property men, grips, flymen, and later when the motion pictures came into existence, the motion picture machine operators.

Source stated that when the motion picture industry came into existence it was looked upon as a branch or rather an extension of the theatrical business, differing only in principle by reason of the fact that the camera and projection machine were interposed between the actors and the audience.

COMPLETENTIAL

DENTALL

Source I further stated that by reason of this fact the I.A.T.S.E. claimed jurisdiction over all workers in the motion picture industry contending, and rightly, that their charter issued by the A.F. of L. covered this field. Shortly after the first motion picture studio was erected in Hollywood in 1911 the I.A.T.S.E. began organizing the workers in the Hollywood studios. This was about the year 1912. This jurisdiction was recognized and I.A.T.S.E. was the only union organization in Hollywood for some years.

Source I further stated that in the meantime, with the great expansion of the industry and the practice of building large outdoor sete and spectacular effects which took the place of painted backgrounds and makeshift sets, the building trade crafts, carpenters, painters, plasterers and others were casting eyes on this field and preparing to enter it.

In 1921 the I.A.T.S.E. called a strike of its workers in a dispute with the studios. Immediately the building crafts stepped in and broke the strike, and succeeded in establishing themselves as a part of the Hollywood studio union organizations where they have remained up to the present time. The I.A.T.S.E. was left with a smaller group of locals which they have succeeded in retaining.

Source I further stated that in 1933 in a dispute with the Hollywood producers, the I.A.T.S.E. called a strike. Again the building trades, especially the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, broke the strike by taking the place of the members of the I.A.T.S.E. This strike was purely a jurisdictional one, as was the one in 1921.

Source I further stated that as a result of this fight over jurisdiction, the workers in the motion picture industry in Hollywood became very much disgusted and began deserting the unions. Membership of all groups dropped until they could be numbered in a few hundreds instead of thousands. The result was that a very chaotic condition existed in 1933 as many of the workers had lost confidence in the A.F. of L.

He stated that up until this time the Communist Party had ignored the motion picture unione, not considering them worth bothering about. It was concentrating on factories, shipping and large industrial concerns. This was the Communist Party line at that time.

[Source I further stated that suddenly awaking to the situation and taking advantage of the disorganized condition of the studio unions, the group of Communists and fellow travellers in Hollywood held a series of meetings in the fall of 1933, the result of which was a decision to enter the motion picture field, and in January of 1934, they created an organization for the purpose of entering the field. This organization was the MOTION PICTURE WORKERS INDUSTRIAL UNION. It was an independent group completely under the control of the Communist elements, taking orders from the local functionary of the Communist Party.

CONFIDENTIAL

MOTION PICTURE WORKERS INDUSTRIAL UNION

Source J has informed the Los angeles Bureau Office that the Motion Picture Workers Industrial Union was formed on or about January 1, 1934. He has stated that this union was formed for the purpose of taking over and organizing all workers of all classifications in the motion picture industry into one organization. Prior to that time, in 1933, he stated there was a strike in the motion picture industry called by the I.A.T.S.E. which had a foothold in the motion picture industry since about 1912. He stated that this strike failed and due to the failure the I.A.T.S.E. structure practically fell apart and there were left only about 160 members which gave an opportunity for a new group to step in. The result was that the M.P.W.I.U. was set up and began to function.

Inis union was independent - was not affiliated with the A.F. of L. (The C.I.O. at that time had not come into existence). Source J stated that although the M.P.W.I.U. was under the control and domination of the Communist Party, working through the Communist Party fraction of the union, it never affiliated with the Trade Union Unity League. Demands were made on the organizer of this union, H. G. WOLFE by LAWRENCE ROSS (the correct name of LAWRENCE ROSS was LAWRENCE ROSENFELD), the section secretary of the Communist Party, EIMER HANOFF, organizer for the Communiet Party, MAYER BAYLIN, a functionary of the Communiet Party, and JAMES ALLEN, organizational secretary of the Communiet Party, made demands on WOLFE that the M.P.W.I.U. affiliate with the T.U.U.L. Source etated that WOLFE emphatically declined to affiliate and the union continued to function as an independent union. (St. (L.))

--

The officers of this union were the following persons:

HEIMER BERGMAN, Precident, January 1, 1934 to April 1, 1934.
WILFRED W. LYON, President, April 1, 1934 to February 1, 1935.
MILDRED FLEMING, Secretary.
ETTOHE CONTINI, Treasurer.
H. G. MOLFE, Organizer.
ED M. GILBERT, Member Executive Board.
DON CORDON,
JOHN LLOSCHEN,
LOUIS HEIFETZ,
RUDOLPH KOHL,
HELMER PEDERSON,
ARTHUR JOHNSON,
BORIS GOLDBLATT,
SAM GOLDBLATT,

ANTIO LITTER

HELMER BERGMAN. Source K has stated that BERGMAN was born in Sweden but is a naturalized citizen by reason of the naturalization of his father; that BERGMAN was a propagandiet for the Communist Party of Russia; that he taught in the Communiet Workers School in Hollywood at 1757 North Highland Avenue in 1934; that his subject was "The Communiet Manifesto". (Ut)

Source stated that BERGMAN went to Ruseia in 1935 with HENRY McCARTY, a writer in Hollywood; that McCARTY paid the expenses of both on thie trip; that they stayed in Ruesia for about three or four monthe. He stated that when they returned to the United States BERCHAN became the local chairman of the American League Against War and Faecism, and that in 1935 BYPCHAN attended the Communist Party Section Convention which was held at 226 South Spring Street, Loe Angeles. He stated that at this convention BERGIAN officially represented the American League Against War and Fascism. Source further stated that in 1936 BERGMAN met with the Soviet representatives of the Russian motion picture industry who were in Hollywood to select skilled workers for the motion picture industry in Ruesia. He etated that BERGMAN aided them in selecting this group to go to Russia and work in the Soviet Union. He etated that some of the persons selected to go to Russia were HELMER BERGLAN, WILFRED W. LYON, BORIS COLDBLATT, SAN COLDBLATT, ALLEN HUNTER JAMES B. ALLAN, and some others, about ten or twelve in all. Of these parties BERCMAN, LYON, and the two COLDBLATTS were leaders in the Communiet Party in the Los Angelee area. He etated that BERCMAN stayed in Ruseia about two years. The others returned at the end of one year. He further stated that after RERG-MAN returned from Russia he lectured at open forums, dinners, small community forums, discussion clubs, all of which were very pro-Soviet and pro-Communist. He stated that HERCMAN carried on thie activity until about one year ago when he became inactive. He also etated that BERGMAN is a close associate of NORA HELLCREN and her hueband, GEORGE HELLCREN, and that BERGMAN has made hie headquarters at the HELLGREN home eince 1933. [()

NORA HELLGREN. Source M has informed the Loe Angeles Bureau Office that NORA HELLGREN is an outstanding member of the Communist Party; that she was born in Penneylvania and went to Europe as a social worker; that she was also on the Ford Peace Ship Miceion which went to Europe during the World War; that later she became the English eccretary to CHICHERIN, the first foreign commissar in the Soviet Union. Source stated that she is very familiar with Russian affairs; that she is one of the old trusted members of the Communist Party in Hollywood; that she is about 58 years of age at the present time. He stated that her husband, GEORGE HELLGREN, was born in Chicago, Illinois of Swedish parentage; that GEORGE HELLGREN is about forty years of age and is the credit executive at the Twentieth Century Fox Studios; that he is also the credit adviser of the Motion Picture Cooperative Buyers Guild. He stated that it is his belief and understanding that GEORGE HELLGREN is not a member of the Communist Party, but that he supports everything that NORA

CONTUCHTIAL

STEPPEHTAL-

HELLGREN believee in and follows the Communist Party line and is just as enthusiaetic about Communism as NORA HELLGREN is, but it is believed that he has never been accepted as a member of the Communist Party.

WILLERED W. LYON. [Source N has informed that LYON was born in New Jersey and is about 45 to 48 years of age; that he was active in liberal and discussion groupe during the UPTON SINCLAIR campaign for Governor of California in 1934; that LYON is a high precision mechanic and an expert on motion picture cameras. Source stated that LYON was employed in 1934 by the Mitchell Camera Company, manufacturers of motion picture cameras; that he organized the men in that plant and brought them into the M.P.W.I.U. Source stated that in 1936 he was selected by the representatives of the Sovist government to go to Russia and work as a motion picture mechanic; that LYON stayed in Russia about nine months and when he came back to this country has became active in the union organization in the C.I.O. Rubber Workers Union. He stated that LYON was radical for years but was not a Communist until he came back from Russia in 1937, at which time it was reported that he joined the Communist Party and had been made a member of the Section Committee of the Communist Party in Los Angeles. Source stated that it was also reported that he went to Salt Lake City more than a year ago and that it has had no connection with the Communist Party in the last two years. been further reported that he has dropped out of Communism completely and has ING was born in the United States and is approximately forty years of age; that she was a reader in the studios and became secretary of the M.P.W.I.U. He stated that when the M.P.W.I.U. was dissolved, she became an enthusiastic member of the Motion Picture Democratic Committee and was married to STANLEY ROGERS, an art director. He stated that she is a reader in the studios at the present time. He further stated that she wrote articles for "Black and White" in 1939, a publication put out by the Young Communists League. He further stated that she was a member of the League of American Writers and very active at the Hollywood Writers School. He stated that she is a very close friend and associate of DON CORDON, a reader at Paramount, and a very active regember and supporter of the Communist Party. He stated that her husband, STANLEY ROGERS, is a sconsor of the National Federation for Constitutional Liberties. Source further stated that ROGERS is also a member of the executive board of the Motion Picture Cooperative Buyers Guild.

ETTORE CONTINI. Source P has stated that CONTINI, the treasurer of the M.P.W.I.U., was a reader at the Universal Studios and a close friend of MIIDRED FLEMING and DON CORDON. He etated that in 1933 and 1934 CONTINI was a member of the Young Communiste League; that he was appointed a delegate from the M.P.W.I.U. to the American Youth Congress which met in Los Angeles early in 1934. He further stated that CONTINI became a Civil Service employee in the Los Angeles County Sheriff's Office as a stenographer or clark in 1935 and that he is still employed in the Sheriff's Office. Source P stated that it is believed that CONTINI has not engaged in any Communist Party activity since he has been in the Sheriff's Office.

- 27 -

CONFIDENTIAL

H. G. WOLF. Source Q has stated that WOLF was born at Covington, Kentucky in 1882, that he was engaged in the theatrical businese from about 1901 to about 1924 at which time he came to Hollywood and worked in the Hollywood studies until about 1933. Source stated that WOLF became the organiser of the M.P.W.I.U. January 1, 1934 and continued as organiser until 1936 at which time the union was dissolved. Source further stated that WOLF became a member of the Communist Party about November, 1933 and left the Communist Party the latter part of 1935; that from 1935 to date he has been employed as a utility worker in Hollywood and is a member of local 724 of the Utility Workers Union, A.F. of L., Hollywood.

BD M. GIBERT. Source R has advised that GIBERT was born in West Virginia and is about 45 years of age; that he is at present on the executive board of the M.P.W.I.U. Source has etated that by profession GIERRT is a set designer or draftsman and that he is now employed in various etudios in Hollywood. He etated that in 1941 GIERRT was the President of the set designers guild, which is affiliated with the A.F. of L., a studio union. Source has further etated that he has been a member of the Communist Party since 1933 and has held many Communist Party fraction meetings at his home and has been otherwise very active in the Communist Party affairs; that he is a real fanatic on the subject of Communism. Source further etated that in 1935 GIERRT was the representative of the top fraction of the Communist Party to the Labor Commission of the Communist Party for the city of Loe Angeles; that he was a delegate to the Conference of Studio Unions and a close associate of HERRERT K. SORRELL, and that he is and has been for a long time a number of the Motion Picture Democratic Committee (%)

TRWIN P. HENTSCHEL. Source S has advised that HENTSCHEL was born in Montana and that he is about 38 years of age; that he is an iron worker or prop maker and is regularly employed at the Hollywood studios. Source stated that HENTSCHEL is a member of local 44, I.A.T.S.S. in Hollywood; that he was a member of the executive board, M.P.W.I.U. and has been a member of the Communist Party since 1934. Source stated that evidence of his membership in the Communist Party and his activities in the Communist Party is contained in correspondence between HOY HUDSON, a member of the Communist Party in New York City and the leading Communist in trads union work in the Party and JEFF KIERE, the leading Communist in Hollywood trade union work at that time. (This information is contained in Exhibits No. 1 and 2 which will be attached to this report.

CONFIDENTIAL

DON CORDON. Source T has informed Agent that the Communist Party name of DON CORDON is JOHN SHERWOOD and that he was born in the state of Connecticut and is about 46 years of age. Source has stated that from 1934 to 1936 CORDON was a member of the executive board of the M.P.W.I.U. He further stated that CORDON has been a member of the Communist Party since 1936; that in 1936 he solicited Source to become a member of the Communist Party. Source further advised that CORDON is at the head of the reading department of Paramount Studios at the present time. Ha further stated that CORDON is a member of the League of American Writers and that he has taught at the Writers School. He also stated that CORDON had contributed articles to the magazina "Black and Thite" published by the Young Communists League and managed by WILL ROCERS, JR., and that he was also connected with the "Clipper", the official organ of the League of American Writers.

JOHN LOOSCHEN. Source U has advised Agent that IOOSCHEN was born in California and that ha is about 47 years of age; that he is a member of Local 946 Studio Carpenters, A.F. of L. Sourca further advised that IOOSCHEN was a member of the executive board and sergeant-at-arms of the M.P.W.I.U. He further advised that in 1934 IOOSCHEN was a member of the Pen and Hemmer Club and that he joined the Communist Party in 1934 and with-drew about a year and a half later. Source stated, however, that IOOSCHEN is still sympathetic to the Communist party. He further stated that IOOSCHEN attended a meeting at the Embassy Auditorium about September, 1942 which meeting was for the benefit of the "People's World" and at which meeting MIKE QUIN, a "People's World" columnist, and JOHN PITTMAN, another "People'e World" columnist, were the principal epeakers. He further stated that ED ROBBIN, the Communist Party radio commentator, was the chairman of this meeting.

LOUIS HEIFETZ. Source V has informed that HEIFETZ was born in Boston, Massachusetts, and was a script writer, that he is at the present time a member of the Screen Triters Guild. Source stated that HEIFETT has never been a member of the Communist Party, that ha has been solicited on many occasions to join the Party, but he has never done so, but he always follows the Communist Party line specifically.

RUDOLPH KOHL. Source V has informed that K'HL is a member of Iocal 644 of the Studio Painters. He further advised that KOHL was a member of the executive board of the M.P.W.I.U. and was active in this union, having recruited more members into the Communiste than any one individual, Source V stated that KOHL has been a member of the Communist Party since 1934. He advised that KOHL was appointed a regional director of the Hollywood Studio organization campaign of the C.I.O. in 1934 by HARRY BRIDGES, at which time the C.I.O. was endeavoring to take over the studio unions and at that time the unions were all A.F. of L. or independent. Source stated that KOHL is still an active Communist and that he attended the National Convention of the Communist Party in 1939 as a delegate from California.

(1/(w))

HEIMER PEDERSON. Source W has advised the Los Angeles
Bureau Office that PEDERSON was born in Norway or Sweden and that he claims to be a naturalized citizen. Source stated that PEDERSON is an ex-Socialist; that he is a member of Local 946 of the Studio Carpenters, and that he is about sixty years of age at the present time. Source stated that PEDERSON was a member of the Communist Party in 1935 and 1936 and was active in Swedish clubs.

ARTHUR JOHNSON. Source X has informed Agent that JOHNSON was never a Communist; that he was definitely against the Communists. He stated that JOHNSON was working in the machine shop at Tschnicolor and that he was a member of the executive board of the M.P.W.I.U. He stated that JOHNSON saw that the M.P.W.I.U. was Communist controlled and he withdrew from the M.P.W.I.U. Source stated that he is at the present time a very active Technocrat.

BORIS COLDBLATT. Source I has informed the Loe Angelee Bureau Office that GOIDBLATT was born in Russia. He is about sixty years of age and claims to have been naturalized in New York City as soon as it was possible for him to become naturalized after his arrival in the United States. Source stated that GOIDBLATT claims to have taken part in the 1905 revolution in Russia. Source stated that he works at the present time as a studio carpenter and is a member of Carpenters Union 946. He further stated that 0010-BLATT is the father of SAM GOLDBLATT and LOUIS GOLDBLATT, outstanding Communist Party functionaries in California. Source stated that BORIS GOLDBLATT was a member of the executive board of the M.P.W.I.U. and made a trip to Russia in 1935 when the Soviet Government took over a group of Hollywood workers in the motion picture industry to participate in the Russian motion picture industry. Source stated that BORIS COLDBLATT is a staunch fellow traveller and follows the Communist Party line on all occasions, but he stated that BORIS GOIDBLATT has never been a member of the Communist Party. He stated that COLDBLATT has confined his activities to the I.C.O.R.

SAM COIDBLATT. Source Z has informed Agent that SAM COIDBLATT was born in the United States. He also claims that his father, BORIS COIDBLATT, was naturalized in New York City. Source stated that SAM COIDBLATT is a member of Local 683, Laboratory Technicians, I.A.T.S.E., Hollywood. He also stated that SAM COIDBLATT was a member of the executive board of the M.P.W.I.U. and was a member of and a leader in the Young Communists League in 1934, 1935 and 1936. Source stated that SAM COIDBLATT is now a member of the Communist Party under the name of TED MILLER; that he is extremely active in Hollywood union matters serving the Communist Party and has supported various front organisations and the Motion Picture Democratic Committee.

LOUIS COLDBLATT. Source Z has further advised that LOUIS COLDBLATT, a brother of SAM and son of BORIS, has not been active in the motion picture field, but that he has been the secretary of the State C.I.O. Industrial Union Council at San Francisco for several years and very active in Communist affairs throughout the state, and that he left Loe Angeles in March, 1942 and the reason is that he is now in Chicago, Illinois, carrying on C.I.O. organizational work.

LINE NOW CHANGES (1935)

Source 2-A has informed the Los Angelee Eureau Office that in April, 1935, instructions were sent out by the Central Committee of the Communist Party that the Party line had changed and that all independent unions were to be liquidated and their members sent into the A.F. of L. unions with the object of capturing the A.F. of L. This policy was followed by the M.P.W.I.U. In a short time this union took in a large number of members and was well on the way to becoming the leading union in Hollywood. In a short time the Communists in the union and their fellow travellers began to deaert and go over into the various locals of the A.F. of L. All of these A.F. of L. locals were mere shells.

In order to bring about the dissolution of the M.P.W.I.U. the Communiats used every trick of sabotage known, such as circulating rumors that it was a company union and advising all workers to stay away from it, although they themselves had built it.

[Source stated that as a result of this the M.P.W.I.U. gradually went out of existence and in February, 1936 it was officially dissolved.]

and prepared the way which has enabled the Communist Party to gain control eyer six A.F. of L. labor unions in the Hollywood motion picture field, the number of workers in which was approximately 8,000. In addition to these six A.F. of L. labor unions, the Communist Party has gained control over six independent labor unions which were called guilds and which had approximately 2,000 members. Source stated that in addition to the A.F. of L. labor unions and the independent guilds referred to herein, there were approximately 25 other labor organizations in the motion picture industry in Hollywood with an approximate membership of 18,000 to 20,000. These 25 guilds and unions represented their members for the purpose of collective bargaining. The Communist Party did not completely control these groups but it was, incidentally, waging a campaign to take over these groups and force them into the Communist Party line for the benefit of the Communist Party line for the benefit of the Communist Party

Source stated that this period of the life of the M.P. W.I.U. was the period during which the Communist Party of the United States advocated the changing in their program by revolutionary methods. The slogan during that period was that the American people must adopt "the revolutionary way out of the crisis."

Source stated further that this was the period of acute depression in the United States which the Communist Party was exploiting for the purpose of fomenting revolution and before the change in the Communist Party line early in 1936 which ushered in what was called:

"THE POPULAR FRONT"

At this time the position which the Communist Party took was that the New Deal was the first step toward Fascism and that President ROOSEVELT was setting himself up as a dictator, and that this was the last Presidential election we would see.

Source stated that there was a meeting held in the Holly-wood Conservatory of Music about June, 1934 under the auspices of the M.P.W. I.U., at which meeting MAURICE SUGAR from Detroit, Michigan, was the principal speaker. He stated that SUGAR was brought to the Pacific Coast by the John Reed Club of Hollywood, which afterward became the League of American Writers, Hollywood Chapter, and affiliated with the International Union of Revolutionary Writers, set up in Kharkov, Russia in November 1930. (V)

Source stated that at thie meeting MAURICE SUGAR attacked the ROOSEVELT Administration and New Deal, saying:

"This is the beginning of fascism in America; that ROOSEVELT was the coming dictator; and the N.R.A. was the 'National Run-Around'".

Source stated that the whole trend of SUGAR'S address was that no confidence could be placed in democracy and democratic principles as practiced in the United States and that the only colution was the establishment of "a workers' government".

Source further stated that the John Reed Club which brought SUGAR to Hollywood, was a Communist front organization, the dominant figure of which was HARRY CARLISLE, born in America, a member of the Communist Party and a leading Communist in Southern California at that time. He etated that other members active in the John Reed Club at that time weren't

HEIMER BERGMAN - Communist Party functionary John HOWARD LAWSON - Dominant Communist in Los Angeles area

NEIL BRANT - member and organizer for the U.E.R.M.W.A. (It is reported that BRANT has a Government job in Washington at the present time) DÁVIDA FRANCHI (D. A. COREY) - A member of the Communist Party and in 1936 the organizer for the Hollywood Section of the Communist Party. LAWRENCE ROSS (LAWRENCE ROSENFELD) - Section Secretary of the Communist Party in Los Angeles. MELVINA GOODMAN - A member of the Communist Party. DR. V. A. K. TASHJIAN - Chairman of the Control Commission of the Communist Party in Los Angelss. DUDLEY NICHOLS - Fellow traveller, writer and director. NORA HELLCREN - A high Communist Party functionary. MAYER BAYLIN - A member of the Section Committee of the Communist Party in Los Angeles. (Hs was ordered deported seven or eight years ago but so far as is known he has not been deported.)

Source 2-A further stated that during the spring of 1934 CAREY McWILLIAMS spoke at a M.P.W.I.U. mesting; that McWILLIAMS is at present the Director of the Housing and Immigration in the Governor OISON Administration, and is a sponsor for many Communist front organizations such as the American Peacs Mobilization, National Federation for Civil Liberties, National Lawyers Guild, League of American Writers, National Nagro Congress, Hollywood Anti-Nazi League, Hollywood Leagus for Democratic Action, Motion Picture Democratic Committee, American Civil Liberties Union, International Labor Defense, and many others. (The first official act of Governor EARL WARREN was the removal of CAREY McWILLIAMS from office.)

The same source further stated that JACK M. WEATHERWAX spoke at a meeting sponsored by the M.P.W.I.U. at the Vine Street School. His subject was the "Breakdown of Capitalism and the Need for A Workers Covernment". Source stated that WEATHERWAX has been exposed by the JACK TENNEY Legislative Investigating Committee of the California State Legislature, as a member of the District Committee of the Communist Party in California.

Source further stated that in the spring of 1935 orders came down from the Central Committee of the Communist Party of the U.S.A. that all independent unions should be "liquidated" and that the Communists and their influence should be transferred over into the established A.F. of L. unions and where there were no A.F. of L. unions already established, it should be the duty of all Communists to organize such workers under the A.F. of L. (A.U.)

- 33 -

Immediately upon receipt of these instructions the Communist leadership of the M.P.W.I.U. went over into the various A.F. of L. locals in Hollywood and began to work in those unions. (It should be understood that at the time that the M.P.W.I.U. was organized there were a great many legitimate local A.F. of L. unions covering a great part of the motion picture industry in Hollywood, but due to a disastrous strike called by the I.A.T.S.E. in 1933 these unions were deserted by their membership and had become mere shells.)

EFFORTS OF C.I.O. TO INFILTRATE THE STUDIO UNIONS

Source 2-A has informed agent that at the time of the dissolution of the M.P.W.I.U. in February, 1936, there had already started a split in the A.F. of L. JOHN L. LENIS, who at that time was preaching the dictrine of industrial unionism, had already early in 1936 split away from the A.F. of L. and formed the Committee for Industrial Organization. The theory of industrial unionism is basic in the Communist program and its sympathies were for the C.I.O. in preference to the craft unionism of the A.F. of L. Source stated that at that time the Communists had already deserted the M.P.W.I.U. and used their influence to re-build the already existing A.F. of L. craft unions in Hollywood. They found themselves building up those craft unions when sacretly they were in favor of the C.I.O., therefore the only way out of this anomalous position was to take over the craft unions of Hollywood as a body, if possible, and affiliate them with the C.I.O.

The same source further stated that although there are many other unions in the studies, the I.A.T.S.E. group is dominant. This alliance by no means has the majority of workers under its jurisdiction, but it does have jurisdiction over the "key" crafts, cameramen, laboratory workers, sound men, the majority of electricians, grips, property men, projectors, prop makers, etc. He stated that in addition to this it has jurisdiction over the projectors in the motion pictures everywhere and it is this latter fact that makes this alliance the strongest union structure in the industry.

Source stated that the I.A.T.S.E., being the strongest unit in the industry, the Communists began their attacks upon this group. They reasoned that if they could capture the I.A.T.S.E. the rest would be easy.

Source further stated that in the fall of 1937 HARRY BRIDGES, regional director of the C.I.O., on the West Coast, appointed MIDOLPH KOHL, a member of the Communist Party in Hollywood, as regional director for the Hollywood Section. At the time he was appointed KOHL was a member and had at one time been the business representative of Local 644, Studio Painters, A.F. of L. This local was not a unityin the I.A.T.S.E.

KOHL'S duties were to direct the campaign to take over the I.A.T.S.E. into the C.I.O. KOHL at the time was a member of the A.F. of L. union.

COMMITTEE OF MOTION PICTURE ARTS AND CRAFTS (C.O.M.P.A.C.)

Source 2-B has stated that about December, 1937 another organization, the Committee of Motion Picture Arts and Crafts (C.O.M.P.A.C.) was set up in the motion picture industry which was conceived and dominated in the usual Communist Party manner. The purpose of this organisation was to draw the workers of every typs and kind in the studios, using the prevailing acute unemployment problem as a bass. Although ite activities were presumably directed towards solving the unemployment problem by means of division of work and the creation of jobs and other means, in reality it was a scheme to make contacts and propagandise workers along the lines of the Communist Party, and particularly to create sympathy for the C.I.O.A W

Source stated that at first meetings of the heads of this group outright opposition to the I.A.T.S.E. was expressed and plans were deviced to weaken the influence of the I.A.T.S.E. This organization was working in conjunction with the attempt of the C.I.O. to enter Hollywood. RUDOLPH KOHL, the appointee of HAPRY BRIDGES heretofore mentioned, was leader in all of its activities. JEFF KIBRE, a well known Communist leader mentioned in connection with this same attempt, was also active.

Source further stated that the controlling individuals in this organization were:

> JACK HOLEN, Chairman, a member of Painters Union #644. (He is now dead)

CHARLOTTE DARLING was secretary.

ED M. GILBERT, whose Communist Party connections and activities have been set out above.

LIONEL STANDER, who in 1934 introduced himself to the M.P.W.I.U. as a member of the Communist Party and who was active in the Hollywood Anti-Nazi League, American League for Peace & Democracy, and North American Aid to Spanish Democracy.

CEORGE E. RODLE, fellow travellar who is a member of the National Lawyers Guild and a follower of the Communiet Party line. (at present Assistant Director of the Man Power Commission on the Pacific Coast)

LILLIAN HEILIAN, member of the League of American Writers, American Peacs Mobilization who sent the call of the Fourth Writers Congress of the League of American Writers and a fanatical follower of the C.P. line

HERERT BIBERMAN, National Vice-President of the American Peace
Mobilization and director of the Southern California American Peace Mobilization; member of the Hollywood Anti-Nazi League,
League for Peace and Democracy, Motion Picture Democratic Committee who personally picketed the White House with the American Peace Mobilization two days before HITIER attacked STALIN on June 22, 1941. BIRERMAN is a member of the League of American Writers and has appeared on a very large number of programs.
He has followed the Communist Party line unhesitatingly.

IRMIN P. HENTSCHEL, whose record appears supra-

HERBERT K. SORRELL, business representative of the Studio Painters Union No. 644, President of the Conference of Studio Guilds, expresident of the California Stats Non-Partisan League, a member of the Communist Party as exemplified by Communist Party Membership Book for 1938 No. 60622, which gives his Communist Party name as HERBERT STEWART, and the minutes of the Section Committee; also the minutes of the Section Committee of the Communist Party for 1938 show that he was a member of the Communist Party in 1938.

Professor MOMINI T. BYRNE of Los Angeles City College, and a member of the Hollywood Anti-Nazi League. BYRNE conducted the Hollywood Peace Forum, the organization which took the place of the Hollywood Anti-Nazi League. Source stated that BYRNE also spoke before many forums, churches, schools, and clubs which follow the Communist Party line and his meetings were always advertised in the "New Masses" and over a period of eight or ten weeks in 1939 and 1940.

Source further stated that the C.O.M.P.A.C. remained in existence only eight or nine months, during which time it acted as a transmission belt for the Communist Party, drawing studio workers into such political setups as the Motion Picture Democratic Committee, American League for Peace and Democracy, Hollywood Anti-Nazi League, and the laying of the foundation for the organization which was to take its place, the United Studio Technicians Guild (U.S.T.G.).

Source further stated that the C.O.M.P.A.C. died a natural death about September 1, 1938.

THIRTY-FOURTH CONVENTION OF THE I.A.T.S.E., CLEVELAND, OHIO JUNE 6 to 9, 1938

Source 2-C has stated that RUDOLPH KOHL, who had been appointed regional director of the C.I.O. for Hollywood by HARRY BRIDGES, failed in his efforts to handle the situation favorable to the Communist Party. Source stated that KOHL made no progress toward winning the studie workers over to the C.I.O.; that a few months before the C.O.M.P.A.C. went out of existence JEFF KIERE appeared on the scene. During that time KIERE became a member of the I.A.T.S.E. and worked about one month in the Property Department. He stated that KIERE began to take part in union activities and made speeches to the various unions and within about thirty days he emerged as the adviser to the executive board of Local No. 37, I.A.T.S.E., which local had a memborship of approximately 3500.

WIRE also became the leader and director of what was called "The I.A.T.S.E. Progressives". Source etated that the term "Progressives" is one that is used by Communists when working in trade unions to conceal their real affiliations. KIBRE then used his influence, with the support of other Communists, to work in the international convention of the I.A.T.S.E. held in Louisville, Kentucky from June 3 to 6, 1940. Photographic copies of letters which appeared in the record of the convention proceedings is attached hereto as Exhibit No. 1. These letters show the Communist activity directed by KIBRE. This exhibit also shows the connection with and instructions from ROY HUDSON, a member of the Central Executive Committee of the Communist Party, U.S.A., and directing head for all trade union work of the Communist Party in the United States. (See Exhibit No. 1, Page 8).

Source etated that further evidence of KIBRE'S connections with the Central Committee of the Communist Party in New York is shown in KIBRE'S letters to BOB REED (Exhibit 1, Page 3) in which KIBRE solicited the advice of JACK SATCHEL, a member of the Central Committee of the Communist Farty, U.S.A.

Source stated that further connections of KIBRE with the District Committee No. 13 of the Communist Party is shown in a copy of a letter to MALTER LANTER, State Trade Union Director of the Communist Party for California. (Exhibit No. 1, Page 9).

Further connections of KIRRE with the Communist Party are shown in the copy of his letter to LOUIS GOLDWIATT, a member of the District Committee of the Communist Party and State Secretary of the C.I.O. at San Francisco at that time. (Exhibit No.-1, pages 4 and 5)

Further connections of KIERE with Communist Party functionaries are shown in a letter from MAC MEISS, Acting State Assistant Secretary of the Communist Party in Ohio to ROY HUDSON, above mentioned. (Exhibit No. 1, pages 7 and 8)

Further evidence of such connections of KIBRE with the Communist Party, U.S.A. is shown in the affidavit of EZRA F. CHASE, a member of the Communist Party in Ios Angeles at that time who stated under oath that "JEFF KIBRE has been for some years past a member of the Communist Party... and was assigned to "special" work in the studio unions. More specifically, the I.A.T.S.E. Local No. 37 and to the organizing of special studio units of the Communist Party of the U.S.A." (Exhibit No. 1, Page 12)

Source 2-C further stated that due to the exposure of the activities of KIBPE and IMTEN P. HENTSCHEL at the Cleveland Convention in 1938, when their connections with HARRY BRIDGES were exposed (Exhibit No. 2, Pages 7, 8 and 9) their efforts failed and as a result of this failure the international officers of the I.A.T.S.E., GEORGE E. BROWNE, President, and WILLIAM BIOFF, BROWNE'S West Coast representative, retained control of the Hollywood locals of the I.A.T.S.E. This control exercised by BROWNE and BIOFF over the I.A.T.S.E. locals had been established on January 2, 1936 when a closed shop agreement and full recognition of the I.A.T.S.E. was entered into by the Hotion Picture Producers Association and I.A.T.S.E., which agreement is still in effect.

At this juncture it must be stated that BROWNE and BIOFF have been convicted on a charge of extortion at New York City in Federal Court in which the charges alleged that they had obtained several hundred thousand dollars from the motion picture producers under threats of calling strikes, and are now serving long sentences in Federal prison, and other charges are still pending against them.

The I.A.T.S.E. as the bargaining agency for its members and the Motion Picture Producers Association maintain the same relations as were set up in 1936.

I.A.T.S.E. IOCALS NOW IN HOLLY, WOOD

Source 2-D has informed Agent that immediately following the victory of the I.A.T.S.E. in the September 20, 1939 election, Local No. 37 was broken up into seven separate locals and Local 37 went out of existence.

Source has further stated that the seven locals which were formed from the former membership of local 37 are the following, giving the approximate membership:

No. 1, Affiliated Property Machinists No. 44; membership 1,500.

No. 2. Motion Picture Studio Grips No. 80; membership 1,700.

No. 3. Studio Set Electricians 728; membership 1,100.

No. 4. Studio Projectionists No. 165; membership 500.

No. 5. Studio Laborers and Utility Workers No. 727; membership 1,000.

No. 6. Make up Artista No. 706; membership 1,000.

No. 7. Motion Picture Costumers No. 705; membership 1200.

Source further stated that separate and distinct from Local No. 37 there are the following three I.A.T.S.E. locals which had been automous since their formation in 1929 and 1930 and were never et any time a part of Local No. 37, which was the first I.A.T.S.E. local in Hollywood, going back to about 1912. They are the following:

No. 1. International Photographers Local 659; 650 members.

No. 2. Sound Technicians Local No. 695; 1,000 members.

No. 3. Laboratory Technicians Local No. 683; 1,350 members.

Source further stated that after the breaking up of Local -No. 37 I.A.T.S.E. into seven units and the failure of KIERE and the Communists to capture these unions, they switched their tactics and began setting up an independent organization which was to be a bridge over which the studio workers could cross into the C.I.O. The name of this organization was the UNITED STUDIO TECHNICIANS GUILD. (U.S.T.G.)

UNITED STUDIO TECHNICIANS CUILD (U.S.T.C.)

Source 2-E has stated that due to the failure of the Communists to gain control of the Hollywood locals of the I.A.T.S.E. by action of the Netional Convention at Cleveland, it became necessary to change tactics. Within sixty days after the Cleveland Convention, June 6-9, 1938, the Communists began setting up an organization under the leadership of JEFF KIERE which they called the United Studio Technicians Guild. Source stated that although JEFF KIERE directed and practically controlled the U.S.T.G. he denied membership in this organization and throughout the life of this group he retained his membership in Local 37 of the I.A.T.S.E.

Source further stated that the purpose of the U.S.T.G. was to take in all members of the I.A.T.S.E. locals in Hollywood and have the U.S.T.G. supplant the I.A.T.S.E., the ultimate object being to affiliate the U.S.T.G. with the C.I.O. under HARRY BRIDGES. ource further stated that the campaign began in September 1938. It had the support of all Communist influence in Southern California. Source etated that the investigation of BROWNE and BIOFF and the ensuing publicity made it possible for the leaders of the U.S.T.G. and those who were sympathetic to meet the members of I.A.T.S.E. locals and point out to them that they were controlled by a "bunch of racketeers and gangeters" and that the only way to get honest unionism was to join the U.S.T.G. Source stated that the organization grew with amazing rapidity and within a period of nine months the membership had reached approximately 2200. Aside from this there were thousands of others who were sympathetic but were not members of the I.A.T.S.E. He stated that at this particular time the U.S.T.G. was well on the way to taking over the Hollywood unions and would have succeeded had it not been that the I.A.T.S.E. had secured and made public the letters and communications which showed that the U.S.T.G. was a Communist directed movement, that KIBRE was a member of the Communist Party, that he was the stooge of HARRY BRIDGES, and that he was taking orders from the top structure of the Communist Party represented by ROY HUDSON of the Central Executive Committee of the Communist Party, U.S.A. (See exhibits No. 1 and 2 attached hereto.)

Source etated that further evidence of Communist control of this group was in the activities of the following individuals who were members of the executive board of U.S.T.G.:

SAM COLDBLATT. Source 2-F stated that COLDBLATT was a member of the Laboratory workers at Fox Studios and that he is a member of the Communist Party; that GOLDBLATT was formerly a member of the Young Communists League; that he made a trip to the Soviet Union and worked there for about a year in motion pictures; that he is a close associate of NORVAL CRUTCHER and worke with CRUTCHER; that his father, BORIS COLDBLATT, was in Russia with him; that his father was born in Russia; further that his brother LOUIS GOLDBLATT, the right hand man of HARRY BRIDGES, has a long Communiet Party record under the name of TED MILLER and that LOUIS COLDBLATT worked with JETF KIBRE in his efforts to capture the studio unions (a)

JOSEPH KRONEBERGER. Source 2-G has stated that KRONE-BERGER is a member of the Communist Party under the name of JERRY BROWN; that he was active in the Motion Picture Democratic Committee. He was also active in the Laborers Non-Partisan League and Hollywood Anti-Nazi League and other Communist front organizations.

JUNIUS NIEISON. Source 2-H has informed that he is well acquainted with NIEISON and that to hie personal knowledge he knows that NIEISON was charged with Communist activity in the A.F. of L. union and that he was expelled from Ioeal No. 724 of the Studio Utility Workers on the charge that he was active in the Communist Party (a)

CONFIDENTIAL

ISADOR BESBECK. Source 2-I has stated that BESBECK was well known to him personally and that he knows that BESBECK was charged with Communist activity in local No. 37 of the I.A.T.S.E. in the latter part of September, 1939 and that he was expelled from that union on that charge.

J. H. MacISAACS. Source 2-J stated that to his personal knowledge he is a member of Hollywood labor unions, that MacISAACS was charged with Communist activity before Local No. 37 of the I.A.T.S.E. and that he was expelled from that union in the latter part of September, 1939 on said charge.

Source 2-K reported the following to the Los Angeles Bureau Office: that the following parties were members of the executive committee of the U.S.T.G. and so far as known were not Communists although they were active followers of JEFF KIERS of the Communist Party line.

LOUIS KRIEGER
GEORGE H. DAVIS
CHARLES G. GUTHRIE
CHARLES W. ROSSHERMAN LIPNEY
ROWARD J. ROBERTSON, Chairman of UCTG.

Source further stated that about the first of August, 1939 ALEX SAUNDERS, who had been the secretary of the U.S.T.G. from its inception, made affidavit relative to the control of the U.S.T.G. by HARRY BRIDGES. This affidavit was filed with the National Labor Relations Board of the Los Angeles section and has to do with the election that was held on September 20, 1939 to determine the bargaining agency for the U.S.T.G. election. Source stated that it was shown that he was a Canadian and that he later returned to Canada and in June, 1940 he was reported as being in the Canadian Army. Source stated further that his picture appeared with HARPY ENIDGEN in some paper at the time. The paper is not known but it probably was the "People's Morld".

EDMARD HEIM. Source 2-L has stated that HEIN was a member of Local 37 of the I.A.T.S.D. and that he succeeded SAUNDEMS and was made "office manager". Source further stated that HEIN remained in that position for a period of two weeks only, at which time he resigned and made an affidavit, the mestier part of which is as follows:

"During the two weeks I worked there I became convinced of the fact that the U.S.T.G. was not a true democratic union organised by and for the best interests of its members, but on the contrary was dominated and controlled by CHARLES J. KATZ, an attorney, and JEFF KIERF both non-members of the U.S.T.G., and by SAM COIDELATT and a few personally interested other parties whom I do not know."

CONFIDENTIA

Source stated that the above affidavit was signed August 24, 1939 before HILTON TAYLOR, a notary public.

Source further stated that HEIN testified before the TENNEY Investigating Committee that the office was deluged with Communist propaganda such as the "People's World" and Communist inspired leaflete.

Source further stated that at a hearing of the JACK TENNEY Committee, HEIN teetified that during his term as office manager of the U.S.T.G. the office was deluged with Communist pamphlets, leaflets, magazinee and newspapers and in his opinion the organization was under the control of the Communists (The Communist connection of JEFF KIBRE has been set out above).

Source stated with respect to CHARLES J. KATZ that he is one of the attorneys for the Communist Party and one of the attorneys for HARRY ERIDCES; that he was formerly associated with LEO GALLACHER, leading Communist Party attorney; that KATZ is also a member of the National Lawyers Child, the Hollywood Anti-Nazi League, the League for Peace and Democracy, the Motion Picture Cooperative Buyers Guild, the North American Committee to Aid Spanish Democracy, the Motion Picture Democratic Committee, the National Federation for Constitutional Liberties, and others. Source further stated that the exposure of the above mentioned facts turned the tide away from Communist influence and the great majority of members of the U.S.T.G. recognized it as a Communist controlled union and would have nothing further to do with it.

Source further stated that the U.S.T.G. before the communications above mentioned were published, feeling that the situation was well in hand had already called for a National Labor Relations Board election. He stated that the election was held on September 20, 1939 and undoubtedly because of the exposure of Communist influence over the U.S.T.G. it lost the election by a two to one vote. He further stated that if the U.S.T.G. had been successful in this election it would have meant that eventually the C.I.O. would have gained control of all of the labor unions if Hollywood and of the entire motion picture and theatrical business because he stated that the I.A.T.S.E. is the key union organization in this industry, that the I.A.T.S.E. is still an international group of unions within the A.F. of L. and has approximately 80,000 members in the United States and Canada.

Source further stated that JEFF KIBRE, having been exposed a second time as working in the interests of the Communist Party, resigned as adviser to the executive board of Local No. 37, I.A.T.S.E. in Hollywood and left that field. He stated that the next that he heard of KIBRE that he was the organizer of the Fishermen's Union at San Pedro, California in June, 1941. He further stated that he is informed that KIBRE at the stated that the stated that he is informed that KIBRE at the stated that he is informed that KIBRE at the stated that he is informed that the stated that t the present time is the international representative of the Fishermen's Union - C.I.O. on the Pacific Coast.

CONFIDENTIAL

Source further stated that the Communists, having failed to capture the Hollywood local of the I.A.T.S.E. by the device of setting up the U.S.T.G. as a separate union, they went back into their own various locals apparently as good members. He stated that there were a few expulsions by the I.A.T.S.E. of some of the leaders of the U.S.T.G., but these were few. He stated that the great majority were taken back into the various unions and that the past was forgotten.

STUDIO PAINTERS LOCAL NO. 644

[Source 2-M has reported that Local 644 of the Studio Painters gained a foothold in the studios in the early twenties. Source stated that this union had a precarious existence from its inception until about 1933 when as a result of a strike in that year its membership followed the other studio workers in desertion of the A.F. of L.

Source further stated that when the M.P.W.I.U. was formed in 1934, which organization as we have seen above was the first Communist controlled union in the studios, it laid the foundation for the Communist activity which followed. Source stated that the Painters came into the M.P.W.I.U. in large numbers; that RUDOLP W. KOHI, who was not a member of the Communist Party at that time but who about six months later joined the Communist Party, had instituted a membership drive among the Painters and drew into the H.P.W.I.U. several hundred of the painters. Source further stated that while they were members of this union over a period of about a year, many of them became thoroughly indoctrinated with Communist ideas.

Source further stated that when the Communist Party line was changed in the apring of 1935 and the independent unions, of which the M.P.W.I.U. was one, were to be liquidated, RUDOLPH W. KOHL left the M.P.W.I.U. Find influenced all painters to do likewise.

Source stated that as a consequence of this order the painters went over into Iocal 644 almost in a body. He further stated that about this time the following incident occurred: KOHL recruited about 120 members into the M.P.W.I.U. in a period of about ten days; that within one week after he had done this he received orders from GEORGE MAURER, in charge of the Labor Commission of the Communist Party in the Loe Angeles Section, that the Farty line had been changed and informed them that he had been advised that he must not recruit any more members of M.P.W.I.U. but that he must go back into the A.F. of L. and build up that union. Source etated that

EANFIREMENT

CONFIDENTIA

KOHL by this time having become a good Communist Party member, promptly obeyed; that he went over to the Studio Painters Local No. 644, leaving the other painters behind in the M.P.W.I.U. Source stated that this caused a lot of confusion but eventually KOHL convinced them that his leaving them temporarily was for the best interests of the workers and after a short period he succeeded in justifying his action by getting them over on his side again (\text{U}(U))

Source etated that KOHL, who was recognized as a sort of leader among his group, began actively working to build up local 644; that he eucceeded and shortly thereafter he was elected Business Representative of that union and held the position for several years. Source further stated that during this time due to KOHL'S influence this union became the leading Communist dominated group in the Hollywood studies. He further stated that it has continued to be controlled by the Communist elements up to the present time. Source further stated that KOHL continued to be the leader of this union until the painters strike in 1936 at which time HERBERT K. SORRELL by taking an extremely active part in the strike, emerged as the strong figure in that union. Source further stated that in 1937 SORRELL supplanted KOHL in the leadership of this union (C)(w)

Source stated that KOHL in the fall of 1937 was appointed by HARRY BRIDGES as regional director for the C.I.O. in the Hollywood studios. He stated that his efforts in that capacity failed and the C.I.O. attempt failed so KOHL went back to work in the studios as a painter and KOHL was succeeded by JEFF KIBRE and the U.S.T.G. in the next attempt of the Communist Party to take over as herefore related.

HERBERT K. SORRELL

Source 2-N has informed the Los Angeles Eureau Office that SORRELL having supplanted KOHL as the leader of Painters 644 and as this union was spearhead of Communist penetration, having been developed out of the M.P.W.I.U., he, SORRELL, became the leader of the Communist factions in the Hollywood unions.

Source stated that while SORREIL was exercising this authority the Motion Picture Producers Association (M.P.P.A.) represented by their labor committee man, PAT CASEY, saw in SORREIL and his leadership an opportunity to develop another labor structure within the A.F. of L. which would contest the power and authority of the I.A.T.S.E. as the I.A.T.S.E. was still under the same leadership of BHOWNE and BIOFF.

Source further stated that CASEY favored SORRELL in all negotiations regarding labor to such an extent that SORRELL could get almost anything he wanted from the M.P.P.A. Source stated that in these negotiatione SORRELL went outside the jurisdiction of his own union and managed to escure representations from other unions and secured with the halp of CASEY wages and working conditions that the regular business representatives of those unions could not secure for themselves.

Source stated that as a result of these favors at the hands of CASEY and the combined efforts of Communist sympathizers, SORREIL soon emerged as a leader of certain unions mentioned heretofore which leaned toward the Communist position.

Source further stated that the build-up of SORRELL at one time reached the stage where CASEY proposed to E. J. MANNIX, an executive of M.P.P.A. that SORRELL be set up as the labor czar in Hollywood to handle for the unions all their affairs. Source stated that CASEY had made the statement that SORRELL "was easy to do business with and better results could be obtained under such an arrangement." However this suggested arrangement was turned down by Mr. MANNIX and LOUIS B. MAYER, executives of the M.P.P.A. This was in the spring of 1941.

Source further stated that SORRELL was working at this time in conjunction with the Communist Party is borne out by his testimony before the TENNEY investigating committee of the State Legislature in Los Angeles when SORRELL stated that JACK MOORE, Secretary of the Communist Party in Los Angeles County, was in the habit of calling upon him in the union office and giving him directions for his union activities.

Source further stated that SORRELL having developed as a leader of those locals which had etrong Communist fractions in them, the next move was to set up an organization which would tie all of these locals into one body under the domination of SORRELL. In fall of 1941 the Conference of Studio Unions was formed.

CONFERENCE OF STUDIO UNIONS

Source 2-O has stated that this so-called "Conference of Studio Unions" is a small, compact group of delegates or representatives of a bloc of labor unions in the Hollywood motion picture industry which has been taken over and is now under control of the Communist Party operating through its members in those unions which have captured key positions (L)

In reality this "Conference of Studio Unions" is the organization set up in the Hollywood etudio labor groups to achieve trol and eteering committee to coordinate and direct Communications activities looking toward the taking over of all etudio workers and their unions into the Communiet Party orbit. It is the organization upon which the Communist Party relies for eventual complete domination of motion picture workers ()

The unions which have already been taken over and which are under Communist influence and which are represented by this conference are:

- (1) STUDIO PAINTER, LOCAL 644 of the International Brotherhood of Painters, Decorators and Paperhnagers of America.
- (2) Laboratory Technicians, Local 683, of the International Alliance of Theatrical Stage Employees.
- (3) SCREEN OFFICE EMPLOYEES GUILD, an affiliate of Studio Paintere, Local 644, above.
- (4) SCREEN CARTOONISTS GUILD, an affiliate of Studio Painters, Local 644, above.
- (5) SCREIN SET DESIGNERS GUILD, an affiliate of Studio Painters, Local 644, above.
- (6) STUDIO MACHINISTS, LOCAL 1185 of the International Association of Machinists.

All of the unions above named are affiliated through their international and national bodies with the American Federation of Labor. Each affiliated union must pay a per capita tax of five cents.

The membership of above groups is approximately eight thousand (8000).

The Conference of Studio Unions was set up at a specially called meeting of the Studio Painters Union on November 2, 1941.

The organization is governed by a President, Chairman, Vice-Chairman and Secretary-Treasurer. Each union body affiliated is represented by not more than three delegates, one of whom must be the business representative.

HERBERT K. SORREIL is president of the Conference of Studio Unions. Hs is also business representative of Studio Painters, Local 544.

CONFIDENTIAL

NORVAL D. CRUTCHER, is Chairman. He is also Secretary-Treasurer of Laboratory Technicians, Local 683.

D. T. WAYNE is Vice-Chairman. He is also business representative of Studio Machinists, Local 1185.

RESSELL L. MCKNIGHT is Secretary-Treasurer. He is also President of Laboratory Technicians, Local 683 and Editor of "FLASHES", the official publication of Local 683.

Other delegates or representatives composing the Conference are:

JOHN R. MARTIN, business representative of Laboratory Technicians, Local 683.

GLENN PRATT, business representative of Screen Office Employees Guild.

WILLIAM POMERANCE, business representative of Screen Cartoonists Guild.

ED MUSSA, business representative of Screen Set Designers Guild.

HERNARD LUSHER, Secretary Screen Office Employees Guild.

BLANCHE COLE, Screen Offics Employees Guild.

DAVE HILBERGAN, Vice-President Screen Cartoonists Guild.

ED M. GILBERT, Screen Set Designers Guild.

CARL HEAD, Studio Painters, Local 644.

WILLIAM BALL, Studio Painters, Local 644.

JOSEFII STERNAD, President Screen Sat Designers Guild.

GEORGE E. BODLE, was, up to a few weeks ago, the attorney for the organization. (He has been appointed to the Mar Manpower Commission for this district).

LOUIS R. STEIN, has taken the place of BODIE as attorney for the conference.

While the stated object of this "conference" is "To bring about joint economical action and closer unity of the unions to protect individual autonomy of the crafts," the real purpose is to act as a closely knit governing body secretly coordinating the activities of the member unione with the "party line" of the Communist Party.

The group acts, in reality, as a "top fraction" of the Communist Party to interpret the line and guide all activities in the direction of the political position of that party:

The actions, resolutions and recommendations of the organization coincide with the line of the Communist Party in detail.

It has passed resolutions and sent copies to the President of the United States demanding a second front at once.

It has passed resolutions demanding the immediate independence of India.

It has passed resolutions protesting the deportation of HARRY BRIDGES, and has sponsored and circulated pamphlets to this effect.

It has passed resolutions, and put out to the public, pamphlets on the negro question identical with the present program of the Communist Party on that issue.

It is an integral part of Labor's Unity for Victory Committee, a Communist inspired group.

It is affiliated with, and has supported financially, the United Citizens for Victory Committee, also a Communist inspired group.

It is a sponsor for the War Symphony Committee, a recent Communist front organization in Southern California.

It passed resolutions demanding the release of EARL BROWDER when he was imprisoned in Atlanta prison,

It sponsored the "Open Letter to the American People", written by DALTON TRUMBO.

This conference and the group of unions it represents are recognized by the responsible A.F. of L. leaders in Hollywood as constituting the Communist "Bloc", and as the wedge being driven by the Communist Party into all labor organizations in the motion picture industry with the ultimate objective of taking over control of all workers in the industry.

COMMENTAL TO

HERBERT K. SORRELL, the president of the organization, and virtual dictator of the group, is a Communist of long standing, and a member of the Party. At a meeting of the TERNEY Committee of the State of California investigating subversive activities, his connections with the party were proven. Then shown documentary proof of his attendance at a convention of the Los Angeles section of the Communist Party, he admitted that he had attended, but stated that "he did not know it was a Communist convention."

At the same inquiry he admitted his connections with JACK MOORE, the local Secretary of the Communist Party at that time.

SORRELL is business representative of Studio Painters, Local 644. This union is one of the first organizations in the labor field in Hollywood to go over to Communist control. The control of this union since 1935 has been by members who were active in the Motion Picture Workers Industrial Union in 1934. This latter group was completely Communist dominated. Its attempt to take over the Hollywood studio workers failed.

NORVAL D. CRUTCHER, the Secretary of Laboratory Technicians, Local 683 is a Communist Party member, and has been active in Communist circles since 1934.

D. T. WAYNE, business representative of the Studio Machinists is a close fellow traveller of the Communist Party line and a satellite of SORRELL. This union is virtually an outgrowth of the Motion Picture Workere Industrial Union.

RUSSELL L. MCKNICHT, Sacretary-Treasurer of the confarence, is president of Laboratory Technicians, Local 683, and the Editor of "FLASHES", the official publication of that union. This publication follows the Communiet Party line; was isolationist before Russia was attacked, and violently patriotic immediately after. It quotes extensively from "IN FACT", a Communist publication, and the magazine "FRIDAY" (now defunct). It has reprinted articles from many other Communist publications; has run articles by known Communists and fellow travellars such as LAL SINCH, CAREY MCWILLIAMS, SAM KALISH, DR. HERBERT B. ALEXANDER, GEORGE SELDES, SAM GOLDBLATT, and others.

Other delegates making up the conference who are communists and fellow travellers are:

JOHN R. MARTIN, business representative of Laboratory Tschnicians, Local 683.

THEINEALTIAL

GLENN PRATT, business representative of the Screen Office Employed

BERNARD LUSHER, Secretary Screen Office Employees Guild.

WILLIAM POMERANCE, business representative of Screen Cartoonists (wild, and ex-field representative of the local Labor Relations Board.

DAVE HILBERMAN, Vice-President of Screen Cartoonists. Guild.

ED M. CILHERT, a member of the Communist Party of long standing.

ED MUSSA, business representative of the Screen Set Designers Guild.

CEORGE E. BODLE, the attorney for the conference has been involved in Communist activities for years. His position is well known.

Whils the Conference of Studio Unions cetencibly operates in the union field, it is part of an interlocking combination of all Communist front organizations in Hollywood, of which there are some thirty or more.

Its specific duties are, however, to work in the trade union field and act as a liaison between the Communist Party and Hollywood Studio Unions.

[Source 2-0 has stated that the local union from which all of this activity originally started was Studio Painters Local No. 644, the history of which has herstofore been given. As stated it received its impetue for Communiet activity from the M.P.W.I.U.

Source 2-0 has etated that the other unions forming this conference are the followings

LABORATORY TECHNICIANS #683. Sources 2-P has stated for that this union is a local and a part of the I.A.T.S.E., that it was organized and granted a charter by the I.A.T.S.E. in 1929. He further stated that it has functioned as a regular and conservative local until 1941; that its membership is composed of workers who develop and process the film for motion pictures. He further stated that the department over which this local union has jurisdiction and control of the workers is one bottlensck which could disrupt the entire industry under a given set of conditions. He stated that the tremendous expense of producing a picture is finally reduced to an image on a narrow etrip of film 33 mm in width. He stated that this narrow strip of film, which represents the entire efforts of the industry, must be processed, much of it in a dark room in this department. From this department the product then epreads out fammiee throughout the world.

S

l W

Source stated that it has always been the contention of the Communiets that if they could succeed in getting control of the workers in this department the industry would be at their mercy. Source stated that the Communiets and fellow travellers working in this union since 1936 utilizing their usual tactics of slander, false rumors and finally accusations that the regularly elected officers were secretly conniving with BROWNE and BIOFF, they finally succeeded in 1941 in causing anti-Communist officers of the union to resign in disgust and the Communist element in the union took over control which they now exercise. He further stated that this union has followed the Communist Party line from isolation to the present war; has passed all resolutions identical with those of the Communist program and is affiliated with Hollywood Writers Mobilization for Defense, Labor's Unity for Victory Committee and has issued pamphlete protesting the proceedings of deportation of HARRY BRIDGES; resolutions advocating a second front has been adopted; the independence of India has been urged and resolutione on the negro question; was sponsor for the War Symphony Committee; worke in connection with the League of American Writere, and supports every phase of Communist front activity (U)

Source further stated that the officers of this union, #683, I.A.T.S.E., are the following:

RUSSELL L. McKNIGHT, President. He is editor of "Flashee", the official paper of the union.

MELVIN G. YOUNG - Vice-President.

PAUL JAFFE - Recording Secretary.

NORVAL CRUTCHER - Secretary-Treasurer.

JCHN R. MARTIN - Business Representative.

CHARLES GREENBERG - Sergeant-at-arms.

ALPH BLANCHARD - Member of the Executive Board.

FRANK REGAL - Member of the Executive Board.

ARTHUR LEVENHAGEN - Member of the Executive Board.

DOROTHY ALEXANDER - Member of the Executive Board.

12

GEORGE SHAW - Member of the Executive Board.

THEODORE FOGELMAN - Member of the Executive Board.

SAMUEL HORN - Member of the Executive Board.

Source 2-P has etated that everyone of the persone named above, with the exception of CHARLES GREENBERG, is either a Communist Party member of a fellow traveller. They all follow the same line in its devious changes. Source further stated that previous to this time this union announced in its official publication, "Flashes", that the war was one of imperialism, made no appeals for national defense, ridiculed the passage of the Selective Service Act, and supported the general isolationist policy of the Communist Party at that time. ()

Source stated that "Flashes" did then as it does now quote from such Communist publications as "In Fact" and "Friday", and reprints in substance articles appearing in the "People's World", the official publication of the Communist Party on the Pacific coaet. Source further stated that it has invited to speak before ite membership such well known Communist Party members and fellow travellere as:

CAREX MCWILLIAMS
SAM KALISH
DR. HEBERT B. ALEXANDER
DALTON TRUMBO

Source further stated that since HITLER'S attack on STALIN this union has completely reversed its political viewpoint and is now all out to win the war. Source stated that it has passed resolutions demanding a second front, independence for India, protested the deportation of HARRY BRIDGES, and issued pamphlets to that effect, and follows implicitly every detail of the Communist Party demands.

SCREEN OFFICE EMPLOYEES GUILD

Source 2-Q has stated that this union was originally organized as an independent group in about 1937. He stated that after being in existence some three or four years it came under the influence of HERFERT K. SORRELL and the Communist elements within it and in 1941 it was issued a charter by Local 644, A.F. of L. Studio Painters, and is now affiliated through Local 644 with the International Brotherhood of Painters, Paperhangers, and Decorators of America.

[Source further stated that this union has jurisdiction over all clerical workers and secretarise in the Hollywood studies, although the A.F. of L. has a regular established office workers union in the Los Angeles area where these workers rightfully belong. This group has affiliated itself with the International Painters organization. The reason for this odd combination is the preference for the Communist leadership of SOR-REIL over affiliation with regular A.F. of L. Office Workers Union.]

Source 2-Q has stated that the following are the officers of this union:

MARGARET BENNET - President

BLANCHE COLE - Recording Secretary

BERNARD LUSHER - Financial Secretary

CLAIRE HARGAN - Treasurer

JACK RKID - Warden -

BARBARA ALEXANDER - Conductor

GLENN PRATT - Businese Representative

Source further stated that the officers named constitute the executive board. He further stated that the officers of this union and the union as a body follows the Communiet Party line and in so doing has passed the same resolutions and engaged in the same activities mentioned above regarding local 683. Source further stated that GLENN PRATT, the business agent of this union, has recently entered the Officers Training School of the Army and ED M. GILBERT of the Screen Set Designers Union has been elected to take PRATT'S place as the business agent of this union. GILBERT is a member of the Communist Party.

SCREEN CARTOONISTS GUILD LOCAL NO. 852

Source 2-R has informed that thie guild has jurisdiction over cartoonists, sketch artists, and animatore engaged in making animated cartoone in the motion picture industry. Source 2-R has stated that thie guild was organized about 1939 originally as an independent group. He further stated that in 1941 the guild succumbed to the influence of SORREIL and was issued a charter by Local 644, Studio Painters, and therefore is now affiliated with the International Association of Painters, Paperhangers and Decorators of America.

Source stated that this affiliation of the cartooniets with the painters and paperhangers was brought about by the help which SORRELL rendered to this guild in getting better working conditions and wagee and which help was made possible by the favoriteism shown SORRELL by PAT CASEY. was an important factor in winning the confidence of thie guild by SORRELL.

Source further stated that this same process was employed by SORRELL in all the other unions and guilds which were members of the Conference of Studio Unions.

following:

Source 2-R stated that the officers of thie guild are the

JACK ZANDER - President

DAVE HILBERMAN - Vice-President

ERIC LARSEN - Treasurer

PEPE RUIZ - Financial Secretary

AL ARMATUZIO - Warden

A. C. CAMER - Conductor

WILLIAM POMERANCE - Business representative

WW

Source 2-R has stated that the officers of this guild and the guild as a body follows the Communist Party line and in so doing has passed the same resolutions and engaged in the same activity mentioned above regarding Local 683.

SCREEN SET DESIGNERS GUILD

Source 2-8 has stated that this guild has jurisdiction over set designers, draftsmen, and illustrators, that the workers composing these crafts over a period of years have had various organizations, none of which were successful. Source stated that at one time they were classed as scenic artists and formed a union on that basis but it soon went out of existence. Source further stated that further attempts were made which likewise failed. He also stated that it was not until 1939 that they formed a stable organization. Source further stated that in the fall of 1941 this organization affiliated with Painters Union local No. 644, thus coming under the influence of HERBERT K. SORREIL and this Painters Union No. 644 which had been dominated by Communist influence since 1935 as has berstofore been shown.

۲.

Source further stated that the membership of thie guild ie limited, being only approximately 300 members. He stated that as a consequence this guild does not have the usual number of paid officials. He stated that the business of thie guild is transacted at the office of its attorney, CEORCE E. BODLE, 608 South Hill Street, downtown Los Angeles; however since BODLE has been appointed as Assistant Director of the War Manpower Commission on the Pacific coast in charge of Southern California district, this guild is now located at 9441 Wilshire Boulevard, Beverly Hills, telephone CRestview 1-4051.

Source 2-S has stated that the present officials of this organization are the following:

JOSEPH STERNAD - President

ED MUSSA - Business representative

LESLIE THOMAS - Executive board member

LEW COULD - Executive board member

ART LONERGAN - Executive board member

FRITZ WILLIS - Executive board member

ED H. GILBERT - Executive board member

Source further stated that the officers and executive board members above named handle all of the affairs of this guild and the general membership does not even have a vote in the affairs of the guild.

Source further stated that the officers of this guild and the guild as a whole follow the Communist Party line and in so doing have passed the same resolutions and engaged in the same activities mentioned above regarding Local 683.

Source 2-S has stated that/the officers named ED M.
GHIBERT is known to be a member of the Communist Party and has been to the knowledge of source a member of the party since 1933. Source has stated that in 1934 and 1935 GHIBERT was a member of the executive board of the MPWIU mentioned above. He further stated that in 1935 GHIBERT was made chairman of the top fraction of the Communist Party in the Hollywood studio units, being appointed to that position by ŒORGE MAURER who was in charge of the Labor Commission of the Communist Party of southern California.

PAINTERNA

STUDIO MACHINISTS LOCAL MO. 1185 (S.M.L.)

No. 1185 ie, as are all of the other locals that make up the Conference of Studio Unions, a unit of the international group affiliated with A.F. of L. He further stated that this local is one of the unions of the International Association of Machiniste.

Source 2-T has further stated that workers who belong to this union are nightly skilled mechanics engaged mostly in building and servicing motion picture cameras and other high precision work of like character.

Source further stated that this union came into existence as an outgrowth of the M.P.W.I.U. heretofore mentioned; that in 1934 and 1935 the majority of the machinists in the Hollywood studios were members of this Communist dominated M.P.W.I.U. Source has stated that it had taken in the entire crew of machinists then engaged in the experimental plant of Technicolor Corporation; that it had also taken in all of those workers employed in the Mitchell Camera Company, the largest manufacturer of motion picture cameras in the United States. Source has further stated that while this plant was not a part of the motion picture studies proper, its products were used solely in the production of motion pictures. He has further stated that this union also had taken into its ranks a large percentage of skilled mechanics in the studios proper.

Source further etated that the Communiet program and party line at that time was accepted by the machiniste membere of that union almost wholeheartedly. He further stated that the leaders of this group and the individual to whom the machiniets group within the union looked to for leadership was WIIFRED W. LYON, who is referred to above as President of the M.P.W.I.U. and who later made a trip to Soviet Ruseia to work in the motion picture industry there and who was selected by the delegates from the Soviet Union in 1936 to go to Russia for that purpose.

Source further stated that when the Communist Party line changed in the fall of 1935 and all Communiets were instructed to join the A.F. of L. unions, this group of machiniets left the M.P.W.I.U. and applied for a charter from the International Association of Machiniets, an international affiliated with the A.F. of L. Source stated that a charter was granted and about 1937 this local No. 1185 was created in Hollywood.

Source 2-T further stated that the union followed the usual procedure of new unions in building up its membership; that at the same time Communist influence was at work in the union and by the summer of 1941 this union under the leadership of its business representative, D. T. WAYNE, had gone over officially into the group called the Conference of Studio Unions, dominated as above stated by HERBERT K. SORPEIL. Source further stated that the original meeting called to set up the Conference of Studio Unions was authorized officially by this Local 1185 and Local 644 of the Studio Painters. He further stated that at this meeting SORRELL and D. T. WAYNE represented their respective unions as the original base for this conference.

CONFIDENTIAL

Miller : Series

Source further stated that this union No. 1185 is represented in all of its transactions by this business representative, D. T. WAYNE. No other officer appears in any negotiations for the union or apparently take part in any of its political activity. He stated that WAYNE is the Vice-President of the Conference of Studio Unions.

Source 2-T stated that this union acting through its spokesman, D. T. WAYNE, has affiliated with the same organizations and pursued the identical line as has Local 644 Studio Painters. He has stated that Mr. WAYNE is completely under the domination of HERBERT K, SOURCELL.

Source 2-T has further stated that this union has followed the same procedure as to resolutions and protests as has Local 683 Laboratory Technicians mentioned above. He has stated the union follows the Communist Party line as an integral part of the Conference of Studio Unions.

Source 2-T has stated that this Conference of Studio Unions is the group of A.F. of L. unions which has penetrated the Studio Union A.F. of L. structure and planted the Communist Party line by boring from within, which has been the tactics used for twenty years by the Communist Party and practiced in the earlier days by WILLIAM Z. FOSTER who from 1920 to 1928 was the secret agent of the Communist Party, U.S.A. in charge of organized labor activities, during which time he denied he was a Communist and posed as a legitimate labor leader (1)

Source 2-T has stated that it was not to be implied that this Conference of Studio unions controls the majority of A.F. of L. workers in the studios. There are many other A.F. of L. locals not Communist controlled, but this small group composing this Conference are more or less key unions. He further stated that they have the backing of the entire Communist structure and the sympathy of the large number of fellow travellers in the cultural group, and due to this fact they possess strength out of all proportion to the number of locals and membership.

Source 2-T has further stated that the publication in which the affairs of this Conference of Studio Unions are handled is the monthly paper "Flashes", issued by Local 683 of the Laboratory Technicians.

CONFIDENCE

Source has also etated that this union uses the daily "Variety", a trade paper which is extremely partial to the activities of this conference and to HERBERT K. SORRELL. This source further stated that RALPH RODDY, who is in charge of labor dues for "Variety", apparently is a fellow traveller and follows the party line. These newspapers will be treated under separate headings.

-

HOLLYWOOD GUILD COUNCIL

Source 2-U has reported that the guilds making up the Hollywood Guild Council are the bargaining agencies for what is known as "the cultural groups, writers, artiste, directore, readers and publicists." These guilds although not affiliated with A.F. of L. or any other labor group are the bargaining agencies for their members. It should be noted that as in the case of writers, directors and art directors, the matter of salaries is an individual matter. Those guilds in their bargaining negotiations deal with such matters as working conditions, screen credits, etc.

WORKS FOR THE FORMATION OF THE HOLLYWOOD GUILD COUNCIL

Source 2-U has further stated that after the defeat of the Communist controlled United Studio Technicians Guild (U.S.T.G.)/the National Labor Relations Board election held on September 20, 1939 as above related, the Communist elements not being able to function within the I.A.T.S.E. proceeded to set up another organization outside the A.F. of L. As a base for their operations they created another organization "The Hollywood Guild Council". This council was composed of representatives or dalegates from what is called "the cultural groups". They are the following:

	Guild		Approximate membership
	Screen	Directors Guild	in 1941 350
	Screen	Readers Guild	250
	Screen	Publiciets Guild	200
	Screen	Set Designers Guild	350
/	Screen	Office Employees Guild	900	1.
V	Screen	Cartoonists Guild Total	500 4,000	y _Q

CONFIDENTIAL

Source 2-O further stated that the Hollywood Guild Council was set up in the fall of 1939, shortly after the U.S.T.G. was dissolved; that when this guild council was organized the Screen Set Designere Guild, Screen Office Employees Guild, and Screen Cartoonists Guild, were not affiliated with the A.F. of L. Thie affiliation was not made until the fall of 1941. The others never were affiliated with the A.F. of L.

Source further stated that the purpose of this Hollywood Guild Council was to afford a base of operations to carry on Communist propaganda and keep alive the attempt to penetrate the other unions. They attempted to draw into the council many of the A.F. of L. locals but were not successful. The activities were confined to these various guilds which had always been more or less subject to Communist infiltration.

Source further stated that the leading group and the one which practically controlled the Hollywood Guild Council was the Screen Writere Guild. All of the activities of this council had their origin in the Screen Writers Guild. The officers and leading figures in the Screen Writere Guild are almost all members of the League of American Writers. This League of American Writere has been in control of the Screen Writers Guild for many years and has succeeded during that time in having its members placed in key positione in this guild.

The political viewpoint of the League of American Writers has dominated the Screen Writers Guild completely. The other guilds mentioned never played a great part in the Hollywood Guild Council for the reason that they were not so easily organized. To a large extent they lent their names and appointed delegates to the council. It might be said that they "trailed along."

Source 2-U further stated that the activities of the Hollywood Guild Council extended from the fall of 1939 to June 22, 1941, at which time HITLER invaded Ruesia, which automatically ended the HITLER-STALIN pact. He stated that this period was one in which the line of the Communist Party was isolationist and anti-war and anti-preparation for defense. He further stated that the Hollywood Guild Council during this period fell into line with that position. However it accomplished very little, being overly conscientious in its activities.

Source further stated that immediately after the invasion of Ruesia thie council had no further place as a propaganda group inasmuch as the majority of the representation of the guilds were writers, directors, artiste, etc. They transferred their activities from a position of isolation to one of violent patriotism. He further stated that after the change in the Communist Party line caused by the invasion of Ruesia was made clear, which tegrit approximately three to four weeks, the directing heads of the guild (Applicit) began an intensive campaign in support of the war. They transferred their activities to other fields, the principal one of which became the Hollywood Writers Mobilization for Defense.

Source further stated that the Hollywood Guild Council did not go to other organizations as a body but the individual members went as individuals and joined and supported such organizations as the Writers Mobilization for Defense, The Citizens Unity for Victory Committee, Laborers Unity for Victory Committee, The Committee for the Care of Children in Wartime, the United Russian Relief, Committee for Medical Aid to Soviet Russia, American-Russian Council for Friendly Relatione, The Hollywood Canteen, Victory Bond Drive, and many other forms of war activity.

Source etated that as a result of this transfer of activities to these other groups by the leaders of the council, it became inactive and at the present time it remains as a mere name only.

Source further stated that so far as it has been possible to ascertain the Hollywood Guild Council did not make public the names of the individuals who were its leaders and directors. The council never took direct action as a body but it acted as a sort of steering committee or advisory club for the various guilds that made up the council. Source stated that the following persons were the most active in the affairs of the Hollywood Guild Council:

-

SHERIDAN GIBNEY - President, Screen Writers Guild, 1941.

∠ ROBERT ROSSEN - Secretary, Screen Writers Guild, 1941.

LESTER COLE - Treasurer, Screen Writers Guild, 1941.

MARY McCALL, JR .- Member Screen Writers Guild, 1941.

JOHN HOWARD LAWSON-Member of Screen Writers Guild, 1941.

JEROME CHOPOHOV - Member of Screen Writers Guild, 1941.

ALLEY SCOTT - Member of Screen Writers Guild, 1941.

ED M. GILBERT - President, Screen Set Decigners Guild, 1941.

GLEN PRATT - Businese Representative, Screen Office Employeee Guild, 1941.

60 -

DAVE HILBERMAN - Vice-Precident, Screen Cartoonists Guild, 1942.

FRANK TUTTLE - Screen Directors Guild, 1941.

DON CORDON Screen Readers Guild, 1941.

LESITE MASON - Screen Publiciets Guild, 1941.

Source 2-U further stated that the approximate membership of the Hollywood guilds affiliated with the Hollywood Guild Council was 4,000, the majority of whom were members of the Screen Writere Guild and Screen Office Employees Guild. He further stated that the Hollywood Guild Council is now practically inoperative due to the war conditions and the further fact that eince it was set up the Screen Office Employeee Guild, the Set Designers Guild, and the Screen Cartooniets Guild became affiliated with the A.F. of L. in the fall of 1941 and are now a part of the Conference of Studio Unions as noted heretofore.

Source further stated that some of the guilde mentioned above were affiliated with the Hollywood Guild Council and are independent groups and have no connection with national unions.

SCREEN WRITERS GUILD 1655 No. Cherokee Avenue, Hollywood, California

Source 2-V has reported that the Screen Writers Guild is an independent organization not affiliated with the American Federation of Labor; although it calls itself a guild it is a labor union and is the bargaining agency for writere in the Hollywood motion picture industry.

Source 2-Vhas etated that the Screen Writers Guild was organized in 1934, that it is the first union group in the cultural field to come under domation of the Communiste and fellow travellers. In fact it was organized by a group of writers who were then members of the John Reed Club of Hollywood, a Communist front organization that afterwards became the Hollywood chapter of the League of American Writers in 1935. Source stated that prominent among this group of original organizers were:

HOWARD LATSON
SAMUEL ORNITZ
DUDLEY NICHOLS
CUY ENDORE
HARRY CARLISLE

CONFIDENTIAL

All of the above have long records of Communist activity in the Hollywood motion picture industry.

Source further stated that the Screen Writers Guild ever since its inception has taken the leadsmong the organized cultural union groupe in the Hollywood motion picture industry in following the Communist Party line in all its devious changes. He further stated that this guild was mainly responsible for setting up the Hollywood Guild Council, a Communist dominated group. Although not affiliated with the Conference of Studio Unions, it has probably acted in support of that body which, as has been shown, is another Communist controlled group of A.F. of L. local Hollywood unions. Source further stated that this guild is the sponsor and moving force in the Hollywood Writers Mobilization for Defense; that it sponsored the publication "Communiques which was published and distributed from its headquarters. He further stated that it is one of the sponsors of the Hollywood Canteen which was recently set up for the purpose of furnishing entertainment for the armed forces. Ho further stated that its officials and members have been active in every form of Communist and Communiet front activity in southern California for years.

Source 2-V has further etated that the Communist domination of the Screen Eriters Guild has been so continuously obvious that in 1936 a small group of writers revolted against this domination and attempted to oust the Communiste from control. This revolt was led by a small group of writers, most active of whom were JAMES K. McGUINESS, JOHN LEE HAHIH, HOWARD EMMETT HOGERS, PATTERSON MCNUTT, BESS MEREDITH, HERMAN J. MANCKIEWICZ, ROBERT RISKIN and SAMSON RAPHAELSON.

Source further stated that one of the foremost "red baiters" as he was called at the time was Mr. MANCKIEWICZ, one of the highest paid writers in Hollywood. Source stated that HANCKIEWICZ ran a full page advertisement in the Hollywood Reporter, a trade daily, which he headed as follows:

"PROPOSED CHARTER FOR LOCAL NO. 1, SONS AND DAUGHTENS OF "I WILL ARISE"
SCHEEN WRITERS UNION"

He signed the communication:

"Mriters of Hollywood unite!
You have nothing to lose but your brains!
HERMAN J. MANCKIEWICZ,
Grub Street, Beverly Hille, California.
In the Year of the Terror, One,"
New Theater June, 1936. P.25

Source 2-V further stated that despite the fact that this small group had exposed the Screen Writers Guild as being Communist controlled, it lost the fight and the guild continued as usual. Source stated that egain in 1941 another revolt against the Communists in the organization tock place. Some of the same group tried again; notably Mr. ROCERS and Mr. McGUINESS were active. This time they succeeded in forcing the resignation of JOHN HOWARD LANSON, DONALD OCDEN STEMART, and RING LARDNER, JR. from official positions. These three have long been known for their Communist activity. He further stated that the resignations of LAWSON. STEWART and LARDNER were merely concessions to a state of affairs, as at this time Communists and fellow travellers were still auffering from the effects of the HITLER-STALIN pact, but source stated that after Russis was sttacked by HITL at and the Communist Party line changed and permitted Communists to pose as good, loyal American citizens and et the same time denounced anyone as "fascist" or "Nezi" who brought up the quastion of Communism, the Communist slements became bold and again openly took the raine of the Screen Writers Quild.

Source further stated that the close connection between the Leagus of American Writers and the Screen Writers Guild is evidenced by the membership of many of the officials and members in both organizations. He further stated that members of the League of American Writers are in complete control of the Screen Writers Guild.

Source 2-V reported to the Los Angelss Bureau office that the following parties were elected officers of the Screen Writers Guild on November 12, 1942:

MARY MCCALL, JR. President LESTER COLE (14 Vice-President FRUIK PORTER Sacretary / FRANCIS EDWARD FIRACOH Treasuror HANDLD EUGHAAN Executive board member HUCO BUTLER Executive board member WARC COMPALITY Executive board member PARUL JARRICOTANO Executive board member CORDON KARIN WE'G Executive board member HARRY JURNITZ -Executive board member GLADYS LEHMAN~ Executive board member JANE LURFIN-. Executive board member WALDO SALT: 🗥 Executive board mamber ALLAN SCOTT Exscutive board member JAY CURNEY 1 🖟 Alternate executive board member FELLY JACKSON Alternate executive board member TALBOT JENNINGS -Alternate executive board member JOHN LARKIN ~ Alternate executive board member NAT PERRIN -Alternate executive board member BETTY REINHARDT -Alternate executive board member MARGUERITE ROBERTS Alternate executive board member

63

Source 2-V and 2-W further stated that the following officers of the guild are followers of the Communist Party line as indicated below:

MARY McCAIL, JR., President of the Screen Writers Guild, ie supported by the Communist elements in the organization; was elected November 12, 1942 as President; was active in the Hollywood Anti-Nazi League, a Communist front organization, until the signing of the STALIN-HITLER pact; spoke under the auspices of the Hollywood League for Democratic Action, a Communist frontisolationist organization, on February 21, 1940, at the Philharmonic Auditorium, Ios Angeles, in which the program was "Hollywood Accepte MARTIN DIES". She stated at this meeting "MARTIN DIES was worse than Communism". She was one of the members of the Screen Writers Guild who wired a demand to Congress on March 5, 1940 that it eliminate the DIES Committee. She sponsored the Russian anniversary celebration at the Shrine Auditorium on November 8, 1942. She was a member of the committee on arrangements. She is a member of the Hollywood Writers Mobilization for Defense, a member of the League of American Writers, and teaches at the Hollywood Writers School and follows the Communist Party line explicitly.

LESTER COLE, Vice-Precident of the Screen Writers Guild, is a member of the League of American Writers. He was one of the signers of the letters of "150", "400", which were part of the struggle between STALIN and TROTSKY for control of the Communist Party. He was a signer of the call for the Fourth Congress of the League of American Writers, which was a supporter of the American Peace Mobilization. He is an instructor in the Hollywood Writers School, a Communist dominated school run by the League of American Writers. He has been a follower of the Communist Party line for many years.

FRANCIS EDMARD FIRACOH, Treasurer of the Screen Writers Cuild, is a member of the League of American Writers. He was one of the eigners for the call for the Third Congress of the League of American Writers.
He is a member of the Hollywood Anti-Nazi League and the Hollywood Writers Mobilization for Defence.

HAROLD BUCHMAN is a member of the executive board of the Screen Writers Guild. He is also a member of the League of American Writers, a member of the Hollywood Anti-Nazi League, and a member of the Hollywood Writers Mobilization for Defense.

MARC CONNELLY is a member of the executive board of the Screen Writers Guild and is a member of the League of American Writers. He signed the call for the Third Congress of the League of American Writers. He is a member of the Hollywood Writers Mobilization for Defence. He teached at the Hollywood Writers School. He follows the Communist Party line. He was a member of the arrangements committee for the Russian anniversary celebration November 8, 1942 at the Shrine Auditorium in Los Angeles.

Har Brew

PAUL JARRICO, member of the executive board of the Screen Writers Guild, is a member of the League of American Writers. He teaches at the Hollywood Mriters School and is a member of the National Federation for Constitutional Rights, a Communist front organization. He is a member of the Hollywood Writers Hobilization for Defanse. He signed the call for the Fourth Congress of the League of American Writers which endorsed the American Peace Mobilization. He follows the Communist Party line faithfully.

GORDON KARN is a member of the executive board of the Screen Mriters Guild and a member of the League of American Mriters. He was an associate editor of "The Clipper", the official organ of the League of American Mriters, Hollywood chapter. He was a member of the Hotion Picture Coopsrative Buyers Guild, a Communist front organization. He was one of the signers of the call for the Fourth Congress of the League of American Writers which endorsed the American Peace Mobilization. He follows the Communist Party line faithfully.

HARRY JURNITZ is a member of the executive board of the Screen Writers Guild and a member of the League of American Writers. He is also a member of the Hollywood Writers Mobilization for Defense.

Screen Writers Guild and a member of the League of American writers. He was an associate editor of "The Clipper", the official organ of the League of American Writers, Hollywood chapter. He is a member of the Motion Picture Cooperative Eugers Guild, a Communist Party front organization. He was one of the signers of the call for the Fourth Congress which endorsed the American Peace Mobilization. He follows the Communist Party line faithfully.

ALLAN SCOTT is a member of the executive board of the Screen Writers Guild and a member of the League of American Writers. He teaches at the Hollywood Writers School and is a member of the Hollywood Writers Mobilization for Defense. He follows the Communist Party line strictly.

JAY COMBET is a member of the executive board of the Screen Uniters Guild and a member of the League of American Writers. He teaches at the Hollywood Writers School. He was a co-author of the plays "Meet the People" and "Zero Hour", both of which were isolationist and were sponsored by the American Peace Mobilization. They were produced by the Hollywood Theater Alliance, a Communist front group, and directed by HETBERT BIBERTIAN, a well known Hollywood Communist. CORNEY follows the Communist Party line strictly.

Source 2-V conpiled a list of the members of the Screen Writers Guild who are Communists and/or fellow travellers in the League of American Writers and who have been identified for many years as engaged in Communist activity.

JOHN HOTTARD LATESON SAM ORNITZ DUDLEY NICHOLS TEES SLESINGER FRALK DAVIS DOROTHY PARKER ALLAN CAUPBILL "ARION SPITZER MADELINE RUTHVEN H. S. (HY) KRAFT LESTER COHEN CUY ENDORE JERRY SACKHEIM VICIA BROTHERS SHURE DONALD OGDEN STEWART eila kat minters JOH! EMIGHT ROBLET TASKER JOHN TEXTLEY ROBERT ROSSEN THE DORE DREISER JULIUS EPSTEIN

PHILIP ENSTELL SIDNEY BUCHMAN PHILLIP DUNNE EDMARD CHODOROV JEROME CHODOROV TILLIAN HEILIKAN CEDRIC ETLFRAGE LIAC PLITSTELL HARRY CARLISLE VERA CASPERAY MOLLY CASTLE ARANUD D'USSEAU EDWARD ELISEU JOSEPH FIELDS HANTIN CRANT ARTHUR KOEER ALBERT MALTI ROBERT MILTOR W. L. RIVERS GEXORGE SKLAR ORSON TELLES VICTOR A. YAKHONTOFF

Source 2-V has stated that all of the above are active members of the League of American Writers and the Screen Writers Guild; that they are all identified either as members of the Communist Party, fellow travellers, or members of such front organizations as the Hollywood Anti-Nazi League, the Nollywood League for Democratic Action, Nollywood Peace Forum, Hollywood Theater Alliance, United Refugees Committee, Hollywood Committee for Writers in Exile, Rescue Ship Mission, Hollywood Writers Mobilization for Defense, Consumers United, Hotion Picture Cooperative Buyers Guild, National Federation for Constitutional Rights, SCHMEIDURMAN-DARCY Defense Committee, United Spanish Aid Committee, HARRY BRIDGES Defense Committee, American Peace Mobilization, American-Russian Institute, American Society for Cultural Relations with Russia, Committee to Aid Agriculture workers, League of Momen Shoppers, Westen Writers Congress.

SCREEN DIRECTORS CUILD

Source 2-X has reported that the Screen Directors Guild of Hollywood was organized in February, 1936 for the purpose as stated at that time to bring the directore of motion pictures into line with other labor unions in the industry. This source also furnished information relative to the various parties who are active in the affairs of this guild.

This effort was made by a small group of motion picture directors who professed the "progressive" position, and who maintained in a broad sense that the motion picture should carry a social or political measage rather than being what they claimed it was at the time, merely an "escape mechanism" for the massee. In reality the term "progressive" meant sympathy for the Communist cause which was then just beginning to make headway among the intellectuals of the Hollywood motion picture industry.

The names of those composing this small group were:

KING VIDOR
LEWIS MILESTONE
FRANK TUTTLE
WILLIAM K. HOWARD
JOHN FORD
FRANK BORSACE
HOWARD HAWKS
WESLEY RUCGLES

JCHN CHOMIELL
WILLIAM WELLMAN
HOUSEN MAMOULIAN
CRECORY LACAVA
CLARENCE BROWN
EDWARD SUTHERLAND
H. BRUCE HULBERSTONE

The difficulty in organizing these directors whose eslaries ran into thousands of dollars per week and reducing them to a statue of trade unioniste was no small one.

The position and duties of the director of motion pictures place him closer to the producer or employer than to the worker. At times his interests lead him actually into the production field where he becomes an employer of a kind.

For these reasons the Screen Directors Guild is in no sense etrictly a bargaining labor union; although the Communist theoretician claims that it is, but the directors as a class have not yet discovered the fact. Actually the Screen Directors Guild occupies an anomalous position among Hollywood labor organizations which plays at going through the motions of a labor union. The high salaries of the directors and their preferred position among the elite of the motion picture world contradicts any questions of "wages and working conditions".

This leaves the Screen Directors Guild with but one basic reason for existence which, to a small group within the organization, is all in all. This reason is ideological, or, as this group would express it if driven into a corner, "cultural". By "cultural" is meant production of motion pictures sympathetic to the cause of Communism and the political economy of Soviet Russia.

This is no implication that the entire membership of the Screen Directors Guild, or even the majority, are of this viewpoint, or that the organization as a body reacts in that direction. It is the usual small group within the organization that works to steer it into this type of activity.

The Screen Directors Guild, of necessity, confined within narrow bounds as a bargaining agency. Also any political activity it is free to adopt is circumscribed.

Yet in spite of those restrictions the Screen Directors Quild has sponsored such organizations as the Hollywood Writers Mobilization, a Communist inspired project, the Hollywood Canteen, likewise controlled by Communist elements, the War Symphony Committee, and others. It was affiliated with the Hollywood Guild Council mentioned heretofors.

There is considerable Communist activity among the individual members of the directors guild, but they function as individuals and take part in outside organizations and groups.

The Communist Party has for years made every effort to take into its folds motion picture directors. They have recognized the strategic position of the director in injecting propagands into a picture. In this they have been somewhat successful heretofors.

But at the present time the field is wide open. The position of Soviet Russia as an ally, and the large number of pictures now being made based on the war situation, permits those directors so inclined to inject into the picture such Communist propaganda as would not have been possible herstofore. And for the making of such pictures the Hollywood producers invariably select those directors and writers who are sympathetic to the Soviet union and the Communist cause.

The officers of the Screen Directors Guild are the following:

GEORGE STEVENS - President

ERNST LUBITSCH - First Vice President

NORMAN TAUROG - Second Vice President

WILLIAM A. SEITER-Secretary

TAY GARNETT - Treasurer

J. P. McCOMAN - Executive Secretary

MABEL WALKER WILLEBRANDT - Counsel

- 68 -

CUNFIDEATIAL

Board of Directors: (in addition to the above)

DAVID BUTLER
EDWARD H. GRIFFITH
HOWARD HAWKS
A. EDWARD SUTHERLAND
WILLIAM A. WELLMAN

GEORGE CUKOR
HENRY HATHAWAY
MARK SANDRICH
RICHARD WALLACE
SAM WOOD

Alternates to the Board:

FELIX FEIST
REEVES EASON
IRVING PICHEL
LESLEY SELANDER

Of the above officials few have been openly active or have expressed publicly sympathy for Communism or its philosophy.

GEORGE STEVENS. Source 2-I has reported that GEORGE STEVENS is President of the Guild; that he has been identified with some of the Communist front organizations. He represented the guild in the United Citizens for Victory Committee, and spoke at a meeting in the Philharmonic Auditorium in September of 1942. He has had some connections with the Hollywood Theatre Alliance, a Communist inspired project, and has affiliated with various Russian Relief drivee. His activities have been of a mild nature.

ERNST LUBITSCH has been looked upon as a fellow traveller but directed the picture "Ninotschka", which was anti-Communist eatire. This would cancel out any Communist leanings previously held. For directing this picture he was attacked by the Communists in the industry and out.

Of NORMAN TAUROG, WILLIAM A. SEITER, TAY GARNETT, and J. P. McCOWAN, there is no record of any activities.

Of the Board of Directors the same can be said, with the exception of IRVING PICHEL, one of the alternates.

IRVING PICHEL. Source 2-X has stated that Mr. PICHEL has long been active in circles allied to the Communist Party. Sponsor and active in the Hollywood Anti-Nazi Leagus, and sponsor of the United Spanish Aid Committee, both strictly Communist front organizations. He teaches at the Hollywood Writers School, conducted by the League of American Writers. While PICHEL has been identified with the foregoing organizations he seems to know when to draw back and not go too far. However, he follows the Communist Party line, but safely.

 $\int_{\Omega} dt$

Jan Harris

None of the rest of the officiale of the Screen Directors Guild have been involved to any serious extent in Communist activities as appears at this time; however this does not mean that the Communist Party has ignored the motion picture director. On the contrary there has been an intensive campaign to influence the directors and it has been successful to quite an extent. But in doing this a different tactic was used than those which were applied to other groups and labor unions. It would not serve the purposes of the Communists nearly so well if they were to control the Screen Directors Guild from the top by electing their members and fellow travellers to the offices in the guild. It would be much better to influence the individual director and use nim where he would serve their purpose by his control of the picture as it was produced. Besides there would be a danger if any of the directors became publicly known as Communists and sympathizers—their position in the industry would not allow of it, particularly if they should be in control of the Guild.

The following members of the Screen Directors Guild in Hollywood are known followers of the Communist Party line:

FRANK TUTTLE. Source has stated that TUTTLE ie a member of the Communiet Party (BURT-HONEYCOMBE). He has been active in almost every Communist inspired group operating in Hollywood; Sponsor of the Hollywood Anti-Nazi League. He has been active in the Hollywood Peace Forum which succeeded the Anti-Nazi League and became isolationiet when the Communiet Party line changed. He is a member of the Hollywood League for Democratic Action, a Communist anti-war group following the Communist Party line. TUTTLE spoke at a mass meeting of a group at the Olympic Auditorium on April 6, 1940, in Los Angeles, which meeting was to "Keep america Out of the Mar". He is a member and active in the Motion Picture Democratic Committee, a Communist group that changed to isolation when the Communist Party line changed. He is a member of the Zukas Defense Committee-defense of Communist ZUKAS sentenced by Yorty Committee investigating subversive activites. He was a eponsor of the United Spanish Aid Committee and other Spanish civil war aid committees and it _s reported that approximately $300,000 was collected for this purpose and that a great portion of it was collected for the purpose of bringing to the United States writers who were in exile and other radical factore who were in internement camps in various European countries' for their radical and Communist activitiee. It is also reported that a large portion of thie $300,000 was never accounted for to anyone. W (W)

ORSON WELLES is a member of the original "Group Theatre",
New York, Communist controlled theater project affiliated with the New Theatre League, a branch of the International Union of Revolutionary Theatree. He is a member of the League of American Writers. He signed the Fourth call for Writere Congrese which was a support of the American Peace Mobilization. He is chairman of a committee from Hollywood demanding that deportation proceedings against HARRY BRIDGES be dropped. He is active in the Rescue Ship Mission, a Communist collection sgency for funds never accounted for. WELLES is now very patriotic, having changed with the Communist Party line. He was also a eponsor of the United Spanish Aid Committee and other Spanish civil war aid committees and it is reported that approximately $300,000 was collected for this purpose and that a great portion of it was collected for the purpose of bringing to the United States writers who were in exile and other radical factors who were in internement campe in various European countries for their radical and Communist activities. It is also reported that a large portion of this $300,000 was never accounted for to anyone.

PONFIDENTIAL

JAY LEYDA is now Technical Director on "Mission to Moscow", a picture now being made by Warner Brothers. He has a long record of Communist activity. He was director of propaganda via the theatre for International Union of Revolutionary Writers in Moscow in 1934-35. He is associate editor of "New Theatre", a publication controlled by the Communist Party, issued in New York from 1935 to 1939. He was associated with the Film Library of the Modern Museum, Rockefeller Foundation in New York in 1940. He was discharged for Communist activity in July, 1940 by IRIS BARRY, Curator, as a result of popular pressure. He has been engaged in many other activities.

HERMAN SHUMLIN is a former Broadway producer, now a Hollywood director. He has followed the Communist Party line faithfully for many years. He is a member of the "Group Theatre" in New York, and active in all of its affairs. He was sponsor for the "Theatre Committee for Defense of the Spanish Republic". He was a member of the Hollywood Citizens Committee for Federal Theatre, and a member of the Executive Board of the Theatre Arts Committee (T.A.C.). He was a supporter of the American Psace Mobilization. He has engaged in many other activities, all of which followed the Communist Party line from the Popular Front to Isolation, to violent patriotism.

JOHN FORD has shown Communist sympathies to a limited extent. He is identified as attending Communist social gatherings in Hollywood luminaries homes. (BURT) Sponsor for the Steinbeck Committee for Agricultural Workers, a Communist controlled group (met at the Philharmonic Auditorium, Los Angeles, March 21, 1940). The activities of FORD were of a mild nature, and in all probability he is an innocent. He was third Vice-Chairman of the Motion Picture Democratic Committee.

JOHN CROMWEIL is one of the original organizers of the Screen Directors Guild. He is a member of Hollywood's Committee to Protect Civil Liberties, a completely dominated group. He is sponsor of the Hollywood Committee for Writers in Exile", a Communist project.

HERBERT BIBERMAN is one of the leading Communists in the Hollywood section. He is a member of the National Council of American Peace Mobilization. He picketed the White House for the American Peace Mobilization, and is local chairman of that organization, as well as polythed the Peace Forum. He was involved in an ettempt by the United Studie Transcolans Guild to take over Hollywood unions for the Communiet Party. He is a contributor to "New Masses", New Theatre magazine. He is a member of the Hollywood Anti-Nazi League and Motion Picture Democratic Committee. There are many other instances of Communiet activity on his part. He is now patriotic in conformity with the Communist Party line.

ported the New Theatre League, which is affiliated with the International Union of Revolutionary Theatres, with headquarters in Moscow, Russia. He wrote articles for the New Theatre magazine in March, 1937. He is a member of the Executive Board of the Motion Picture Spanish Aid Committee, a Communist front organization. He signed a letter of "150" which was protest against investigation of Moscow trials. This fact is proof that HILESTONE was interceeted in inner workings of the Communist Party. He is a sponsor of the Hollywood Theatre Alliance, a Communist organization. He has engaged in many other activities.

E. A. DUPONT is editor of the Hollywood "Tribune", a Communist publication issued in 1939. This publication was short lived as the HITIER-STAIN pact caused its death.

WILLIAM DIETERIE is a follower of the Communist Party line. He is a member of the Hollywood Committee for Writere in Exile, a Communist front organization, and of the Hollywood Anti-Nazi League. He gave interviews to the "Daily Worker", the Communist Party's official publication (1939). He was named as a member of the Communist Party by IVAN COX in December of 1937.

JORIS IVENS has long been identified with Communist activities. He is an original member and active in the New Theatra League, an affiliate of the International Union of Revolutionary Theatras. Contributor to the New Theatra magazine, and director of "Documentary" films. He is a eponsor of the Motion Picture Guild, a Communist controlled organization for the making of propaganda films (1939).

PARE LORENTZ has engaged in activities practically the same as IVENS.

DUDIEY NICHOIS was formerly a screen writer and member of the League of American Writers. He is now a producer and director. He has a long record of Communist and Communist front activities while connected with the League of American Writers.

HERBERT KLINE is one of the original group that eet up the New Theatre League. He is editor of the New Theatre magazine. He is one of the original founders of the League of American Writers in conjunction with EARL BROWDER, MICHAEL COID, etc. He is now in Mexico making so mailed about mentary films. He has a long record of Communist activities.

58449

GARSIN KANIN follows the Communist Party line. He is a member of the Hollywood Committee for Writers in Exile, a Communist Party front. He is a contributor to "New Masses", a Communist publication. He signed a resolution to support the "Peoples Front" in England, about April 1, 1941. The "Peoples Front" in England corresponded to the American Peacs Mobilization in the United States. EARL EROWDER and other known Communists were also signers of this resolution. He sponsored the Hollywood Theatre Alliance, a Communist undertaking.

There are others among the directors of Hollywood who have evinced sympathy for the Communist causs, but it is of a mildsr nature and follows the same general pattern.

SCREEN PUBLICISTS CUILD - 1735 No. Vine Street, Hollywood, California

Source 2-Y has stated in substance the following with respect to the officers and activity of certain individuals in the Screen Publicists Guild. The officers are:

LESLIE MASON - President
TEET CARLE - Vice-President
DAVID McCOIG - Secretary

The Executive Board members are the four above named and the following:

Treasurer

-

WILLIAM BELCHER
WILLIAM BLOECHER
JERRY BRETTINGRAM
JOHN CAMPBELL, JR.
CHARLES CASHON
NAT JAMES

TED TAYLOR-

ROBERT JOSEPH
BESSIE KAMINS
DON MCELWAINE
CAMERON SHIPP
JOHN DEL VALLE
ARTHUR ZELLNER

Source has stated that none of the above named officers have been identified as being members of the Communist Party or as having taken part as individuals in any Communist activity of the usual Hollywood variety, yet the organization as a body has affiliated itself with known Communist inspired groups.

Source has stated that this union has been represented by its President LESLIE MASON who has acted as a delegate and as a member of or as sponsoring the following: The Hollywood Guild Council; Labors Unity for Victory Committee; Hollywood Writers Mobilisation for Defense, which was a part of the Screen Writere Guild; and the League of American Writeres has also sponsored the Hellywood Canteen which is sponsored generally by Communist elements.

- 73 -

-CONFIDENTIAL

5-7-6

Source has stated that the only other member of this guild who has at times represented the organisation as a delegate is DON KING who is considered by conservative labor unions in Hollywood to be a fellow traveller but he has never engaged in any decided activities. He further stated that the number of members in the union is not large, approximately 350; that on this account it has had very little influence on the larger groupe or those engaged in Communist front activities.

SCREEN READERS GUILD, 1655 North Cherokee Street, Hollywood, California

Source 2-Z has reported as follows on this guild. He has stated that the following are the officers:

JOHN WERER - President

LILLIAN BERQUIST-Vice-President

JESSIE BURNS - Corresponding Secretary

RUTH FASKEY - Recording Secretary

BILL COLE - Treasurer

HAL LEVY - Member Executive Board
HERNARD CORDON- Member Executive Board
HESLEY HAINES - Member Executive Board
FRANK CLEAVER - Member Executive Board
HILLIAM SHENKER- Member Executive Board

Source has stated that the Screen Readers Guild is not a large group, perhaps not over 250 to 300 in all. Hs further stated that some are employed regularly at the various studies, while others do what is called frest lance reading. Their duties are to read books, magazines and all forms of published material and make synopses from which stories or occurs may be adapted to the motion pictures.

Source has further stated that the readers have been to a large extent influenced and dominated by the Screen Writers Guild. The reason for this is that the readers consider themselves potential writers and their ambitions lie in that direction. For this reason the Screen Readers Guild follows the lead of the Screen Writers Guild in all matters. It is affiliated with the Hollywood Writers Mobilization for Defense, the Hollywood Guild Council, and is active in supporting any political activities and fronte which the Screen Writers Guild advocates.

PD

SCREEN DIALOGUE DIRECTORS GUILD

Silving and the Source 3-A has etated that this organisation is an independent group not affiliated with the A.F. of L. and that it came into existence in 1936. He stated that it was an attempt to organise into a guild or union that might be termed an anomalous section of the directors guild. It was composed of a small section of this group whose activities are of a rather specialized nature, direction of the dialogue in the picture. These duties naturally develop into the domain of the director of the picture and therefore the status of the dialogue director is somewhat vague.

Source stated that as a body this guild has never affiliated with the usual Communist efforts to consolidate groups such as the Hollywood Writers Mobilization for Defense, the Conference of Studio Unions, or any of the other Communist inspired groups. He further stated that this guild is not at the present time taking a part as group in any of the usual undertakings for war purposes such as the Hollywood Canteen, Russian Relief, etc.

Source stated that the original organizers and those most active in the organization in the past are and have been the followings

WILLIAM L. BROSSEAU STANLEY J. GRANDOM ED L. DAVENPORT LESTER SCHAFFER EDWARD E. KAYE EUGENE BAILEY TED STANHOPS
JAMES LERNER
MILTON SACKSON
RICHARD LAPAN
EDWARD J. CORNEL

Source has stated that with the exception of RICHARD LaPAW none of the above have been identified with Communist activities. He stated that LaPAN was for some years a member of the Communist Party in Hollywood and did important work for the party among the prominent Hollywood luminaries, but he stated that LaPAN broke with the party about five years ago and since that time has become violently opposed to it. He further stated that LaPAN at the present time is not employed at the studies and so far as he knows LaPAN has abandoned all political activity.

AMERICAN CUILD OF MUSICAL ARTISTS

Source 3-B has reported that this organisation is not etrictly a Hollywood group but is national in its scope and is composed of prominent musicians, soloists, directors and others. He stated that it is not a Hollywood union in the sense that it acts as a bargaining agency, as all members of this organisation are also members of the American Federation of Musicians, affiliated with the American Federation of Labor, which bargaining agency for musicians. Source further stated that this animals.

4

B

58.350

not been active in Communist circles but has supported some organizations suspected of being Communist front organizations, euch as Russian War Relief; that it has furnished musicians free of charge to such organizations as the Russian War Relief. He further stated that it is one of the sponsors of the Hollywood Canteen and furnished a great deal of the music, and perhaps all of the music, that is given at the Canteen for entertainment purposes. He stated positively that it has not sponsored such organizations as the Hollywood Writers Mobilization for Defense.

Source 3-C has stated that Screen Actors Guild is the only labor union in Hollywood which does not function under a charter from an international group affiliated with the A.F. of L. Being the only group of its kind, that is a union of Screen Actors, it exists only in Hollywood and for this reason it functions by a direct charter from the A.F. of L. through the Actors Equity Association.

SCREEN ACTORS GUILD

Source 3-C has stated that KENNETH THOMPSON, Executive Secretary of the Screen Actors Guild, performs his duty as Executive Secretary of the Guild and does not take part in any activities outside the needs of the guild as a labor union. He does not object to the Communists functioning in the union, neither does he support them. He has never been referred as a Communist or fellow traveller. JEFF KIBRE in 1939 stated with respect THOMPSON: "THOMPSON is vacillating and cannot be held in lins."

Source 3-C stated that the following are the officers of is guild:

KENNETH THOMPSON - Executive Secretary

JAMES CACREY'- President

GEORGE A. MURPHY - First Vice-President

PAUL HARVEY - Sscond Vice-President

WALTER ABELL - Third Vice-President

LUCILLE GLEASON - Recording Secretary

PORTER HALL - Treasurer

WALTER ABELL - Member, Board of Directors

JAMES CACNEY - Member, Board of Directors

EMMA DUNN - Member, Board of Directors

GEORGE A. MURPHY - Member, Board of Directors

18

....

5944EN

ILCYD PIDGEON - Member, Board of Directors

ELIZABETH RISDON-Member, Board of Directors

FRANCHOT TONE - Member, Board of Directors

CHARLES TROWBRIDGE - Member, Board of Directors

JANE WYMAN - Member, Board of Directors.

Source 3-C has stated that the affairs of the Screen Actors Guild are conducted in a different manner from the rest of the unions in the Hollywood motion picture industry. Hs stated that all matters are in the hands of the elected officers and Board of Directors; that this union does not hold membership meetings regularly; that it has a called meeting when something special is called in order that the membership may vote on some specific question, but he stated that this occurs only on rare occasions and that the only regular meeting is the one which is called once per year for the purpose of electing officers.

Source further stated that due to this arrangement whereas the membership acting as a body can take no action on such affairs, Communist Party members, fellow travellers, and sympathizers among the Hollywood Actors carry on their work through other organizations such as "fronts". They act as individuals without the official sanction of the union, the Screen Actors Guild.

JAMES CACNEY. Source 3-C stated that CACNEY has contributed large sums of cash to the Communist Party. This feature is being treated elsewhere in this Fsport. (8)

EDRCE A. MURPHY. Source has stated that MURPHY is the First Vice-President, is very friendly with the C.I.O. and PHIL A. CONMALLY, President of the C.I.O. and Secretary of the L.A.I.U.C. He stated that he considers MURPHY very sympathetic to the Communist cause but that he would not be willing to call him a fellow traveller.

Source further stated that PAUL HARVEY, MALTER AMELL, FLUCTILE GIEASON and PORTER HALL have not been active even in any front organizations.

FRANCHOT TONE. Source stated that FRANCHOT TONE has been very active in Communist front organizations, has contributed largs sums of money to the Communist Party, and has been very active in matters in which the Communist Party has been involved.

RICHARD LAPAN. Source stated that LaPAN in about 1935 or 1936 was the collector for the Communist Party amongst the motion pictured people. At that time LaPAN stated that he had collected large sums of money from JAMES CAGNEY and others in the Screen Actors Guild. He stated that in 1934 LANKENCE ROSS was Secretary of the Communist Party in Los Angeles County and on one occasion he sent a hurried call to Hollywood insisting that LOUIS HEIFETZ see JAMES CAGNEY at once and get $200.00 as he needed it immediately. A presumption grew from this bit of information that CAGNEY might at any time be subject to call for Communist funds. (U)

Source 3-C has stated that the following members of the Screen Actors Guild have taken part in and supported Communists and Communist controlled front activities in the Hollywood section over a period of six or seven years to his own personal knowledge (*)

LUCILLE BALL
ROMAN BOHNEN
VIRGINIA BRUCE
MORRIS CARNOVISKY
DOROTHY COLMINGORE
FRANCES FARMER
HELEN GCHAMAN
JOHN GARFIELD
(COTTECT NAME
JAKE GARFINKEL)
STEWART HAMBLEN
WALTER HUSTON
FRED HEATING
VICTOR KILLIAN

IDA LUPINO
FREDERICK MARCH
PHILIP MERIVALE
MAURICE MURPHY
CLARENCE HUSE
IRVING PICHEL
MUCIAN PRIVAL
MUCIAN PRIVAL
MULISE RAINER
PAUL ROBESON
GALE SONDERGAARD
ART SMITH
MIONEL STANDER
FRANCHOT TONE
ORSON WELLES

电计算性线

A. F. of L. LOCAL UNIONS NOT LENTIONED HERETOFORE

Source 3-D has stated that the following sixteen unions which have not heretofore been mentioned in this report are A.F. of L. unions and should be mentioned here in order that all unions in the motion picture industry may be accounted for. He has stated that of this number nine form appart of the I.A.T.S.E. group affiliated with the A.F. of L. through the national organization of the I.A.T.S.E. They are the following:

AFFILIATED PROPERTY CRAFTSMEN LOCAL 44.

INTERMATIONAL PHOTOGRAPHERS LOCAL 659.

INTERNATIONAL SOUND TECHNICIANS LOCAL 695.

MAKEUP ARTISTS LOCAL 706.

MOTION PICTURE COSTUMERS LOCAL 705.

MOTION PICTURE SET ELECTRICIANS LOCAL, 728.

ZЮ-

MOTION PICTURE STUDIO GRIPS LOCAL 80.

MOTION PICTURE STUDIO PROJECTIONISTS NO. 165.

STUDIO LABORATORY AND UTILITY WORKERS LOCAL 727.

Source has stated that the following A.F. of L. local unions are not a part of the I.A.T.S.E. group but are affiliated with the A.F. of L. through their various international bosses:

Iocal	Approx. Membership
STUDIO DRIVERS (TEAMSTERS) LOCAL 399	1,000
STUDIO PLASTERERS LOCAL 755	550
STUDIO CARPENTERS LOCAL 946	2,200
STUDIO UTILITY MORKERS LOCAL 724	1,600
AMMERICAN FEDERATION OF MUSICIANS LOCAL 47	500
INTERNATIONAL BROTHERHOOD OF ELECTRICAL WORLLOCAL WO. 40	i,300
BUILDING SERVICE WORKERS LOCAL 99	500

五分选法据

Source has stated in the above-named unions it cannot be said that there is any large amount of Communist infiltration. A campaign for this purpose has been carried on for the past five or six years but hae not been successful. He has further stated that in no one of these unions has any of the officers been won over to the Communists cause; however, among the membership of some of these unions Communists and their sympathizers had been active prior to June 22, 1941, the date on which HITLER attacked STALIN. Since that time, however, he states that Communist Party instructions have been that there is to be unity with the A.F. of L. and that no serious attempts should be made to capture official positione in those unions. He stated, however, that this does not mean that they have dropped their activity; in fact it has been intensified but it has been turned in numerous directions. He stated that the purpose now is to utilize the present structure of these unione and influence the membership to support such extra-union activities as aid to Ruesia, resolution for a second front, independence of India, support for the (various projects put out by the Communiste such as nurseriee for the children of war workers, labor management committees and all war activities determined by the position of the Communist Party line toward the Soviet Phion. 7

5-7

建筑工作的企业,并由于中央企业的企业。

AFFILIATED PROPERTY CRAFTSEEN NO. 44 (I.A.T.S.E. Affiliate)

Source 3-E has advised that none of the officers of this union are Communiste or fellow travellers and for that reason same are not being listed.

Source 3-5, however, has stated that the following members of this union are listed as Communiets: FRED HAMSHELL, Communist Farty name FRANCI OAMES, and IRWIN P. HEMTSCHELL, whose Communist Party name is JOHN P. MINTES. It will be noted that HEWTSCHELL has been mentioned heretofore in Exhibit No. 1 and Exhibit No. 2 in the correspondence between JEFF KIERE and MINT HUBSCH and other officials of the Communist Party in connection with their activities at the 34th Annual Convention of the I.A.T.S.E. held at Cleveland, Ohio, June 6-9, 1938, in which ROY HUDSON questioned the loyalty and ability of HEMTSCHELL.

HUCH P. MASON. Source 3-E has stated that MASON was registered for voting ourposss as a Communist in 1936. It has also appeared at the JACK TENNEY Legislative Committee testimony that MASON attended the Communist Party fraction meetings and that Communist Party meetings were held in his home.

Source 3-E has etated that the following members of Local Wo. 44 have been listed by the officials of the union as having carried on and supported Communist propaganda at union meetings:

HARRY CHERNIN WILLIAM WILFROD LOUIS HAZEY JOHN C. PELTON RCY W. VICKEY WILLIAM M. DOUGLAS ARTHUR FRIEDSON ROBERT AMES MURRY PASCH GEORGE HAINES DITERNATIONAL PHOTOGRAPHERS LOCAL NO. 659 (I.A.T.S.S. affiliated With A. F. of L.

Source 3-F has stated with respect to the possible Communist infiltration into the International Fhotographers that there has been no infiltration of Communists into the officials of this group. He stated the nly member of this group who seems to have Communist connections is JAKES WONG ONE, a Chinaman. He stated that HOME was a member of the Motion Picture Comparative Buyere Guild and that he was a member of the Hollywood Anti-Nazi sague and it is considered that he has been very sympathetic to the Communist duse but it is not known definitely that he has ever been a member.

INTERNATIONAL SOUND TECHNICIANS LOCAL 695 (I.A.T.S.E. affiliated with A.F. of L.

Source 3-G has informed the Los Angelee Bureau office that there is no evidence that there is any Communist infiltration into this union to euch an extent as to have any influence whatever on the union's activity as a body. Source has stated, however, that HAROID SMITH, the business agent of this union, has been identified as consorting with Communist elements in Hollywood. He further stated that SMITH was voted for office at the Labor National Convention of the I.A.T.S.E. at Columbus, Ohio in June, 1942 and was part of what was termed the Communist bloc from Hollywood. He was a delegate from his union to Labors Unity for Victory, a Communist front meeting held in the Los Angelee Central Labor Council Hall, September 14, 1942.

Source stated that SMTTH is not what would be called a stable man by the Communiets. He uses them and they use him for certain purposes but it can be said that the Communists do not control him.

Source further stated that the other officers of this union have not been implicated in Communist activities and union as a body has not supported Communist proposals which follow the Communist Party line.

my a

WAKE UP ARTISTS LOCAL NO. 706 (I.A.T.S.E. Affiliated

Source 3-H has reported that the membership of this union is comparatively small and is made up of old time actors and for that reason any Communist activities have fallen on barren ground. He stated that the only member of this union who is e fellow traveller is RAYMOND LOPEZ. He stated that LOPEZ was e member of the Communist Party and active in the M.P.W.I.U. mentioned heretofore and for some eeven or eight years has carried on Communist propaganda and has been identified with Communist front organizations. He further stated that LOPEZ is e man of little force and does not have the ability to influence anyone.

MOTION PICTURE COSTUMERS LOCAL NO. 705 (I.A.T.S.E. AFFILIATED WITH A.F. OF L.

Source 3-I has stated that J. C. EDWARDS is the business agent of this union. He has stated that EDWARDS is not a Communist nor a sympathizer with Communism; that this union has an approximate membership of 600, which is composed principally of persons of foreign extraction, such as can be found in the garment industry. Source has stated that while tendency of these types is to lean toward the left, the fact that they are exceedingly well paid in the motion picture industry overrides completely any political viewpoint they might desire to adopt.

89

CONFIDENCIA

MOTION PICTURE SET ELECTRICIANS LOCAL NO. (I.A.T.S.E. affiliated with A.F. of L.

Source 3-J has informed that the officers of this union appear to have no communist connections; however he has stated that among the membership there has been some who have been active. The following individuals have been reported as having supported the U.S.T.G. and the Communist program to take over the Hollywood Studio Unions:

JERRY (J.N.) PATKIN. Source has stated that FATKIN is an electrician who is on call to the various studios when needed. He stated that FATKIN supports all proposals advanced in the interest of the Communist Party line at all meetings of the union.

ROY H. RICE. Source 3-J has stated that RICE is a steward in the union and that he is on call as a set electrician; that it is reported that he is an associats of FATKIN in following the Communist Party line in all union meetings.

Source has stated that MIKE ELLISON, BILL CORSMAN and CEORGE KATZMAN, members of this union, have cooperated with FATKIN and RICE at all times in following the Communist Party line.

Source 3-J further stated) that within the last few months there has devsloped an internal situation within this union which may result in this membership group going over to the Conference of Studio Unions dominated by Communist influence under the leadership of HERBERT K. SORRELL. He further stated that PAT CASEY, the Labor Relations Man between the studios and tbe unions, is in favor of lining up with the Conference of Studio Unions. Ha stated, however, that GUY RUSHING, the secretary of this union, is opposed to any Communist infiltration, out the business agent, A. J. MORAN, seems to favor collaboration with Communist controlled unions at the studios. He stated, however, that it cannot be stated that MORAN is a Communist but at times he has bsen known to sympathize with Communist programe and has advocated following soms activities which are a part of the Communist Party lins. (M142)

/ Source 3-J has stated that the following parties who are members and not officers of this union are known to have Communist sympathise:

> JOEL KRONISH FRED HOUNSCHELL CEORGE MEROHOFF WILLIAM KANE GEORGE DAVIS WILLIAM CORSMAN ED HARPER JOSEPH KECKENE

HERMAN LIPNEY WILLIAM SHARK CHARLES GUTHRIE GEORGE KATZMAN RICHARD LIVINGSTON

T. V. SHEFFIELD

н. с. ломе

MOTION PICTURE STUDIO GRIPS LOCAL NO. 30 (I.A.T.S.E. Affiliated with A. F. of L.

Source 3-K has informed the Los Angeles Bureau Office that none of the officiale of this union have any Communist connections. He further stated that the whole union is patriotically opposed to all Communist influence.

MOTION PICTURE PROJECTIONISTS LOCAL NO. 165 (I.A.T.S.E. Affiliated with A. F. of L.

Source 3-L has informed Agent that this local is a small group with only about 200 to 250 members. He stated that the officers are free from Communiet connections. He further stated that there is one member, EDWARD LEVEGUE, who is a member of the Communist Party under the name of HERBERT FORD. He stated that IEVEGUE was a member of the M.P.W.I.U. in 1934 and 1935 and at that time was very sympathetic to Communism and later joined the Communist Party and has informed that he retains his memberehip in the Communist Party.

LABORERS AND UTILITY WORKERS LOCAL NO. 723 (I.A.T.S.E. Affiliated with A. F. of L.

[Source 3-K has informed] Agent that this union is one of the I.A.T.S.E. group and that at one time this union had jurisdiction over utility workers and laborers in the studios, but within the last few years another union, the Studio Utility Employees Ho. 727, affiliated with the International Hod Carriers, Building and Common Laborers Union Of America, affiliated with A. F. of L., has taken over most of this type of workers, which has left this union with only about 250 to 300 members. Is stated that as a result there is no Communist activity in the union at all as it is expected that sooner or later this union will voluntarily go out of existence.

AMERICAN FEDERATION OF MUSICIANS LOCAL NO. 47

Source 3-N has reported to the Los Angeles Sureau Office that this union is an affiliate of the American Federation of Labor and represents all organized musiciane in the Los Angeles section as the bargaining agency. He stated that this union is not strictly a Hollywood union but it does encompass all musicians who work in the studios in Hollywood.

Source 3-N stated that the officers of this union at the present time are the following: J. K. (SPIKE) WALLACE, is the President and THL businese representative.

JOHN GROEN - Vice-President

FRANK B. PENDLETON - Recording Secretary

P.

-43

AL C. MYERS - Financial Secretary

JOHN M. BOYD - Trustee

H. C. GREEN - Trustee

RICHARD DICKERSON - Trustee

ZARHN EICKFORD - Member Board of Directors

ART GINDLER - Member Board of Directors

MAUPI H. PAUL - Member Board of Directors

GEORGE H. SMITH - Member Board of Directors

The officers are also Members of the Board of Directors.

Source 3-N stated that this union is one of the largest groups of the A.F. of L. in southern California, having a paid up membership of approximately 8,000. He further stated that although this organization has a clause in its constitution which demands expulsion from the union of any member or members who are Communists, who advocate Communism or any other subversive doctrines, or who engage in subversive propaganca, the union as a body has cooperated with known Communist groups in the Los Angeles locality.

Source further stated that the Musicians Local No. 47 from about 1937 to 1940 was conducted in a conservative manner; that JACK TENNEY was President of the union during that time. He stated that the union has a hall at 1417 Georgia Street, which is owned by the union. He further stated that TENNEY was elected to the California State Legislature in 1938 and he afterward became a member of the Sam Yorty Assembly Investigating Committee and in 1941 TENNEY succeeded FORTY in the committee which was afterwards known as the Tenney Legislative Investigating Committee and was also known as the Anti-Subversive Committee of the California State Legislature.

Source stated that TENNEY ceased to be the President of the union in 1940 and J. K. WALLACE was elected to succeed him. He further related that after TENNEY went out of office as President, WALLACE, SAM ALBERTS, MISCHA ALTMAN, HENRY ALBERTI, and a man by the name of BAN became active in the union; that ALBERTI, ALTMAN and BAN have been identified as members of the Communist Party up until 1940. He stated that prior to that time ALBERTS was not known as a Communist Party member but was considered a fellow traveller.

Source 3-N has further stated that the Communist line activities of this union are expressed through its President, J. K. MALLACE who sits in the forefront to support the Conference of Studio Unions, which is completely Communist controlled and under the leadership of HEPHERT K. SOR-HELL, a well known Communist. He further stated that the union passed a resolution about October 1, 1942 demanding the opening of a second front. He further stated that WALLACE as a delegate to Labors Unity for Fictoria.

Committee, a Communist dominated group, went on record as saying that his union had gone on record as supporting the Committee for the Care of Children in Wartims, a Communist sponsored group. He further stated that as an individual WALLACE'S name appears on a pamphlet written by DALTON TRUMBO, a well known Communist writer in Hollywood, as a sponsor. He further explained that this pamphlet was a protest against the deportation of HARRY BRIDGES. He further stated that WALLACE, speaking for this union, has led the attack on the activities of the Anti-Subversive Committee and JACK TENNEY personally. (TENNEY was elected to the State Senats in the November, 1942 election.)

Source 3-N further stated that WALLACE and this union take credit for the establishment of the Hollywood Canteen, which behind the scanes is controlled by a group of Communists and fellow travellers in Hollywood. Hs stated that this canteen furnished entertainment and refreshments for the armed forces without charge. He further stated that the general impression is that WALLACE is not a Communist Party member but he sponsors Communist activities and is a close associate of HEPBERT K. SORRELL and has made statements for his union that it will support demands made by SORRELL and his Conference of Studio Unions in any demands that they will make on the motion picture industry.

STUDIO DRIVERS LOCAL NUMBER 399

Source 3-O has stated that there has been an intensive campaign carried on by the Communists to penetrate and overtake this union, a campaign which was led by known Communists, fellow travellers and sympahizers. This local union was considered by them to be a key union in that roup of A.F. of L. locals not a part of the I.A.T.S.E. bloc. In this they are correct for the reason that if they could succeed in capturing this group a would provide an important wedge to penetrate the teamsters group on the est coast.

The campaign reached its height in 1941. At this time the heads of the union, Mr. JOSEPH TUOHY, Business Representative, and RAIPH CHARE, Secretary, who, with all other officials of the union, are opposed to radical activities, succeeded in expelling two of the Communist leaders from the union on charges of Communism. The two leaders were CEME BRADY and BEN BUDMAN, whose record appears in the files of the Los Angeles Bureau office.

These expulsions tended to stop activity and at the resent time it is of little importance, although there is a sizeable group Communists and fellow travellers in the union. However, they are strictly adercover and give little trouble.

1 10 - white the

CONFIDENTIAL

Their names are:

✓L. J. McCORMICK LEON SILVER (Husband of LARUE McCOPMICK) FRANK TALBOT ROY MCKEAN FLOYD PRATT AL CAYA FRANK COLLIER STANLEY PARKER MILEY HIIT HARRY ALLISON-JAMES DeSHON JOHN STRONG CECIL BEAVER HARRY STONE-GEORGE COLEMAN VERNE SPERRY (Correct name HYMIE EDELMAN) JACK GANNON VINCENT LARSEN COLDIE CREEN JACK KESSLER ADRIAN BEALL HARRY STERNBERG CHARLES TEED SOL GUIDBERG L. D. SAMPSON

Source 3-O has collected the information about these members himself, personally, through other members of the union. He stated that they were active in the U.S.T.G. in 1939; that they supported the Motion Picture Democratic Committee, which was a Communist front organization. He stated that they also objected to the expulsion from the union of BEN BUDMAN and CENE BRADY because of their Communist activities. The expulsion was made by a vote in an open hearing of the union. AL CAYA acted as the spokesman at the first hearing. At the second hearing, which took place in 1941, BRADY and BUDMAN sought the advice of GEORGE SHIBLEY, an attorney at Long Beach, California who has been involved in Communist activities and is a member of the Lawyers Guild and whose practice is confined to individuals and organizations of a Communist viewpoint and the men mentioned above voted against expulsion. They did not support the American Peace Mobilization or other fronts outside their labor union.

STUDIO PLASTERERS LOCAL NUMBER 755

Source 3-P has stated that this union is one of the conservative bloc of unions. HEN HARTINEZ is the business representative of the union and has been cooperative in combating Communist activity in the Holly-wood unions.

Source 3-P has stated that there are no Communist activities in this union of any consequence; that the membership is limited and it is not one of the larger key unions; that the membership is approximately 400.

CONFIDENTIAL

Source 3-P further stated that the only members of the union who have shown Communist tendencies are: (1) ()

RUDOLPH PARDUCCI HENRY GREUTEST HAROLD F. WILSON

He further stated that their activities have been confined to conversations with their own union members. He further stated that this union's membership is composed of Italians largely and that the work which they do is ornamental plaster cast work (1)

STUDIO CARPENTERS LOCAL NUMBER 946

Source 3-Q informed Agent that this union is apparently free of any outward Communist activities. He stated that it is an old line group, the members of which are for the most part men identified with the picture inductry for many years. He further stated that the membership of this union tended to lean toward the conservative side. He also stated that it had been reported that there had been some Communist agitation in the past but at the present time it does not show. He stated that the officers of the union are in no way involved in radical activity of any kind; however their position is one of neutrality toward Communist activity.

Source 3-Q further stated that at a meeting of this union in June, 1941 of various conservative heads of Hollywood unions to combat Communist activity the representatives of this group would not cooperate. Attempts were later made to get their representatives to do so but without results. He further stated that the membership of this union is approximately 2,200 and that the position which the officers took on the situation with respect to Communists was one of aloofness, contending that there was no problem within the organization they represented.

STUDIO UTILITY EMPLOYEES LOCAL NO. 724

Source 3-R informed Agent that the membership of this union is approximately 1,600 and that there is no serious attempt by the Communist element to penetrate this group. Attempts have been made in the past but such attempts were entirely unsuccessful.

Source has stated that the officials of the union are in no way implicated in any radical activity; in fact it is one of the organizations in the Hollywood industry that has been aware of what has been going on and has consistently taken steps to prevent any Communist activity within the ranks of the membership.

In addition to the conservative position of the unitary officials another factor operates to prevent Communist activity. And that is that the membership is composed of common laborers who drift in and out of the union. There is a large turnover in membership and as a consequence it is impossible for the Communist elements to concentrate on the members to build up a permanent faction.

The officiale of the union, particularly IEW HEIM, Business Representative, and H. C. ROHRBACH, JR., Secretary, have cooperated with other conservative union leaders in Hollywood unions to put down, or prevent Communist activity in the unions.

HOLLTWOOD UNIONS FREE OF COMMUNIST PARTY INFLUENCE

Source 3-S has etated that the following motion picture unions in Hollywood, California, have, so far as he has been able to ascertain, remained entirely free of Communist Party influence. They are the following:

INTERNATIONAL BROTHERHOOD OF ELECTRICAL WORKERS, A.F. of L. LOCAL 40, Approximately 900 members

BUILDING SERVICE WORKERS NO. 99, A.F. of L., approximately 500 members

SOCIETY OF MOTION FICTURE INTERIOR DECORATORS, INDEPENDENT - approximately 250 members

MOTION PICTURE HAIR STYLISTS GUILD - Independent approximately 250 members

ARTISTS MANAGERS CUILD - Independent - approximately 100 members

SCRIFT CLERKS GUILD - Independent - approximately 250 members

UNIT MANAGERS GUILD - Independent - approximately 100

FIRST AID MEN AND WOMENS UNION - Independent - approximate 150 members

SOCIETY OF MOTION PICTURE FILM EDITORS - Independent approximately 650 members

Source 3-S stated that two of the above named A.F. of L. B.E.W. Local No. 40 which has about 900 members, and the Building

CONFIDENTINE

WHITH The Same

Service Workers No. 99 with an approximate membership of about 500, have not shown any activity along Communist lines as organizations. The officials of these unions have not been identified with any form of Communist activity to his knowledge.

Source 3-S further stated that the seven independent unions named are small groups loosely organized and have not joined with any other unions in any activity of any sort so far as communism is concerned. He stated that they function as small independent groups in efforts to better their working conditions. He further stated that these unions could not be considered key groups and it therefore appears that there has not been intensive concentration on them by the Communist Party. It has always been a contention of the Communist element in Hollywood that if they could get control of the key unions, particularly those which are a part of the Conference of Studio Unions and several other I.A.T.S.E. locals, not yet a part of the latter group, they would have the situation well in hand, and then could force the remainder of the unions to fall in line with their wishes.

OF THE LABOR UNION SITUATION IN THE HOLLYWOOD MOTION PICTURE INDUSTRY

Source 3-T has assisted in summing up the labor union situation as it exists in Hollywood and has pointed out the various efforts which have been made by the Communists and the Communist Party to get control of the various unions and guilds, and has gone a little farther and has shown the way in which the motion picture guilds and unions have endeavored to follow the Communist Party line which he has stated has been "without deviation". He has further pointed out that while the motion picture unions and guilds are at the present time on the surface at least for an all out war effort, that one who is familiar with their tactics can readily see that the Communist Party at the present time is losing no opportunity to further the interests of the Communist Party at the present time.

This summary is as follows:

"In its attempt to take over and control the motion picture industry in Hollywood, plans for which were laid down about twelve years ago, the Communist Party has consistently pursued policies and methods which were adjusted to different group interests and which varied in application according to the different changes in the party line of the Communist International (Comintern).

mionsx

OF CHIMADENTAL

"In Hollywood there were two main lines of procedure; one for influencing the so-called cultural groups, writers, actors, artists, directors, etc., and another for penetration and the capturing control of the studio trade unions. Tactice used were not the same, although there was under cover coordination of all communist interests and controlled groups.

"As has been shown heretofore, the initial attempt to enter the trade union field in the motion picture industry was the formation of the Motion Picture Workers Industrial Union. This union, although not affiliated with the Trade Union Unity League (T.U.U.L.), was set up along the same lines of that basic communist organization and had the same object in view.

"At the time of the formation of the M.P.W.I.U. in 1934 the line of the Communist Party was to form independent unions, mould them into revolutionary unions and work for the eventual overthrow of capitalist democracy by means of violent revolution.

"This line of the Communist Party is clearly laid down in THE COMMUNIST, the official monthly organ of the Communist Party of the United States for June 1930, at Page 509, where it is stated:-

'We should keep in mind that the Party has also at its disposal other organizations, schools of the class struggle, schools of Communist strategy and tactics, where it can and in fact should recruit workers by the thousands who are insufficiently prepared, and in need of preliminary schooling. Such are, first of all, the revolutionary trade unions.

Again, on page 512 it etated:

'The TUUL is an independent leader in the economic. struggles of the working class. It is an uncompromising foe of the A.F. of L. Its task is to mobilize the masses, win them to its side, embrace them organizationally within its own folds and to destroy the A.F. of L.!

"This was the first method of penetration of the Holly-wood motion picture industry by way of the Motion Picture Workers Industrial Union which was completely Communist dominated and which followed the Communist Party line implicitly.

- 90 --

TONTE

"At the Seventh World Congress of the Communist International held in Moscow July 25th to August 20th, 1935, at which Congress EARL BROWDER was one of the delegates from the United States, a decision was made to alter the methods and tactics of the world Communist movement. What was called at that time the 'United Front', later called the 'Popular Front', was set up. All the various Communist parties throughout the world were ordered to conform and change their methods and tactics.

"In the trade union field this united front tactic called for the abandoment of revolutionary tactics, substituting therefor the boring-from-within process whereby all Communists were to join and work within the then existing trade unions, which meant in the United States the American Federation of Labor. They were to try and capture the leadership and key positions in the unions and bend the organizations over to the Communist Party line which had now become 'support of bourgeois democracy, opposition to fascism, etc.'. This change in the Communist Party line was determined by the foreign policy of the Soviet union which was then advocating 'collective security' against the tendency toward fascism.

"This line for action of Communiste in trade unions was laid down by GEORGE DIMITROF, head of the Communist International, at this Congress as follows:

'Hence, the main task of the Communist Parties of the West at the present time is to develop the campaign for unity in the trade union movement and to bring it to its consummation; to see to it that all Communists, without exception, join the trade unions, there to work systematically and patiently to strengthen the solidarity of the working class in its fight against capital, and thus attain the conditions that will enable the Communist Parties to rely upon the trade unions.' (Report of DIMITMOF to Seventh World Congress - Page 44)

"EARL BROWDER, on his return to the United States from this Congress, repeated this formula at the November (1935) Plenum of the Central Committee of the Communist Party of the United States, as follows:

一条。

'The Seventh World Congress formulated a new tactical line because new conditions have arisen, not because the old line was wrong. The Communists are Marxists, Leninists and Stalinists. We adopt such tactics as best suit the concrete conditions. We will adopt new dd

-

tactics again when changing conditions demand it.
What Communists do not change, of course, is their strategic aim—the proletarian revolution and social—ism. Naturally, the Seventh World Congress made no change in that at all. On the contrary, it equipped the working class vanguard with such a tactical line as will enable them to fight most effectively for this aim in the present world conditions.

(BROWDER'S report - Page 6)

"Then, respecting the trade union situation, specifically, BROWDER had this to report:

'Our party faces a great responsibility in the present trace union situation......in order more fully to carry through this role, we must complete the organization of the unorganized Communists, those who are eligible but have not yet joined the trace unions. All party organizations must consider it one of their tasks to bring the Communists into the organized trace union movement.'

(Pages 53-54, BROWDER Report)

"As a result of this decision of the Seventh World Congress held in Moscow, Russia, and the subsequent report of EARL BROWDER to the Central Committee of the Communist Party of the United States, the Motion Picture Workers Industrial Union of Hollywood, a revolutionary trade union, was quietly diesolved in February, 1936, and all Communist Party members, fellow travellers and sympathizers obediently went over and joined the then existing A.F. of L. unions in the Hollywood motion picture industry and began to work according to instructions based upon the Moscow decisions.

"Then followed the various maneuverings heretofore described—the formation of such groups as Conference of Motion Picture Arts and Crafts (COMPAC), United Studio Technicians Guild (USTG), Conference of Studio Unions, and a host of smaller groupings, all of which was determined by the Communist Party line.

"During this period and up to the signing of the STALIN-HITIER pact on August 23, 1939, the Communist Party made tremendous etrides both in capturing unions and gaining influence all through the motion picture industry. Concealing their identity by pretending support of democracy, registering politically as members of the Democratic party, and carrying out the Trojan horse tactics of the Communist International, their influence spread among the rank and file the communist unions.

"However, with the announcement of the STALIN-HITLER pact there was a lull in the progress. For the duration of that pact, August 23, 1939 to June 22, 1941, the Communists confined their operations in the unions mainly to collective bargaining for the members, dropping the outward Communist political agitation almost completely. Politically, they were in very bad odor. But however, this oad odor affected them politically they retained their hold on the union groups because the Hollywood motion picture producers, through their labor representative, PAT CASEY, favored the Communist controlled unions. This enhanced the prestige of the Communist controlled leadership which was thereby enabled to hold on during that rough period.

"The change in the Communist Party line that came with this signing of the STALIN-HITLER pact on August 23, 1939, a change which demanded that Communiste abandon support of democracy as exemplified by the Popular Front, and work for isolation, oppose national defense, conscription, Lease-Lend aid to Britain, in effect give aid and comfort as far as possible to Nazi Germany and the Axis powers, was followed by the Communist controlled Hollywood unions cautiously. They took the then Communist position that it was an imperialist war and America should have none of it. But this line was followed in a very cloudy and ambiguous manner. However, some of the unions went so far as to support the American Peace Hobilization.

"In the main, however, such support was an individual matter with some of the leaders of the Communist persuasion within the unions. But it was very limited for the reason that it is an important part of Communist strategy that Communist union leaders must always be orotected from exposure. They are instructed to confine their activities mainly to their union affairs, particularly during a period when the party is under such fire as it was during the period of the HITIER-STALIN pact. The party line was carried more openly at this time by the cultural groups, and "front" organizations with which many of the Communists were working secretly.

"With HITIER'S attack on Russia on June 22, 1941, a new period was ushered in. The change in the position of Soviet Russia and its subsidiary, the Communist International, from one of collaboration with the Axis powers to one of antagonism, and the subsequent alliance of Russia with Great Britain and the United States was immediately reflected in the union activities of the Hollywood motion picture industry.

- Ar

"From a position of opposition to the war in every respect, the Communist controlled groups now suddenly became violently patriotic and began shouting for all-out support of democracy, the war, national defense, second front, and in favor of everything they tight condemned just a few weeks before. This is the situation as it prevails at this time.

Thath

"And it is on this situation which the Communist Party relies to eventually control and dominate the Hollywood studio unions. By assuming the garb of ultra patriotism, giving all support to every project for national defense and taking part in all efforts to prosecute a successful end to the war, it is outwardly going along with the tide. But at the same time it is working feverishly undercover to build the party influence, recruit members into its ranks and to take advantage of every channel and avenue to build membership and influence.

"In this it, the Communist Party, is following out the basic principle of the Seventh World Congress of the Communist International, which EARL BROWDER clearly stated in his report on this Congress given at Madison Square Carden in New York City, on October 3rd, 1935, when he stated:

'If, nevertheless, war breaks out, it is their duty to work for its speedy termination, and to strive with all their might to utilize the economic and political crisis produced by the war, to rouse the political consciousness of the masses of the people and thereby hasten the downfall of capitalist class rule.'

(BROWDER'S report - Page 7)

"The tactics pursued by the Communists and fellow travellers within the Hollywood unions, and the cultural groups as well, ara, at the present time, not easily distinguishable. Masking their efforts, as has been said, behind an all-out war effort, they are utilizing all their forces in work among the thousands of workers in all categories. Their activities take the form of agitation for the second front, Ruseian relief, sympathy for the Soviet system of government, freedom for India, negro equality, defense of HARRY BRIDGES, pressure to have Communists placed on the Mar Manpower Commission, Civilian Defense, Rationing Boards, and all government appointed agencies, entertainment of and propaganda among the armed forces, etc. etc. All this is part of the Communist Party line at this time.

"All attempts to capture leadership and key positions in the unions by the usual tactics of slander, innuendo and false accusations against the conservative leaders have been temporarily abandoned. In their place have been substituted the program activities mentioned above and an approach to these conservative leaders for cooperation with the Communist Party line. "In this program the Communists in the unions have the fullest support from the cultural groups, writers, actors, directors and the Hollywood "intelligentsia" generally who follow the Communist Party line. These latter have great influence and crestige. Of all groups in the Hollywood sector these cultural groups are the most susceptible to Communist influence. Having greater latitude as theoreticians and artists their necks are generally found to be much farther out than those of the Communist trade unionists who are instructed to play a much closer game.

"To summarize the present union situation in Hollywood it must be stated that while the campaign to takeover the remaining unions from the top, not yet under Communist control, has now been halted, the foundations for a future coup by the Communist Party, its fellow travellers and sympathizers is now being laid. Utilizing the position and prestige of Soviet Russia in the war effort, the Communist Party is building a strong following among all departments of the motion picture industry, a feat not particularly difficult at this time due to the peculiarities of the industry, its strong racial factors and foreign ties.

"Due to the war situation the picture may appear confusing; but it will become somewhat clearer if it is borne in mind that the leaders of the Communist International have stated many times with authority, that 'support of bourgeois democracy is not a principle; on the contrary, it is only a tactic to be applied under certain conditions.'
This principle is clearly set forth in the report of MARL BROWDER quoted above.

"The tremerdous influence of Hollywood and the motion picture on the ways and customs of the people of the United States and the world must not be underestimated. The Communist International has understood this for many years and has been laying plans accordingly. It is fully aware of this influence and for that reason has concentrated on both the trade unions and the cultural departments.

"On the surface the increasing influence of the Communist Party and its fellow travellers is not so apparent, amalgamated as it is with the war effort. But behind the ecenes this influence is growing and has now become so strong that it is able to influence the type of picture being made, or prevent anything being put into a picture which is considered contrary to the Communist Party line.

103 Ministra

"Despite all protestations by the Communiste and their fellow travellers that they now stand for complete support of democratic processes, that they are for all-out support of the war, and despite the fact that they now appear in the garb of ardent American patriots, they are working furiously behind the scenee to build the party and ite influence in order that they may render service to the Soviet Union and its foreign policy, even though that policy should lead to direct antagonism to the interests of the government of the United States.

"This principle is clearly understood by all members of the Communist Party and trusted fellow travellers. It was clearly stated by EARL BROWDER in his speech in Madison Garden, New York City, on October 3rd, 1935, quoted above.

"A statement made by a Communist of some importance in the Los Angeles section, EUCENE LINDER, within the last thirty days, to the effect that they expected, within the next five years, to bring about the proletarian revolution, is indicative of the party position.

Source 3-T has stated that LINDER has been a Communist Party member since 1934, at which time he attended meetings at Unit J-6, Hollywood Sub-section. He further stated that in 1937 LINDER made a trip to Russia in company with one GIBBS, and attorney LEO CALLACHER joined them or at least joined LINDER in Europe and toured several countries of Europe with LINDER. He stated that on LINDER'S return to the United States he delivered a series of lectures on the advantages of the Soviet union and the justice of Communism. (1)

Source further stated that LINDER was the chairman of the Saturday Discussion Club, a Communist propaganda forum which holds meetings in Clifton's Cafeteria on Olive Street in Los Angeles, at the same time that he, LINDER, was employed on the Adult Educational Project of the Works Projecte Administration.

Source 3-T stated that LINDER taught sociology and economics at the Felmont, Fairfax, and Hollywood high schools in Los Angelee, as well as at several so-called discussion clube and open forums and various women's clube.

104

SOUTH SENTING

COMMUNIST INFILTRATION AND COMMUNIST CONTROL IN THE SO-CALLED CULTURAL, POLITICAL, PROPAGANDA AND FRONT ORGANIZATIONS IN THE MOTION PICTURE INDUSTRY IN HOLLYTOOD

The first section of this report dealt with the infiltration of Communists and Communist influence and control into the labor unions and guilds in the motion picture industry in Hollywood, California.

This, the second section of this report, deals with the control and attempted control by the Communist Party of the U.S.A. under general directives from the Communist Party of the Soviet Union over certain groups of directors, writers, actors, actresses and highly paid technicians, the so-called intellectuals employed in the motion picture industry in Hollywood. The purpose of this control is to utilize the motion picture as a powerful instrument of propaganda and cause the production of pictures which will serve the interests of the foreign policy of the Soviet Union throughout the world.

COLLIUNIST CULTURAL ACTIVITIES IN HOLLYWOOD

|Source 3-0, who was a member of the Communist Party in Hollywood for a number of years and who has been very active in Hollywood activities for many years, has stated that the Communist cultural entry into Hollywood was not a spontaneous movement by certain persons in the industry who were in sympathy with "social causes" and who, living in an artificial world of make-believe wished a vicarious thrill by playing at being the dreaded revolutionary in real life, on the contrary this program of Communist infiltration of the Hollywood motion picture industry with the object of taking over and influencing it in the interests of the Communist world revolution, wae clanned in 1934 and those plans were laid for afield from the local scene. This is not to say that some of those who later became involved in Communist activities among the cultural groups in the industry were not romantic dabblers Estuhat has become since about 1936 a sort of fad with the intelligentsia of the film world, but that group of Communist Party wheel horses which has been working constantly in the interests of the Communist Party and Communism, is in dead earneet, and when properly understood in the light of its place and functions as part of a gigantic world conspiracy, there can be no denial that it has been extremely successful.

In an attempt to measure the progress of Communist activities and influence in the motion picture industry, it must be done by keeping in mind the role to be played, which is to influence the minds and emotions of the great masses of people of the United States and the world. Tickliffilso be remembered that here in the United States alone the motion pinting reaches approximately 85,000,000 people each week, that being the average weekly attendance. This there has been an immense program of infiltration into the studio labor unions, as has been shown, it is among the intellectuals, particularly the writers, directors, actors and artists, the so-called cultural field, where most progress has been made and where Communist sympathy and influence is the strongest and most far-reaching; and this is only natural, for, despite all claims and pretensions that Communism as propagated by the world Communist Internationale (Comintern) is a "workers' movement" and meant to free the "toiling masses" from the wage slavery of capitalism and its operations, in reality this is not true, and never was. The Communists, and all radical movements, in fact, are movements led by frustrated and satiated intellectuals who, under the guise of liberating the working classes, seek to set themselves up as a privileged class in a new society of which they will be the directing heads.

The makers of the Russian Revolution in 1917, the model for Communists everywhere, were all intellectuals—they never worked a day in their lives at manual labor. This fact is proven further when we see the Communist leaders of labor unions here in the United States as intellectuals, or striving to be such. The reason for this is that what is called Marxism, Leninism, and Stalinism—a combination of terms used by Communists everywhere—is based on theory, and that theory calls for intensive intellectual concentration. It is only from this basis of reasoning that the Communist activities of the highly paid writers, directors, actors and artists, whose salaries in many cases amount to thousands of dollars a week, can be explained. This attitude is borne out by the statement of LAURA DURT to the State District Attorney in Los Angeles in 1940 when she stated:

"We attended a housewarming in the nome of HELEN GAHAGEN and LELVIN DOUGLAS at which there were a number of screen people present. We complimented Miss GAHAGEN on their home and she said, 'I don't know why we put so much money in it because when revolution comes we will lose it all, and the revolution is bound to come occause conditions in this country are so terrible it is inevitable.'"

~~~~...

The initial move of the Communist Internationale to get control over international artists, writers and those in the creative fields of the arts began about the year 1930. The necessity for this action had long been recognized in the Soviet Union as a policy of the state to control the minds of the people. But it was not until 1930 that the international structure, the Communist Internationale (Comintern) was delegated to make this program everywhere throughout the world. It was in this year that the international union of revolutionary writers, which has had such tremendous influence on writers in the United States, held a congress in Tharkov, Russia. The effects of this congress, attended by delegates from the United States, are apparent right now in Hollywood. [Many of the writers now employed in Hollywood motion picture industry were schooled in the organization which sprang from this congress, and those writers who were so schooled are still carrying on for the Communist Party as vigorously as ever.]

40 POST

[About this same time, that is in 1930, another organization was set up in the Soviet Union. It was called the International Union of Revolutionary Theatre. The headquarters were in Moscow. It likewise was the parent of a multitude of suo-organizations in the United States called "Morkers' Theaters", "Theater Groups", "Little Theater", and others. All of these projects were under the firm control of the Communist Party.

The president of this international union of revolutionary theatre was HIMPHON DELIGHT, theater director in Russia. Others of influence were:

PEAPL ATTACHEVA
ANATOLI GELEBOR
SERGEI ELSENSTEIN
LEWIN PISCATOR
SERGI TRETTAKOV
CHAN IMAN
JAY LEYDA

All of the above are Russians and are internationally . known in theatrical circles as being authorities on theatre and theatre business. The plans of this group were to set up in the United States schools of the theater patterned after those of NEYTTEOID and STANISLAVSKY, Russian authorities on the use of the theater as a weapon for revolutionary propaganda. Such were the plans laid down in Moscow, Russia to be sponsored by the Communist Party in the United States.

Shortly after this International Union of Revolutionary Theatres was set up in Russia, there sprang up in the United States in all the major cities a multitude of so-called "theater groups". There were such organizations as:

-

"Theater of Action",
"ARTER"
"Theater Collective"
"Chicago Group Theater"
"New Theater Players of Hollywood"
"Negro Prople Theaters of the South"
"Rebel Players"

All of the above groups were under Communist Party control and followed the pattern of the "Revolutionary Theater" as above stated. There were also set up at the same time the following:

"Film and Photo League" "Workers Dance League"

These two latter organizations at their inception were separated from the theater groups but they also were Communist inspired and controlled.

In April, 1932 the Communist leaders in New York called a national theater conference. It was composed of delegates from all of the aforementioned groups. At this conference there was created what was called the IEACUE OF WORKERS THEATER. This league brought together all groups into one-centrally controlled organization and was known as the American section of the International Union of Revolutionary Theatre. It published a magazine called "The Workers' Theater".

In 1934 the name of the League of Workers' Theater was changed to the NEW THEATER LEAGUE and the magazine was re-named "New Theater". The structure and Communist control remained. It was the same set up under a new name.

Previous to this change in names there had been very little attention paid to the Hollywood motion picture industry but now that sound was introduced and the talking motion picture was firmly established which was changing the technique of the motion picture to one more adaptable for propaganda purposes, the Communist Party began an intensive campaign to penetrate the industry.

The consolidation of all of these theater groups into one organization with its headquarters in New York made it possible to direct all activities more efficiently. This supervision of all of these group theater activities which were in effect schools for writer, actors, directors, artists, etc., many of whom later were employed in Hollywood was successful and as a result the initial infiltration in Hollywood was mainly from this source.

NATIONAL EXECUTIVE BOARD OF THE NEW THEATER LEAGUE - 1935

ANITA BLACKPHILLIP BARBER
JOHN BOND—
BEN BLAKE
VICTOR CUTLER
HARRY ELION
ALICE EVANS—HEN GOLDEN
ANNE HOWE
BEN IRWIN
HERBERT KLINE

TONI KRABER
JOHN HOWARD LAWSON
WILL LEE
HARK MARVIN
ALBERT MALTZ
LISTON OAK,
ROBERT RILEY
GEORGE HEDFIELD
AUGUSTUS SLITH
HOLLY DAY THATCHER

108

NATIONAL ADVISORY COUNCIL

STANLEY BERISHAW ALBERT SEIN J. O. BAILEY LORETTO BALLEY N. BUCHWALD LICHAEL BLANKFORT BAPPETT H. CLARK CHERYL CRAWFORD. H. W. L. DANA WALTER FRITCHARD EATON RANDOLPH EDMUNDS JOSEPH FRITZIAN VIRGIL GEDDES LITCHAEL GOLD MORDESAI GORELIK A. T. HOBAN LANCSTON HUCHES.

ALFRED HEEYLBORG MELVIN P. LEVY WILLIAM E. LEONARD ROSE McCLENDON SAMUEL ORNITZ CLIFFORD ODETS PAUL PETERS PAUL ROBESON CONRAD SILER BENNO SCHNEIDER GEORGE SKLAR LEE STRASBERG PAUL SIFTON. CLARA SIFTON PHILLIP STEVENSON LEIGH WHIPPER

Editorial Staff of "New Theater"

HERBERT KLINE - Editor

CEORGE REDFIELD - Managing Editor

ELEANOR FLEXNER - Assistant Managing Editor

VICTOR WOLFSON - Drama ROBERT STEBBINS - Films EDNA OCKO - Dance

BEN BLAKE - European Editor
DAVID CRYSTAL - Business Manager

Associates

L. EERMAN
DOROTHY DANNIN
STEPHEN FOSTER
LEO T. HURWITZ
JAY LETDA
RAY LUDLOW
JOHN MAKEPEACE
MARK MARVIN
LOUIS MORDEN
NORMA POLAND

MURIEL RUCKEYSER
ELIZABETH RUSKEY
HAT SAUNDETS
AUGUSTUS SLITH
ROBERT STECK
JIM STERN
NORMAN STEVENS
HOLLY DAY THATCHER
DORIS YANKAURER

While the above lists of names represent all sections of the United States, among them will be found some that are now employed in Hollywood and carrying on activities which are in tune with the Communist Party line. They are the following:

HEPBERT KLINE, Director, Communist Party member, associated with JCHN STEINBECK. Now in Mexico City making a picture.

JOHN HOWARD LAVSON, writer, member of League of American Writers and a Communist Party member.

ALBERT MALTI, writer, member of the League of American Writers and a Communist Party member.

AIEETT BEIN, writer, member of the League of American Writers, member of the New Theater League and a follow traveller.

MICHAEL BLANKFORT, writer, member of the League of American Writers, and a member of the Communist Party.

LANCSTON HUCHES, writer, a member of the League of American Writers and a member of the Communist Party.

SAMUEL ORNITZ, writer, member of the League of American Writers, a member of the American Peace Mobilization and many other front organizations, and a member of the Communist Party for many years.

VCLIFFORD ODETS, writer, a member of the League of American Writers, active in the American Peace Mobilization and a member of the Communist Party.

PAUL FETERS, writer, a member of the League of American Writers and a fellow traveller.

PAUL ROBESCH, actor and singer. Very active in American Peace Mobilization and a member of the Communist Party.

BENNO SCHMEIDER, director, an ardent fellow traveller.

GEORGE SILAR, writer, a member of the League of American Writers, very active in American Peace Mobilization and an active member of the Communist Party.

JAY LEYDA, director, member of the American Peace Hobilization; at the present time directing the picture "Mission to Moscow", and an ardent member of the Communist Party.

Others now in Hollywood connected with the motion picture industry who were affiliated with or supported the activities of the New Theater League, are the following:

DUDLEY NICHOIS, writer and director, member of the League of American Writers and a fellow traveller.

VIOLA BROTHERS SHORE, writer, member of the League of American Writers, and a very active member of the Communist Farty.

MARC BLITZSTEIN, writer and composer, member of the League of American Writers, member of the American Peace Mobilization.

WIESTER COLE, writer, member of the League of American Writers, member of the American Peace Mobilization and an active member of the Communist Party.

VILLIAN HEIJMAN, writer, a member of the League of American Writers, a member of the American Peace Mobilization, an active member of the Communist Party, and the wife of ARTHUR KORER.

ARTHUR KOBER, writer, member of the League of American Uriters, member of the American Feace Mobilization, a member of the Communist Party and the husband of LILLIAN HELLIAN.

LESTER KOENIG, writer, member of the League of American Writers and a fellow traveller.

HERBERT BIBERMAN, director, Los Angeles director of the American Peace Mobilization; picketed the White House until a few days before HITLER attacked STALIN on June 22, 1941; a member of the Communist Party.

ORSON WELLES, writer and director, a member of the League of American Writers, a member of the American Peace Mobilization; active in the HARRY BRIDGES defense committee.

/IEMIS MILESTONE, director and a fellow traveller.

HERMAN SHUTTEIN, director, member of the American Peace Mobilization and a member of the Communist Party.

JOHN CROMWELL, director, a fellow traveller.

WILLIAM DIETERIE, director, and a member of the Communist Party.

-CONFIDENTIAL

SUMME LAMINE

FRANK TUTTIE, director, a member of the League of American Writers, a member of the American Peace Mobilization, and a member of the Communist Party.

KING VIDOR, director, fellow traveller who follows the Communist Party line ardently.

JORIS IVENS, director, follower of the Communist Party line.

√ PARE IORENTZ, director, a follower of the Communist Party
line.

✓ J. EDWARD BROWNERG, actor, a member of the American Peace Mobilization and an ardent member of the Communist Party.

JOHN GARFIEID, actor, a fellow traveller and an ardent follower of the Communist Party line.

MAURICE CARNOVSKY, actor, a fellow traveller and a follower of the Communist Party line.

ROMAN BOHNEN, actor; follower of the Communist Party line.

FRANCES FARRER, actress, fellow traveller.

GALE SONDERGAARD, actress, member of the American Peace Mobilization and a member of the Communist Party.

JOHN WEXIM, writer, member of the League of American Writers, a teacher in the writers school, and a follower of the Communist Party line.

Writers, sponsor of Contemporary Theater, and a follower of the Communist Party line.

FREDERIC MARCH, actor; very active in the Mooney defense committee; a member of the Communist Party.

FIORENCE EIDREDGE, actress, member of the Hollywood Anti-Nazi League and a member of the Communist Party.

DONALD OCDEN STEWART, writer, member of the lighte of American Writers and former president of that organization. A member of the Hollywood Anti-Nazi League; very active member of the American Peace Mobilization, and a member of the Communist Party.

ZAIDS CAGNEY, actor; a member of the American Peace Hobilization, and a fellow traveller who follows the Communist Party line.

LIONEL STADER, actor; member of the Hollywood Anti-Nazi League, a member of the League for Peace and Democracy, and a member of the Communist Party.

ART SHITH, a follower of the Communist Farty line; now in Mexico City.

JEAN MUIR, actress; member of the Hollywood Anti-Hazi League, and follower of the Communist Party line.

ROUBEN MAMOUTIAM, director; member of the Holl, wood Anti-Mazi League and other fronts and a Tellow traveller.

The above described activity of the Communist Party operating through the New Theater League and its offshoots is by no means the extent of its activity in the Hollywood cultural section. It will be seen in reports on separate organizations heretofore made and hereinafter given, that the persons mentioned in connection with the New Theater League appear in each and every one of the numerous front organizations and Communist controlled labor unions and groups sponsored by the cultural groups and labor unions. Instead of being a group here and a group there operating separately, it is an interlocking system with tentacles in every organization, political, cultural, front, or labor unions, all activities of which stem from the spearhead, the Communist Farty.

The method of operation, the tactics for infiltration, and the general procedure as described above are basically the same in all of the work of the Communist Party, whether it be in Hollywood, labor unions, front organizations, local, state or national government, or social groups. The general line is laid down in Moscow, the national groups carry it out through the network where it eventually takes effect in every section of the world. The changes in the party line are reflected in the United States nationally and locally with an incredible efficiency.

As an example of this which we have seen the elimination of the Hollywood Anti-Nazi League, the program of which was one of opposition to Naziism, and support of the democratic processes, and the almost immediate substitution of the Hollywood League for Democratic Action, the program of which was just the reverse. This change from one organization to another was deternined by the foreign policy of the Soviet Union which changed with the consumnation of the STALIM-HITLER pact, August 23, 1939. It will else be noted from separate reports hereinafter that the same officials of the Hollywood Anti-Nazi League were the same as they were for the Hollywood League for Democratic Action.

The Hollywood motion picture industry is and has been, as it will be seen, one of the outstanding barometers of change in the Communist Party line.

CONTEMPORARY THEATRE, INCORPORATED (Communist Front Organization)

CONFIDENTIAL

Source 3-V, who is familiar with the Communist build-up in Hollywood has stated that with the setting up of the NEW THEATRE LEAGUE in 1934, and the publication of its official magazine, the "New Theatre", and the subsequent creation of the Hollywood Chapter of the LEAGUE OF ALTRICAN WRITERS in the spring of 1935, the real penetration of the Hollywood motion picture industry by the communist party began.

The publication of a series of sensational articles dealing with certain prominent personages in and out of the picture industry in this magazine, "New Theatre", drew the attention of all Hollywood intellectuals to Communist methods and ideology. The most sensational of these articles was one, "The Sacred Cow of Hollywood". This was a vicious, unwarranted and almost obscene attack on ICUELLA PARSONS, a Hollywood correspondent and columnist. In the article she was painted as a servile hireling of Mr. WILLIAM RANDOLPH HEARST who was then, and still is, the bogey man of the American Communists. This article was published in the August, 1935, number of the "New Theater". So sensational was the article that in some cases copies of the magazine sold for as much as five dollars. The author of the article which was signed "JOEL FAITH" was reported to be one CHAFLES (CHUCK) DAGGETT, then a reporter on a theatrical trade paper, "Variety".

Some few months previously the first American Writers Congress was held in New York City, April 1935. Out of this congress came the Holl wood Chapter of the League of American Writers. At this first congress EARL BROWDER, MICHAEL GOID and other top Communist functionaries were in attendance and practically guided the proceedings. The foregoing events were the initial stimuli that brought about the rush of so many of the Hollywood intelligentsia to join the ranks of the revolution, as interpreted by the Communist Party at that time. As part of the Communist Party program, and under the auspices of the New Theatre League, there was set up in Hollywood an organization called "CONTENTORARY THEATRE, INCORPORATED". The headquarters were located at 2905 Sunset Boulevard.

The aims and purposes of CONTENPORARY THEATRE, INCORPORATED ] were officially stated as follows in a prospectus dated March 8, 1936:

"The Contemporary Theatre is building the New Theatre in Loe Angeles—a theatre with a progressive, artistic and social outlook. It is a non-profit cooperative enterprise of playwrights, actors, technicians and audience. We are devoted to the production of the best available plays dealing with the struggles and conflicts of our times. T mic believe that vital drama and vital theatre must meet squarely the ideas and forces that determine human existence.

CONFIDENTIAL

"The vigorous theatre of the past interpreted man's struggle against fate, the disasters of nature; his efforts to break through restricting moral codes. The stage interpreted these forces and involved its audience in the struggle to conquer them.

"Today the theatre faces the tumultuous drama of a whole society struggling against the chaos of the world. Today a vigorous theatre must dramatize the deep-going conflicts of our times, the economic, emotional and cultural probleme that confront the majority of the people.

"The Contemporary Theatre is dedicated to such a purpose. Its plays will speak directly to this majority whose lives are usually ignored or caricatured on the stage.

"We believe that the powerful sweep of the NEW THIATRE movement which is profoundly rooted in the livee and struggles of all those who work for wagee, carries along with it the seed of history in the making which is indeed of momentous interest to every theatre worker and every theatre-goer. Audiences demand rich, mature and indigenous plays of American life, and the Contemporary Theatre in its work intends to give these to them."

While the foregoing program announced publicly, taken at its face value is rather innocuous and mild, the same prospectus from which it was taken recommended such plays as:

"PEACE ON EARTH", by GEORGE SKLAR and ALBERT MALTZ, which had a run of five weeks in Los Angeles. This play is described as a powerful "anti-war drama". It was definitely revolutionary in content and followed the Communist Party line at that time.

"SATIORS OF CATTARO", by FREDERICK WOLF. This play also was revolutionary and in one scene portrayed an actual uprising.

"Waiting for Lefty", "Awake and Sing", "Paradise Lost", and "Until the Day We Die", all by CLIFFORD ODETS. All four of these plays are in the same-category, that of following the Communist Party line. They speak for themselves.

115

GEORGE SKLAR, ALBERT MALTZ and CLIFFORD ODETS are all members of and active in the League of American Writere and have followed the Communist Party line for many years. SKLAR and MALTZ signed the call for the Fourth Writers Congrese, which was an endorsement of the American Peace Mobilization. FREDERICK WOLF is a foreign revolutionary writer, an Austrian, and known internationally as a supporter of Communist causes.

The Hollywood sponsors of CONTEMPORARY THEATRE, LICORPORATED were:

/ DOROTHY PARKER - Writer and Member of the League of American Writers, long a fellow traveller

HERMAN SHUMIN - Now a Hollywood Director. Formerly a Broadway producer. He has long been a close follower of the Communist Party and its political line; was endorser of the American Peace Mobilization.

/HERBERT BIBERMAN-A Hollywood screen director, long identified with the Communist movement; was West Coast Director of the American Peace Mobilization, and was picketing the White House almost at the time HITLER attacked Russia. He is a Communist.

JOHN FORD - Hollywood director. Identified as member of the Communist Party in Burt testimony, D.A.

1940. Follows the Communist Party line and sponsors front organizations.

DUDIEY NICHOIS- Member of the League of American Writers, eigner of the Fourth Call of the Writers Congress, which was an endorsement of the American Peace Mobilization. He has been long a fellow traveller.

KING VIDOR - Hollywood director and fellow traveller.

SAM SPEWACK - Hollywood writer and fellow traveller.

GILMOR BROWN - Director of Pasadena Little Theatre.

-----

TO THE REAL PROPERTY.

EMANUEL EISENBERG - Chairman of Contemporary Theatre,
Incorporated. He is listed as a short story writer and reviewer for various magazines, one of which was "New Theater". DISENBERG is not reported to have been connected with the Hollywood
Motion Picture Industry at that time, but came into the locality from New York.

(Above from Prospectus 3-8-36)

Other Hollywood motion picture people active in the affairs of the organization were:

DOWALD OCDEN STEWART- Writer; member of the League of American Writers and a Communist.

/ LICHEL STAIDER - Actor and a Communist.

FREDERIC MARCH - Actor and a Communist.

FIGRENCE ELDRIDGE - Actress and a Communist Party line follower.

JOHN CROCCELL - Director and a Communist Party line follower.

TOTTOWER.

/JAMES CAGNEY - Actor and a Communist Party line follower.

HENTS MILESTONE - Director and a Communist.

JOHN HOWARD LAWSON- Writer and a member of the League of American Writers; also a Communist.

-CLIFFORD ODETS - Writer; member of League of American
- Writers and a Communist.

APTHUR KOHER - Writer; member of League of American Writers, and a Communist Party line follower.

INWIN SHAW - Writer; member of League of American Writers and a Communist Party line follower.

FRANK TUTTLE - Director and a Communist.

Pij

JEAN LUIR

- Actress and a Communist Party line follower

HERBERT KLINE

- Director and a Communist Party line follower.

All of the above are reported to have attended a meeting of the Contemporary Theatre, held at the Hollywood Women's Club, Hollywood, California, March 29, 1936, the minutes of which meeting is reported in full in "New Theatre" magazine for May, 1936, page 5. This report contains speeches made by various individuals and reveals fully the program and purposes of Contemporary Theatre, Incorporated.

Contemporary Theatre, Incorporated, had comparatively a short life. This was not because of lack of serious intent or concentration on the idea, but rather because it was discovered that a simpler and easier way to get Communist propaganda plays before the public was to utilize the W.P.A. Federal Theatre Project for the purpose. The Communist Party had already, at this time, succeeded in penetrating the Federal Theatre Project to a serious extent and consequently here was an opportunity to present party line plays under the auspices and at the expense of the United States Government.

Besides, HALLIE FLANAGAN, who had been much interested in the NIM THEATRE IEAGUE previously, and who had written articles for its magazine, "New Theatre", was head of the project. Miss FLANAGAN had made several trips to Russia; once in 1926 when, on her return to the United States, she wrote in glowing terms of the value of the Russian Theatre Technique, in the book "Shifting Scenes" which was supposed to be a survey of the art of the theater in all European countries, but in which the greater part of the book dealt with the Russian theatre. She only spoke in glowing terms of the theatre but went into ecstasies over the Russian revolution and the way of life in that country at that time. Again in 1931 she made a trip to Russia to attend the Russian Theatre Festival.

As a consequence of the Communist Party tactic of concentrating on the Federal Theatre Project, Contemporary Theatre, Incorporated of Hollywood gradually passed out from lack of hourishment—the usual method of liquidating a front organization when it is no longer needed.

But the utilization of the Federal Theatre Project by the Communists for propaganda plays eventually brought about the death of the Project. An investigation by the Dies Committee brought to light Communist control of the project in certain localities, particularly New York.

CONFIDEN

At a series of hearings before this committee in the fall of 1938, and at a later hearing before a sub-committee of the House Committee on Appropriations (Chairman CHIFTON A. MODERAL) in the spring of 1939, before which both committees hiss FLAMAGAN appeared and denied any Communist influence on the Project, evidence of a conclusive nature was brought out by witnesses that the contrary was true.

Miss FLMMGAN in 1940 wrote another book, "Arena", which cealt with the history and finally the liquidation of the Project by an Act of Congress on June 30, 1939.

As a result of these hearings, and for the reason that Communist influence over the project was apparent, the M.P.... Federal Theatre Project was abolished by Act of Congress on June 30, 1939. [Following this elimination of the Federal Theatre Project from the Nork Projects Administration, the same Hollywood group which was instrumental in creating Contemporary Theatre, Incorporated, now reverted in the fall of 1939 to the previous program of setting up their own "theatre groups". This time it was called the HOLLYWOOD THEATRE ALLIANCE.]

HOLLY COD THEATPE ALLIANCE (Communist Front organization)

Cource 3-11 has stated that as part of the general campaign of the Communist Party to penetrate and influence the Mollywood scene, and to use Mollywood and its prestige as a base of operations, there was set up in Aril, 1939, a Communist "front" organization called the HOLLYWOOD THATTE ALLI-AMOD.

This organization followed the usual formula of a Communist front. In its appeal to the public for support it pursued the usual policy of couching its aims and purposes in cloudy and misleading statements, of which the following, taken from the official program, are examples:

"The world no longer eyes Hollywood as the home of movies and symphonies under the stars. On the one hand it sees the greatest concentration of literary and artistic talent, and on the other, progressive, spirited people bending their energy toward defeating bigotry and upholding the best in emerican tradition. How these two groups join hands in an enterprise inevitably determined by their outlook and experience—a democratic theatre."

Again:

"A democratic theatre is a community function. To permit it to be usurped for private profit and self-exploitation is to acquiesce to a commercial dictatorship. And to believe the theatre a reflection of the times, jet knowingly to support cowardly, stupid drama is to pretend the times were all folly and no aspiration."

CONFIDENCE

It was on such vague generalized appeal that the Hollywood Theatre Alliance was set up in April 1939. The pact between STALIN and HITLER had not jet been consummated and, therefore, this Communist "front" followed the line of the party at this time, which was support of the "popular front" and "collective security" for the defeat of Maziism and Fascism.

[Within a few months after the Hollywood Theatre Alliance was created the pact between STALIN and HITLER was announced, August 23, 1939. The effect on the organization was immediately apparent. From a position of support for democracy and the "popular front" the organization changed to one of isolation, opposition to lend-lease, opposition to the Selective Service Act, in fact complete support of the Communist Party line which changed suddenly with the alliance between STALIN and HITLER.]

As a consequence the first show, which was in the form of a "Revue", that was produced by the Hollywood Theatre Alliance and which was titled "Meet the People", followed the Communist Farty line completely. All through the show was sprinkled Communist propaganda. There were sneers for our preparations for national defense, cleverly satirized propaganda aimed at preventing aid to Great Britain, and in a general sense was potent propaganda upholding the position of the Communist Party and its attitude toward the war effort at that time.]

The show was a huge success. A road company was organized and toured the country. Results were pointed to by Communists as an example of propaganda by way of the theatre.

After this play had its run, another one was produced. It was called "Zero Hour". The title had reference to the imminence of war and all its evil effects and in content-slyly suggested to workers to resist, etc. This play was even more vicious than its predecessor.

At the time "Zero Hour" was running, June, 1941, the strike at the North American Aviation Plant in Inglewood, California was called. This Hollywood Theatre Alliance show and the entire cast, supported by the alliance itself, came out in open support of this strike, a strike of which President TOOSZVELT had this to say:

"Besides, the responsible leaders of labor in the United States all realized that this was not a bona fide labor dispute, but a form of alien sabotage, inspired and directed by Communist forces, interested not in the advancement of labor, but in the defeat and everthrow of the United States."

The show gave special performances for the strikers, raised money and did everything possible to support the Communist position regarding that affair.

This show "Zero Hour" was running when HITIER invaded Russia, on June 22, 1941. Immediately a change took place in the attitude of the Hollywood Theatre Alliance. "Zero Hour" soon came to a close. Later another—show was produced called, "They Can't Get You Down".

Now we see the Hollywood Theatre Alliance changing its attitude. This latter show was in no way similar to those which preceded it. From a position of isolation, etc., it became very patriotic just as the Communist Party had done when Russia was attacked. It subscribed to our war efforts, in toto.

In its every act and in the presentations of its shows the Hollywood Theatre Alliance subscribed to and followed the Communist Party line explicitly.

The following list of names, from sponsors to writers and directors and all the way down is indicative of the Communist coloring of the entire project:

The following members of the League of American Writers, each one of whom has been identified as having been involved in Communist activities for years, were sponsors of the Hollywood Theatre Alliance:

JOHN HOWARD LATSON
DONALD OCDEN STEMART
LILLIAN HELLMAN
DOROTHY PARKER
GILBERT GABRIEL (Member of League of American Writers & Writers in Exile)

MATHUR KOHER

DASHIELF HANNETT (Member of League of American

Writers; now in Signal Corps of the United States)

Other sponsors were:

WIII ROGERS, JR. - recently elected to the Congress of the United States from California; a Communist Party line follower.

CONFIDENTIAL

EILIS E. PATTERSON- Then Lieutenant Governor of the State of California; a Communist Party line follower.

J. EDUARD EROMBERG- Actor; member of the Communist Party.

- Director

DR. DRUNG FRANK -

FORGE CUROR

DOROTHY ANIMAN - Motion picture director.

MELEN GANACEN - Democratic Mational Committeemen.

IRA EERSEMIN - Musician

IRVING PICHEL - Director; fellow traveller

CAPSI: KAMIN - Director; fellow traveller.

BORIS ALROHSON

BYRCM CCCTT - former Congressmen from California (deceased)

SIGNED PRIBERG - Hollywood Drecutive.

Mrs. CHILLE TOWERSON- Local political figure; Communist Party line follower

Mrs. EDMARD G. ROBINSON- wife of actor of that name.

All of the above spensors have been identified with actiwity in other front organizations inspired by the Communist Party.

It was stated officially by the Hollywood Theatre Alliance in april, 1939 that the writers who would be responsible for forthcoming plays were:

JOHN NOWARD LAUSON- Communist Party member.

RAIFH BLOCK - Communist Party line follower.

JULIUS EPSTEIN - League of American Uriters and Communist Party line follower

PHILLIP EPSTEIN - League of American Triters, munist Party line follower di Con

FIGURCIS FARAGON - Fellow traveller; Hollywood Anti-Nazi League member, and member of the League for Democratic Action

MOMIN JUSTIN MAYER- Member of Hollywood Anti-Nazi League, Hollywood League for Democratic Action, League of American Writers, and American Peace Mobilization.

ROBERT ROSSEN - Member of League of American Writers, Hollywood Anti-Nazi League, League for Democratic Action, American Peace Nobilization, and Fourth Call.

ABEM MANDEL - Follower of Communist Party line.

HILT CROSS - Hember of League of American Writers and Hollywood Anti-Nazi League.

EDUARD EFISCU - Member of League of American Writers, Hollywood Anti-Nazi League, American Peace Mobilization, League of Democratic Action, and Fourth Call.

All of the above are members of the League of American Writers, teach in the Hollywood Writers School and have been identified as followers of the Communist Party line in other front organizations.

All three plays, "Meet the People", "Zero Hour", and "They Can't Get You Down", were written by:

HENRY MYERS JAY GORNET EDHARD ELISCU

All three of the above are members of the League of American Writers, teach in the Hollywood Writers School and are way out in front in Communist activities in the Hollywood section.

"Zero Hour" was directed by H REERT BIBERMAN, a motion picture director, local chairman of the American Peace Mobilization and a leading Communist in Southern California.

Others who contributed to the "artistic" efforts of the Hollywood Theatre Alliance are:

123

DANNY DARE MORTELER OFFICER INVING WHITE BERMARD VORHAUS LUCIEN PRIVAL

- who staged "Meet the Poople."

- Member of Hollywood Anti-Nazi League.
- Actor, member of League of American Writers, and Communist Party.

One scene in "Meet the People" was written by MIKE QUIN, columnist of the Paily, "Peoples World", the official Communist publication on the Pacific Coast.

At the present time the Hollywood Theatre Illiance is inactive. Host of the writers and intellectuals responsible for the organization have either become active in the Hollywood Writers Mobilization, or other front groups who are now, since Russia was attacked, very patriotic.

The Hollywood Theatre Alliance was one of the usual Communist organizations set up to take over Hollywood and at the same time influence people toward Communism and the Soviet Union.

The pattern followed in forming and conducting this group was and is the same as is used in all other Communist fronts.

During the active period of the alliance, for the duration of the STALIN-HITLER pact, August, 1939 to June, 1941, it was extraordinarily successful.

HOLLY DOD ANTI-MAZI IMACUE (Communist front organization)

Source 3-X has stated that this organization was one of the most outstanding in the series of Communist Front organizations set up by the Communist Party in Hollywood.

During the period of the "Popular Front", when the foreign policy of the Soviet Union demanded that Communist Parties everywhere oretend to support democracy and work to bring about "collective security" as a bulk against Maziism and fascism, the Hollywood Communists created the Hollywid Anti-Nazi League

The purpose of this organization was ostensibly to "defend rican democratic rights against Mazi influencee". While outwardly this was avowed ourpose, secretly it was set up to build up the influence of the munist cause and create sympathy and live aid to the policies of Soviet.

sia. All propaganda put out, and meetings held, which were spen to the pub, were tied in with the interests of the Communist Party and Soviet Russia.

[It appealed to the large Jewish population in Southern California on the basis of fighting Hitleriam and drew great financial support from the producers of motion pictures on that program.]

It was one of the most successful Communist fronts ever created in the Hollywood area. Its membership at the peak of its influence was approximately four thousand. Its influence spread to many times that number.

The original founders of the Hollywood Anti-Nazi League are the following, and these names all betray the Communist tie-up:

DONALD OCDEN STEWART - Writer, Member of the League of American Writers, and Communist Party.

DOPOTHY PARKER

- Writer; Member of the League of American Writers and the Communist Party.

ALAH CAMPBELL

- Writer; member of the League of American Writers and the Communist Party.

CLORIA STUART

- Actress; fellow traveller.

EDWIN JUSTUS HAYER

- Triter; member of the League of American Writers.

HERBERT BIBERMAN

- Director; member of the American Peace Mobilization.

FREDERIC MARCH

- Actor; Communist Party member.

FLORENCE ELDRIDGE

- Actress; wife of FREDERIC MARCH; member of Communist Party.

VIOLA BROTHERS SHORE - Writer; member of League of American Writers.

GALE SONDERGAARD

- Actress; wife of HERHERT BIBERMAN

MOSS HART

- Writer; member of League of American

Writers.

MARIAN SPITZER

- Writer; member of League of Americant

177

BESS ! EMEDITH

- Writer; member of League Triters

Mrs. LYME ROOT

- Writer; wife of WHIIS ROOT, fellow traveller.

ELIN O'BRIEN MOORE - Actor.

- Writer; member of the League of CHARLES BRACKETT American Triters.

Ten of the above persons are members of the League of American Writers. They are: STEMART, PANKER, CAMPBELL, MAYIR, ELEGRAM, SHOTE, SPITCHE, MEREDITH and BULCKHILL. (The League of American Writers is the foremost Communist front organization in the Hollywood "cultural" division and the feeder for all Communist activities in the top structure of the motion picture industry)

GIORIA STUART, FREDERIC MARCH, FLORENCE ELDRIDGE (MARCH'S wife), GALE SONDERGAARD (BISERLAN'S wife) and ERIN O'BRIEN MOORE are screen actors and actresses who have been identified with Communist activities in other organizations in Hollywood.

The above group set up the Hollywood Anti-Nazi League in the summer of 1936.

Then the League took solid form and reached its peak of activity, 1938-39, the officers were:

DONALD OCCUM STEWART - Chairman

Larian spitzer

- Vice-Chairman

ALAN CAMPBELL

- Secretary

BERN ITARNARD

- Treasurer

The sponsors of the organization were:

HERBERT BIBERMAN

- Director; member of the American Peace Mobilization; member of the Communist Party.

Mrs. SIDNEY BUCHMAN - Wife of SIDNEY BUCHMAN, League of American

Writers.

EDDIE CANTOR

- Actor.

FLORENCE ELDRIDGE

- Actress; wife of FREDERIC MARCH.

FRANCIS EDUARDS FARAGOH - Writer; member of the League of American Writers; a fellow traveller.

OSCAR HALLERSTEIN, II- Sub-Producer.

RUPERT HUCHES - Writer; nember of the League of American Writers.

CHARLES J. HATZ - Attorney; member of the Communist Party (a)

Judge ROBERT W. KENNY- Attorney General of California; fellow traveller.

H. S. KRAFT - Writer; member of the League of American Writers; member of the Communist Party.

RICHAPD LERT

ERIST LUBITSCH - Director.

FREDERIC MARCH - Actor; member of the Communist Party (y)

Dr. RUDOLPH HARX

EDWIN JUSTUS MAYER - Writer; member of the League of American Writers; Mellow traveller.

RAY LAYER

ELIZABETH TERRELL

LEMAS HILLSTONE - Director; fellow traveller

PAUL MUNI - Actor; fellow traveller

DUDIEY MICHOIS - Writer; member of the League of American Writers; fellow traveller.

Judge ISAAC PACHT - Sponsor of front organizations.

Mrs. CHARLES PAGE - Wile of CHARLES PAGE, Communist Party member.

DOROTHY PARKER - Writer; member of the League of American Writers; fellow traveller.

IRVING PICHEL - Director; fellow traveller,

- 119 -

FRANK SCULLY

- Writer; fellow traveller.

VIOLA BROTHERS SHORE - Writer; fellow traveller.

SYLVIA SIDIEY

- Actress.

CLORIA STUART

- Actress; fellow traveller.

FRANK TUTTLE

- Director; member of the Communist Party. (4)

Of the foregoing list of soonsors there are several mentioned who could properly be classified as innocents, particularly EDDIE CANTOR and RUFERT HUGHES, and possibly ELIZABETH LERPELL and RICHARD LURT. All the rest have been identified more or less with other organizations under Communist domination.

The Hollywood Anti-Nazi League grew tremendously in numbers, support and influence until August, 1939, when the pact between STALIN and HITLER was made. During this period the League cooperated with every other Communist front group in the Hollywood section. According to its official publication, "Hollywood Now", it supported the following:

League of Women Shoppers
National Committee of Spanish Speaking People.
League for Fublic Medicine.
California Youth Legislature.
Radio Programs of "People's World", ID ROBBIN ("Fcople's World" is the official Communist publication on the West Coast)
League of American Writers
Youth Commission of Motion Picture Democratic Committee.
Associated Film Audiences
American League for Peace and Democracy.
National Negro Congress
German-American League for Culture.
Motion Picture Artists Committee, and many others.

All the foregoing are Communist front organizations.

The official program of the Hollywood Anti-Nazi League from its inception up to the announcement of the STALIN-HITLER Pact was as follows:

"To fight Fascism at home and abroad.

"To give support to the struggle against International Fascism wherever it strikes—in Germany, Italy, Spain, Austria, China, Hungary, Czechoslovakia, South America.

"To stand firmly behind the militant peace policy of President ROOSEVELT—the policy of collective security for all democratic nations, of "quarantining the aggressors".

"To expose the spies, the Bunds, the Nazi Military 'summer camps', the Brown Houses in our cities, the poisonous propaganda of obscene circulars, the anti-Semitic, anti-Catholic, anti-Labor, anti-Negro campaigns.

"To oppose the destructive anti-American activities of such racketeering organizations as the Silver Shirts, the White Guard, the KKK, the Black Legion, the Crusaders, Friends of New Germany and other Berlinfinanced enemies of our country.

"To join with other progressive Americans in one united front against Fascist attacks on our democratic institutions."

The foregoing publicly announced official program of the Hollywood Anti-Wazi Loague was right in hime with the Communist Party line of the Popular Front period.

With the announcement of the alliance between STALIN and HITIER on August 23, 1939, and the change in the Communist Party line accordingly, the Hollywood Anti-Nazi League changed its program likewise.

From a position of support to President POOSEVELT in his sympathies for England and the democratic countries, the League began to yell that it was an "imperialist" war; that the United States should keep out; that lend-lease aid to England meant war for us; that the "Yanks are not Coming."

By September 22, 1939, just thirty days after the STALIN-HITLER pact, the League issued a statement in "Hollywood Now", the official organ of the League of American Writers, dated September 22, 1939, which is as follows:

CONFIDENTIA

58474

"A PROGRAM FOR PEACE

"With England and France fighting Germany, where does the Hollywood Anti-Nazi League fit in?

"The League will and must carry on its fight against Nazism more vigorously than ever before in the United States and abroad.
Does the war now conducted by CHAMBERLAIN and DALADIER offer the poecibility of the destruction of Nazism? . . . NO . . . The League affirms positively that the United States should in no way become involved in the war..."

and on October 13, 1939, "Hollywood Now", stated:

"The League faces the grave responsibility of doing its share to keep America out of war and to help to unify the American people in their demand for peace."

On November 17, 1939, "Hollywood Now", stated:

"The League will undertake an extensive educational program. . . and there will be no compromise with the enemies of the people . . . KEEP AMERICA NEUTRAL."

Within a period of a few months the League had completely reversed its position, as had the Communist Party in the United States. Gradually it dropped its fight against Maziism and at the time of the dissolution of the League it had forgotten its antagonism to the aggressors and was concentrating all its fire on "conditions" within the United States and confusing every issue possible where that issue was one of national defense and aid to the democracies.

Due to this reversal in program a large part of its following deserted, leaving the Communist core with its following of fellow travellers and sympathizers in full charge. But there was disruption within the ranks. This brought about a need for a new set of officers and a new Board of Directors.

In September, shortly after the announcement of the pact, a new slate of officers was installed. This list of names is of extreme interest, as it indicates those who were following the Communist Party line wherever it should lead.

DONAID OCHEN STEWART - Chairman; a writer.

FRANK TUTTLE - Vice-Chairman; a director.

DUDIEY NICHOLS

- Secretary; writer; member of Communist Party(1)

BERN BERNARD

- Treasurer; Tellow traveller.

Executive Board:

MILTON DERLIN

- Writer; member of the League of American

EDWARD CHODOROV

- Triter; member of the League of imerican Writers.

Prof. MCRIAN T. BYRGE- Professor; member of the Communist Party.

MARIAN SPITZER

- Writer; member of the League of American Triters.

Mrs. J. EDMARD BROMBERG-Wife of J. E. BROMBERG, actor; member of the Communist Party.

Dr. MARVIN HARPIS

CHARLES J. KATE

- Attorney; member of the Communist Party ( $\epsilon$ )

Mrs. BEATRICE BUCKLESS Life of SIDEMY BUCKLES; member of the League of American Writers.

MAXWELL SHARE

- Writer; fellow traveller.

DOMALD ROSE

HERBERT BIBERMAN

- Director; member of the American Feace Mobilization

FRANCIS EDMARDS FARACOH-Writer; member of the League of American Writers; fellow traveller

IRA RATHER

Mrs. CHARLES PAGE

- Wife of CHARLES PAGE; member of the Communist (g) Party

H. S. KRAFT

- "riter; member of the League of American Writers; fellow traveller.

JAY CORNEY

- Writer; member of the League of American Writers and American Peace Mobilization; and a fellow traveller.

- 123 -

FTANK SCULLY

- Writer; fellow traveller.

Mrs. JEROLE SACHHERI - Mriter; member of the League of American Writers; fellow traveller.

However in spite of this formality of an election of new officers, the Hollywood Anti-Nazi League had outlived its usefulness to the Communist Party. Like many other Communist fronts of the Popular Front period, it had to be "liquidated". It dragged on a few months. On December 8th it was decided that a new name should be given to the League. It should become the Hollywood League for Democratic Action.

The League struggled feebly for a month or so after December 15th when a new group met to form a committee to protect civil liberties, and about February 1st, 1940 the Hollywood Anti-Nazi League quietly passed away and was no more.

This pattern of the birth, life and death of a Communist front, when thoroughly understood, will explain much of the confusion that apparently exists in the minds of those who try to follow the whys and wherefores of Communist tactics in the United States.

HOLLYWOOD LEAGUE FOR DEFOCRATIC ACTION (Communist front organization)

Source 3-Y has stated that in anticipation of the demise of the Hollywood Anti-Nazi League, a number of persons met at the home of Mrs. FINLY PETER DUNNE, mother of PHILLIP DUNNE of the League of American Writers, about the first week in December, 1939. The purpose of this meeting was to set up an organization to succeed the Anti-Nazi League. Those present at the meeting ware:

DALTON TRUMBO

- Writer; member of the League of American ( ) ( )

FRANK TUTTLE

- Director; member of the Communist Party. (4) (6)

DOROTHY PARKER

- Writer; member of the League of American Writers; fellow traveller.

JOHN WEXTEY

- Writer; member of the League of American Writers; fellow traveller

MELVYN DOUGLAS

- Actor; fellow traveller

CONFIDENTIA

GALE SONDERGAARD (wife of HIRBIET BIBERMAN) - actress; member of the Communist Party

ALMY CAMBELL - Writer; member of the League of American Writers; fellow traveller.

IRVING REIS - Writer; member of the League of American Writers; Tellow traveller.

... I. RIVER - Friter; member of the League of American criters; fellow traveller.

MEYER LEVIN - Writer; member of the League of American Writers; fellow traveller.

HARPY JURNITZ - Writer; member of the League of American Writers; fellow traveller.

JOHN GARFIEID - Actor; fellow traveller.

JOHN CROMMELL - Director; fellow traveller.

IOUIS BROWFILLD - Actor; member of the Communist Party (4)

GARSIN KANIN - Director; fellow traveller.

CYRIL HULE

J. MALTER RUBEN - Producer; fellow traveller (deceased)

HENRY KOSTER - Writer; member of the League of American Writers; fellow traveller.

JAMES GLESON - Actor; fellow traveller.

LUCILLE GLEASON - Actress; fellow traveller.

WELLS ROOT - Writer; follow traveller.

Of the above ten persons, TRULBO, PARKER, WEXLEY, SACKET, CAMPBELL, REIS, RIVER, LEVIN, JURNITZ and BROMFIEID are members of and active in the League of American Writers, the Communist "feeder" organization of cultural Hollywood.

TUTTIE, CROMWELL, KANIN, RUBEN (deceased) are motion picture directors.

DOUGLAS, SOMDERGAARD, GARFICID, GIEASON are screen actors and actresses.

As a result of the deliberations of this august body a new organization, the HOLLYWOOD CONSITTEE TO PROTECT CIVIL LIBERTIES, was born. However, the formation of the Hollywood Committee to Protect Civil Liberties by the group above mentioned was somewhat superflous because at about the same time the executive board of the expiring Hollywood Anti-Nazi League met and decided to give it a new title. This was done and on December 3, 1939, the official publication of the Hollywood Anti-Nazi League announced that thereafter the League would be known as the HOLLYWOOD LEAGUE FOR DELOCHATIC ACTION.

And thus a new Communist front was born merely by the change of a name. The same officers and executive board served for the new organization, and it went to work to do everything it could to prevent aid to democracy and advocated peace on HITTER'S terms.

The officers were:

DOMALD OCDEN STELLART - Chairman-writer and Communist Party member.

FRANK TUTTLE

- Vice-Chairman-Director; Communist Party member

DUDLEY HECKOLS

- Secretary-Writer; member of the League of American Writers; and a Fellow traveller.

BENU BERLARD

- Treasurer-fellow traveller.

Executive Poard:

HERBERT SIBERLAN

- Director; member of the American Peace Mobilization and a Communist Party member.

EDWARD CHODORCV

- Writer; member of the League of American Writers; fellow traveller.

Prof. NURMAN T. BYRNE- Professor; fellow traveller.

Mrs. J. EDWARD BROWNERG-Wife of J. EDWARD BROWNERG, member of the Communist Party.

FRANCIS EDWARDS FARAGON-Writer; member of the League of American Writers; a fellow traveller.

H. F. KRAFT

- Writer; member of the League of imericans

137

Mrs. JEROME SACKHERM - Writer; member of the League of American Writers; fellow traveller.

- Writer; member of the League of American MILTON MERLIN Writers; fellow traveller.

- Writer; member of the League of American MARIAN SPITZER Friters; and a fellow traveller.

- Wife of CHAPLES PAGE, Communist Party member Mrs. CHIRLES PAGE

- Writer; member of the League of American JAY GURNEY Writers and American Peace Mobilization.

FRAMK SCULLY - Writer; and a fellow traveller.

Mrs. BEATRICE BUCHMAN- Wafe of SIDNEY BUCHMAN, Producer.

IRA RATHER

- Writer; member of the League of American MAXWELL SHANE Writers; a fellow traveller.

Dr. MARVIN HARRIS

DOMALD ROSE

JO SWERLING

CHARLES J. KATZ - Attorney; member of the Communist Par

Others active in the organization were:

LICHALL LIKTIS - Communist Party line follower; investigator for the Anti-Nazi League.

MARY McCALL, JR. - Fellow traveller; member of the League of American Writers; and president of the Screen Triters Guild of Hollywood.

HERBERT K. SORRELL - Business representative of Studio Painters Local 644; member of the Communist Party.

GORDON KAHN - Writer; member of the League of American Writers; and a fellow traveller.

> - Writer; member of the League of American Writers; and a fellow traveller.

- 127 -

CONFIDENT

GENE SACKHELI - Writer; member of the League of American Writers; a fellow traveller

MILT GROSS - Writer; member of the League of American Writers.

INVING HEIS - Writer; member of the League of - - merican Writers; and a fellow traveller.

.ICH.IL LLNUFORT - Writer; member of the League of american Writers; and a member of the Communist Party.

J. WALTER RUBEN - Motion picture director; producer; fellow traveller (now deceased)

Mrs. MATE CUALTINGS - Mife of Producer.

Mrs. H. S. MFAFT - Mife of H. S. MRAFT; member of the League of American Mriters; a fellow traveller.

Prof. FRANK DAVIS - Professor at the University of California at Los Angeles; a fellow trav-

- Screen writer and member of the League of American Writers; a rellow traveller

DAVID KERTHN - Screen and stage actor; a fellow traveller

There are many others in addition to the above list, all of whom have been identified with Communist and Communist front activities in Hollywood.

The program of the Hollywood League for Democratic Action was just the reverse of that of the Hollywood Anti-Nazi League, although the same people were in control in both organizations. But the Communist Party line had changed and they, being good Communists, fellow travellers and sympathizers changed also.

Meetings were held, radio programs given and literature spread which opposed every feature of national defense, aid to England, the lend-lease act, the Selective Service act and in general the foreign policy of the President of the United States.

STATE OF

It was the Communist formula in every detail. But the active life of the Hollywood League for Democratic Action was of comparatively short duration. By the fall of 1940 it had become practically lifeless.

This was not because the comrades had changed their viewpoint, or that they were becoming discouraged—it was because another organization had come into existence on a national scale. This latter organization —was broader and more all-inclusive and gradually the Hollywood League for Democratic letion was absorbed.

This organization was called the ATTRICAM PEACE MOBILIZA-TION.

HOLLYWOOD PEACE FORUM (Communist front organization)

Source 3-Z has stated that as the Hollywood Anti-Nazi League was gradually being put to death, the Communists operating within that group were busily setting up other organizations to take its place which would carry out the changed line of the party.

In January of 1940 there came into being the HOLLYMOOD PEACE FORMA. As its name indicates this group was pledged to preserve peace. It yelled loudly and often that we should stay out of the war. It opposed aid to England, national defense, conscription and right down the line in carrying out the program of the Communist Party. It was strictly for peace—on HITLIM'S terms. It conducted forums, radio broadcasts, issued pamphlets and leaflets and unceasingly put out propagance for the Communist position.

Its chief spokesman was Professor MORIAN T. BYRNE of Los Angeles City College, long identified with every form of Communist activity in Southern California. He was chairman of these forums held in every available hall and meeting place in the locality—at the Hollywood Momen's Club, First Unitarian Church in Los Angeles, Embassy Auditorium, Los Angeles, Knickerbocker Hotel in Hollywood, Wilshire Ebell Club, and many others.

The sense of all meetings, forums, radio broadcasts, etc., of the Hollywood Peace Forum was defense of the Soviet Union for its pact with HITLER, attacks on Finland for its resistance to Russia's aggression, condensation of the war as imperialism in action and advocating the immediate appearament of Nazi Germany.

The officers of the Hollywood Peace Forum, all of whom just a few months before were members of the Hollywood Anti-Hazi League and who were then supporting President ROOSEVELT and democracy, were:

HERBERT BIBERMAN - Chairman

JOHN WEXLEY -

- Vice-Chairman

GUY ENDORE

- Secretary-Treasurer

GENEE SACIGHEIM

- Executive Secretary

All the above have been leading Communists in the Holl;-

wood section.

BIREMAN is a motion picture director and writer.

WINLEY, EMBORI and SACHHELI are members of the League of .merican riters.

Others active in the Forum were SAM OFNITZ, member of the League of American Writers and a Communist, FRAMM SCULLY, a fellow traveller and Hollywood Writer, Reverend FPANK M. TOOTHAKER of the First Methodist Church, Compton, California, Reverend PETER M. SAMSON, Minister First Unitarian Church, Los Angeles, Professor FRAMK DAVIS of the University of Southern California at Los Angeles, SADIE ORNITZ, wife of SAM CRMITZ, EDMARD BIBLEMAN, brother of HERBERT BIBLEMAN, HUCH WILKINS, and many others previously with the Hollywood Anti-Nazi League.

The Hollywood Peace Forum remained in existence about six months. Another organization was coming into existence which took its place. This front was called the HOLLYWOOD LEAGUE FOR DEMOCRATIC ACTION.

ALERICAN PEACE MOBILIZATION (Communist Front Organization)

Source 4-A has shown that the American Peace Mobilization was the successor to the American League for Peace and Democracy in the same manner as the Hollywood League for Democratic Action took the place of the Hollywood Anti-Nazi League—and for the same basic reason, the change in the Communist Party line.

after the pact between STALIN and HITLER in August, 1939 it was necessary for the Communist Internationale to revemp its entire structure in the United States. From a position of support for democratic processes in the interest of bringing about a program of "collective security" (which it never really meant, by the way, and which was only used as a threat by STALIN to force HITLER into signing the subsequent pact) the Communist apparatus in the United States must now reverse itself and render all aid possible to HITLER, he now being on the best of terms with STALIN—they were virtual allies.

All Communist front organizations were now to work for peace. They were to oppose entry of the United States into the war on the of England and France, and were to oppose aid to those countries, oppose the Lend-Lease Act, national defense, the Selective Service Act, and in generall postruct any internal policy of the United States that would, however remotely, be of benefit to the democratic nations fighting HITTER.

The American Peace Mobilization was destined to become the most potent arm of the Communist Internationale—and that means STAIN—working in the interest of the STAIN-HITTER pact.

The organization as such officially came into being at a national gathering held in Chicago, Illinois August 30 to September 2, 1940. This meeting was called by what was known as the "Emergency Peace Mobilization". At this time the name was changed to the AIRTICAL PLACE MOBILIZATION and it continued to function under that title until the break between STALIN and HITTEP in June, 1941 when Russia was invaded.

Previous to the official setting up of the American Peace Mobilization in September, 1940, and beginning with the dissolution of the Hollywood anti-Mazi League in Decomber of 1939, and the official "liquidation" of the American League for Teace and Democracy on February 1, 1940, groups were hastily formed everywhere to carry out the policy of the Communist Party.

In Hollywood there was the Hollywood Peace Forum, Hollywood League for Democratic Action, Hollywood Peace Council, Hollywood Peace Crusade, etc. All of these groups were largely "paper" organizations functioning as a stop-gap until all could be knit into one national organization, and that was the AMERICAN PEACE HOBILITATION.

It will be noticed that the names of the officers and those most active in all these groups locally in Hollywood are essentially the same. For example, HERBERT BIBERMAN, DONAID OGDEN STEWART, FRANK TUTTLE, etc., appear in every front.

In addition to the so-called "peace" groups above which laid the foundation for the establishment later of the Los Angeles Division of the Mobilization, the following were affiliated with the organization in Hollywood:

League of American Writers, Hollywood Chapter.

Motion Picture Democratic Committee.

Hollywood Theatre Alliance.

League of Moman Shoppers.

Committee to Aid Agricultural Norkers.

139

National Negro Congress.

California Touth Legislature.

Hollywood Post, Veterans Division, Labor's Non-partisan League

The national officers of the American Peace Mobilization elected in September, 1940, were:

Rev. JOHN E. THOLPSON, Chairman THEODORE DREISER, Vice-Chairman VITO MARCANTONIO, Vice-Chairman JACK McMICHAEL, Vice-Chairman REID ROBINSON, Vice-Chairman KATHENINE FERRILL, Vice-Chairman FREDERICK FIELD, Executive Secretary. MARIAN BRIGGS, Administrative Secretary

Of the above, THECDOPE DREISER, as a member of the League of American Writers and more or less identified with Hollywood is representative of its culture.

The officers of the local division of the Mobilization are as follows:

/ HERBERT BIRERMAN, Chairman, member of the American Peace
Mobilization in Los Angeles, motion picture director, and Communist Party member.
TOM CULLEN, local correspondent of the "People's World", official Communist publication on the West Coast, Executive Secretary; Communist Party member.

Executive Board: -

JOHN STAPP, of the League for Peace and Democracy; Communist Party member.

-RICHARD OTTO, Motion Picture Democratic Committee; fellow traveller.

SAM HOUSTON ALLEN, politican; Communist Party member.

Rev. HIRBERT L. HERBERTS. Rev. CARL ALLEN; fellow traveller

EASTAN AINLON

DON R. HEALY, member of Labor's Non-Partisan League; Communist Party member

ELIZABETH SASULY

MALLE

MILLIAN BOHAN, fellow traveller. ROSEEDA RIVERA, Communist Party member. HOWARD RUSE, member of the Young Communists League.

Hollywood figures most active as chairmen at meetings, speakers and directors of propaganda were:

> Prof. MCKIAN T. BYRNE, Communist Party member. SAH CRITTZ, Communist Party member, a writer, and member. . . of the League of American Writers.

 JOHN MODINED LANSON, writer, Member of the Communist Party and League of American Uriters.

DONALD CODEN STEMMENT, delegate to Chicago convention; a writer, member of the League of American Writers and the Communist Party.

MAURICE LURPHY, League of American Writers and Motion Picture Democratic Committee member; a writer who is member of the League of American Eriters and the Communist Farty.

/DALTON TRUMBO, Member of the League of American Briters and the Communist Party.

FIICHARL BLANKFORT, member of the League of American Writers and the Communist Party.

FRANK TUTTLE, motion picture director; Communist Party member. CHARLES J. MATI, atterney for Communists and Communist Party member.

SADIE CHNITZ, member of the Communist Party.

JCHN MOMARD LAMSON, member of the League of American Mriters and the Communist Party.

MARC BLITZSTEIN, Hollywood composer, member of League of American Writere, and a fellow traveller.

ALBERT MALTZ, President, League of American Mriters, Hollywood Chapter; fellow traveller.

LUCIME MARINER, member of League of Momen Shoppers; a fellow traveller.

GUY LADORE, member of League of American Writers and Communist Party.

Dr. HURBERT ALUXANDER, Professor of Sociology, Los Angeles City College; a fellow traveller.

In addition to the above, individual members of all Hollywood Communist front groups were supporting the American Peace Mobilization.

Mass meetings were held at the Shrine Auditorium, Embaesy Auditorium, Philharmonic Auditorium, in Los Angelee, to carry the message of "Peace" to the people. CONFIDENTIAL

At the same time as these meetings were being held the Mobilization was officially supporting every strike where that strike would hamper defense efforts. It officially, and directly, by sending its members to the picket lines, injected itself into the North American Aviation strike in Inglewood, Cal fornia, Vultee Aircraft Company, Downey, California, the Columbia Recording Company strike in Hollywood, the Cannon Electrical Company strike in Los Angeles, and many others. It was working feverishly in all directions to carry out the line of the Communist Party at that time.

An example of the type of propaganda carried on by the American Peace Mobilization under the auspices of Communists in Hollywood is the meeting held at the Shrine Auditorium in Ios Angeles, on February 24, 1941, the advance publicity on which stated as follows:

"DEFEAT H.R.1776 (Lend-Lease Bill) WITH THE SPIRIT OF 17761

Hear MICHAEL QUILL President of CIO Transport Workers Union

PREDERICK FIELD Nat'l Secy. APM

PHILLIP II. COMMILLY Pres. State UIC

HERBERT BIBERMAN Local Chran-APL

DALTOII TRULBO The man who wrote "Johnny Got His Gun"

WHAT TO DO ABOUT IT

- 1. Write your Congressman. Tell him to vote NO on H.R. 1776 (Lend-Lease Bill)
- Tell your friends about dangers of this bill.
- Urge them to write also.
- 4. Distribute additional cepies of this leaflet.
- 5. Join the A.P.M.

"The New Deal's Triple A. foreign policy, as embraced by the Lend-Lease Bill, is to plow under every fourth American boy." Sen. BURTON H. MHEMIER."

The tenor of the foregoing is that of all activities of the American Peace Mobilization, the local spearhead of which in the Southern California section, was Hollywood Communist influences.

- 134 -

TO 1

The American Peace Mobilization nationally and the Holly-wood Division locally continued to function along these Lines up until June 22, 1941. Right up until that date HERBERT EIBERMAN and his following, and that means the entire Hollywood Communist faction, were screaming for peace and chanting the slogan "The Yanks are Not Coming."

In fact right up to the day Mr. BIBERMAN was picketing the White House for "Peace", and showing what Hollywood could do to help prevent aid to democracy.

Then came the blow! HITLER smashed across the borders of Again the Communist Party of the United States was taken unewares.

Russia.

The American Peace Mobilization was left way out on the proverbial limb.

Within a few meeks the name of the American Peace Mobilization was changed to the AMERICAN PEOPLES MOBILIZATION.

Heetings were immediately called by the American Peoples Mobilization. Trofessor NOMMAN T. SYPNE, HERBERT BIBERMAN, DOMAID OCDEN STEMART, JOHN HOWARD LAUSON, SAM ORNITH, GUY EMDORE and followers bugan screaming for war. "Smash HITLER", "All Aid to the SOVIET UNION and England," "This is a Peoples' War", etc.

The Communist Party line had changed again!

The American Peoples Mobilization continued on for some few months, but like all Communist front organizations which can no longer serve the party, it was allowed to peacefully pass away.

(Communist front organization)

Source 4-B has stated that during the period from the Seventh Congress of the Communist Internationale hald in Moscow, Russia, in July and August of 1935 when GTORGE DETTROV, head of the Communist Internationale, made the famous "Trojan Horse" speech and August 23, 1939 when the pact between STALIN and HITLER was consummated, and which is known as the "popular front" period, the Communist Party created hundreds of "front" organizations in all countries.

The purpose of these organizations was to draw together on as oroad a base as ossible all forces to influence them to support the foreign policy of the boviet Union which, at time, was a pretended desire for an alliance with the democratic countires to oppose Maziism and Fascism. This was called the "collective security" proposal.

100

Communists were, during this period, instructed to drop all revolutionary activity and pose as good democrats, or liberals, and take part in all established governmental affairs, local, state and national, wherever they should be.

In the United States they were instructed to register for voting purposes as members of the Democratic Party and carry on their activities there. They were to assume the "liberal" position and work to get themselves, fellow travellers and sympathizers, also pretending to be good democrats, into key positions in political circles. They could then use their positions and influence to create sympathy and gain support for the policies of Soviat Russic.

In line with this policy and, as usual, obeying orders implicitly, the Communists in the Hollywood motion picture industry and its periphery began setting up various front organizations.

One of the most important of these groups was the MOTION PICTURE DEMOCRATIC COMMITTEE. This organization was created in the early fall of 1938. At this time California had already shown tendencies to turn to the left and the time was ideal for the Communist Party to step in and steer the political forces in the direction they desired. The state was having a gubernatorial election and it was into this election the party threw all its forces.

The success of the Motion Ticture Democratic Committee was phenomenal. It drew to it on a platform of democratic reform and mildly liberal slogans a large following in the Hollywood section. It acquired among its membership many famous personages in the picture industry, the majority of whom, however, were not aware that the organization was completely under control of the Communist Party.

Thousands of people were influenced by this committee which had access to publicity channels ordinarily denied to legitimate political groups of this character. The big names on its lists were attractive to the voters and it was one of the main factors in the local and state elections of the year 1938. Almost all candidates it supported were elected and the governor-elect statad later that it was Hollywood influence and this organization which elected him to office.

But at the same time the organization was seemingly taking part in a truly democratic elective process, the Communists within its ranks were spreading their propaganda in all directions. They succeeded in tying the organization in with the Hollywood Anti-Nazi League, Conference of Workers Alliancs,

Motion Picture Arts and Crafts, Labor's Mon-Partisan League, Morkers Alliancs, United Spanish Relief, and were supporting every front organization and Communist controlled labor union in the Los Angeles section. All front organizations just above mentioned are Communist inspired.

This should not be the least surprising, as the individuals controlling the Notion Picture Democratic Committee were the same ones controlling the other groups.

The organization as a body were enthusiastic in support of President ROOSEVEET and the democratic administration. Heither the President nor Covernor OLSON and his state administration could do wrong. It held political rallies all over Southern California. It was all-out for democracy and the Constitution of the United States—it loathed Maziism and Fascism.

The world was bright and the Motion Picture Democratic Committee was enjoying an influence and prestige that brought smiles to the faces of the most case hardened comrades.

But on August 23, 1939, the bubble burst. The pact between STALIN and MITIER was announced and the Hollywood Motion Picture Democratic Committee found itself way out on a limb.

Within thirty days instructions came down from Moscow that the party line had changed. The organization must change with it. It was a bitter pill, but the comrades were loyal and they obeyed.

Within a very short time the Motion Picture Democratic Committee was calling President ROOSEVELT a "war monger"; he was dragging the United States into an imperialist war; we should mind our own business, etc. Covernor OISON too had become almost overnight a war monger, had deserted the poor, was cutting relief and in general was just driving the people to desperation with his anti-social tactics.

By the spring of 1940 the Motion Picture Democratic Committee was working hand in hand with the American Peace Crusads, afterward the American Peace Mcbilization. It was mailing out thousands of "peace" pleas and insisting that "The Yamus Are Not Coming." It sponsored and took part in Communist "peace" meetings all over Southern California. An amaple of the position of the Hollywood Democratic Committee's in this respect is the following excerpt from one of their bullstins:

CONFIDENTIAL

Ĩ.

CLYMPIC STADIUM

"AMERICA DECLIRES PEACE"

RAILY OF SATURDAY, APRIL 6TH

"The L.A. Council of the Committee for Industrial Organization, the Maritime Federation of the Pacific, and the California Youth Legislature-each of these bodies representing thousands of Southern Californians, requested of the Hollywood Peace Council that they be allowed to co-sponsor the rally, purpose and plans of which are heartily endorsed by their memberships. The eight Hollywood organizations welcomed the joint sponsorship. The speakers' bureau set up by the M.P.D.C. to publicize the rally at meetings of all sorts—has lined up 75 speaking engagements to date... A mockout script "ritten by HICHAEL BLALKFORT, JEROME CHODOROV, JOSEPH TITLES, PAUL TRIVERS, CARL DETHER, CYPIL KRAMER, was okayed with hurrans by the Council this week... The staging of the production is in the capable hands of SHEPARD TRAUBE. The original printing order for "The Yanks Call", newspaper announcement of the meeting, was 50,000 copies. These were gone in a couple of days, and a duplicate order for another 50,000 had to be fillec... Ten thousand tickets have been distributed and the remaining two thousand are going fast—so call the M.P.D.C. office (Gr. 5136) immediately for blocks of 10¢, 25¢ and 40¢ tickets..."

M.P.D.U. MINSLITTER, 3/26/40.

(The individuals hamed above, BLANKFORT, CHODOROV, etc., are all members of the League of American Writers, the most important Communist front group in Hollywood)

While the Motion Picture Democratic Committee was cooperating with other groups, as above, it was carrying on its own party line procedure, as follows:

"PEACE PETITIONS

250 of these were mailed to 250 H.P.D.C. members along with the last newsletter. If you received one, get as many signatures as you can and mail it back to this office as soon as you can—because time is the essence of this demand to our representatives."

Vice-Chairman of the Motion Picture Democratic Committee and who had been active in almost every Communist front organization in additional previously, revolted at this procedure. After Russia's attack on Finland, he introduced a resolution before the committee condemning Soviet Russia for this attack.

He was overwhelmingly defeated. He resigned from the Committee in February, 1940.

The following were the officers of the organization in 1939-40. All have been long identified with Communist and Communist front activities in the motion picture field:

PHILLIP DUNKE. Chairman; member of the League of American Uriters, and a member of the Communist Porty. He is now with the Writers War Eoard, Tew York City, the Hollywood Anti-Mazi League and the League for Industrial Democracy.

IELVYN DOUGLIS. First Vice-Chairman; active in Communist front organizations; a fellow traveller and formerly Communist Farty line follower.

ITRIAN HOPPINS. Second Vice-Chairman. Che is a screen actress and fellow traveller.

JCHN FORD. Third Vice-Chairman. Motion ricture director, and long a fellow traveller.

MAURICE MURPHY. Formerly executive secretary of the League of American Writers. He is a member of the League of American Writers and one of the leading Communists in the Hollywood section.

CORDON FIGHT. Treasurer. He is a member of the League of American Writers and a member of the Communist Party. He is now in the Army

Although the Motion Picture Democratic Committee managed to survive the STALTM-HITTER pact, it finally, late in 1940 became inactive as have many other Communists fronts which could not negotiate the hairpin turns of the Communist Internationals.

HOLLYCOD DEMOCRATIC COMMITTEE (Communist front organization)

Source 4-B has stated that this organization is to all intents and purposes a revival of the Motion Picture Democratic Committee, a Communist Party front organization that went out of existence shortly after the HITIER-STALEV pact was signed on August 23, 1939. This latter organization and the reasons for its liquidation are dealt with under section 1 of this report.

三分(5)

The Hollywood Democratic Committee is being set up at the present time to operate in the political field and this purpose was stated in a call issued for its first meeting which was held at the Hollywood Roosevelt Hotel in Hollywood on January 14, 1943.

This initial meeting was for the purpose of "forming an association of voters in the motion picture community which will support victory legislation and victory candidates." This meeting was primarily an organizational one; as there have been no further open meetings, it can be said that the Hollywood Democratic Committee is still in the process of formation.

The call for this initial meeting was signed by:

MALTER ABEL MARC COMMELLY WALTER HUSTON

following:

The speakers for this organization were listed as the

MARY McCALL, JR.
WALTER HUSTON
MARGARET SEMMETT
ROBERT W. KENNY (Attorney General of the State of California)
RUSSELL GLEASON, chairman

Of the foregoing the following have been identified as cooperating with and active in other Communist fronts in Hollywood:

MARY McCAIL, JR. is President of the Screen Writers Guild, the bargaining agency for the Hollywood Screen Writers. She has been active and is still active in Communist front organizations such as the Hollywood writers Mobilization for Defense, Hollywood Anti-Wazi League, Hollywood League for Democratic Action, Motion Picture Democratic Committee, and she is a fellow traveller.

MARC CONNEILY is a screen writer. He is also a member of the League of American Writers and is active in the Hollywood Writers Mobilization for Defense. He is the chairman of the Hollywood Writers Mobilization Committee for Interchange of cultural Material with Writers in the Soviet Union. He is a fellow traveller.

- THAI

MALTER HUSTON is a screen actor. He is not identified specifically with membership in the Communist front organizations, but is sympathetic toward Soviet Russia and its form of government. This information has been obtained from press releases regarding his parts in pictures from time to time.

MARGARET EENNETT is a member of the Screen Office Employees Guild, a studio labor union affiliated with the Conference of Studio Unions, a Communist front controlled group under the leadership of HERBERT Ka. SCRRELL. Miss BENNETT follows the Communist Party line in all her union activities.

RECERT W. KENNY was formerly state senator of California. He was elected Attorney Ceneral of the state of California during the last November election. It can be stated here that Mr. KENNY is a fellow traveller. He has consorted with known Communist groups. He has supported protests against the deportation proceedings of HARRY BRIDGES. He was also connected with the SCHREIDERMAN-DORSEY Defense Committee. He is a close associate of Attorney IEO GALLACHER, a known Communist in Southern California who handles most of the Communist Party's legal business. Mr. KENNY is President of the National Lawyer's Guild, a Communist controlled organization.

RUSSILL GLEASON is the son of JAMPS and LUCILLE GLEASON, both of whom have been involved in Communist front activity in Hollywood.

Mr. GLEASON is looked upon as an active sympathizer with Communist causes.

At the initial meeting of this group on January 14, 1943 the following well known Communists of long standing attended and participated in discussions from the floor:

J. K. (SPIKE) WALLACE, business representative of Musicians Local No. 47.

HERBERT K. SORRELL, business representative of the Studio
Painters Local 644, and President of the Conference of Studio Unions.

JOHN HOWARD LAWSON, member of the League of American Writers, American Peace Mobilization and a teacher in the Writers School, and has been active in many other front organizations.

ED M. GILBERT, business representative of the Screen Office Employees Guild.

A more complete record of the Communist activities of all of these parties appears heretofore in this report.

SONFIDE TOTAL

In addition to the above the following well known fellow travellers and party line followers were in attendance or mentioned by the Chairman as supporters of this organization.

-

SIDNEY BUCHMAN, a writer. He is a member of the League of American Writers. He supported the American Peace Mobilization and is a teacher in the Writers School.

of American Writers. He supported the American Peace Mobilization and is a writer in the Writers School. He also engages in other Communist front organizations and activities.

HAROID SMITH is business representative of Local 695 of the I.A.T.S.E. He is a fellow traveller.

SHEPARD TRAUBE is a writer and member of the League of American Writers. He is active in the Motion Picture Democratic Committee and was active in the Hollywood Anti-Nazi League, the Hollywood League of Democratic Action, and was a member of the American Peace Mobilization.

MILLIAM (BILL) MORRIS, JR. is the owner of the Morris Booking Agency in Hollywood. He is a fellow traveller who provides strong support financially to front organizations and is an ardent follower of the Communist Party line.

As stated, the Hollywood Democratic Committee is now in the process of formation and it is believed that it will very shortly emerge as a fixed organization. Up to the present time it has followed the usual pattern of a Communist front organization.

(Communist Front Organization)

Source 4-C has informed that the Motion Picture Artists Committee was a group set up to work in conjunction with a larger national organization, the Morth American Committee to Aid Spanish Democracy. This latter Committee was the outgrowth of a series of previously created "Spanish Aid" groups, all under the control of the Communist Party. They were all set up for the purpose of aiding the Communist program in Spain during the civil war in that country.

The original organization set up by the Communist Party in 1936 was called the Medical Bureau to Aid Spanish Democracy. Shortly thereafter the North American Committee to Aid Spanish Democracy was formed. In 1938 the two were merged and called the Medical Bureau and North American Committee to Aid Spanish Democracy. Meanwhile there was the American Friends of Spanish Democracy. Later this group joined the larger one. After the Spanish civil war came to an end in April, 1939 a new organization was set up. It was called the Spanish Refugee Relief Campaign. In March 1940 there was dissension within the group, some of the members objecting to Communist domination. The Communists retained control, however, and renamed it temporarily the Emergency Conference to Save Spanish Refugees. In 1941 it was renamed North American Committee to Aid Spanish Democracy, after absorbing another group which had sprung up overnight called Dorothy Parker's Spanish Children's Relief Fund. Out of that muddled up ancestry came the Motion Picture Artists Committee.

156

58.04

The purposes of all the above organizations were identical, all being Communist controlled. Those purposes were the collection of funds and recruiting of young men to join the Abraham Lincoln Brigade to fight with the Loyalists in Spain. Hundreds of thousands of dollars were collected and never accounted for, and thousands of young Americans were induced to go to Spain for the glory of the Communist cause.

The officers of the Motion Picture Artists Committee were the same as those we find in many other fronts. All were members of the League of American Writers.

- JOHN HOWARD LAWSON

- MICHAEL BLANKFORT

LESTER CONER

CHARLES PAGE, Secretary

The Executive Board is as follows:

DONALD OCDEN STEWART
HERBERT BIEFMAN
SIDHEY BUCHMAN
DUDLEY NICHOLS
MADELINE RUTHVEN
LEWIS MILESTONE
FLORENCE ELDRIDGE (wife of PREDERIC MARCH) HUMPHREY COBB
FRANCHOT TONE
SAMSON RAPHAELSON

The sponsors were:

Dr. HERBERT ALEXANDER LELVYN DOUGLAS THEODORE DREISER PAUL MUNI PHILLIP LERIVALE SOMETHING 151

55385

Judge ROBERT W. KENNY (now Attorney General of the state of California)

ARCHIEALD MacLEISH SHEMWOOD ANDERSON EDWARD ARNOLD PAUL H. DOUGLAS RICHARD ARLEN ANTONIC ENTENZA FANNY HURST SYLVIA SIDNEY SINCLAIR LEMIS MARTHA GRAHAM RICHARD COMMELL

One of the projects sponsored by these Spanish Aid Committees was the Rescue Ship Mission. This was the proposed fitting out of a ship which was to sail from the United States and rescue Loyalist refugees interned in Southern France. It was proposed to raise $300,000 to fit out the ship, which was to be called the "Lovcen". Funds for this venture were still being collected as late as August 1941. It may be stated that the ship never sailed and no accounting was made of the funds collected.

Many innocents were inveigled in this venture. HELEN NEILER, HARCID RELECTION and others resigned when they discovered it was a Communist front. Meetings were held, and money raised in Hollywood, under the direction of LION FEUCHTTANGER and SIDNET BUCHMAN. All the Hollywood Communist intellectuals supported the drive.

Among the sponsors in Hollywood were:

LION FEUCHTMANGER, writer, propagandist, refugee, Communist Party line follower.

- Writers.

Writers.

SIDNEY BUCHMAN, writer, member of the League of American

MARC BLITZSTEIN, writer, member of the League of American

Writers.

BOROTHY PARKER, writer, member of the League of American

Studios. HERMAN SHUMLIN, producer and director at Warner Brothers

- 144 -

53386

SHERMOOD ANDERSON, writer and dramatist.

The sponsors of the UNITED SPANISH AID COMMITTEE, Hollywood Chapter were:

DOROTHY PARKER, writer, member of the League of American

Writers.

CARRY McWILLIAMS, Communist and Commissioner of Housing and Investigation.

IRVING PICHEL, Director and member of the League of American Writers:

PAUL MUNI, actor.

can Writers.

MARC BLITZSTEIN, Composer, member of the League of Ameri-

Writers.

LANGSTON MUCHES, writer, member of the League of American American Friters.

DOMAID OCDEN STEWART, writer; member of the League of FRANK TUTTLE, Director.

Writers.

JOHN WINEY, writer, member of the League of American

HERRERT K. SORRELL, Labor leader and Communist.

GEORGE BIDDIE, artist.

EDWARD BIBERMAN, artist, brother of HERBERT BIBERMAN.

LION FEUCHTMANCER, writer, propagandist and a refugee.

JOHN GARFIEID, actor.

JEAN MUIR, actress.

Prof. ALEXANDER KAUN, Stanford University professor.

CONFIDENTIAL

Dr. AAROH ROSHIOFF, psychiatrist (deceased).

Prof. J. OPFERMETER, Stanford professor.

GEORGE KINTELL, state chairman, Industrial Lelations.

Judge STARLEY NOFFETT, Justice of the Peace, East side.

SAM MOUSTOM ALLEM, Foor politician, head of the S.R.A.

COHE ANSON FORD, County supervisor, Ios Angeles County.

Judge E. PAY SHAUER, Superior court judge.

GAIE SOLDERGAARD, Screen actress, wife of HIRETRY BIELFMAN

The Secretary and Vice-chairman of the last named organization was JACK AVEROFF, and admitted member of the Communist Party.

HOLLM DOD COL ITTED FOR UDITIES IN EXILE (Communist Front organization)

Source 4-D has reported that while this committee was a local organization and apparently confined its activities to the Hollywood section, raising money and spreading propaganda for its purposes, it had its origin in, and cooperated with the various "Spanish Aid" committees set up by the Communist Party during the period of the Spanish civil war.

At that time many Communist writers, artists, journalists and professionals had gone to Spain to support the Communist activities among the Loyalist forces. They came from many countries. At the same time there were many intellectuals within Spain who leaned toward the Communist cause. It was in the middle of that period that the writers, artists and intellectuals had become imbued with social concepts of LIMIN and STALIN. The world was all out of joint and it was up to them to fix it up and the place to start was Spain.

LUIS ARIQUISTAN, a Spanish writer had this to say about the situation:

"I am speaking now of the so-called Communist sympathizers, the fellow travellers who were so active in giving the Spanish Communists the power and influence they already had... They were autonishingly numerous among our bourgeoisie where they formed large and influential groups. Writers, journalists, artists and professions

"I am mentioning the unhappy part this group played in Spain because I happen to know the great influence similar groups are exerting in France, England and the U.S.A. One of the reasons why I am giving this resume of Spanish experiences is to teach them a lesson.

New Leeder, 6-3-39.

After the Spanish civil war ended in April, 1939, many of these Communists and fellow travellers were caught and intermed in camps. Others escaped into France and North Africa and intermed there. Some escaped and got back to the countries from which they came. Later other writers and artists escaped from Germany and occupied France and became stranded in neutral countries in Europe, especially Portugal. Others are still in concentration camps in Germany and occupied France.

It was to aid these exiled writers, artists and professional people that the Hollywood Committee for Writers in Exile was allegedly created. The purpose was to raise funds for their relief wherever needed and plans were made to get them into the United States eventually.

All of this would be most laudable if it were not that the committee was interested only in those refugees who were Communists, fellow travellers and sympathizers with the cause of communism. So true is this that the Communist Party, of which the Hollywood Committee for Writers in Exile is a front, advocated the deportation back to Spain, France or Germany of those writers and artists who did not agree with its domination of the intellectuals of those countries.

An example of this discrimination is the attempt of the Communist Party to force the Government of Mexico to deport three writers, "TOR SERGE, JULIAN GORKIN and MARCEAU PIVERT. These men had escaped from and France and were in Mexico City. But because they objected to Comdomination of the Spanish Loyalist forces in the civil war and opposed munist Party in principle, the Hollywood Committee for Writers in Exile der no circumstances, aid these refugses. The main purpose of the 'ommittee for Writers in Exile was stated by GARSIN KANIN, fellow oution picture director in Hollywood, et a meeting of this committee Beverly Wilshire Hotel on November 26, 1940 to an audience of directors, actors and writers, es follows:

"Hollywood today could use the brains that HITIER ncentration camps. There are not enough brains in vauce the 500 stories annyally needed by the film."

Five thousand dollars was collected at this meeting. Hollywood Reporter 11-27-40.

The following refugee writers and artists were introduced at the Meeting:

ALFRED DOEBLIN.
LEON MITTLER LEONARD FRANK
DR. KURTZ NEUMAN
FREDERICK TORBERG
ALFRED POLGAR
HEIMRICH HANN

- CUNFIDENTIAL

All of the above are Germans.

The following are the active members of the Committee:

DONALD OCDEN STEWART, Chairman SIDNEY BUCHMAN SHIPIDAN GIBNEY MARIAN SPITZER

(All the above are members of the League of American Writers and teach in the Hollywood Writers School)

Sponsors are:

( )

DOROTHY PARKER, writer and fellow traveller.
EDWARD CHODOROV, Writer, member of the League of American Writers and the American Peace Mobilization

H. S. REAFT
MARC BLITTSTEIN
HERMAN SHUNGLIN
FREDERIC MARCH
GARSI! KANIN
HELEN GAHAGEN
LANGSTON HUGHES
CAREY MCWILLIAMS
IRVING PICHEL
FRANK TUTTLE
JOHN WEXLEY
JEAN LUIR
PAUL LUNI
JOHN GARFIELD

CONFIDENTIAL

DOROTHY COLINGORE, actress, wife of RICHARD COLLINS

GEORGE WILLNER, Booking agent
LION FEUCHTWANGER (himself a refugee writer from the ROBERT ROSSEN, writer
WILLIAM DIETERIE, director
JOHN CROMMELL, director

All of the above are identified with other Communist front activities in the Hollywood section.

The Hollywood Committee for Writers in Exile is just another of the maze of Communist dominated interlocking front organizations.

JOINT ANTI-FASCIST REFUGEE COMMITTEE (Communist front organization)

Source 4-E has reported that this Communist inspired and controlled organization is an outgrowth of various Communist front organizations that were set up during the Spanish civil war period when the Soviet Union and the Communist Party were engaged in capturing the Loyalist cause in Spain. There had come into existence in the United States at that time the following organizations:

MEDICAL BUREAU TO AID SPANISH DEMOCRACY

MURTH AMERICAN COMMITTEE TO AID SPANISH DEMOCRACY

MEDICAL BUREAU AND MURTH AMERICAN COMMITTEE TO AID

SPANISH DEMOCRACY

SPANISH REFUGES RELIEF CAMPAIGN

EMERGENCY CONFETENCE TO SAVE SPANISH REFUGEES

SPANISH CHILDREN'S RELIEF FUND

SPANISH REFUGEE SHIP MISSION

FRIENDS OF THE ABRAHAM LINCOM BRIGADE

HOLLYWOOD COMMITTEE FOR WRITERS IN EXILE

UNITED AMERICAN SPANISH AID COMMITTEE

The foregoing organizations were set up under the direction of the Communist Party, and at one time or another, all functioned in the United States.

When Russia entered the war on the side of the United Nations, the Spanish Civil War episode was relegated to past history, as all efforts of the Communists in the United States must now be devoted to winning the war for Russia's sake.

CONFIDENTIAL 15'

zations,
JOPIT
an office

As a result of this situation all these organizations, and their remnants have now been incorporated into one group, the JOINT MITTI-PASCIST NEFUCIE COMMITTEE. It is national in scope; and has an office and branch in Hollywood, California. The purpose of the organization, as stated by the Secretary of the Hollywood branch, MELEN M. FISCHER, is to raise funds and give all aid possible in every way to those Spanish, German and Trench refugees now interned in concentration camps in Europe; and wherever and whenever possible bring them to the United States, or the Americas.

[This organization being completely Communist dominated, is interested only in those refugees whose political opinions coincide with those who are in control of this committee.]

At the present time the headquarters of the committee are located at 8505 Sunset Doulevard, Hollywood. The offices are sumptously equipped and the committee apparently is well equipped financially.

A check of the personnel and those in charge and active in the organization shows the same names and control that had been observed in all the other Hollywood Communist front organizations. They are the following:

PHILLIP MERIVALE, Honorary Chairman. Lr. MERIVALE is described as an English actor now appearing in motion pictures. Mr. MERIVALE is a fellow traveller, having been active in the New Theatre Loague, and various cultural organizations in Hollywood over a period of years—a fellow traveller.

Mrs. EDMARD CHODOROV, Chairman. This is the wife of DWARD CHODOROV, a member of the League of American Writers, and a close fellow traveller with the Communist Party. He has followed the line from the Popular Front period, into the Fifth, or Pact Period, when he was connected with the American Peace Mobilization. She has done likewise.

HELIN M. FISCHER, Secretary. Miss FISCHER is a newcomer, having just suddenly "appeared". She has not been shown heretofore in the Hollywood section.

Miss FISCHER stated that the organization has no board of directors or executive board, but does have a "working committee". The "Morking Committee" is composed of the following parties:

Mrs. SIDNEY DUCHIAN, wife of SIDNEY BUCHIAN, League of American Triters, and a staunch fellow traveller.

CONFIDENTIAL

ROBERT ROSSEN, member of the League of American Writers, chairman of the Hollywood Writers Mobilization, a fellow traveller, member of the American Peace Mobilization, etc.

H. S. (HY) KRAFT, member of the League of American Writers, Hollywood Writers Mobilization, a fellow traveller, member of the American Peace Hobilization, etc.

GEORGE WILLNER, theatrical booking agent, formerly Western Representative of "New Massee".

DOROTHY COMMINCORE, screen actress, fellow traveller, wife of RICHARD COLLES of the League of American Writers.

JOERNEY RIVER, wife of W. L. RIVER of the League of American Writers, American Feace Mobilization, and fellow traveller.

ANNA REVERE - no record.

MARIAN SPITZER, League of American Writers, American Peace Mobilization, and a long record of fellow traveller.

TAMARA CEVA, formerly of the New Theatre League and other front organizatione; a fellow traveller.

Miss FISCHER stated that the organization had no list of members; that the organization was the committee which called meetings, collected funds and attended to all business of the organization. She gave the following as the sponsors of the organization.

> WALTER HUSTON - Screen actor, and fellow traveller. OLIVIA DeHAVILIAND - Screen actress. JULIEN DUVIVIER - French motion picture director, now employed in Hollywood.

HEINRICH MANN - German refugee writer, now in Hollywood. LION FEUCHTWANGER - German refugee writer, a fellow traveller fanatically devoted to Communism and the Soviet Union. Author of "Moscow 1937".

DAME MAY WHITTY - elderly screen actress.

WILLIAM MORRIS, JR., theatrical booking agent in Hollywood and a close fellow traveller

Mrs. ANN IMHR - Connected with Hollywood charitable organizations.

That the Joint Anti-Fascist Refugee Committee is another Communist front organization there can be no doubt. >

Communist Front Organization

Source 4-G has reported that the League of American Writers, since its formation in April, 1935 in New York City, has been and still is ons of the most influential and far-reaching Communist front organizations ever set up in this country. Bscause of the fact that it has succeeded in drawing into its ranks many writers of national and international reputation, it has been able to exercise, by using organized pressure and the full strength of the Communist machine on books, magazines, periodicals and the press, an influence of serious proportions. As a propaganda instrument of the Communist Party it has rendered and is rendering outstanding service to the foreign policy of the Soviet Union.

The Hollywood Chapter of the League of American Writers is particularly of extreme importance because, operating through its members who are firmly intrenched in the motion picture industry, it can and does. exercise a most insidious influence over the type of picture produced. At the present time an examination will show that in almost every case where a picture is being made dealing with the war situation as it affects the Soviet Union, the writer or writers, and in many cases directors, are persons who have been identified as members of the League of American Writers, or as having been involved in other Communist front activities in the Hollywood section.] This is extremely important inasmuch as the motion picture is now considered necessary to national defense.

The parentage and control of the League of American Writers by the Communist Party cannot be doubted. It is a matter of record. In November, 1930 a Congress of so-called "revolutionary writers" was held in Kharkov, Russia. At this congress a program was laid down for an International Union of Revolutionary Writers which was to operate in all countries outside the borders of the Soviet Union. The basic purpose of this Union was to organize intellectuals, particularly writers, in all countries, indoctrinate them with the philosophy of Marxian Communism and then create cultural organizations for the defense of the Soviet Union. These organizations would work in cooperation with the various sections of the Communist Internationals (Comintern) throughout the world. ]( (U)

The delegates from the United States who attended the Kharkov Congress, one of whom was MICHAEL GOID and who was one of those chiefly instrumental in organizing the League of American Writers, made report, and this report is published in "New Masses" for February, 1931 40/

Meanwhile there had already been set up in the larger cities of the United States groups of writers, artists and intellectuals called "John Reed Clubs". (Hollywood had its John Reed Club from 1932 to (1935). But as these John Reed Clubs were more in the nature of groups inspired by local Communist influences, they did not serve the aims of the Communist Party in a sufficiently disciplined manner. In January, 1935 a Congress of John Reed Clubs was held in New York City. At this congress which was composed of delegates from the clubs wherever located, a decision was made to call a Congress of American Writers to work out a plan for more efficient cooperation. The call was issued for April 1935, the Congress to be held in New York City.) On April 24 to 27, 1935 at the New School for Social Recearch, the congress was held. [It was called FIRST AMERICAN WRITERS CONGRESS.]

CONFIDENTIAL

Come result of this congress was the formation of the League of American Writers, and at the same time it elected what was called a National Council. This National Council then affiliated with the International Union of Revolutionary Writers before mentioned which had its head-quarters in Moscow, Russia. Thus, through the action of its National Council, the League of American Writers became an affiliate of this international revolutionary organization which has always been under the control of the Communist Party of the Soviet Union. The members of the National Council were the following:

MICHAEL BLANKFORT
VAN WYCK BROOKS
HARRY CARLISIE
EUCENE CLAY
MERLE COLEY
LEONARD EHRLICH
ANCEL FLORES

SIDNEY HOWARD
MOISSHE NADIR
CLIFFORD ODETS
JOSEPH OPATOSHU
REBECCA PITTS
ACRES SMEDIEN
JAMES WATERMAN WISE

The principal speaker at this First American Writers Congress was EARL BROWDER.

Other known Communists busy at this congress were:

MICHAEL GOID - Now columnist on the "Daily Worker".

CLARENCE HATHAWAY - Then editor of the "Daily Worker".

JOSEPH FREEMAN - member of the staff of the "New Massee".

ALEXANDER TRACHTENEERG - a Party leader and head of International Publishere.

MOISSAYE J. OIGIN, Party leader and author of "Why Communisms" (deceased)

CRANVILLE HICKS - Teacher at Harvard University and self-admitted member of the Communist Party.

and many others.]

Those who eigned the call for this First American Writers

Congress were:

EARL BROWDER - Communist Party member.

MICHAEL GOLD - Communist Party member.

CONFIDENTIAL

lol

```
GRANVILLE HICKS - Communist Party member. Tr /(W)
THEODORE DREISER -
NATHAN ASCH
                   Fellow traveller.
LESTER COHEN
                    Communist Party member . (14)
EDWARD DAHLBERG -
JOHN L. SPIVAK
NELSON ALGREN
ARNOID B. ARMSTRONG - Not a Communist Party member.
                                n
MAXWELL BODENHEDM
 THOMAS BOYD
 BOB BROWN
                    Fellow traveller.
 FIELDING BURKE
 KENNETH BURKE
 ROBERT COATS
 ERSKINE CALDWELL -
 ALAM CALMER
 ROBERT CANTWELL
                    Communist Party member ) (u)
JACK CONROY
                    Fellow Traveller.
 MALCOLM COVILEY
                    Communist Party member ((u)
GUY ENDORE
                    Not a Communist Party Member ..
 JAMES T. FARRELL -
 KENNETH FEARING - Fellow traveller.
 BEN FIELD
                  - Fellow traveller.
 WALDO FRANK
                   Communist Party member. ( ( )
 JOSEPH FREEMAN
 EUCENE CORDON
 HORACE GRECORY
                    Fellow traveller.
 HENRY HART
 CLARENCE HATHAWAY- Communist Party member. (1) (L)
 JOSEPHINE HERBST - Fellow Traveller.
 ROBERT HERRICK
                     Communist Party member. (4)
 LANGSTON HUGHES -
                  - Fellow traveller.
 ORRICK JOHNS
 ARTHUR KALLET
                  - Fellow traveller.
  LINCOLN KIRSTEIN -
                     Communist Party member (*/w)
 HERBERT KIINE
 Joshua kunitz
 JOHN HOWARD LAWSON -
                  - Fellow Traveller.
 TILLIE LERNER
                  - Communist Party member. (4)(w)
 MERIDEL LESUEUR
 METAIN TEAL
                     Fellow traveller.
 ROBERT MORSS LOVETT - Fellow traveller.
 LOUIS LOZOWICK
 GRACE LUMPKIN
                     Fellow traveller.
  LEWIS MUMPORD
```

EDWARD NEWHOUSE Communist Party member ] JOSEPH NORTH (now dead) MOISSAYE J. OLGIN-SAMUEL ORNITZ MYRA PAGE Fellow traveller. JOHN DOS PASSOS (Now anti Communist Party) PAUL PETERS ALLEN PORTER HAROLD PREECE WILLIAM ROLLING. JR. PAUL ROMAINE Communist Party member (w) ISADOR SCHNEIDER Fellow traveller. EDWIN SEAVER CLAIRE SIFTON PAUL SIFTON GEORGE SKLAR (Probably Communist Party member) LINCOLN STEFFENS -PHILLIP STEVENSON CENEVIEVE TAGGARD-Communist Party member ] ( ) /ALEXANDER TRACHTENBERG = NATHANIEL WEST Communist Party member 11 (W) ELLA MAE WINTER RICHARD WRIGHT

At the conclusion of the Congress and for some time thereafter the League of American Writers operated as a national organization. The Hollywood Chapter had not yet been formed. The result of a call issued by HARRY CARLISIE, one of the National Council of the League of American Writers and a member of the Communist Party, was a nation wide meeting of the Western riters Congress in San Francisco, California, on November 13, 1936. This ingress was under the firm control of the Communist Party as had been the First American Writers Congress. VICTOR J. JEROME, a ranking functionary in the Communist Party in New York was sent out to guide the proceedings and address this Western Writers Congress. HARRY BRIDGES was also one of the principal speakers. In addition to the above, other well known Communists who assisted in maintaining Communist Party control over the congress were the following:

ELIA MAE WINTER - Communist Party member. ] (U)
GERALD STRANG -

Those who signed the original call for the Western Writers

Congress were:

-

```
Liberal
LOUIS ADAMIC
HOWARD BAKEER
ERNEST SUTHERLAND BATES
CALVIN BRIDGES
MYRON BRINIG
WITTER BYDDER
                    Fellow traveller
                      11
HUMPRHEY COBB
CLARKSON CRANE
H. L. DAVIS
HARVEY FERGUSON
                 - Fellow traveller
SARA BARD FIELD
LINCOLN FITZELL
MARTIN FLAVIN
MIRIAM ALLEN de FORD
                 - Fellow traveller
ELSA GIDLOW
MICHAEL GOLD
                  - Communist Party member
HILL DEAWOH
JAMES HOPPER
HELEN HOYT
                     Communist Party member ] ( ( ) Fellow traveller
SIDNEY HOWARD
ALEXANDER KAUN
HERBERT KLEIN
ROBIN LAMPSON Communist Party member (member of
CAREY MCWILLIAMS -
                        Unit 42, Professional Section
SEIDEN MENEFEE
H. G. MERRIAM
MAX MILLER
RICHARD NEUBERGER
                  - Fellow traveller
DOROTHY PARKER
                       33 -
KENNETH REXROTH
EIMER RICE
IRMIN SHAW
VIOLA BROTHERS SHORE - Communist Party member XXXXXX
                  - Fellow traveller - Socialist
 UPTON SINCLAIR
                    Communist Party member () (U)
LTESS SLESINGER
 JOHN STEINBECK
                  - Fellow traveller
CLARA WRATHERWAX - Communist Party member (
MARIE de L. WEICH- Fellow traveller
NATHANIEL WEST.
LESLIE T. WHITE
```

1 EL. 25 ...

The Contraction

This group continued to function under the name of the Western Writers Congress until October, 1937 when the membership voted to go over in a body and join the League of American Writere national organization. After this action was taken the next step was the formation of the Hollywood Chapter of the League of American Writers. The purpose in forming this group was to take in those writers who were employed in the motion picture industry in order to concentrate more efficiently on the production of motion pictures. Headquarters were set up in Hollywood and the organization has functioned eteadily since its formation.

The officere of the Hollywood Chapter are:

ALBERT MALTZ - President

GEORGIA BACKUS

GLENDA SULLIVAN - Secretary

Both of the above have been identified with such Communist front organizations as, HOLLYWOOD ANTI-NAZI LEAGUE, LEAGUE FOR PEACE AND DEMOCRACY, AMERICAN PEACE MOBILIZATION, HOLLYWOOD LEAGUE FOR DEMOCRATIC ACTION, etc.

Those most active in the Hollywood Chapter are the fol-

Fellow Traveller

lowings

| JOHN BOYLAN                             | _ " "                                          |
|-----------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------|
| SIDNEY BUCHMAN                          |                                                |
| VERA CASPARY                            | # #                                            |
| EDWARD CHODOROV                         | - •                                     |
| JEROME CHODOROV                         | - • •                                          |
| RICHARD COLLINS                         | —                                              |
| NORMAN CORWIN                           | _ •                                            |
| FRANK DAVIS                             | _ 1 1                                          |
| Prof. FRANKLIN FE                       | ARING - " - University                         |
| ٠.· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · | - of California at Los Angeles                 |
| CUY ENDORE                              | - Communiet Party member (4) (LL)              |
| JOSEPH FIELDS                           | - Pellow Traveller                             |
| SHERIDAN GIBNEY                         | _ * *                                          |
| MORTON GRANT                            | - Communist Party member 4/ (u)                |
| BORIS INGSTER                           | - Fellow Traveller                             |
| ✓ PAUL JARRICO                          | — • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • |
| GORDON KAHN                             | · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·          |
| JOHN HOWARD LANSON                      | N - Communist Party member ( (4)               |
| BOBERT LERS                             | - Fellow Traveller                             |
| MEYER LEVIN                             |                                                |
| MELVYN LEVY                             |                                                |
| MILTON MERLIN                           |                                                |
| 4                                       |                                                |

DUDLEY NICHOLS . Follow Traveller ARCH OBOLER IRVING REIS FRED RINALDO W. L. RIVER ROBERT ROSSEM WALDO SALT BUDD WILSON SCHULEERG - Young Communist League and Communist Party member ALLAN SCOTT Fellow traveller JERRY SCHWARTZ VIOLA BROTHERS SHORK-Communist Party me TESS SLESINGER DONALD OCDEN STEWART-ADALTON TRUMBO Fellow traveller

 $S_{MMNN}$

Each and everyone of the above have been identified as sponsors of, members in or active in support of such Communist front organizations as:

AMERICAN LEAGUE FOR PEACE AND DEMOCRACY HOLLYWOOD ANTI-HAZI LEAGUE HOLLYWOOD LEAGUE FOR DEMOCRATIC ACTION HOLLYWOOD PEACE FORUM MOTION PICTURE DEMOCRATIC COMMITTEE AMERICAN PEACE MOBILIZATION HOLLYWOOD THEATRE ALLIANCE CONTEMPORARY THEATRE UNITED SPANISH AID COMMITTEE JOINT ANTI-PASCIST REFUGEE COMMITTEE HEW THEATRE LEAGUE MOTION PICTURE ARTISTS COMMITTEE

The Hollywood Chapter of the League of American Writers has as an organization followed the Communist Party line ever since it was first established.]

Buring the Popular Front period it supported all other organizations which followed the party line. It has protested officially the deportation proceedings against HARRY BRIDGES. It was officially affiliated with the Hollywood Anti-Hasi Isague and the Motion Picture Democratic Committee. It has eponsored mass meetings of protest against the Dies Committee.

1/00

Previous to the signing of the pact between STALIN and HITLER, it was all out for defeat of Fascism and Naziism. It published those principles to the world through the issuance of leaflets, articles and its own publication "Black and White".

When the pact between STALTN and HITTER was signed it completely reversed its official position and condemned the war as imperialist; opposed aid to Britain; opposed the selective service act; demanded isolation for the United States. And during that period of the Pact it officially endorsed the AMERICAN PEACE MOBILIZATION.

After HITTER invaded Russia the organization officially issued a proclamation, which appears in ite official publication the "Clipper" for August, 1941, and demanded that the United States give all aid to Britain and her allies; went all out for the defeat of HITTER; Britain ceased to be an imperialist nation.

Reference is here made to the issue of the "Clipper" for May, 1941 in which an article appeared under the headline "In the Defense of Culture", which was the "Call of the Fourth Congress of the League of American Writers".

In substance it stated that the call was being made for the purpose of gathering together to reaffirm the aims of the three previous congressee of 1935, 1937 and 1939. It stated, "We proclaimed our unalterable conviction that reaction and its ware are the greatest enemies of a free and flourishing culture." It further stated "In 1941 the values by which we have lived are facing unprecedented attack. Half of the world is at war and the other half is endangered by attempts to draw it into war. We had warned of the consequences of "non-intervention" in Spain, of aid to the aggressor in China, of appeasement at Munich. Today these consequences are tragically apparent. We have warned that America must be defended not by involvement in this war, or by steps towards dictatorship, or by pursuing a course of imperialist expansion, but by preserving peace and expanding democracy on the economic, political and cultural levels. Today we must ask whether the present policy of the administration and the program of big business are not leading us toward war and Fascism in the name of resistance to war and fascism. . . . We know that our existence as free writers, spokesmen of a free people depends on out continued loyalty to the principles which govern the work of the League of American Writers. We therefore call our fellow writers and our associates in the related crafts to the Fourth Bisnnial Congrese to consider the following questions.

> "How best as writers can we reciet the drive toward the war and reaction which threatens our, democratic culture?

CONFIDEL

"What can we do to extend further help to persecuted writers of other lands?

"What can we do to restore the WPA cultural projects and to transform them into permanent Peoples Art Projects vital to the nation's strength?

"What new technical developments in the various forms of writing need to be analyzed and evaluated?

"What measures can we take to combat and surmount the growing restrictions on our work as honest craftsmen?

"How can we contribute to a genuine cultural interchange between the people of the Americas?

"How can we enrich America's imperishable democratic literature and extend its audience?"

It might well be stated that the policy of this organization in May, 1941 (while the HITIER-STALIN pact was in effect) was against America's entrance into the war and against preparations for defense.

There are 123 names appearing as signers of this call to the Fourth Congress. Mearly all of them are known in Hollywood and many are in Hollywood at the present time.

This congress was known as the "American Writers Congress" and was held in New York City June 6 to 8, 1941. The article stated "for information apply to FRANKIIN FOISOM, National Executive Secretary, League of American Writers, Inc., 381 Fourth Avenue, New York City."

Attached hereto and marked Exhibit No. 3 - Page 1, is a photographic copy of this call to the Fourth Congress.

Reference is also being made to an article appearing in the August, 1941 issue of the "Clipper" on Page 3, the editorial page, under the heading, "A Communication to All Writers From the League of American Writers". The substance of this editorial appearing in the official organ of the League of American Writers, is that the league has urged that the welfare of the American people requires participation in every genuine anti-Fascist struggle; that when there was still peace in the world the league fought to maintain it, "but now the alliance between Great Britain and the Soviet Union provides the people of all countries with an unprecedented opportunity to rid the world of Hitlerism and a world free of Pascism is essential to the democratic institutions and culture of the United States.

Therefore the League advocates all immediate and necessary measures in support of Great Britain and the Soviet Union to insure the military defeat of the fascist aggressors. We believe such support has now become vital to the welfare and security of our country. We look forward to the release of our colleagues from the concentration camps of Europe, the return of exiled writers to their native lands, and the extirpation of the gravest threat to our existence as free writers. . . The fight against fascism cannot and must not be conducted at the expense of civil liberties, trade unions rights, academic freedom, and living standards in the United States. . . The League will continue with renewed vigor its opposition to censorship and its efforts to provide more extensive outlets for anti-fascist literature. The League supports the full rights of labor, including the right to strike. It is unalterably opposed to anti-Semitism and discrimination against Negroes and the foreign-born."

A photographic copy of this article is being attached to this report and is marked Exhibit No. 3, Page 2.

It should be remembered in this connection that HITTER attacked STALIN on June 22, 1941 and the League of American Writers was following the Communist Party line in May 1941 and it was also following the Communist Party line in August, 1941, although a complete "about face" had taken place in the Communist Party line.

[The entire record of the League of American Writers as a national organization, and the Hollywood Chapter as a local organization, from the beginning conclusively shows that the Communist Party completely dominates and controls both groups.]

HOLLYWOOD SCHOOL FOR WRITERS (Communist Party front organization)

Source H has reported that the eo-called School for Writers is a device by the Hollywood Chapter of the League of American Writers to be used as a "transmission belt" whereby budding writers and those whose ambitic to become writers are developed along the political lines followed by the Le of American Writers and conditioned for eventual membership in the League as the Communist Party.

Attracted by the huge salaries paid by the motion pictur industry and the glamour attached, many persons will adopt any means to gain access to that favored inetitution. Taking advantage of this citutation, this writers "School" was established in October, 1939 by the Hollywood Chapter Pitt the League.

There is no doubt of the control over the school by the League of American Writers as it is plainly stated in the 1942 Prospectus of the school that:

"The Hollywood School for Writers is a non-profit organization founded by the IEAGUE OF AMERICAN WRITERS. Distinguished instructors or guest lecturers, many of whom are members of the League, volunteer their services in the interests of the School and its students."

(Introductory Note - 1942 Prospectus)

In all printed matter the School uses the slogan:

"MORDS ARE YOUR WEAPON-YOU MUST LEARN TO USE THEM."

This is a quotation from a book written by DONALD OCDEN STEWART titled "Fighting Words."

At the present time the School is located at 1204 North Vista Street, Hollywood, California, which is also the headquarters of the Hollywood Chapter of the League of American Writers.

The courses taught are as follows:

Screen writing
Short story
Playwriting
Non-fiction writing
Radio
Novel
History of American literature
News reporting
Labor journalism

[A careful check on all instructors and lecturers who have appeared before classes in the last two years shows that there has not been one who has not been identified either as a Communist Party member or close fellow traveller.] Each and everyone of them has followed the Communist Party line from the Popular Front period into the Period of the Pact when he or she supported the American Peace Mobilization and other isolationist organizations. Each and everyone of these instructors and lecturers have now followed the Communist Party line into the Post-Pact Period and are seemingly super zealous patriots all out for full prosecution of the war.

--

- 162 -

```
These instructors and lecturers are:
 GEORGIA BACKUS
                        Fellow traveller
 JOHN BOYLAN
 SIDNEY BUCHMAN
 VERA CASPARY
 EDWARD CHODOROV
 JEROME CHODOROV
 RICHARD COLLINS .
 NORMAN CORWIN
                        Communist Party member
FRANK DAVIS
 Prof. FRANKLIN FEARING-Fellow traveller
                        Communist Party member (
CUT ENDORE
 JOSEPH FIELDS
                        Fellow traveller
 SHERIDAN GIBNEY
                        Communist Party member 3 ( ) ( w )
DON GORDON
 MORTON GRANT
 BORIS INCSTER
                        Fellow traveller
 PAUL JARRICO
 GORDON KAHN
                        Communist Party member (1 (w)
 JOHN HOWARD LAWSON
 ROBERT LEES
                       Fellow traveller

    Fellow traveller

 MEYER LEVIN
                        Fellow traveller
 METAAN TEAA
 MILTON MERLIN
                        Communist Party member ()
CAREY MCWILLIAMS
 DUDIEY NICHOIS
                       Fellow traveller
 ARCH OBOLER
                       Fellow traveller
 IRVING REIS
 FRED RINALDO
 W. L. RIVER
 ROBERT ROSSEN
 HAROLD SALEASON
 WALDO SALT
 BUDD WILSON SCHULBERG- Communist Party member, Young Communist League
 ALLAN SCOTT
                        Fellow traveller
 JERRY SCHWARTZ
                        Fellow traveller
 VIOLA BROTHERS SHORE-
                        Communist Party member
 TESS SLESINGER
 DONALD OGDEN STEMART
 DALTON TRUMBO
                        Fellow traveller
```

All the above named parties are writers. In addition to these writers certain Hollywood directors have appeared before the classes instructing and lecturing on the technique of the director in motion pictures.

53191

These directors are:

FRANK TUTTLE - a member of the Communist Party ()
IRVING PICHEL- long a close fellow traveller
LASZIO BENEDEK, reported to be a "European" director
JULES DASSIN - " " " " " "

That the Hollywood Writers School is in reality a "School for Communism" there can be little doubt.

HOLLYWOOD WRITERS MOBILIZATION FOR DEFENSE (Communist front organization)

Source I has stated that the Communist Party line changed with the invasion of Russia by HITIER on June 22, 1941, and it became necessary for the party to dissolve such organizations as the Hollywood Peace Forum, Hollywood League for Democratic Action, American Peace Mobilization, Motion Picture Democratic Committee, and other groups which had been opposing the entry of the United States into the war. By February of 1942 all of these had been "liquidated" and the Communist Party declared for full participation in the war. The Hollywood section of the party fell in line and as soon as the apparatus could be turned around to face in the opposite direction, new organizations as "fronte" were set up. The first of these was the Hollywood Writers Mobilization for Defense. On the surface it was just a group of patriotic Hollywood screen writers falling in line for the defense of their country. In reality it was the same old League of American Writers in a new makeup. To make it look more legitimate and remove as much of the past isolationist record of the League of American Writers as possible, it drew in as eponsors the following labor groups in the Hollywood section:

SCREEN WRITERS GUILD
RADIO WRITERS GUILD SCREEN PUBLICISTS GUILD
SCREEN READERS GUILD
SCREEN CARTOONISTS GUILD
INDEPENDENT PUBLICISTS GUILD
AMERICAN NEWSPAPER GUILD

While these sponsors seemed to give the Mobilization emport in the labor field, each one of the foregoing labor groups was under the domination of the Communist Party, and has followed the Communist Party line for several years. In carrying out its program which was apparently all out prosecution of the war in the cultural field, the Writers Mobilization called a series of mass meetings at the Filmarte Theatre in Hollywood in the summer of 1942. The principal epeakers at these meetings were:

2000

NELSON POYNTER, Hollywood representative for Government films, who spoke in his official position.

DONALD OCDEN STEWART BOBERT ROSSEN FRANK TUTTLE MARY McCALL, JR.

All of the four last mentioned are members of the League of American Writers and follow the Communist Party line unerringly. In addition to meetings, the Mobilization arranged for several radio broadcasts, and issued an official publication called "Communique".

The chairman of the Mobilization was ROBERT ROSSEN. Mr. ROSSEN is to all intents and purposes, a Communist. He has followed the line of the party faithfully for years. He is a member of the League of American Writers, a teacher in the Hollywood Writere School, supported the American Peace Mobilization, signed the call for the Fourth Congress of the League of American Writere, and has been sponsor and active in other Communist fronts of many kinds.

Others prominent in the Writere Mobilization for Defense were the following:

DALTON TRUMBO
GUY ENDORE
HENRY MYERS
ARCH OBOLER
W. L. RIVER
EDWIN JUSTUS MAYER
JAY GORNEY
EDWARD ELISCU
HECTOR CHEVIGNY
GORDON KAHN
ARTHUR KOBER
H. S. (HY) KRAFT
VERA CASPARY

DONALD OCCEN STEWART

LEO MITTLER ALIAN SCOTT
JERRY CHODOROV
JULIUS EPSTEIN
PHILLIP EPSTEIN
MICHAEL BLANKFORT
BARRY TRIVERS
PAUL TRIVERS
MARIAN SPITZER
MILTON MERLIN
IRVING REIS
ROBERT LEES
FRED RINALDO
JOHN BRIGHT

All of the above are the same old names that are found in previous Hollywood Communist fronts. All have for years been followers of the Communist Partyline.

Early in February of 1942, the Mobilization issued its publication "COMMUNIQUE". This publication was indicative of the position of the Mobilization and conformed to the new Communist Party line.

The Editorial Board was composed of the following:

MILTON MERLIN, Editor
MICHAEL KANIN
RING LARDNER, JR.
IAN MCIELLAN HUNTER
JAY DRATLER
JACK STANLEY
EVELIN HUMPHREYS
ASA BORDACES
CORDON KAHN
BILL BLOWITZ
JOHN MCIELSH, Art editor.

Of the above, MERLIN, KANIN, IAHDNER, BORDAGES, KAHN and McIEISH are members of the League of American Writers, and staunch followers of the Communist Party line. In content this paper "Communique" followed the Communist Party line. However, it was done very cautiously, and mostly by implication. It advocated the opening of a second front. It was in favor of immediate independence for India. The negro question was handled in accordance with the party line. It recommended books and pamphlets favoring the Communist position in Russia and internationally. "Soviet Power" was highly endorsed and recommended, which book was written by the Dean of Canterbury. Pamphlets by ALVA BESSIE, a noted American Communist, were distributed. It quoted from "In Fact", an American Communist publication. It advocated an alliance with an organization in Moscow, Russia called "Voks" whereby cultural material could be exchanged between the two groups. It announced the formation of a committee to work to bring about this alliance. The committee members were the following:

HENRY MYERS

ARCH OBOLER

HECTOR CHEVIGNY

JOSEPH MISCHEL

W. L. RIVER

EDWIN JUSTUS MAYER

JAY GORNEY

ARTHUR SCHWARTZ

GEORGE THOMAS, Jr

ALICE HUNTER

(August 22, 1942 number)

The Hollywood Writers Mobilization is another of the interlocking group of Hollywood Communist front organizations, eet up by the party to carry out its program. At the present time the organizations seems to be inactive. A check has shown that many of these active in the organization have gone into various government agencies as writers, public relations men, etc. The official publication "Communique" has not been issued since about September, 1942.

DONE DELINE

HOLLYWOOD CANTEEN (Possible Communist front organization)

Source 4-J has reported that the Hollywood Canteen is a project est up and operated by the various labor unions and guilds connected with the motion picture industry in Hollywood. As the name implies, and as stated in its literature, the purpose of the Canteen is to furnish entertainment and recreation for men now serving in the armed forces of the United Nations. The organization is incorporated under the laws of the State of California, as a non-profit corporation.

The incorporaters are:

FIORINE BALE - Business representative of the American Guild of Variety Artists, a labor union, A.F. of L.

FIORENCE C. CADREZ - A member of the Musicians Union, Local 47.

HETTE DAVIS - Screen actress, member of the Screen Actore Guild.

CARROLL HOLLISTER - A member of the Musicians Local 47, who came from New York City about nine months ago.

MERVYN LeROY - Motion picture producer now with Marner Brothers.

JEAN IEWIN - A member of the Screen Office Employees Guild.

JOHN RAYMOND

STANLEY RUBIN

. جُرْجَہ .

PEPE RUIZ - Member of Screen Cartoonists Guild.

CAMERON SHIPP, screen writer, member of League of American Writers

J. K. (SPIKE) WALLACE - Business representative of Musicians local 47.

The movement to establish this Canteen began in August, 1942, and was the proposal of a group within Musicians Local 47, composed of the following:

WALLACE IL HOLLISTER

J. K. WALLACE
CARROLL HOLLISTER
SAM ALBERTS
MANUEL COMPINSKY
ALEX COMPINSKY
SARAH COMPINSKY
JOSEPH ACHRON
DON CHRISTLIEB
SOL KAPLAN
FLORENCE CADREZ
BARON MOREHEAD
ELMER FAIN

Of the foregoing the first three, WALLACE, HOLLISTER and ALEERTS are Communists and WALLACE and ALEERTS have been identified with Communist activities in the Los Angeles section. HOLLISTER came to Los Angeles from New York about April, 1942. The other persons named are members of the Musicians Union, Local 47, and have not been identified with Communist or Communist front activities.

Other unions officially represented on the "operating committee" when the Canteen was first established were:

Local 47, Musicians, American Federation of Musicians
Local 767 " " " " " "
American Guild of Variety Artists
Screen Cartoonists Guild
Screen Office Employees Guild
Screen Set Designers Guild
Screen Writers Guild
Screen Directors Guild

[With the exception of the American Guild of Variety Artists, all the foregoing groups are under Communist influence.]

Other groups cooperating, but not yet officially affiliated with the Canteen were:

Laboratory Technicians, Local 683, I.A.T.S.E. Studio Painters, Local 644 Screen Publicists Guild Mobile Theatre

All the foregoing are Communist dominated groups.

50 900

At the present time the complete liet of sponsors for the Hollywood Canteen is:

Actors Equity Association . Affiliated Property Craftmen, I.A.T.S.E. Local 44 American Federation of Musicians, Local 47 American federation of Musicians, Local 767 American Federation of Radio Artists -American Guild of Musical Artists Jamerican Guild of Variety Artiets Actors Managers Guild Association of Motion Picture Costumers, IATSE Local 705 Association of Motion Picture Producers Federated Amusement and Allied Crafts . Film Technicians, IATSE, Local 683 Independent Publicists International Photographers, IATSE, Local 659 International Sound Technicians, IATSE, Local 695 Makeup Artiste, IATSE, Local 706 Motion Picture Hair Stylists; IATSE, Local 706 Motion Picture Illustrators -Motion Picture Set Electricians, IATSE, Local 728 Motion Picture Studio Grips, IATSE, Local 80 Motion Picture Studio Projectionists, IATSE, Local 165 Motion Picture Painters, Local 644. Radio Writers Guild Screen Cartoonists Guild Screen Directors Guild Screen Office Employees Guild Screen Publicists Guild Screen Readers Guild Screen Set Designers Guild Screen Writers Guild Society of Motion Picture Art Directors Society of Motion Picture Film Editors Society of Motion Picture Interior Decorators Songwriters Protective Association Studio Carpenters, Local 946 Studio Electrical Workers, Local 40 Studio of Laborers and Utility Workers, IATSE, Local 727 Studio Miscellaneous Employees, Local 1104 Studio Transportation Drivers, Local 399 Studio Utility Employeee, Iocal 724

The officers of the Canteen are:

BETTE DAVIS - President
CARROLL HOLLISTER - Vice-President
JOHN GARFIELD - Vice-President
- J. K. WALLACE - Vice-President
JEAN LEWIN, Secretary and Assistant Treasurer
ALFRED C. YBARRA - Treasurer

Of the above HOLLISTER, GARFIELD and WALLACE have engaged in Communist activities over a period of years.

The Board of Directors of the Canteen are:

NEDRA STAFFORD
A. C. MOMENARO
FIORINE BALE
GEORGE FIFIELD
PAUL JAFFEE
NELLIE MARIE MANIEY
MASON W. HORRIS
LESLIE THOMAS
CARL HEAD
A. J. MORAN
JAMES BRIGHAM

JOHN BOYLAN
PEPE RUIZ
MEDEA CONTINI
CAMERON SHIPP
CERALD DAVIDSON
JOHN RAYMOND
HANS PETERS
LINDSAY THOMPSON
L. C. DAVIS
AL BOYER

[Of the foregoing, PAUL JAFFEE, LESLIE THOMAS, CARL HEAD, and JOHN BOYLAN have been identified with Communist front, and union Communist activities.]

In addition to the Board of Directors the organization has an Executive Committee composed of the following:

CATHERINE BALDWIN
BILLIE BURKE
FIORENCE C. CADREZ
FIORENCE C. CADREZ
LECTER COLE
MERVYN LOROY
MACK MILLAR
CEORGE RAMSAY
CASEY ROBERTS
WILLIAM H. SILION
DORRIS STEIN
JULES STEIN
JOHN TOCROEN

Of the above IESTER COLE has been outstanding in Communist activities in Hollywood. He is a member of the League of American Writers, American Peace Mobilization, Hollywood Anti-Nazi League, signer of the call for the Fourth Writers Congress, Hollywood Peace Forum, etc.

There is very little doubt that the inspiration for the creation of the Hollywood Canteen originated in Communist circles. The initial meeting called by the original sponsors was held in the home of SAM ALBERTS, a member of Musicians Local #47 and a known Communist, on August 14, 1942. There is no doubt that those of that faith active in the work of the project have much to say about how it shall be conducted. But owing to the fact that so many organizations and persons not sympathetic to the Communist cause are also interested in the work of the Canteen, there has not been any definite attempt at propaganda, or other Communist activities.

The fact that thousands of soldiers and sailors pass through the headquarters of the Canteen weekly make it difficult to detect possible attempts of infiltration.

PUBLICATIONS IN HOLLYWOOD WHICH HAVE HAD A BEARING ON COM-MUNIST ACTIVITIES IN THE MOTION PICTURE BUSINESS IN HOLLYWOOD

Source K has given the following estimate of the influence of official organs and other papers in Hollywood on the motion picture business and the infiltration of Communists into the motion picture business.

Hollywood Reporter

The Hollywood Reporter is a daily trade publication which has been in existence approximately twenty years. The editor and publisher of this paper is W. R. WHIKERSON. This paper has always opposed Communist activity in the motion picture industry and is fully aware of Communist penetration. It has many times published editorials and articles to this effect.

Daily Variety

The Daily Variety is a trade publication which has been in existence in Hollywood for approximately eighteen years. The general manager is ARTHUR UNGER. He is in no sense a Communist or a Communist sympathizer. However, other member of this staff of reporters on this paper, RAIPH RODDY who is assigned to labor activities is a fellow traveller and always elants his news in favor of those Communist labor unions and guilds that are under the leadership of HERBERT K. SOPRELL.

CONFIDENTIAL

/Flashes

2001

The monthly publication "Flashes" is the official organ of Laboratory Technicians Local No. 683, I.A.T.S.E. It has been in existence since 1933. From the beginning up until 1940 it was not in any sense sympathetic to the Communist cause. In that year the Communist elements in the union secured control and the paper since that time has reflected the Communist Party line completely. The editor is RUSSELL McKNICHT, a staunch fellow traveller and perhaps a member of the Communist Party. Before Soviet Russia was attacked by HITLER on June 22, 1941 the editorial policy of this paper was opposed to aid to Britain, etc., but immediately after the Soviet Union was attacked it came out for "all out prosecution of the war, aid to Britain, Russia and China."

Black and White

This publication "Black and Whits" was originally a creation of the Young Communists League and was issued at irregular intervals during 1939 and 1940, during the Fourth or Popular Front period of the Communist Party line. The first editor of the paper was WILBUR NEEDHAM of Santa Monica, California who has been engaged in Communist cultural activities for several years. JULES KIEVETS who was exposed by the Tenney Investigating Committee as a Communist succeeded NEEDHAM as the editor of the paper shortly before it ceased publication early in 1940 with the change of the Communist Party line. It was reported that WILL ROCERS, JR., now congressman for Beverly Hills, California, and whose name as "BILL ROCERS" appeared on the masthead as an associate editor, originally financed the paper.

√Clipper

The Clipper was the official publication of the Hollywood complete of the League of American Writers and was the successor to "Black and White" and so stated on the masthead of the first two issues. It had its existence during the Fifth Period of the Communist Party line which was that period when STALIN and HITLER were friends. This paper's policy was one of isolation, opposition to the war, which corresponded to the Communist Party line at that time. After the attack of STALIN by HITLER on June 22, 1941, the paper within a period of a few months went out of existence. Its editorial board were well known Communists and fellow travellers.

The Communique

The publication "Communique" has not been issued regularly. It has been the official organ of the Hollywood Writers Mobilization for Defense which was originally inspired by the League of American Writers. It made its first appearance early in February, 1942. The last issue was dated September 26, 1942. The second and third issues of this paper were mailed under official Government frank and bore a statement that it was in cooperation with the O.E.M.". Later issues did not bear the Government frank. This paper reflected the Communist Party line in detail. The editor has been MILTON MERLIN, a member of the League of American Writers.

Hollywood Now

The publication "Hollywood Now" was the official weekly organ of the Hollywood Anti-Nazi League. It came into existence on February 17, 1938. The last number was issued February 2, 1940. This paper was in existence during the Fourth or Popular Front period and followed strictly the Communist Party line at that time; but the eigning of the STALIN-HITIER pact on August 23, 1939 sealed the death of this publication. It could not negotiate the sharp turn in the Communist Party line, from one of anti-Hitlerian to one of Anti-Britain and democracy. After six months of trying to explain and justify the STALIN-HITIER pact it quietly passed out of existence with the February 2, 1940 issue.

The masthead of this paper showed the names of the following persone who were responsible for its publication:

DONALD OCDEN STEMART FRANK TUTTLE DUDLEY NICHOLS BERN BERNARD, treasurer

Professor WOHLAN T. BYRNE, a teacher in the Los Angeles City College was one of the main contributors to the paper and had an article in every issue. He was one of the Communist front leaders in Southern California, speaking before forums, wemen's clubs, social organizations, labor unions, the Hollywood Anti-Nazi League, the Hollywood League for Democratic Action, the League for Peace and Democracy, and the American Peace Mobilization. BYRNE has also written pamphlets interpreting the Communist Party line and one of the most ardent supporters of Communism in Southern California. He is reported as being in the armed forces at the present time.

Hollywood Tribune

The Hollywood Tribune was a Communist publication which was another Hollywood casualty of the STALIN-HITIER pact. It was issued by the "Columbia Publishing Corporation", 6715 Hollywood Boulevard, Hollywood, California. It first came into existence in April 1939. This was during the Fifth or Popular Front period.

The publication was a weekly and was meant to be for general circulation. It appealed to the sensational and dealt mainly with the motion picture industry and cultural affairs. It was strictly a Communist controlled publication and reflected the Communist Party line perhaps more outspokenly than any other publication in the section. The editor of the paper was E. A. DUPONT, now a motion picture director. Its contributors were the usual Communist figures in Hollywood, such as Professor NORMAN T. BYRNE, HAROLD SALEASON, ELIA MAY WINTER, MAYER LEVIN, DONALD OCDEN STEMART, CAREY MCMILLIAMS, WILBUR NEEDHAM, editor of "Black and White", and others. It was in fact another publication of the League of American Writers appearing from behind another screen.

SULTARY OF COLLUNIST ACTIVITIES IN THE FRONT ORGANIZATIONS IN THE MOTION PICTURE BUSINESS

Source 4-L has summed up the activities of the Communists in Hollywood insofar as its activities relate to the motion picture business as follows:

There have been six periods of change in the Communist Party line in the United States eince the formation of the Communist Internationale (Comintern) in Hoscow, Russia in March, 1919. These changes were in every case determined by the foreign policy of the Soviet Union at the time.

The Communist Internationale, also called the Third Internationale, of which the Communiet Party of the United States is a section, is the agency set up by the Communiet Party of the Soviet Union to operate in all countries of the world outside of Russia to interpret and work in the interest of the Soviet Government.

Those periods are:

FIRST PERIOD: From 1919 to 1921, Russian Revolutionary ġ

period.

SECOND PEFIOD: From 1921 to 1928, Revolutionary and boring from within period.

THEO FERIOD: From 1928 to August 1935 was the Trade Unic Unity League period; still revolutionary and in favor of Communist controlled labor organizations. This period ended with the Seventh World Congress of the Internationals which was held in Moscow in August 1935.

FOURTH FERIOD: From August 1935 to August 23, 1939 when the pact between STALIN and HITLER was entered into. This period is known as the Popular Front or Trojan Horse period, and is referred to as such in this report.

FIFTH PERIOD: From August 23, 1939 to June 22, 1941 when HITLER attacked STALIN and began the invasion of Russia. This period has been referred to as the PERIOD OF THE PACT.

SIXTH PERIOD: From June 22, 1941 down to the present time. This has been called the POST-PACT period.

Inasmuch as references have been made to changes in the Communist Party line, and those periods of change have been referred to as the POPULIR FRONT period, and the period of the STALIN-HITIER PACT, etc., and inasmuch as certain individuale have been cited as belonging to concurrent organizations such as the Hollywood Anti-Nazi League, the American Peace Mobilization, etc., it will perhaps make clearer the meanings of those changes and the significance of membership in those organizations if the same are set down in glossary form.

For the purposes of this report we are not concerned with the First, Second and Third periode, as Hollywood during those periods had not been penetrated by the Communists.

By keeping in mind the Fourth, Fifth and Sixth periods of the Communist Party line, their relation to the foreign policy of the Soviet Union and the nature of the front organizations set up during those periods, the Communist affiliations and activities of those persons mentioned in this report who adhered strictly to those changes and organizations are plainly apparent.

FOURTH (POPULAR FEDIT) PERIOD: In August 1935, in Moscow, Russia, the Seventh World Congress of the Communist Third Internationals (Comintern) was held. At this Congress a new line for all branches of the Communist Party throughout the world was laid down by GEORGI DIMITROFF, the supreme head of the Comintern.

The new lins called a halt to all agitation for the overthrow of capitalism by revolutionary methods, and substituted therefor what was called the POPULAR FRONT tactic. This meant that Communiete everywhere were to cause work as revolutioniste, and poss as staunch defenders of democracy, civil rights and constitutional liberties and thus endeavor to influsness their respective governments to bring about what was called a system of COLLECTIVE SECURITY. This meant that Communists must take part in all national governments and endeavor to influence those governmente to form an alliance with the Soviet Union to stop the rise of Hitlerism in Europe. As a consequence of this policy the Communist Party in the United States at that time supported the ROOSEVELT Administration and the New Deal, although previously and before August 1935 when the new line was laid down in Moscow, it had condemned them as being fasciet in nature. They also at this time worked arduously in pretended support of democratic processee and had a measure of success in penetrating governmental and administrative of fices. This was only a tactic applicable at the time in the interest of the foreign policy of the Soviet Union. The Communist Party aid not surrender its previous revolutionary theory of the overthrow of capitalism; it only put it aside for the time being. This was stated clearly by EARL BROWDER on his return from this Seventh World Congress when he made his report to the November Plenum of the Central Committee of the Communist Party of the United States, quoted at Pages 91 and 92 in this report  $\chi(\nu)$

FIFTH PERIOD (PERIOD OF THE PACT): During this period which began with the signing of the pact between STALIN and HITIER on August 23, 1939, by which pact they became virtual allies, and which came to an end with HITIER'S attack on the Soviet Union on June 22, 1941, the Communist parties everywhere completely reversed their previous position. From a program of support for democracy and advocacy of COLLECTIVE SECURITY, the Communist Party charged that the democracies were responsible for the war which they termed strictly an imperialist one. They demanded a negotiated peace with HITIER, opposed America's entrance into the war, opposed the lend-lease act. opposed the Selective Service Act, and in every way possible gave aid and comfort to HITLER and Fascism. This policy was the reflection of the foreign policy of the Soviet Union which at that time under the terms of the pact was the support of HITLER as against the interests of England and France. The main tack of the Communist Party in the United States during that period was to prevent the United States aiding England in the struggle and to so interfere with the preparation for national_defense that it could not enter the agwar as an ally of Britain.

SIXTH PERIOD (POST-PACT PERIOD): This period began with the attack on Soviet Russia by HITIER on June 22, 1941 and is still in effect. This attack on Soviet Russia demanded that the Communist Party again do an about face. From a program of isolation and peace for the United States they began shouting that the United States must enter the war and within ninety days were demanding a SECOND FRONT against HITIER. This demand for a second front was launched as early as September, 1941 in the Communist Party press, three months before the Pearl Harbor attack, at which time the United States officially entered the war.

بالمداليس المستقليل

This position was determined by the foreign policy of the Soviet Union which had overnight become the ally of the democracies, and not by the interests of the United States which they now so vehemently profess to defend.

Thus we find the Communists in the present period right back where they were during the POPULAR FRONT period.

We again find the Communists laying aside their revolutionary aims temporarily, supporting democracy to the fullest, going all out to defeat HITHER and for the time being, at least, withholding all criticism of capitalist "bourgeois democracy".

COMMUNIST FRONT ORGANIZATIONS IN HOLLYWOOD DURING FOURTH PERIOD

AMERICAN LEAGUE FOR PEACE AND DEMOCRACY

HOLLYWOOD ANTI-NAZI LEAGUE

NEW THEATRE LEAGUE

CONTEMPORARY THEATRE, INC.

THEATRE ARTS COMMITTEE

MOTION PICTURE DEMOCRATIC COMMITTEE

All the foregoing organizations, under control and directed in the interests of the Communist Party line, were dissolved when the STALIN-HITLER pact was signed and the FIFTH PERIOD was ushered in.

COMMUNIST FRONT ORGANIZATIONS IN HOLLYWOOD DURING FIFTH PERIOD

HOLLYWOOD LEAGUE FOR DEMOCRATIC ACTION

HOLLYWOOD PEACE FORUM

----

HOLLYWOOD PEACE COUNCIL

AMERICAN PEACE MOBILIZATION

HOLLYWOOD THEATRE ALLIANCE

CONFIDENT

All the foregoing organizations came into existence shortly after the STALIN-HITLER pact was signed. They all followed the Communist Party line of the PERIOD OF THE PACT, and were propaganda organizations for the Communist Party line which was isolation, opposition to aid to the allies, opposition to the Selective Service Act; in short they were working against the allies and aiding the Axis powers.

They were all dissolved when HITLER attacked the Soviet Union, which ushered in the next period, the SIXTH PERIOD.

COMMUNIST FRONT ORGANIZATIONS IN HOLLYWOOD DURING THE SIXTH PERIOD (The present period)

HOLLYTOOD WRITERS MOBILIZATION FOR DEFENSE

HOLLYWOOD CANTEEN

-

COLUTTEE FOR THE CARE OF CHILDREN IN WARTIME

HOLLYWOOD DEMOCRATIC COLMITTEE (Now in the process of formation)

The foregoing organizations have been created since Russia became an ally of the United Nations, and are for all out prosecution of the war and seemingly ultra-patriotic.

OTHER COMMUNIST FRONT CULTURAL ORGANIZATIONS IN HOLLYWOOD WHICH HAVE BEEN CONSTANT DURING ALL THREE PERIODS AND WHICH HAVE CLEARLY REFLECTED THE VARIOUS CHANGES IN THE PARTY LINE

LEAGUE OF AMERICAN WRITERS, HOLLYWOOD CHAPTER

HOLLYWOOD COMMITTEE FOR WRITERS IN EXILE

JOINT ANTI-FASCIST REFUGEE COMMITTEE (Formerly United Spanish Aid Committee)

LETTER OF 150

This "Letter of 150" was a signed and published document in defense of the mass "purges" in the Soviet Union.

CONFIDENTIAL

The significance of a signature to this letter is that the signer was defending the position of STALIN as opposed to that of LEON TROTSKY in a highly involved political dispute. It is conclusive evidence that the signer was involved in inner Communist Party political differences.

The original committee that solicited the signatures for this letter were RORERT COATES, one of the original members of the League of American Writers; MALCOUN CONTEY, League of American Writers; STEMART DAVIS, League of American Writers; MARK BLITZSTEIN, member of the League of American Writers; and PAUL STRAND, member of the League of American Writers.

(List published in Daily Workers, April 28, 1938)

LETTER OF 400

This "letter of 400" also was a signed and published document. In the enring of 1939 a group of liberals and intellectuals who opposed Communist domination of American Arts and Culture issued a statement of their views, claiming that there was no basic difference between Communism, Naziism, and Fascism; that eventually STALIN and HITLER would come to terms.

To answer these charges the "Letter of 400" was gotten up by the Communist Party. This letter denied vehemently all allegations and ridiculed the charge that STALIN and HITTER ever could make an agreement. This "Letter of 400" was published just nine days before STALIN eigned the pact with HITTER, which made the Communists and fellow travellers who signed the document look rather foolish.

The original committee that set up this "Letter of 400" were the following:

Professor DOROTHY BREASTER, Columbia University

DASHIELL HALGETT, a writer and at the present time the President of the League of American Writers

CORLISS LAMONT, one of the editors of "Soviet Russia Today" and a propagandist for the Soviet Union

GEORGE MARSHALL, a fellow traveller of long standing

Professor WALTER RAUTENSTRAUCH, Professor of Economics, Columbia University and head of the national Association for Civil Liberties and the Committee for the Protection of Foreign born

181

4

_ 370 _

A STATE OF THE PARTY OF THE PAR

ولي المالية

VINCENT SHEEHAN, a journalist. war correspondent and a close fellow traveller prior to the HITLER-STALIN pact August 23, 1939.

DONAID OCDEN STEWART, Ex-national president of the League of American Writers; active in many Communist front organizations and a Communist Party member.

MAXWELL S. STEWART, writer, member of the League of American Writers and associate editor of the "Roviet Russia Today".

REHECCA JANNEY TEMERS, writer, member of the League of American Writers, a well known fellow traveller of many years standing.

MARY VAN KLEECK, writer, member of the league of American Writers, and a fellow traveller of many years standing.

(List of signers published in the Daily Worker August 14, 1939)

SIGNIFICANCE OF MEMBERSHIP IN A COMMUNIST FRONT ORGANIZATION

Membership in a Communist front organization during the FOURTH PERIOD is not, of itself, proof that he or she is a Communist, or even a fellow traveller. Thousands of "innocents" were drawn into those organizations who were unaware of Communist control or party-line procedure.

BUT, if we find an individual who was a member of, or active in, a Communist front organization of the FIFTH PERIOD, then that is conclusive proof that he or she is either a Communist Party member or a close fellow traveller with the Party. This would mean that that person is willing to follow the party line of the Communist Party, even though it leads to a defense of Nazilsm or Facsism, should the foreign policy of the Soviet Union demand it.

AGAIN, if we find an individual who was a member of, or active in a Communist front organization of the FIFTH PERIOD, such as the American Peace Mobilization, etc., and that individual has now become a member of a front organization of the SIXTH PERIOD and takes a stand for all out prosecution of the war, etc., it is conclusive evidence that that person's present position was determined by the change in the Communist Party line when HITTER turned and attacked Soviet Russia. It is conclusive avidence that that person's interests lie not with the United States and democracy, but with the interests of Soviet Union and Communism. In spirit such a person is just as much a Communist as EAPL EROWDER himself.

The state of the s

FELLOW TRAVELLER

This term was coined by NICOLAI LENIN, the father of the Russian Revolution. It first appears in his book "Socialism and War", written and published in August, 1915.

Speaking of certain socialists and sympathizers, whom he described as "vacillating elements" he said: "These elements can be our fellow travellers. It is necessary to get closer to them with the aim of fighting social—chauviniets. But we must remember that they are only fellow travellers; that as far as the main and fundamental problems are concerned. . . . those same elements will go, not with us, but against us. . . "

But there was once when the great genius was wrong. The fellow traveller has become the most valuable instrument of all to the Communist Party. Not being technically a member of the Communist Party and able at all times to deny membership, he is free to carry the party line in a much more forceful manner than most party members who are always conscious of their party membership books.

Further, the fellow traveller not being a part of the inner circle where vicious intrigue and jockeying for personal power dieillucions so many, he becomes a fanatical idealist willing to carry the party line to any extreme.

Knowing this, the Communist Party leaders, discourage this fanatically loyal fellow traveller from becoming a party member. He is many times more valuable on the outside in carrying the message.

TRANSMISSION BELT

When EARL BROWDER appeared before the Dies Committee in 1940 he used this term. He stated a Communist front organization was in the nature of a "transmission belt" between the masses and the Communist Party. He described it as a means whereby an individual might eventually become a member of the Communist Party through membership in one front organization after another, each one taking him step by step to party membership.

SONFIDENTIAL

INDEX

CONFIDENTIAL

|                                          | *   |                          |
|------------------------------------------|-----|--------------------------|
| Name                                     |     | Page Nos.                |
| AARONSON, BORIS                          |     | 114                      |
| "A NOUS IA LIBERTE"                      |     | 14. 15                   |
| A PROGRAM FOR PEACE                      |     | 122                      |
| \ABEL, WALTER                            |     | 76, 77, 140              |
| ABRAHAM LINCOLN BRIGADE                  |     | 143                      |
| ACHRON, JOSEPH.                          | • • | 168                      |
| ACHRON, JOSEPH                           |     | 169                      |
| ACTORS MANAGERS GUILD                    |     | 169                      |
| ADAMIC, LOUIS                            |     |                          |
| ADULT EDUCATION PROJECT                  |     |                          |
| AFFILIATED PROPERTY CRAFTSMEN            |     | 78. 80. 169              |
| MFFILIATED PROPERTY MACHINISTS           | • • | 39. 44                   |
| AINSLEE, MARION                          |     |                          |
| ALBERTI, HENRY                           |     |                          |
| /ALBERTS, SAM                            |     |                          |
| ALEXANDER, BARBARA                       | •   | 53                       |
| ALEXANDER, DOROTHY                       |     | 51 .                     |
| ALEXANDER, DR. HERBERT B                 |     |                          |
| ALGREN, MELSON                           |     |                          |
| ALLEN, REV. CARL                         |     | 132                      |
| ALLEN, JAMES B                           |     | 25. 26                   |
| VALLEN, SAM HOUSTON                      |     | 132. 146                 |
| ALLISON, HARRY                           |     | 86                       |
| ALTMAN, MISCHA                           |     | 84                       |
| AMERICAN CIVIL LIBERTIES UNION           |     | 33                       |
| MAMERICAN FEDERATION OF MUSICIANS        |     | 79, 83, 168, 169         |
| AMERICAN FEDERATION OF RADIO ARTISTS     | • • | 169                      |
| AMERICAN FRIENDS OF SPANISH DEMOCRACY    |     |                          |
| AMERICAN LEAGUE OF MUSICAL ARTISTS       |     | 169                      |
| AMERICAN CUILD OF VARIETY ARTISTS        |     |                          |
| AMERICAN LEAGUE FOR PEACE AND DEMOCRACY  |     | 177, 120, 130, 131, 158  |
| AMERICAN NEWSPAPER GUILD                 |     |                          |
| AMERICAN PEACE CRUSADE                   | • • | 137                      |
| AMERICAN PEACE MOBILIZATION              |     | 33, 64, 65, 66, 70, 71,  |
|                                          |     | 129, 130, 131, 134, 135, |
| ·                                        |     | 157, 158, 159, 162, 164, |
|                                          |     | 165 171 172 175 177 -    |
| AMERICAN PEOPLES MOBILIZATION            |     | 135                      |
| VAMERICAN-RUSSIAN COMMITTEE FOR FRIENDLY |     | · ·                      |
| HRTATTONS                                |     | 60x: 667                 |

| AMERICAN-RUSSIAN INSTITUTE 66                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | SOM STALL                              |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------|
| ✓AMERICAN WHITE GUARD                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          | 10111                                  |
| AMERICAN WRITERS CONGRESS 106,                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 | 155, 160                               |
| AMERICAN YOUTH CONGRESS                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |                                        |
| AMES, ROBERT 80                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                        |
| ANDERSON, SHERMOOD                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             | 145                                    |
| ANTI-WAR CONFERENCE                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |                                        |
| ARQUISTAN, LUIS                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                        |
| ARLEN, RICHARD                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 | =+ -                            |
| ARMATUZIO, AL 54                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |                                        |
| ARMSTRONG, ARMOLD B                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |                                        |
| -ARNOLD, EDWARD                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                        |
| /"ARTEF"                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |                                        |
| -ARNZER, DOROTHY                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |                                        |
| ARTISTS MANAGERS GUILD                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |                                        |
| "AWAKE AND SING"                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |                                        |
| ASCH, NATHAN                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |                                        |
| ASSOCIATED FILM AUDIENCES                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |                                        |
| ASSOCIATION OF MOTION PICTURE COSTUMERS 169                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |                                        |
| ASSOCIATION OF MOTION PICTURE PRODUCERS 169                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |                                        |
| ATTACHEVA, PEARL                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |                                        |
| AYROFF, JACK                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |                                        |
| ,                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |                                        |
| BACKUS, GEORGIA                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | 163                                    |
| BAILEY, EUGENE                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 | •                                      |
| BAILEY, J. O                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |                                        |
| BAILEY, IORRETTO                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | •                                      |
| BAILEY, LORRETTO                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |                                        |
| BALE, FLORING                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | 170                                    |
| BAIL HICTIE                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | 2,0                                    |
| «RAIL WILLIAM                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |                                        |
| BAPTISTE, JACK 84. BARBER, PHILLIP 100 BARRY, IRIS 71                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                                        |
| BARBER, PHILLIP 100                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |                                        |
| BARRY, IRIS                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |                                        |
| BAYLIN, MAYER                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | 33                                     |
| BEALL, ADRIAN                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |                                        |
| FEAVER, CECIL                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |                                        |
| PBEIN, ALBERT                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | 102                                    |
| BEICHER, WILLIAM                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | 202                                    |
| BELFRACE, CEDRIC                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |                                        |
| HELLAMY CLUB                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |                                        |
| BENEDIK, LASZIO                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                        |
| - DUNNET VIDCADET                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              | 140, 141                               |
| BERGMAN, ELMER                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 | 8, 25, 26 FREE HATE                    |
| HERQUIST, LILIJIAN 74                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          | CONFIDERCY.                            |
| BERMAN, L                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      | ~ ~~ · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · |
| The contraction of the contracti | ا ۱۷۱                                  |

į

=

()

```
123, 126, 173
  BERNARD, BERN
 41
 166
 . 130, 145
 36, 65, 71, 103, 108,
                   117, 118, 123, 126, 130,
                   131, 132, 134, 135, 143
 84
 -BIDDLE, GEORGE
-BIOFF, WILLIAM 145
                   38, 40, 44
 -BLACK, ANITA . . .
                   100
 -"BLACK AND WHITE" (Y.C.L. PAPER) .....
                   29, 159, 172
 BLAKE, BEN
                   100, 101
 BLANCHARD, RALPH . .
                   51
 -BLANKFORT, MICHAEL
                   101, 102, 128, 138,
                   143, 153, 165
                   66, 103, 133, 144, 145, 148, 179
 - BLITZSTEIN, MARC 114
 73
 78, 104
 10
 -BLACK LECTON
 . 118
 - BRANT, NEIL (BRANDT)
                    7, 8, 10, 33
 >BREWSTER, DOROTHY . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . 149
 - BRETTINGRAM, JERRY
 - BRICHT, JOHN .
                    4, 66, 165
 BRIDGES, HARRY
                   29, 34, 35, 37, 38, 39,
                   40, 41, 42, 44, 51, 52,
                   66, 70, 85, 94, 141, 155, 158
```

* * * * * *

|    |                                  |               |                        |                      |       |          |           |        |     |     |   |   |   |   |   |     |     |     |     |      |   |                                         |              | -                | 7 . 8       |
|----|----------------------------------|---------------|------------------------|----------------------|-------|----------|-----------|--------|-----|-----|---|---|---|---|---|-----|-----|-----|-----|------|---|-----------------------------------------|--------------|------------------|-------------|
|    |                                  |               |                        |                      |       |          |           |        |     |     |   |   |   |   |   |     |     |     |     |      |   |                                         | "DO"         |                  | MA          |
| _  | BRODSKY,                         | KATE          |                        |                      |       | •        |           |        |     | •   |   | • | • | • | • |     | •   | •   | •   | •    | • | 12,                                     | 14.          | , ,              |             |
|    | BROOKS.                          | WAN WE        | rck.                   |                      |       |          |           |        |     |     |   |   | • |   |   |     |     | •   | •   | •    | ٠ | 153                                     |              | •                |             |
|    | BROOKS,BROMBERG              | T .           | TOTAL                  | RT)                  |       | •        | _         |        |     | _   |   |   | _ |   |   |     |     |     |     |      |   | 104.                                    | 114.         | 123,             |             |
| •  | - DUDWING                        | ,             | ناور ، راون            | ، سا                 | •     | •        | •         | • •    | •   | •   | • | • | • | • | • | •   | •   | •   | •   | -    | - | 126                                     | ,            |                  |             |
|    |                                  |               |                        |                      |       |          |           |        |     |     |   |   |   |   |   |     |     |     |     |      |   |                                         | 72 1         | 72 91            |             |
| -  | BROWDER,                         | EARL          | • •                    | • •                  | •     | •        | •         | • •    | •   | •   | • | • | • | • | • | • • | •   | •   | •   | •    | • | 40,                                     | ( ~ ) | (ファ /土)35 O4 | •           |
|    |                                  |               |                        |                      |       |          |           |        |     |     |   |   |   |   |   |     |     |     |     |      |   |                                         |              | 95, 96           | •           |
|    |                                  |               |                        |                      |       |          |           |        |     |     |   |   |   |   |   |     |     |     |     |      |   |                                         | 176,         | TRT              |             |
| `. | BROUN, J.                        | ERRY          |                        |                      |       |          | •         |        | •   | •   | • | • | • | • | • |     |     | •   | •   | •    | • | 40                                      |              |                  |  |
|    | BROTAL C                         | 1.√⊋म्बरा | CE.                    | · .                  |       |          |           |        |     |     |   |   |   |   |   |     |     |     |     | •    | • | 67                                      |              |                  |             |
|    | BROWN, B                         | TOUR          | יייייי                 | T T A3               |       | NET      | ያየርብነ | aran e | 7   | -   | • | • | • | • | _ |     |     |     |     | _    |   | 11                                      |              |                  |             |
|    | DRUMN, B                         | TOUGE         | 11111                  | 11.11                | 4 1 % | NTA T    | .GO:      | التناط |     | •   | • | • | • | • | • | •   | •   | •   | ٠   | •    | • | 108                                     |              |                  |             |
|    | BROWN, G                         | TILIUR        | · • •                  | •                    | • •   | •        | •         | •      | •   | •   | • | • | • | • | • | • ' | •   | •   | •   | •    | • | 20                                      | 1.0          | 1. 1.            |             |
|    | BROWNE,                          | GEORG         | e E                    | •                    | • •   | •        | •         | •      | •   | •   | • | • | • | • | • | • • | • • | •   | •   | •    | • | 70,                                     | 40,          | +-+              |             |
|    | -BROSSEAU                        | , WIL         | LIAM                   | $\mathbf{L}_{ullet}$ | ٠     | ٠        | •         | • •    | •   | •   | • | • | • | • | • | •   | •   | •   | •   | •    | • | 72                                      |              |                  |             |
| -  | BRUCE, V                         | IRCIN         | IA .                   | •                    |       | ٠        | •         |        |     | •   | • | ٠ | • | • | ٠ | •   | • • | •   | •   | •    | ٠ | 78                                      |              |                  |             |
| _  | Tatanoga .                       | $\mathbf{n}$  | TITS                   |                      |       | _        | _         | _      |     | _   | _ |   |   |   | _ |     |     |     |     |      |   | 126                                     |              |                  |             |
|    | BUCHMAN.                         | HARO          | TD                     |                      |       |          |           |        |     |     |   |   |   |   | • |     |     |     | •   | •    | • | 63,                                     | _64          |                  |             |
| •  | BUCHMAN,                         | STON          |                        |                      |       |          | _         | _      |     | _   | _ | _ | _ |   | _ | _   |     |     |     |      |   | 1/2.                                    | 143.         | 144.             |             |
| •  | - DUCHERIN ,                     | JIUN          | ٠                      | •                    | • •   | •        | •         | •      | •   | •   | • | • | • | • | • | •   |     | •   | •   | •    | - | 148.                                    | 157,         | 163              |             |
|    |                                  |               | ~-~                    |                      | (     | C) 1.0   | ··· •     | a='    |     |     |   |   |   |   |   |     |     |     |     |      |   | 118                                     | 123          | 127              |             |
| •  | - BUCHLIAN,                      | MRS.          | SID                    | MEX                  | (B)   |   | T.L       | بننا   | •   | •   | • | • | • | • | • | •   | •   | • • | •   | •    | • | 750                                     | ورعد         | و العبد          |             |
|    |                                  |               |                        |                      |       |          |           |        |     |     |   |   |   |   |   |     |     |     |     |      |   | 150                                     |              |                  |             |
|    | - BUSHWALD                       | N.            |                        | •                    | • •   | •        | •         | •      |     | •   | • | • | • | • | • | •   | • • | •   | •   | •    | • | TOT                                     |              |                  |             |
| _  | - BUDMAN.                        | BEN .         |                        |                      |       |          | •         |        |     |     | • | • | • | ٠ | • | •   | •   | ٠.  |     | •    | • | 87                                      |              |                  |             |
| Ţ, | BUILDING                         | SFRV          | TCE                    | ":OR                 | KER   | S        |           |        |     |     |   |   |   |   |   | •   |     |     |     |      | • | 79,                                     | 88           |                  |             |
|    | ∕BURKE, E                        | TTITE         |                        |                      |       | ٠.       |           | _      |     |     | _ |   | • | _ |   |     |     |     |     |      |   | 170                                     |              |                  |             |
|    | - BURKE, F                       | 1 T THE TO T  | NC                 | •                    | • •   | •        | •         | •      | •   | •   | • | • | • | • | • | •   | ٠.  | •   |     | . •  |   | 154                                     |              |                  |             |
| -  | BURKE, F                         | TETTI         |                        | •                    | • •   | •        | ٠         | •      | • • | •   | • | • | • | • | • | •   | •   | •   | •   | •    | • | 23                                      |              |                  |             |
|    | -BURKE, K                        | ENNET  | н •                    | •                    | • •   | •        | •         | •      | • • | •   | • | • | ٠ | • | • | •   | •   | • • | •   | •    | • | 71.                                     |              |                  |             |
| _  | - BURNS,                         | JESS II       | • •                    | •                    | • •   | •        | •         | •      | •   | •   | • | • | • | • | • | •   | •   | • • | •   | •    | • | (4                                      |              |                  |             |
|    | -BURT, LA                        | LURA .        |                        | •                    |       | •        | •         | •      | • • | •   | • | • | • | • | • | •   | •   | • • | •   | •    | • | 98                                      |              |                  |             |
|    | -BUTIER.                         | DAVII         | )                      |                      |       | •        | •         | •      |     |     | • | • | • | • | • | •   | •   |     |     | •    | • | 59                                      |              |                  |             |
|    | -BUTLER.                         | HUGO          |                        | •                    |       | •        | •         | •      | •   |     | • | • | • | • | • | •   | •   |     |     | •    | • | 63                                      |              |                  |             |
|    | -"BURY Ti                        | TE DEA        | D#                     |                      |       | _        | _         |        |     |     |   |   |   |   |   |     |     |     |     |      |   | 20                                      |              |                  |             |
|    | -BYRNE, I                        | 200 F F S     | SOB.                   | MOR                  | WAN   | ф.       |           | _      |     |     | • |   |   | _ | _ | •   |     |     |     |      |   | 36                                      | . 123.       | 126,             |             |
|    | Dilum                            | . 1001 11     | ~~                     | 11011                |       | _        | •         | •      |     | _   | • | ٠ | ٠ | • | • | •   | -   | •   |     |      |   | 129                                     | 133,         | 135.             |             |
|    |                                  |               |                        |                      |       |          |           |        |     | •·  |   |   |   |   |   |     |     |     |     |      |   | 177                                     | 174,         |                  |             |
| -  | -bynner,                         |               |                        |                      |       |          |           |        |     |     | - |   |   | , |   |     |     |     |     |      |   | 154                                     | , -:-,       |                  |             |
|    | BYMNER,                          | WITT          | 2 R .           | •                    | • •   | •        | •         | •      | •   | • • | • | • | • | • | • | •   | •   | •   | • ( | •    | • | 170                                     |              |                  |             |
|    |                                  |               |                        |                      |       |          |           |        |     |     |   |   |   |   |   |     |     |     |     |      |   | -/-                                     | 3.40         | 7.00             |             |
|    | ∕CADREZ,                         | FIORE         | ENCE                   | C.                   |       | •        | •         | •      | •   |     | • | • | • | • | ٠ | •   | •   | •   | •   |      | • | 167                                     | , 168,       |                  | _           |
|    | CAGNEY,                          | JAMES         | 3.                     |                      |       | •        | •         | •      |     |     | • | • | • | • | ٠ | •   | •   |     |     |      |   | رصد ،                                   | ر ∪ے ,       | 100 11           | ,           |
|    | ,                                |               |                        |                      |       |          |           |        |     |     |   |   |   |   |   |     |     |     |     |      |   | 78                                      | , 105,       | 109              |             |
|    | > CALIFOR                        | NTA W         | भागप                   | TTO                  | tet   | A TP     | דכדו      | 7      |     |     |   |   |   |   |   | _   |     |     | _   |      |   | 120                                     | 132          |                  |             |
|    | > UALIFUN                        | NTW I         | -11- -1 -1- | بانگسانج         | ٦٠٠٠  | 41.7     | ŮΙΨ       | ı      | •   | •   | • | • | • | • | • | •   | •   | •   | •   | •    | • | 151                                     | ,            |                  |             |
|    | → CALUYEL.                       | غالط وط       | DVTN:                  | · •                  | • •   | •        | •         | •      | •   | • • | • | • | • | • | • | •   | •   | •   | •   | •    | • | ・・・・・・・・・・・・・・・・・・・・・・・・・・・・・・・・・・・・・・・ |              |                  |             |
|    | CALIFOR CALDWELL CALMER, CAMPBEL | ALLA          | · K                    | • •                  | • •   | •        | •         | •      | •   | • • | • | • | • | • | • | •   | •   | •   | •   | • •  | • | 12422                               | מרו          | מונ              |             |
|    | ✓ CAMPBEL                 | L, AL         | AN                     | • •                  |       | •        | •         | •      | •   | • • | • | • | • | • | • | •   | •   | •   | •   | • •  | • | , 00                                    | , 11,        | ,         | 人           |
|    |                                  |               |                        |                      |       |          |           |        |     |     |   |   |   |   |   |     |     |     |     |      |   | ربعد                                    |              | i()              | 1)          |
|    | CAMPBEL.                         | L. JO         | HN L                   |                      |       | •        | •         | •      | •   |     |   | • | • | • | • | •   | •   | •   | •   | ور ٠ |   | . 73                                    |              | 12               |             |
|    | -CAMER,                          | Λ             |                        |                      |       |          |           | _      | _   |     |   |   | _ | _ | _ | _   |     |     |     |      |   | . 54                                    | -A           | -                |             |
|    | -CHMEN.                          | r. U.         | •                      | • •                  | •     | •        | •         | •      | •   | •   | • | • | • | • | • | •   | •   | •   | •   | •    |   | -                                       | exten        | $III_{I}$        |             |
|    |                                  | -             |                        |                      |       |          |           |        |     |     |   |   |   |   |   |     |     |     |     |      |   | 邸                                       | FIDE         | •                |             |
|    |                                  |               |                        |                      |       |          |           |        |     |     |   |   |   |   |   |     |     |     |     |      |   |                                         |              |                  |             |

()

|                                                    | The second second  |
|----------------------------------------------------|--------------------|
| "CRIME AND PUNISHMENT"                             | 15                 |
| CANTOR, EDDIE                                      | 120                |
| CARLE, TEET                                        |                    |
|                                                    | 4, 32, 61, 66,     |
|                                                    | 155                |
| CARNOVISKY, MORRIS                                 |                    |
| CARNOVISKY, MAURICE                                | 45, 54, 82, 93     |
| CASET, PAT                                         | 45, 54, 62, 75     |
| CASPERAY, VERA                                     | 157, 163, 165      |
| CASTLE, MOLLY                                      | 2),, 20),          |
| CAYA, AL                                           |                    |
| CHASE, EZRA FRANK                                  |                    |
| - CHATTERTON, RUTH                                 |                    |
| CHURNIN, HARRY                                     |                    |
| - CHEVALIER, HAAKON 4                              |                    |
| CHEVIGNY, HECTOR                                   | 166                |
| CHICAGO GROUP THEATER                              | 700 70/ 710        |
| CHODROV, EDWARD                                    | 123, 126, 148,     |
|                                                    | 163                |
| CHODROV, LRS. EDWARD                               | 44 120 157         |
| THOURNY, JERUME                                    | 165                |
| CHRISTLIEB, DON                                    | , 10)              |
| CITIZENS UNITY FOR VICTORY COMMITTEE 60            |                    |
| CLARE, RALPH                                       |                    |
| CLARK, BARRETT                                     |                    |
| CLARK, EDDY                                        |                    |
| CLAY, EUGENE                                       |                    |
| CLAY, LEWIS                                        |                    |
| CLEAVER, FRANK                                     | /r 270 3 70 |
| "CLIPPER" (H.W.M. paper)                           | , 65, 159, 172     |
| COATES, ROBERT                                     |                    |
| COBB, HUMPHREY                                     | 11.2 151.          |
| COHEN, LESTER                                      | , 147, 174         |
|                                                    | 53                 |
|                                                    | 63, 64, 103,       |
| 170                                                | , -,,,,            |
| -cole. Bill                                        |                    |
| COLEMAN, GEORGE                                    | \ \U               |
| COLE, BILL 74 COLEMAN, GEORGE 86 COLLIER, FRANK 86 | 141                |
| COLLINS, RICHARD                                   | , 163              |
| "COLLECTIVE SECURITY"                              |                    |
| COMMUNIST CULTURAL ACTIVITIES IN HOLLYWOOD         | MEHOLE HALL        |
| COMMUNIST INFILTRATION                             | 1                  |

1)

î

```
- COMMUNIST INTERNATIONALE
                                 98, 174
  - COLLUNIST THIRD INTERNATIONALE
                                 -175
  - COMMUNIST PARTY . . .
                                  8, 9, 10, 12, 13, 23,
                                 27, 28, 31, 48
  COLMUNIST PARTY ACTIVITIES IN MOTICH FICTURES
                                 22
  3, 24
  COMMUNIST PARTY - LARCE CONTRIBUTIONS TO 7
  COMMUNIST PARTY UNIT NO. 4
  COMMITTEE OF MOTION PICTURE ARTS AND CRAFTS
                                 34, 92
  60, 178
  ▶ COMMITTEE FOR MEDICAL AID TO RUSSIA . . . .
                                 60
  - COLMONWEALTH HOUSE . . . . . .
  - "COMMUNIQUE" (L.A.W. paper) .
                                 62, 165, 167, 172
  78, 148, 151, 161
  - COMMITTEE TO AID AGRICULTURAL WORKERS . . .
                                 66, 131
                                168
  - COMPINSKY, MANUEL . .
  COMPINSKY, SARAH
                  . . . . . . . . . . . . 168
  CONFERENCE OF STUDIO UNIONS . . . . . . . . .
                                 45, 46, 56, 57, 61,
                                 62, 82
                                 12
  CONTEMPORARY FILM DISTRIBUTORS
  CONTEMPORARY THEATER
                                 12, 106, 107, 108, 110,
                                 158, 177
                                 25
  CONTINUEY, LEDEA . . .
                               . 170
  FCONSTELLY, MARC
                                 63, 64, 140
  CONNELLY, PHILLIP M.
                                 77, 134
  CONROY, JACK
                               . 154
  CONSUMERS UNITED 66
  33
  144
  CORVIN, NORMAN .
                               . 157, 163
. 154, 179
  CRAWFORD, CHERYL
                                 101
  CROMWELL, JOHN 101
  CRUSADERS, The . 121
  40, 47, 49, 51
  _ CRYSTAL, DAVID
                              . . 101
  69, 114
  . . 128
  . . 100
```

```
DAGGETT, CHARLES (CHUCK) . . . . .
                        3, 72
 - DAILY MORKER
 -DAHLBERG, EDWARD . . . . . .
                        22
  35
 DARLING, CHARLOTTE
                        67, 170
        . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . .
 - DAVIS, BETTE
                        18, 66, 128, 157, 163
 - DAVIS, FRANK
          . . . . . . . . . . . . .
 DAVIS, GEORGE H.
                        41, 82
                       170
 DAVIS, L. C.
  DAVIS. STEWART
           . . . . . . . . . . . . .
  DANA, H. W. L.
  101
 DASSIN, JULES . . . .
  -Deshon, James . . . .
                        86
  73
 . . . . . . . . . . . . .
  DIES COMMITTEE . .
                        72, 103, 149
  3, 91, 135, 175
  72
  98, 124, 138, 139, 143
  . 144
 133
  ∠DREHER, CARL . . . .
             . . . . . . . . . .
                        138
                        66, 132, 143, 154
  ✓DREISER, THEODORE . .
                        76
DUNN, EMMA
       . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . .
  66, 124, 139
  /DUNNE, MRS. PHILLIP PETER . . . . . . . .
                        124
  72
  D'Usseau, ARANUD . . .
  . 101
  ECKERSON, CHELENE, MRS. . . . . . . . . . . . . 114
```

( )

FEDWARDS, J. C.

| EHRLICH, LEONARD                                     |                    |
|------------------------------------------------------|--------------------|
| FISENBERG, EMANUEL 109                               |                    |
| -EISENSTEIN, SERCEI                                  | 23, 99             |
| ∢EPSTEIN, JULIUS 66,                                 | 114. 165           |
| EPSTEIN, PHILLIP                                     | 114. 165           |
| ELISUE, EDWARD                                       |                    |
| ELDRIDGE, FLORENCE 104,                              | 100 117 110 112    |
| EMPODE CITY                                          | 41 44 120 122      |
| ENDORE, GUY                                          | 019 009 1309 1379  |
|                                                      | 154, 157, 163, 165 |
| ELECTRICAL WORKERS                                   |                    |
| /ELION, HARRY 100                                    |                    |
| -ELKINS, MICHAEL                                     |                    |
| -EILISON, MIKE 82                                    |                    |
| FRERGENCY PEACE MOBILIZATION                         |                    |
| - ELERGENCY CONFERENCE TO SAVE SPANISH REFUGEES 143. | 149                |
| ENTENZA, ANTONIO                                     |                    |
| EVANS, ALICE                                         |                    |
| FIRM PINED                                           |                    |
| FAIN, EIMER                                          |                    |
| FAITH, JOEL                                          |                    |
| -FATKIN, J. N. (JERRY)                               | () 77.5 77.6 70.0  |
| FARACOH, FRANCIS EDWARD 63,                          | 64, 115, 119, 123, |
| 126                                                  |                    |
| FARMER, FRANCES                                      | 104                |
| FARRELL, JAMES T                                     |                    |
| FASKEN, RUTH                                         |                    |
| FEARING, PROFESSOR FRANKLIN 157,                     | 163                |
| FEARING, KENNETH                                     |                    |
| FEDERAL THEATRE PROJECT                              | 111                |
| FEDERATED AND ALLIED CRAFTS                          |                    |
|                                                      |                    |
| FEIST, FELLX                                         |                    |
| FELLOW TRAVELLER                                     | - */               |
| FIELD, SARAH BARD                                    | 156                |
| FIELD, FREDERICK                                     | 134                |
| FIELD, FREDERICK 132, FIELDS, JOSEPH 66,             | 138                |
| 175FIEDS JOSEPH                                      | 163                |
| FIFIELD, GEORGE                                      | -                  |
| FIFTH PERIOD                                         | 176. 180           |
| FIGHTING WORDS" 162                                  | 210, 200           |
| FILM AND PHOTO LEAGUE                                | 16 100             |
|                                                      | 10, 100            |
| FILM TECHNICIANS                                     | 1(*/               |
| FILMARTE THEATRE                                     | 101                |
| FIRST AID MEN AND WOMENS UNION 88                    | ・シ                 |
| FIRST PERIOD                                         |                    |
| / FISCHER, HELEN M                                   |                    |
| FIEMING, MILDRED 25,                                 | 27                 |
| FOGELMAN, THEODORE                                   |                    |

Carrie

=

```
FORD, JOHN . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . 67, 71, 108, 139
FORD, JOHN ANSON . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . 146
FOSTER, WILLIAM Z.
                         57
FOURTH PERIOD . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . 174, 175, 180
FOURTH WRITERS CONCRESS . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . 108, 171
"FLASHES" . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . 47, 49, 52, 57, 172
FIEXNER, ELEANOR . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . 101
FRANK, LEONARD . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . 148
FREEMAN, JOSEPH . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . 101, 153, 154
     . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . 49
"FRIDAY"
FRIENDS OF ABRAHAM LINCOLN BRIGADE . . . . . . 149
FEUCHTWANGER, LION . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . 144, 145, 149, 151
                         78, 98, 114, 148
GAHAGEN, HELEN GALLAGHER, LEO
                         42, 96
                         86
*GARFIELD, JOHN
                        78, 104, 125, 145,
                        148, 170
                        68,69
_GARNETT, TAY
. 12, 13
GEDDES, VIRGIL
                         101
GELESOR, ANATOLI
                         99
89
            . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . 154
GORDON, EUGENE . .
/ CERMAN-AMERICAN LEAGUE FOR CULTURE . . . . . . . . 120
 7, 9, 16, 20
60, 142, 148, 157, 163
25, 28, 35, 47, 50, 53, 55, 60, 141
84
                         3, 5, 72, 101, 152,
GOID, MICHAEL
                        153, 155, 156
```

| - 00107770             |     |     |     |     |   |     |   |   |                                         |       |                 |             |
|------------------------|-----|-----|-----|-----|---|-----|---|---|-----------------------------------------|-------|-----------------|-------------|
| COLDBERG, SOL          | • • | • • | • • |     | • | • • | • | • | . 86                                    |       |                 |             |
| COLDBLATT, BORIS       |     |     |     |     | • |     |   | • | . 25,                                   | 26,   | 30, 40          |             |
| COLDBIATT, LOUIS       |     |     |     |     |   |     |   |   | 31 .                             | 37    |                 |             |
| GOLDBLATT, SAM         |     |     |     |     |   |     |   | Ī | 25                                      | 26    | 20 40 41 49     |             |
| COLDEN, BEN            | • • | • • | • • | •   | • | •   | • | • | 100                                     | , 20, | 30, 40, 41, 49  |             |
| CIRION THEO            | • • | • • | • • | • • | • | • • | • | • | • 100                                   |       |                 |             |
| GLEASON, JAMES         | • • | • • | • • | • • | • | • • | • | • | جد .                                    |       |                 |             |
| GLEASON, LUCILLE       | • • | • • |     | • • | • |     |   | • | . 76,                                   | 77,   | 125             |             |
| GLEASON, RUSSELL       |     |     |     |     |   |     |   |   | . 140.                                  | 141   |                 |             |
| GRANDON, STANLEY J     |     |     |     |     |   |     |   | _ | . 75                                    |       |                 | -           |
| V GOODMAN, MELVINA     | •   | - • | • • | •   | • | •   | • | • | 32                                      |       |                 |             |
| COPDON DOM             | • • | • • | • • | • • | • | • • | • | • | • 22                                    | 25    | 07 00 /3 3/6    |             |
| CORDON, DON            | • • | • • | • • | • • | • | • • | • | • | • 7,                                    | 45,   | 27, 29, 61, 163 |             |
| - CORDON, EERNARD      | • • | • • | • • |     | • | • • | • | • | • 74                                    |       |                 | 4           |
| CORNEY, JAY            |     | • • |     |     | • |     |   | • | . 63,                                   | 65.   | 115, 123, 127,  | .[          |
|                        |     |     |     |     |   |     |   |   | 165.                                    | 166   |                 | •           |
| , CORSMAN, BILL        |     |     |     |     | _ |     |   | _ | 82                                      |       |                 |             |
| OULD, LET              | - • |     | - • | - • | • | • • | ٠ | • | . OZ.                                   |       |                 |             |
| CADDIES OSTREON        | • • | • • | • • | • • | • | • • | • | • | • 77                                    |       |                 |             |
| CABRIEL, GILBERT       | • • | • • | • • | • • | • | • • | • | • | . щз                                    |       |                 | •           |
| CORKIN, JULIAN         | • • | • • | • • | • • | • |     | • | • | . 147                                   |       |                 |             |
| ✓ CRAHAM, MARTHA       |     | • • |     |     | • |     |   |   | . 144                                   |       |                 |             |
| GRANT, MARTIN          |     |     |     |     |   |     | _ |   | . 66.                                   | 157   | . 163           |             |
| GREEN, WILLIAM         |     |     |     |     | • | •   | • | • | ,                                       | ->:   | , 10)           |             |
| ACRESH COIDER          | • • | • • | • • | • • | • | • • | • | • | • 7                                     |       | .        |             |
| GREEN, COLDIE          | • • | • • | • • | • • | • | • • | • | • | . 00                                    |       |                 |             |
| GREEN, H. C.           | • • | • • | • • | • • | • | • • | • | • | . 84                                    |       |                 |             |
| _CREENBERG, CHARLES .  | • • | • • | • • | • • | • | • • | • | • | . 51,                                   | 52    |                 |             |
| GRENTEST, HENRY        |     |     |     |     |   |     |   |   | . 87                                    | _     |                 |             |
| GRIFFITH, EDWARD H     |     |     |     | _   | _ |     | _ | - | . 60                                    |       |                 |             |
| GROEV, JOHN            | _   | . • | • • | • • | • | • • | • | • | 92                                      |       | •               |             |
| CDOCK PITTE            | • • | • • | • • | • • | • | • • | • | • | • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • | 300   |                 |             |
| GROSS, LILT            | • • | • • | • • | • • | • | • • | • | • | وريد .                                  | 128   |                 |             |
| "GROUP THEATRE"        | • • | • • | • • | • • | • | • • | • | • | . 71                                    |       |                 |             |
| CUTHRIE, CHARLES G     | • • | • • | • • |     | • | • • | • | • | . 41,                                   | 82    |                 |             |
|                        |     |     |     |     |   |     |   |   | _                                       |       |                 | Ť           |
|                        |     |     |     |     |   |     |   |   |                                         |       |                 | 1           |
| •                      |     |     |     |     |   |     |   |   |                                         |       |                 |             |
| HAINES, GYORGE         |     |     |     |     | _ |     |   |   | RΩ                                      |       |                 |             |
| HATRES, LESLEY         |     |     |     |     |   |     |   |   |                                         |       |                 |             |
| MATERIA CHESTADO       | • • | • • | • • | • • | • | • • | • | • | • (4                                    |       |                 |             |
| HALBLEN, STEMART       | • • | • • | • • | • • | • | • • | • | • | . 78                                    |       |                 |             |
| - HALL, PORTER         | • • | • • | • • | • • | • | • • | • | • | . 76,                                   | 77    |                 |             |
| - HALGETT, DASHIEL     | • • | • • | • • |     | • |     | • | • | . 113.                                  | 179   |                 |             |
| HAMMERSTEIN, OSCAR II  |     |     |     |     |   |     | _ | _ | . 119                                   |       |                 |             |
| HANOFF, ELLER          |     |     |     |     | _ |     | Ī | • | 25                                      |       |                 |             |
| HARGAN CTATES          | - • | •   | •   | •   | • | • • | • | • | • 47E0                              |       |                 |             |
| HARGAN, CLAIRS         | • • | • • | • • | • : | • | • • | • | • | • 53                                    | •     |                 |             |
| MARINE D.              | • • | • • | • • | • • | • | • • | • | • | . 82                                    |       |                 |             |
| HARVEY, PAUL           | • • | • • | • • | • • | • | •   | • | • | . 76,                                   | 77    | • •             |             |
| HART, MOSS             |     |     |     |     | • |     | • |   | . 117                                   |       | •               |             |
| HART, HENRY            |     |     |     |     |   |     |   |   | . 154                                   |       |                 | ,           |
| - HARRIS, DR. MARVIN . |     |     |     |     |   |     |   | - | 122                                     | 122   | احد             | n/          |
| LEVATUATION OF STREET  | • • | • • | • • | • • | • | • • | • | • | ور ب ع د •                       | 14/   | 1               | Ч           |
| WHATHAWAY, CLARENCE .  | • • | • • | • • | • • | • | •   | • | • | , TOO                                   | 154   | N I             | / V  |
| HATHAMAY, CLAMENCE .   | • • | • • | • • | • • | • | • • | • | • | . 153,                                  | 154   |                 | τ           |
| - HATHAITAY, HENRY     | • • |     | • • |     |   |     | • | • | 69                                      |       | * /             |             |
| HAVIKES, HOWARD        |     |     |     |     |   |     |   |   | 67.                                     | 69    | _        |             |
|                        |     | 1   | 91  | •   |   |     |   |   |                                         | -     |                 |  |

| ·                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              | 80                                    |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------|
| HAZEY, LOUIS                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |                                       |
| TIPAN CAPT                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | 713 -1-                               |
|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | ~ .                            |
| INCOME TO STOLING                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |                                       |
| HEIN, EDVARD                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | 4                                     |
| THEIN, EDWARD                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | 35, 66, 103, 113                      |
| HELLMAN, LILLIAN                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | 21 26                                 |
|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                       |
| CURTY CORN NORA                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                       |
| UPINGOURT TRUTH P                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              | /-, /-, ·-                            |
| -HERBERTS, PEV. HERBERT L                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      | ·                                     |
| METIDEATO, ITAL INICIALITY OF THE STATE OF T | 7, 17, 25, 29, 78                     |
| HEIFETZ, LOU                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | 106                                   |
| HEARST, WILLIAM RANDOLPH                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | 152                                   |
|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | · - /-                         |
|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | ) H() /Y) /T) "-                      |
|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                       |
| HILL, WILEY HITLER-STALIN PACT                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |                                       |
| "HITTER-STATUTE PACT                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | 92, 93, 105, 112, 116,                |
|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | 120, 121, 130, 131, 132,              |
|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | 100, 121, 150, 201, 250,              |
|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | 137, 139, 159, 160, 161,              |
|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | 172, 173, 174, 178, 179,              |
|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | 181                                   |
| , HOBAN, A. T                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | . 10 1                         |
| HOdan, A. T.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | . 35                                  |
| HOLEN, JACK                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | 167 168 120                           |
|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                       |
| HOLLYWOOD ANTI-NAZI LEAGUE                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |                                       |
|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                       |
| •                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              | 121, 122, 124, 126, 128,              |
|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | 129, 130, 131, 136, 140,              |
|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | 157, 158, 171, 173, 175,              |
|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                       |
| _                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              | 177                                   |
| HOLLYDOD COMMITTEE FOR WRITERS IN EXILE                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | · (1) (2, 13, 140, 141,               |
|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | 147) 1/0                              |
| HOLLY DOE COMMITTEE TO PROTECT CIVIL LIBERTIES.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | . 71, 126                             |
| -HOLLYWOOD CANTELIN                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | 75, 76, 167, 178,                     |
| HOLLY HOOD CANTELIN                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | . 71                                  |
| · HOLLYFOOD CITIZENS FOR FEDERAL THEATRES                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |                                       |
| HOLLYWOOD COUNCIL                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              | . 75, 177                             |
| . HOLLYROOD DEMOCRATIC COMMITTEE                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | • 137, 14U, 14K, 110                  |
| AUDITYTOOD DISCUSSION CIUD                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | • 9                                   |
| *HOILY COOD GUILD COUNCIL                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      | 74. 131                               |
| WINTER WIND WIND WORKER A STATE OF THE STATE | . 121. 173                            |
| MHOILTHOOD NOW!                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | 121                                   |
| HOLLYROOD PEACE CRUSADE                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | 44 mm mm 100 169                      |
| HOLLY NOOD PEACE FORUM                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | . 00, (U, (1, 127, 170,               |
| ·                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              | 104 <sub>9</sub> 1(1 <sub>9</sub> 1(1 |
| /"HOLLYHOOD REPORTER"                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          | . 62, 171                             |
| HOILYWOOD STUDIO UNIONS                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | . 23. 82                              |
| THE TRANSPORT OF THE PROPERTY OF THE TRANSPORT OF THE TRA |                                       |

|   | THE PARTY OF THE P |
|---|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|   | HOLLYWOOD THEATRE ALLTANCE                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
|   | 73,                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |
|   | 111, 112, 113, 116,                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |
|   | 158, 177                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
|   | HOLLYWOOD TRIBUNE                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
|   | S ROLLINOOD UNIONS FREE OF COLUMNIST PARTY                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
| _ | INFILIENCE                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
|   | MOLLYWOOD WRITERS, MOBILIZATION FOR DEFENSE 51, 60, 62, 64, 65,                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
|   | 66 60 72 71 75                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
|   | 66, 68, 73, 74, 75,                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |
|   | HOLLY DOD TRYTTERS SCHOOL 76, 116, 140, 164, 178                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
|   | HOLLYWOOD WRITERS SCHOOL                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
|   | 161 162 148                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
|   | HOLLYWOOD WOMEN'S CLUB 13, 110, 129                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |
|   | PROTECTION B                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
|   | #HOPKINS, MIRIAM                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
|   | MONN SAMUAL 52                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
|   | PROBARD, SIDNEI                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
|   | HOVIARD, WILLIAM K. 67                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
|   | HOUNSCHEL, FRED                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
|   | HOWE ANNE                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
|   | HOYE, ANNE                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
|   | HOWE, JAMES WONG 80                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |
| 7 | 7 HOLOUM NOT 4 4 4 4 4 4 4 4 4 4 4 4 4 4 4 4 4 4 4                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |
| _ |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
|   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
|   | Frommutone, n. bruce                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
|   | TOMPHICID EVELIN                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
|   | FILOMES, CIRLLE                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
|   | HUNTER, ALLEN                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
|   | HUNTER, ALICE                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
|   | HUNTER. TAN MCCIETIAN                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |
|   | HUNTER, IAN MCCIEILAN                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |
|   | HURWITZ, LEO T                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
|   | HUPST, FANNIE                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
|   | PROPERTY AND                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
|   | MITTERS, MORDEROUS RED SQUAD                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
|   | 10                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |
|   | ·                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
|   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
|   | I.A.T.S.E                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
|   | 25, 24, 37, 38, 39, 42,                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
|   | ✓I.C.O.R                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
|   | #INTERNATIONAL PROFITEDUOD OF THEORY                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
|   | TIN FACTOR BROTHERHOOD OF ELECTRICAL MORKERS . 24, 88                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |
|   | TN PREPARE OF CHATTER                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |
|   | IN DEFENSE OF CULTURE 159                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
|   | PERIODIVALIDADE LABOR DEPENSE                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
| 1 | INTERNATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF PATHTERS PAPER                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
|   | HANGERS AND DECORATORS OF AMERICA                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
|   | → INTHERMATICANA CONTOTO A DISTRICT                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |
|   | у 2                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |
| * | . /                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |

-

(

---

| INTERNATIONAL SOUND TECHNICIANS INTERNATIONAL UNION OF REVOLUTIONARY THEATRE | 69                                            |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------|
| INTERNATIONAL UNION OF REVOLUTIONARY THEATRE                                 | 72, 99, 100, 152                              |
| - INTERNATIONAL UNION OF REVOLUTIONARY WRITERS                               | 3, 11, 32, 70, 71, 72,                        |
| 14                                                                           | 33                                            |
| ✓INDEPENDENT PUBLICIST GUILD                                                 | 64. 169                                       |
| ✓INGSTER, BORIS                                                              | 57. 163                                       |
| - IRVIN, BEN                                                                 | X 0                                    |
| - IVENS, JORIS                                                               | 72. 104                                       |
| TWAN, CHAN                                                                   | 9                                             |
|                                                                              | •                                             |
|                                                                              |                                               |
|                                                                              |                                               |
| /JACKSON, FELIX                                                              | 53                                            |
| JAFFE, PAUL                                                                  | 51. 1 7 0                              |
| JAMES, NAT                                                                   | '3                                            |
| ≪JARRICO, PAUL.                                                              | 13 A5 157 142                                 |
| JENNINGS TALBUT                                                              | .2                                            |
| JEROME, VICTOR J.                                                            | 2 5 155                                       |
| JOHN REED CLUB                                                               | 3 7 9 10 11 22                                |
| 4                                                                            | 1, 152                                        |
| JOHNS, ORRICK                                                                | il                                            |
| JOHNSON, ARTHUR                                                              | / 4Μ                           |
| JOINT ANTI-FASCIST REFUGEE COMPITTEE 14                                      | ~0 15∧ 151 150 100                        |
| JOSEPH, ROBERT                                                               | 12 170, 171, 170, 178                         |
| JUMP, H. C.                                                                  | )                                      |
| *JURNITZ, HARRY                                                              | 2                                             |
|                                                                              | 0), 0), 12)                                   |
| •                                                                            |                                               |
|                                                                              |                                               |
| K.K.K                                                                        | า                                             |
| KAHN, GORDON                                                                 | 3 65 127 157 142                              |
| 16                                                                           | 5, 166                                        |
| KALISH, SAM                                                                  | 9 52                                          |
| KANE, WILLIAM                                                                | 7, )4.2                                   |
| KANDEL, ABEN 11                                                              | &E                                        |
| KALLET ARTHUR                                                                | 1                                             |
| -KAMINS BESSIE                                                               | 2                                             |
| KANIN, GORSON                                                                | 2 11/ 10/ 1/0 1/0                             |
| KANIN, MICHAEL                                                               | الأملا والملا والمد وملك والم                 |
| KAPLAN, SOL                                                                  | 03                                        |
| KAIM DDODOCOOD ATTENDED                                                      |                                               |
| - KAZAN DITA                                                                 | 5, 156                                        |
| VARY OHADEDO I                                                               |                                               |
|                                                                              | 1, 42, 119, 123, 127,                         |
| 133                                                                          | $\gamma = \gamma (1) \sigma$                  |
|                                                                              | 1, 42, 119, 123, 127,2000WINF WENT LE |
|                                                                              | The second of                                 |
| - 194 -                                                                      | THE WELLEN                                    |
| - 1/4 - ·                                                                    | WILLIAM                                       |
|                                                                              | . 5                                           |
|                                                                              | •                                             |

()

(

==

```
z Katzman, George . . . .
                                      82
                                      75
- KAYE, EDWARD E. . . . .
78
70
144
KENNY, ROBERT W.
                                     119, 140, 141, 144
✓ KERWIN, DAVID . . . . . . .
                                     128
*KESSIER, JACK . . .
                                      86
28, 35, 37, 39, 40, 41,
KIBRE, JEFF . . . .
                                      42, 44, 76, 80
/KIDWELL, GEORGE . . . . . .
                                     146
*KILLIAN, VICTOR . . . .
                                      78
*KING. DON . . . . . . .
                                      74
∠ KIEVETS, JULES
                                     172
KIEIN, HERBERT
                                      5, 72, 100, 101, 102,
                                     110, 154
                                      66, 103, 109, 113, 165
KOBER, ARTHUR
∠KOENIG. LESTER
                                    . 103
-KOHL, RUDOLPH . . .
                                      25, 29, 34, 35, 37, 43
- KOMER, HARRY . . . .
                                      17
/KOSTER, HENRY . . .
                                     125
~KRABER, TONY
                                     100
∡ KRAFT, H. F.
                                      66, 119, 123, 126, 148,
                                     151, 165
KRAFT MRS. H. F.
                                     128
. . 138
                                     41
. 101
40, 82
KRONISH, JOEL
                                     82
KUNITZ, JOSHUA LABORATORY TECHNICIANS
                                      39, 46, 50, 57, 168
                                     132, 137
- LABORS NON-PARTISAN LEAGUE
-LABORS UNITY FOR VICTORY COMMITTEE
                                      48, 51, 60, 70, 73,
                                      81,84
LaCAVA, BERYL . . .
                                      18
≠LaCAVA, GRECORY . . . . .
                                      18, 67
LAWSON, JOHN HOWARD . . .
                                      32, 60, 61, 63, 66, 100,
                                     102, 109, 113, 114, 133,
                                     135, 141, 143, 154, 157,
                                     163 ',
```

| LANTE                        | S, MAI               | LTER                |       |              |                  |       |    |     |     | _   |     | _   | _   |     | _   | 37            |             |       |         |          |
|------------------------------|----------------------|---------------------|-------|--------------|------------------|-------|----|-----|-----|-----|-----|-----|-----|-----|-----|---------------|-------------|-------|---------|----------|
| LAPANLARDN               | RICH                 | ARD                 |       |              |                  |       |    | _   | _   | •   | _   |     | •   | • • | •   | 75.           | 77          |       |         |          |
| -LARDN                       | ÉR. R                | ING J               | R     |              | _                |       |    | _   | _   |     | -   | •   | •   |     | Ī   | 63            | 166         |       |         |          |
| LARSE                        | N. ER                | EC .                |       |              |                  |       |    | -   | •   | •   | •   | •   | •   | • • | •   | 5 L ,  | 100         |       |         |          |
| -LIRKI                       | N. JOI               | IN .                | •     |              |                  |       |    | Ī   | •   | •   | •   | •   | •   | • • | •   | 63            |             |       |         |          |
| LARSE                        | N. VI                | CENT                |       |              |                  |       |    | •   | •   | •   | •   | •   | •   |     | •   | 94            |             |       |         |          |
|                              | - 1                  |                     |       |              | _                |       |    |     |     |     |     |     |     |     |     | 10            |             |       |         | ,        |
| - IRAGU                      | e of                 | MERIC               | CAN ' | HRTT         | 7.32.91932.9 |       |    | •   | •   | •   | •   | •   | •   | • • | •   | - - -7 | 22          | 22    |         | 43       |
|                              |                      |                     |       | *         |                  | •     | •  | •   | •   | •   | •   | •   | •   | • • | •   | ر45       | کر ، | 33,   | ΣY,     | οı,• |
|                              |                      |                     |       |              |                  |       |    |     | •   |     |     |     |     |     |     | 104           | 333         | 67,   | 70,     | (4,      |
|                              |                      |                     |       |              |                  |       |    |     |     |     |     |     |     |     |     | 100,          | 1100        | , 115 | عمله وا | U j      |
|                              |                      |                     |       |              |                  |       |    |     |     |     |     |     |     |     |     | 151,          | 138         | , 143 | , 15    | 2,0      |
|                              |                      |                     |       |              |                  |       |    |     |     |     |     |     |     |     |     |               |             | , 165 |         | 3, 1     |
| LEAGUS                       | 3 OF 2               | Oscar               | SHO   | מהוכם        | Ç                |       |    |     |     |     |     |     |     |     |     | 179           | 300         |       |         |          |
| - LEAGUE                     | COFF                 | ORKE                | 25 T  | L TO A TO    | DP               | • •   | •  | •   | •   | •   | •   | •   | •   | •   | •   | ્જ,           |             | , 131 |         |          |
| - LEAGUE                     | E FOR                | PIRT                | יו ש  |              | iusTur       | • •   | •  | •   | •   | •   | •   | •   | •   | •   | •   | 100           |             |       |         |          |
| LEAGUE                       | ROR                  | PEACE               | C ANT | ם עםמדרה | 77,70            | D 4 C | •  | •   | •   | •   | •   | •   | • ( | •   | •   | 120           |             |       |         |          |
| LIKE T                       | ITT.                 | - 14101             | י איי | מנע ט        |                  | LAC   | 1  | •   | •   | •   | •   | •   | • • | •   | •   | 157,          | 173         |       |         |          |
| - Lee, T                     | BUHER                | T .                 | • •   | • •          | •                | • •   | •  | •   | •   | •   | •   | •   | • • | •   | •   | 100           |             |       |         |          |
| - LEHB.                      | Atter                |                     | • •   | • •          | •                | • •   | •  | •   | •   | •   | •   | •   | • • | •   | •   | 157,          | 163         | , 165 |         |          |
| LEFS, LEFR, LEFRIN, LENIN,   | CT A                 | פעת                 | • •   | • •          | •                | • •   | •  | •   | •   | •   | •   | •   | • • | •   | •   | 157           |             |       |         |          |
| LENTN                        | NTC:                 | IAT                 | • •   | • •          | •                | • •   | •  | •   | •   | •   | •   | •   | • • | •   | •   | 63            |             |       |         |          |
| LIRT                         | PTCU A               | DUTHI           | • •   | • •          | •                | • •   | •  | •   | •   | •   | •   | •   | •   | •   | •   | 8,            | 181         |       |         |          |
| TED MED                      | TAR                  | ro.                 | • •   | • •          | •                | • •   | •  | •   | •   | •   | •   | •   | • • | •   | •   | 119,          | 120         |       |         |          |
| LERT,LERNER              | ייטריט פייעריטער | EA) .V u | • •   | • •          | •                | • •   | •  | •   | •   | •   | •   | • • | • • | •   | •   | 75            |             |       |         | *        |
|                       | MICALL W             | 114                 |       |              | _                |       |    |     |     |     |     |     |     |     |     | 167           | 700         |       |         |          |
| ∠ LURNED                     | ברת (                | R .                 | • •   | • •          | •                | • •   | •  | •   | •   | •   | •   | • • | • • | •   | •   | 101,          | 154,        | 157   | , 163   | 3        |
| LEVY,LERNER              | 14 T T               | DTT             | • •   | • •          | •                | • •   | •  | •   | •   | •   | • • | •   | • • | •   | •   | 154           |             |       |         |          |
|                              |                      |                     |       |              |                  |       |    |     |     |     |     |     |     |     |     |               | 157,        | , 163 | , 174   |          |
|                              |                      |                     |       |              |                  |       |    |     |     |     |     |     |     |     |     |               |             |       |         | - {      |
| ·LEHS,                       | स्टब्स           | CADD                | • •   | • •          | •                | •     | •  | •   | •   | •   | • • | • • | •   | •   | •   | 144           |             |       |         | **       |
| LEVECU                       | المنت ونتUST     |                     | • •   | • •          | •                | •     | •  | •   | •   | • ( | • • | •   | •   | •   | •   | 83            |             |       |         |          |
| LEVY,                        | TAV                  | • •                 | • •   | • •          | •                | •     | •  | •   | •   | • • | •   | •   | •   | •   | •   | 74            |             |       |         |          |
|                              | V 111                |                     |       |              |                  |       | _  |     |     |     |     |     |     |     |     | 777           | 99,         | 101,  | 102,    | ı        |
| LEVENI                       | TEAM                 | W-TII               | OR    | • •          | •                | •     | •  | •   | •   | • • | •   | •   | •   | •   | •   | 50,           | 51          |       |         |          |
| LEVIN,LETTERLETTER   | OF                   | so.                 | • •   | • •          | • •              | •     | •  | •   | •   | • • | •   | •   | •   | •   | •   | 167,          | 170         |       |         |          |
| JETTSH.                      | OF A                 | ິດ .                | • •   | • •          | • •              | •     | •  | •   | •   | • • | •   | •   | •   | •   | •   | 178           |             |       |         |          |
| . I.AMONT                    | ומרט                 | Tee                 | • •   | • •          | • •              | •     | •  | •   | • • | •   | •   | •   | •   | •   | • . | 179           |             |       |         |          |
| · LAMONT                     | ים מניםמדול מ    | T TAY               | · .   | • •          | • •              | •     | •  | •   | •   | •   | •   | •   | •   | ٠.  | •   | 179           |             |       |         |          |
| LEBUN                        | ECHT                 | KADI                | (22   | ANON         |                  | ~ ·   | •, | •   | • • | •   | •   | •   |     | •   | •   | 101           |             |       |         |          |
| LEDMARILIEBKNILIPNEY | ,HEDA            | ANIANI          | , on  | aut U []     | ı I.             | V.L   | ٠, |     | • • | •   | •   | •   | •   | •   | •   | 10            |             |       |         |          |
| LIPNEY                       | HOTE                 | מבימינים        | חפו   | • •          | • •              | •     | •  | •   | • • | •   | •   | •   | •   | •   | •   | 48,           | 82          |       |         |          |
| LOOSCHI                      | ENtc                 | HINVOTOUR       |       | • •          | . •              | •     | •  | •   | •   | •   | •   | •   | •   | •   | •   | 82            |             |       |         |          |
| LOOSCHI                      | ביונק.שלוונק     | JUS .               | •     | • •          | • •              | •     | •  | • ( | • • | •   | •   | •   | ٠   | •   | •   | 29            |             |       |         |          |
| LINDER,LITTLE            | THEAT                | יי קונףיי קונף  | •     | •            | • •              | •     | •  | • ( | • • | •   | •   | •   | •   | •   | •   | 89            |             |       |         |          |
|                              | إوابته               | ، نساد              | •     | • •          | • •              | •     | •  | •   |     |     | •   | •   | •   | •   | •   | 99            |             |       |         |          |

| TOPENTO PAPE                                    |     |     |     |   |   |    |    |   |   |   |    |     |   | 77         | 101   |         |      |           |      |   |
|-------------------------------------------------|-----|-----|-----|---|---|----|----|---|---|---|----|-----|---|------------|-------|---------|------|-----------|------|---|
| LORENTZ, PARE                                   | •   | •   | • • | • | • | •  | •  | • | • | ٠ | •  | ٠   |   | • 72,      | 104   |         |      |           |      |   |
| LOPEZ, RAYMOND                                  | •   | •   | • • | • | • | •  | •  | • | • | • | •  | •   | • | 81         |       |         |      |           |      |   |
| LOYETT, ROBERT MORRIS                           | •   | •   | •   | • | • | •  | •  | ٠ | • | • | •  | •   | • | 124        |       |         |      |           |      |   |
| LONORGAN, ART                                   | •   | •   | • • | • | • | •  | •  | • | ٠ | • | •  | •   | • | 55         |       |         |      |           |      |   |
| LUSHER, BERNARD                                 | •   | •   | • • | • | • | •  | •  | • | • | • | •  | •   | • | و 47       | 50,   | 53      |      |           |      |   |
| >TODITOUR, EMMOT                                | •   |     |     | • |   |    |    |   |   |   |    |     |   | - 68.      | 69,   | 119     |      |           | ٠.   |   |
| ELULLUM, HOY                                    | •   | •   |     | • | • | ٠  | •  | • |   |   |    |     |   | 101        |       |         |      |           |      |   |
| /LUPINO, IDA                                    | •   |     | •   | • | • | •  | •  | • |   | • |    | •   | • | 78         |       |         |      |           |      |   |
| ✓LUMPKIN, GRACE                                 | •   | •   |     | • | • | •  |    |   |   |   |    |     |   | 154        |       |         |      |           |      |   |
| LYON, WILFRED W                                 | •   | •   |     | • | • | •  | •  | • |   | • | •  | •   | • | 25,        | 26,   | 27,     | 56   | ,  |      |   |
|                                                 |     |     |     |   |   |    |    |   |   |   |    |     |   |            | _     | •       |      |           |      |   |
|                                                 |     |     |     |   |   |    |    |   |   |   |    |     |   |            |       |         |      |           |      |   |
|                                                 |     |     |     |   |   |    |    |   |   |   |    |     |   |            |       |         |      |           |      |   |
| MacLEISH, ARCHIBALD .                           | •   | •   |     | • | • | •  | •  | • |   | • | •  | •   | • | 144        |       |         |      |           |      |   |
| ✓MacISAACS, J. H                                | •   |     |     |   |   | •  |    |   |   |   |    |     | _ | 41         |       |         |      |           |      |   |
| NAMIN' OOHN CEE                                 | •   |     |     |   |   |    |    |   |   |   |    |     |   | 62         |       |         |      |           |      |   |
| MAKEPEACE JOHN                                  |     |     |     |   |   | _  | _  |   | _ |   | _  | _   | _ | 101        |       |         |      |           |      |   |
| MAKEUP ARTISTS                                  |     |     |     |   |   |    | _  | _ | _ | _ |    |     |   | 20         | 78.   | 81.     | 16   | 9.        |      |   |
| " MAINITALL GISCHUE                             |     |     |     |   |   |    |    |   | - | _ |    | _   | _ | 179        |       |         |      |           |      |   |
| -MALTZ, ALBERT                                  |     |     |     | • |   |    |    | • | • | - | •  | •   | • | 66.        | 700   | 102     | >    | 107       | 100  |   |
| •                                               | -   | •   |     | ٠ | - | ·  | •  | • | • | • | •  | •   | • | 133,       | 122   | ) 10°   | 7    | TO!,      | 100, |   |
| MAMOULIAN, ROUBEN                               |     |     |     |   |   |    |    |   |   |   |    |     |   | 4)),       | 105   | 121     | 7    |           |      |   |
| MANNIX E. I.                                    | •   |     |     | • | • | •  | •  | • | • | • | •  | •   | • | 0/,        | 105   |         |      |           |      |   |
| MARCH, FREDERIC                                 | •   | •   | •   | • | • | •  | •  | • | • | • | •  | •   | • | 42         | 7.04  | 7.00    |      | 220       | 224  |   |
| John                                            | •   | • • | •   | • | • | •  | •  | • | • | • | •  | •   | • | (0)        | 104,  | , 10%   | ,    | ٠, ٢      | وكلل |   |
| MARTIN, E. R                                    |     | ٠_  |     |   |   |    |    |   |   |   |    |     |   | 119,       | 148   |         |      |           |      |   |
| .MAM HETMPTCU                                   | •   | • • | •   | • | • | •  | •  | • | • | • | •  | •   | • | 47,        | 49,   | 51      |      |           |      |   |
| Apprent 1 traffaction                           | •   |     |     |   | • | •  | •  | • |   |   |    |     | _ | IAX.       | 151   |         |      |           |      |   |
| MANIEY, NELLIE MARIE                            | •   | • • | •   | • | • | •  | •  | • | • | • | •  | •   | • | 170        |       |         |      |           |      |   |
| MARCANTONIO, VITO                               | •   | • • | •   | • | • | •  | •  | • | • | • | •  | •   | ٠ | 132        |       |         |      |           |      |   |
| MEINER, LUCILLE .                               | •   | • • | •   | • | • | •  | •  | • | • | • | •  | •   | • | 133        |       |         |      |           |      |   |
| + marrey IMPOTELL DIT"                          | •   |     |     | • | • | •  |    | • |   | _ |    | _   | _ | 119        |       |         |      |           |      |   |
| MARTINEZ, BEN                                   | •   | • • | . • | • | • | •- | •• | • | • | • | ٠  | •   | • | J86 |       |         |      |           |      |   |
| MASON, HUGH MASON, LESLIE                       | •   | • • | •   | ٠ | • | •  | •  | • | • | ٠ | •  | •   | • | 8 0 |       |         |      |           |      |   |
| MASON, LESLIE                                   | •   | • • | ●.  | • | • | •  | •  | • | • | • | •` | •   | ٠ | 61,        | 73    |         |      |           |      |   |
| MARVIN, HARC MAURIER, GEORGE MAYER EDWIN JUSTIN | •   | • • | •   | ٠ | • | •  | •  | • | • | • | •  | •   |   | 100,       | 101   |         |      |           |      |   |
| MAURIER, GEORGE                                 | •   | • • | •   | • | • | •  | •  | • | • |   | į  |     |   | 43.        | 55    |         |      |           |      |   |
| , amai, milli out in .                          | • • | • • | •   | • | • | •  | •  | • | • | • | •  |     | _ | 113.       | -117. | 119     | )_   | 165.      | 166  |   |
| MAYER, ROY                                      | •   |     | •   | • | • |    |    | • |   |   |    |     | - | 119°.      | ,     | /       | ,    |  / |      |   |
| MAYER, LOUIS B                                  |     |     |     |   |   |    |    |   |   |   | •  | •   | • | 45         | _     |         |      |           |      |   |
| MCCORMICK, LARUE                                |     |     | •   |   |   | -  | -  |   | - |   | •  | •   | • | 86         |       |         |      |           |      |   |
| McCORMICK, L. J.                                |     |     |     |   | • | •  | _  |   | - | - | •  | - ' | • | 86         |       |         |      | •         |      |   |
| McCLENDON, ROSE                                 |     |     |     | • |   |    | •  |   |   | • | •  | •   | • | 101        |       |         |      |           | لسر  |   |
| MCKEAN, ROY                                     |     |     | •   |   | • | •  | -  | - |   |   | •  | •   | • | 86         |       |         |      |           |      | _ |
| McLEISH, JOHN                                   | •   |     | •   | - | • | •  | •  | • | • | • | •  | •   | • | 166        | ~     |         |      |           | - )( | 1 |
| , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , ,         | •   | •   | •   | • | • | •  | •  | • | • | • | •  | •   | • | TOD        | 4 1   | مستعسده | ر. ـ |           | 1 0  | J |

( . .

=

1

```
McMICHAEL, JACK . . . .
MEDICAL BUREAU TO AID SPANISH DEMOCRACY . . . . 142, 149
115, 116
                               5
MEIKLEJOHN, ALEX
                               62, 118
MEREDITH, BESS . .
                               73, 143, 150
MERIVALE, PHILLIP .
123, 157, 163
MERLIN, MILTON
80
26
47, 49, 51, 172
60, 63, 64, 127, 140,
                              165
McGUINNESS, JAMES K.
                               62
                               62
68, 69
McCOIG, DAVID . . . . . . . . . . . . . . .
                               73
73
4, 5, 33, 49, 52, 345,
                              148, 156, 163, 174
                               62
66
MILLER, BILL . . . . MILLER, LOREN . . .
                               16
                              170
17, 20, 67, 72, 103,
MILESTONE, LEWIS . .
                              109, 119, 143
                               71
THISSION TO MOSCOWA . . .
MITCHELL CAMERA COMPANY
                               56
148, 165
. . 13, 14
MOTION PICTURE ARTS COMMITTEE . . . . . . . . . . . 120, 142, 143, 1/8
MOTION PICTURE ARTS AND CRAFTS . . . . . . . . 137
                               65, 66, 80
MOTION PICTURE COOPERATIVE BUYERS GUILD . . . . .
                               39, 78, 81
MOTION FICTURE COSTUMERS
                               30, 33, 36, 70, 71, 72,
MOTION PICTURE DEMOCRATIC COMMITTEE
                              131, 135, 130, 137, 140,
                              158, 164, 177
                              88, 169
MOTION PICTURE HAIR STYLISTS GUILD
MOTION PICTURE ILLUSTRATORS . . . . .
                              169
MOTION PICTURE INTERIOR DECORATORS
                               88
169
                              79, 83, 169
MOTION PICTURE PRODUCERS, INC. . . . . . . . . 11, 98
```

|               | MOTION PICTURE SET ELECTRICIANS                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
|---------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1             | MOTION PICTURE SET ELECTRICIANS  79, 169  70, 24, 25, 31, 32, 43,                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
| j             |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
|               | AMA 7/4 /*7 / 7                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
|               |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
|               |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
|               |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
|               | MOORE, ERIN O'BRIEN 45, 49 MOORE, JACK 170 MONENARO, A. C. 82, 170                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |
|               | MOURE, JACA                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
|               | MONENARU, A. 62, 170                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
|               | MONENARO, A. C. 82, 170 MORAN, A. J. 168 HOREHEAD, BARON 170                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
|               | MORRIS, MASON                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
|               | MORRIS, MADON IR (RTILL)                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
| ٧             |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
|               | MUIR, JEANMUMFORD, LOUIS 119, 143, 145, 148                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
|               | TARREST TO STATE TO THE PARTY OF THE PARTY O |
|               | MUNI, PAUL 63 MURFIN, JAME 76, 77                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
|               | MUITING CEORGE A                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
|               | MIRPHY MAIRICE                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
|               | MURFIN, JANE  76, 77  MURPHY, GEORGE A.  78, 133, 139,  MUSE, CLARENCE  78  47, 50, 55                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
|               | MISSA 70                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
|               | MUSE, CLARENCE 47, 50, 55 MUSSA, ED 84 MYERS, AL C 115, 165, 166                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
|               | MYERS, AL C                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
|               | · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |
|               | .                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
|               | 150                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |
|               | NADIR, MOISCHE                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
|               | THE PARTY OF THE P |
|               | AND THE CONTRACTOR OF COUNTRY SUPAKING PRIPLE LOUI 144.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
|               | MARTONAL REPRESENTION FOR CONSTITUTIONAL LIBERTIES 4 41, 32, 42,                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
|               |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
|               | NATIONAL NECRO CONGRESS                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
|               | NEARNARD, BERN                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
|               | NEARNARD, BERN NEEDHAM, WILBUR 12                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
|               | NEW FILM GROUP  "NEW MASSES"  "NEW THEATRE"  70, 72, 100, 105, 106,                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |
| _             | "NEW MASSES"                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
| E ',,, | 70: 72, 100, 105, 106,                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
|               | THEN THEATRE LEAGUE 70, 72, 100, 105, 106, 110, 158, 177                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
|               | —-, ,                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
|               |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
|               |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
|               | NEVMAN, DR. RURIZ 20, 33, 61, 66, 72, 103,                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
|               | 100, 127, 207, 007                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |
|               | 158, 163, 173                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
|               | NIELSON, JUNIUS                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
|               | NITHION, CONTOC                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |

| L | "NINOTCHKA" NORDEN, LOUIS                                                                             |             | • •  | • | • • | •   | •   | • | • •   | • •                                     | 101155                                                                                  | - Lander of the land of the la |
|---|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------|------|---|-----|-----|-----|---|-------|-----------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|   | OCKO, EDNA ODETS, CLIFFORD OFFNER, MORTIME OLGIN, M. J. OPATOSHU, JOSEF OPPENHEIMER, J. ORNITZ, SADIE | IR PROFESSO | OR . | • |     |     |     |   |       | • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • | 80158,10121,108,116153,153146130,11,61,133, | 13312, 15, 16, 17, 19,62, 101, 102, 130,135, 155                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
|   | QUILL, MICHAEL .                                                                                      | • • • •     | • •  | • | • • | • • | • • | • | • •   | • •                                     | 134                                                                                         | 5, 10, 39, 16                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
| - | PACHT, JUDGE ISPAGE, MRS. CHARPAGE, CHARLES.PAGE, MYRA"PARADISE LOST"                 | ues .       | • •  | • | • • | • • | • • | • | • •   | • •                                     | 119,143155                                                                          | 123, 127                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
|   | PARADUCCI, RUDO PALGAR, ALFRED PARKER, DOROTHI PARKER, STANLET PARSONS, LOUELL                        |             | • •  | • | • • |     |     | • | • • • | • •                                     | 14 0                                                                             | 66, 108, 113, 117,124, 128, 144, 145,                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
|   | "THE PARTISAN" PASCH, MURRY PASSOS, JOHN DO                                                           | • • • •     | • •  | • | • • | • • | • • | • | • •   | • •                                     | 1080155                                                                             | 0.0                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |

CONFOSITION

| PATTERSON, ELLIS    | E.    |      |     |     |     | • |     |   | • |     | 114 |                    |
|---------------------|-------|------|-----|-----|-----|---|-----|---|---|-----|-----|--------------------|
| PAUL, MAURI, H.     |       |      |     |     |     |   |     |   |   |     |     |                    |
| "PEACE ON EARTH     |       |      |     |     |     |   |     |   |   |     |     |                    |
| PEACE PETITIONS     |       |      |     |     |     |   |     |   |   |     |     |                    |
| PEDERSON, HELMER    |       |      |     |     |     |   |     |   |   |     |     | 30                 |
| PELTON, JOHN C.     |       |      |     |     |     |   |     |   |   |     |     |                    |
| PENDLETON, FRANK    |       |      |     |     |     |   |     |   |   |     |     |                    |
| PETERS, HANS        |       |      |     |     |     |   |     |   |   |     |     |                    |
| PETERS, PAUL    |       |      |     |     |     | • |     | • | • |     | 101 | 102. 155           |
| PEN AND HAMMER      |       |      |     |     |     |   |     |   |   |     |     |                    |
| PEOPLES FRONT       |       |      |     |     |     |   |     |   |   |     |     | 27                 |
| PEOPLE'S WORLD      |       |      |     |     |     |   |     |   |   | • • | ()  |                    |
|                     |       |      |     |     |     |   |     |   |   |     | 20  | 77/                |
|                     |       |      |     |     |     |   |     |   |   |     | 29, | П0                 |
| PERRIN, NAT         |       |      |     |     |     |   |     |   |   |     |     |                    |
| POST PACT PERIOR    |       |      |     |     |     |   |     |   |   |     |     |                    |
| PICHEL, IRVING      | • •   | • •  |     | • • | • • | • | • • | • | • |     |     | 78, 114, 119, 145, |
|                     |       |      |     |     |     |   |     |   |   |     | 148 |                    |
| PIDGEON, LICYD      |       | • •  |     |     |     | • |     | • | • |     | 77  |                    |
| PISCATOR, IRMIN     |       |      |     |     |     | • |     |   | • |     | 99  |                    |
| PITTMAN, JOHN . |       |      |     |     |     |   |     |   |   |     |     |                    |
| PITTS, REBECCA      |       |      |     |     |     |   |     |   |   |     |     |                    |
| PIVERT, MARCAU      |       |      |     |     |     |   |     |   |   |     |     |                    |
| POMERANCE, WILL     | TAM   |      |     |     |     |   |     | _ | • | •   | 47  | 50 . 54            |
| THE POPULAR PROI    | VIII. |      |     | •   |     | • | • • | • | • | • • | 32. | 71, 91, 112, 116,  |
| 1122 10102241 1120  | •     |      | • • | • • | • • | • | • • | • | • |     |     | 175, 177           |
| PORTER, FRANK .     |       |      |     |     |     |   |     |   |   |     |     | ±17, ±11           |
| POYNTER, NELSON     | • •   | • •  | • • | • • | • • | • | • • | • | • | • • | 165 |                    |
| PRATT, FLOYD        |       |      |     |     |     |   |     |   |   |     |     |                    |
|                     |       |      |     |     |     |   |     |   |   |     |     | EO E3 60           |
| PRATT, GLENN .      |       |      |     |     |     |   |     |   |   |     |     | 50, 55, 60         |
| PRIVAL, BEN         |       |      |     |     |     |   |     |   |   |     |     | 72/                |
| PRIVAL, LUCIEN      |       |      |     |     |     |   |     |   |   |     |     | П0                 |
| PRIVAL, ZORA .      |       |      |     |     |     |   |     |   |   |     |     |                    |
| PUBLICATIONS .      | • •   | • •  | • • | • • | • • | • | • • | ٠ | • | • • | 171 |                    |
|                     |       |      |     |     | -   | • |     |   |   |     |     |                    |
|                     |       |      |     |     | •   | - |     |   |   |     |     |                    |
|                     |       |      |     |     |     |   |     |   | • |     |     |                    |
| QUILL, MICHAEL      |       |      |     |     |     |   |     |   |   |     |     |                    |
| QUIN, MICHAEL.      |       |      |     |     |     | • |     | • | • |     | 4,  | 5, 10, 39, 16      |
| •                   |       |      |     |     |     |   |     |   |   |     |     |                    |
|                     |       |      |     |     |     |   |     |   |   |     |     |                    |
|                     |       |      |     |     |     |   |     |   |   |     |     |                    |
| RADIO PROGRAMS      | OF P  | OPLE | SW  | RID |     |   |     |   |   |     | 120 |                    |
| RADIO WRITERS G     |       |      |     |     |     |   |     |   |   |     |     | 169                |
| RAINER, LOUISE      |       | • •  | •   | • • |     | • | •   | • | • | •   | 78  |                    |
| RAMSET, GEORGE      |       |      |     |     |     |   |     |   |   |     |     | ر فلایس            |
| RAPHAELSON, BET     |       |      |     |     |     |   |     |   |   |     |     | 1/3                |
|                     | •     | • •  | • • | • • | • • | • | • • | • | • | • • | رعد | ***                |
|                     |       |      |     |     |     |   |     |   |   |     |     | ·-  (/  |

|    |                                   |              |   | ~   |     |   |   |                    | er <sup>a</sup> man.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |
|----|-----------------------------------|--------------|---|-----|-----|---|---|--------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|    | RATNER, IRA                       |              |   |     |     | • |   | 123.               | 127                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
|    | RAUTENSTRAUCH, PROFESSOR WALTER . |              |   |     |     |   |   | 179                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
|    | RAYMOND, JOHN                     |              | • |     |     | • |   | 170                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
|    | REBEL PLAYERS                     |              | • |     |     |   |   | 99                 |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
|    | RED FRONT                         |              |   |     |     |   |   |                    |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
|    | RED SQUARE                        | •            | • | •   | •   | • | • | 17                 |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
|    | RED SQUARE                        | •            | • | • • | •   | • | • | 100                | 101                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
|    | REDFIELD, GEORGE                  | •            | • | • • | •   | • | • | 27                 | 101                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
|    | REED, BOB                         | • •          | • | • • | •   | • | • | 21                 |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
|    | REGAL, FRANK                      | • •          | • | •   | •   | • | • | , 5T               |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
|    | REID, JACK                        | •            | • | •   | •   | • | • | 23                 |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
| ~- | REIGEIMAN, HAROLD-                | • •          | • | •   | • • | • | • | . 144(0        |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
|    | REINHARDT, BETTY                  | • •          | • | •   | •   | • | • | 63                 | 304 350 3/0 3/5                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
|    | REIS, IRVING                      | • •          | • | • • | •   | • | • | , 125 <sub>e</sub> | 128, 158, 163, 165                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |
|    | RELIEF WORKERS PROTECTION UNION . |              |   |     |     |   |   |                    |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
|    | RESCUE SHIP MISSION               | • •          | • | • • | •   | • | • | 66,                | 70, 144                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
|    | REVOLUTIONARY THEATRE             |              |   |     |     |   |   |                    |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
|    | REXROTH, KENNETH                  | • •          | • | •   | • • | • | • | 156                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
|    | RICE, EIMER                       | • •          | • | •   | • • | • | • | 156                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
| i  | RICE, ROY H                       |              | • | •   | •   | • | • | . 82               |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
| 1  | RIGHY, COMDON                     |              |   |     |     |   |   |                    |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
| L  | RILEY, ROBERT                     |              | • | •   |     | • | • | . 100              |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
| 1  | FRINALDO, FRED                    |              | • | •   |     | • | • | . 158,             | 163, 165                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
|    | RISDON, ELIZABETH                 |              | • | •   |     | • |   | . 77               |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
|    | RISKIN, ROBERT                    |              | • |     |     | • | • | . 62               |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
|    | RIVERA, ROSENDA                   |              |   |     |     | • | • | 133                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
|    | RIVERS, JOERNEY                   |              |   |     |     | • |   | . 151              |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
|    | RIVERS, W. L                      |              |   |     |     |   |   |                    | 125, 158, 163, 165,                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
|    | ,                                 |              | - |     |     |   |   | 168                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
|    | ROBERTS, MARGUERITE               |              |   |     |     |   |   | 63                 | •                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |
|    | ROBERTS, CASEY                    |              |   |     |     |   |   | 170                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
|    | ROBBIN, ED                        |              |   |     |     |   |   | 29.                | 120                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
|    | ROBINSON, EDWARD G                |              | • |     |     |   | - | 20                 |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
|    | ROBINSON, MRS. EDWARD G           |              |   |     |     |   |   |                    |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
|    | ROBINSON, REID                    |              |   |     |     |   |   | 132                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
|    | ROBISON, PAUL                     |              | • |     |     |   |   | 78.                | 101. 102                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
|    | ROBERTSON, HOWARD J.              |              | ź |     |     | • | - | . i 1       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
|    | ROBERTSON, HOWARD J               | ` - ` | • |     |     | • | • | 71                 |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
|    | RODDY, RALPH                      | - · -        | • | •   |     | • |   | - 58               |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
|    | ROGERS HOWARD                     | • •          | • | •   |     |   | • | . 62               |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
|    | HOGERS, STANLEY                   |              |   | •   | • • | • | • |                    |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
|    | ROGERS, WILL JR.                  |              |   |     |     |   |   |                    | 112 172                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
|    | ROHRBACH, H. C. JR.               |              | • | •   |     | • | • | • 47;              | ح:∸ وزعد                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
|    | ROLAND, NORMA                     | • •          | • | •   | • • | • | • | 101                | •                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |
|    | ROMEERG, SIGNUMD                  |              |   |     |     |   |   |                    | . =1                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |
|    |                                   |              |   |     |     |   |   |                    | TOWN TO ENTIRE                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
|    | ROOT, MRS. LYNN                   | • •          | ٠ | •   | • • | • | • | 105                | SUMMINITURE STATE OF THE STATE |
|    | BOOT, WELLS                       | • •          | • | •   | • • | • | • | כאב •              | · · · · ·                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |

.

_

O

(

7

310

3,

Difformation

|                               |          |         |         |                 | ACURE POENTIAL                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
|-------------------------------|----------|---------|---------|-----------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| ROSE, HOWARD                  |          |         |         | . 133           | THE STATE OF THE S |
| ROSE, DONALD                  |          |         |         | 123, 127        | •                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
| ROSENOFF, DR. AARON           |          |         |         | . 146           |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| ROSS, CHARLES W.              |          |         |         | 41.             |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| ROSS, LAWRENCE (ROSENFELD)    |          |         |         | 25, 33.         | . 77                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
| RUIZ, PEPE                    |          |         |         | 54. 167         | 170                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |
| ROSSEN, ROBERT                |          |         |         | 60.66           | 115, 149, 151,                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
| nacom, nobini                 | • • •    |         |         | 158, 163        | 165                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |
| RUGGLES, WESLEY               |          |         |         |                 |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| RUBEN, J. WALTER              |          |         |         | 125, 128        | 3                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
| RUCKEYSER, MURIEL             |          |         |         | 101             |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| RUSKEY, ELIZABETH             |          |         |         | . 101           |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| RUSHING, GUY                  |          |         |         | . 82            |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| RUSSIAN ANNIVERSARY CELEBRAT  | TON .    |         |         | . 6 L    |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| RUSSIAN REVOLUTION - 1917 .   |          |         |         | 98              |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| RUBSIAN WAR RELIEF            |          |         |         | 75, 76          |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| RUTHVEN, MADELINE             |          |         |         | 66.143          | 3                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
| RYAN, PAUL (MICHAEL QUIN) .   |          |         |         | 4. 10           |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| man, Thou (manner don')       |          |         |         | , =-            |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| SACKHEIM, GENE                |          |         |         | 124, 127        | )7                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| SACKHEIM, JERRY               |          |         |         |                 |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| SACKSON, MILTON               | • • •    | • • • • |         | • • 75          |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| SACRED COW OF HOLLYWOOD       |          |         |         |                 |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| SAILORS OF CATTARO            |          |         |         |                 |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| SALEMSON, HOWARD              | • • •    | • • • • |         | 5, 16           | 3, 174                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| SALT, WALDO                   |          |         |         |                 | , 158, 163                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
| SAMPSON, L. D                 | • • •    | • • • • | • • •   | 85              |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| SAMSON, P. M.                 | • • •    | • • • • | • • •   | • • 130         |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| SANDRICH, MARK SASULY, E.     | • • •    | • • • • | • • • • | • • 69          |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| SASULY, E.                    | • •      | • • • • | • • •   | • • 132         |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| SAUNDERS, ALEX                | • • •    | •-• • • |         | • • 41          |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| SAUNDERS, NAT                 | • • •    | • • • • | • • •   | • • 101         |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| SCHAFFER, LESTER              | • • •    | • • • • | • • •   | • • 77          | •                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
| SCHNEIDER, BERNO              | • • •    | • • • • | • • •   | 101, 10.        | 2                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
| SCHNEIDER, ISADORE            | • • •    | • • • • | • • •   | • • 155         | -                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
| SCHULBERG, BUD WILSON         | • • •    | • • • • | • • •   | 158, 10,        | 3                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
| SCHWARTZ, ARTHUR              | • •      | • • • • | • • •   | • • 100         | a                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
| SCHWARTZ, JERRY               | • •      |         |         | 158, 16         | )(r 150 169 168                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |
| SCOTT, ALLEN                  | • • •    | • • • • | • • •   | 60, 63,         | 0), 1)0, 10), 10)                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
| SCREEN ACTORS GUILD           | • •      | • • • • |         | • • 70          | 50 50 61 16L                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
| SCREEN CARTOONIST GUILD       |          |         |         | 168, 169        | $\sim 11$                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
| SCREEN DIALOG DIRECTORS GUILD | . | • • • • | • • •   | • • 17          | 47 40 70 140                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
| SCREEN DIRECTORS GUILD        | • •      | • • • • | • • •   | ეგე. თე,140 | وفعد و١٥ و٥٥                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
|                               |          |         |         | 169,            | article in the same of the sam |
|                               |          |         |         |                 |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |

|    | SCREEN     | OFFICE  | EMPLO:  | YEES  | CUII | D.  | • |            | • | • |     | • | - |                      | , 52,, 169 |        | 59,         | 61,                         |
|----|------------|---------|---------|-------|------|-----|---|------------|---|---|-----|---|---|----------------------|----------------|--------|-------------|-----------------------------|
|    | SCREEN     | PUBLIC  | es es c | UIID  |      |     | • |            | • | • |     | • | • | <ul><li>58</li></ul> | , 73,          | 164,   | , 16        | 3,                          |
|    | SCREEN     | READER  | ्यारा   | n .   |      |     |   |            |   |   |     |   |   | 169- 58          |                | 164.   | . 169       | 3                    |
|    | SCREEN     | SET DE  | SIGNER  | s cu  | ш    | •   | • |            | • | • | •   | • | • | . 46                 | , 58,          | 59,    | 61,         | 168,                        |
| ٠. | SCREEN     | WRITER  | 3 CUIL  | D .   |      |     | • |            | • |   |     | • |   | 169• 59          |                | 63,    | 64,         | 73,                         |
|    | •          |         |         |       |      |     |   |            |   |   |     |   |   | 74169            |                | , 162  | 4, 1        | 68,                         |
|    | SCRIPT     | CLERKS  | GUILD   |       |      |     | • |            | • | • |     | • | • | . 88                 |                |        |             |                             |
|    | SCULLY,    | FRANK   |         | • •   |      |     | • |            | • | • |     | • | • | . 120                | , 124          | ., 121 | 7, 1        | 30                          |
|    |            | EDWIN   |         |       |      |     |   |            |   |   |     |   |   |                      |                |        |             |                             |
|    | SECOND     | FRONT   |         | • •   | • •  |     | • |            | • | • |     | • | • | . 176                |                |        |             |                             |
|    |            | PERIOD  |         |       |      |     |   |            |   |   |     |   |   |                      |                |        |             |                             |
| ,  | SEITER     |         |         |       |      |     |   |            |   |   |     |   |   |                      |                |        |             |                             |
|    |            | ER, LES |         |       |      |     |   |            |   |   |     |   |   |                      |                |        |             |                             |
|    | SERGE.     | VICTOR  |         |       |      |     |   |            |   |   |     |   |   | . 147                |                |        |             |                             |
|    |            | H WORLD |         |       |      |     |   |            |   |   |     |   |   |                      | . 92.          | 176    |             |                             |
|    | SHANK      | MAXWEL  | 7       |       |      |     | • | •          | • | • |     | • | • | 123                  | , /~,129   | , -,-  |             |                             |
|    | SHAPTR     | O, VICT | מר      |       | • •  |     | • | • •        | • | • | • • | • | • | 20                   | اعدو           |        |             |                             |
|    |            | WILLIA  |         |       |      |     |   |            |   |   |     |   |   |                      |                |        |             |                             |
|    |            |         |         |       |      |     |   |            |   |   |     |   |   |                      |                |        |             |                             |
|    |            | , JUDŒ  |         |       |      |     |   |            |   |   |     |   |   |                      |                | . 7 -  | 4           |                             |
|    |            | IRWIN . |         |       |      |     |   |            |   |   |     |   |   |                      | ر TO           | ', ±⊃  | ס           |                             |
|    | ,          | GEORGE  |         |       |      |     |   |            |   |   |     |   |   |                      |                |        |             |                             |
|    |            | ELD, T. |         |       |      |     |   |            |   |   |     |   |   |                      |                |        |             |                             |
|    |            | R, WILL |         |       |      |     |   |            |   |   |     |   |   |                      |                |        |             |                             |
|    |            | OD, JOH |         |       |      |     |   |            |   |   |     |   |   |                      |                |        |             |                             |
|    | SHIBLE     |         |         |       |      |     |   |            |   |   |     |   |   |                      |                |        |             |                             |
|    | SHIPP,     | CAMERO  | N       | • •   | • •  |     | • | •          | • | • |     | • | • | • 73                 | , 167          | , 170  | 0           |                             |
|    | SHORE,     | VIOLA : | BROTHE  | RS .  | • •  | • • | • |            | • | • |     | • | • | • 4                  | , 5,           | 66, 1  | 103,        | 117,                        |
|    |            | n, herm |         |       |      |     |   |            |   |   |     |   |   | 120                  | , 156          | , 15   | 3, l        | 63                          |
|    | SHUMLI     | N, HERM | AN      |       |      |     | • | . • |   | • |     |   | • | . 71                 | , 103          | , 10i  | 8, l        | 44,                         |
|    |            | •       |         |       |      |     |   | -7_        |   |   |     |   |   | 148                  | •              | _      | •           | •                           |
| ,  | SIDNEY     | , SYLVI | A       |       |      |     |   | •          |   |   |     |   |   | . 120                | . 144          |        |             |                             |
|    | SIFTON     | CLARA   |         |       |      |     |   |            |   |   |     |   |   | . 101                | . 159          | 5      |             |                             |
|    | SIFTON     | PAUL    |         |       |      |     | • |            |   |   |     |   |   | . 101                | . 154          | 5      |             |                             |
|    | SIGNIF     | ICANCE  | OF MEN  | BERSI | HTP  |     | _ |            |   | • |     |   | _ | . 180                | , -/.          |        |             |                             |
|    |            | SHIRTS  |         |       |      |     |   |            |   |   |     |   |   | . 121                |                |        |             |                             |
|    |            |         |         |       |      |     |   |            |   |   |     |   |   | -                    |                |        |             |                             |
|    | SILVER     | CONRA   |         | • •   | • •  | • • | • | • •        | • | • | • • | • | • | . 86                 |                |        |             |                             |
|    | STUTION    | WILLIA  | и н     |       |      | • • | • | • •        | • |   | •   | • | • | 74                   |                |        |             |                             |
|    | יאועדונט פ | FF, J.  | ж п. •  | • •   | • •  | • • | • | • •        | • | • | • • | • | • | • (0                 | יחר            |        |             |                             |
|    |            |         |         |       |      |     |   |            |   |   |     |   |   | • 17                 | , 17           |        |             |                             |
|    |            | TON, ED |         |       |      |     |   |            |   |   |     |   |   | . 155                |                |        |             | $-\mathcal{U}_{\mathbf{t}}$ |
|    | OTHER      | LAL .   | • • •   | • •   | • •  | • • | • | • •        | • | • | • • | • | • | • 49                 |                | 22     | 2 07 | redio                       |
|    | STACIT     | IR, UPT | UN      | • •   | • •  | • • | • | • •        | • | • | • • | • | • | • 4                  | د ر د          | 22,    | <1 , | 1562                        |
|    |            |         |         |       |      |     |   |            |   |   |     |   |   |                      |                |        |             |                             |

i )

(

. . .

=-

| •                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |       |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------|
| SIXTH PERIOD                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |       |
| SKLAR, GEORGE                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |       |
| 108. 155                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |       |
| 108, 155SHEEHAN, VINCENT                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |       |
| SIVERLING, J. O                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | •     |
| SLESINGER, TESS                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |       |
|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |       |
| SMEDIEY, AGNES                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |       |
| SMITH, ART 78, 105                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             | • • • |
| SMITH, AUGUSTUS                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |       |
| SMITH, EETTY 16                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |       |
| SMITH, GEORGE H                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |       |
| SMITH, HAROLD                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |       |
| SOCIETY OF MOTION PICTURE ART DIRECTORS 169                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |       |
| SOCIETY OF MOTION PICTURE FILM EDITORS 88, 169                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |       |
| SOCIETY OF MOTION PICTURE INTERIOR DECORATORS 169                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |       |
| SONDERGAARD, GALE                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |       |
| 146                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |       |
| SONG WRITERS PROTECTIVE ASSOCIATION 169                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |       |
| SORRELL, HERBERT K 28, 36, 44, 45, 46, 49,                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |       |
| 52, 53, 54, 57, 58, 82,                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |       |
| 84, 85, 127, 141, 145,                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |       |
| 171                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |       |
| SOUND TECHNICIANS                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |       |
| SOVIET POWER                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |       |
| SPANISH CHILDREN RELIEF FUND                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |       |
| SPANISH REFUGEE RELIEF COMMITTEE 149                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |       |
| SPANISH SHIP MISSION                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |       |
| SPERRY, VERNE                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |       |
| SPEWACK, SAM                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |       |
| SPITZER, MARIAN                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |       |
| 148, 151, 165                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |       |
| SPIWAK JOHN T                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |       |
| STACHEL JACK                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |       |
| STATUTINGS, LAWRENCE 17                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |       |
| STACHEL, JACK                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |       |
| STANHOPE, TED                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |       |
| STANIEY JACK 166                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |       |
| STANLEY, JACK                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |       |
| STEPRINS PORRE                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |       |
| STECK BOHERT                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |       |
| STEFFENS, LINCOLN                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |       |
| STEIN, DORRIS                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |       |
| STEIN, LOUIS R                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 | 7     |
| STEIN, JULES                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | ð     |
| STEINEECK COMMITTEE                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |       |
| STEINERCK, JOHN                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |       |
| STERN, JIM                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | 1     |
| Variable Variable Carrier and the control of the co | 114   |

2

(

--

|                                                                     |          |       |       |       |                                       | LIVIS CHAIL           |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------|----------|-------|-------|-------|---------------------------------------|-----------------------|
| OMEDNADO JOSSEI                                                     |          |       |       |       | 1.7. 5                                | 15                    |
| STERNARD, JOSEPH                                                    | • • •    | • •   | • • • | • • • | 86                                    |                       |
| STERNBERG, HARRI                                                    | • • •    | • •   | • • • |       | 68. A                                 | .a                    |
| STEVENS, GEORGE                                                     | • • •    | • •   | • • • | • • • | 20                                    | '7                    |
| STEVENS, ONSLOW                                                     | • • •    | • •   | • • • | • • • | 101                                   |                       |
| STEVENS, NORMAN                                                     | • • •    | • •   | • • • | • • • | 101                                   |                       |
| STEVENSON, PHILIP                                                   | • • •    | • •   | • • • | • • • | 101                                   | a 44 101 100          |
| STEWART, DONALD OCDEN                                               | , .      | • •   | • • • | • • • | 112                                   | 17, 00, 104, 107, 126 |
|                                                                     |          |       |       | •     | ו ענון                                | 117, 118, 122, 126,   |
|                                                                     |          |       |       |       | 1)L                                   | 133, 135, 143, 145,   |
|                                                                     |          |       |       |       | 1485 L                                | 155, 158, 162, 163,   |
|                                                                     |          |       |       |       |                                       | 173, 174, 180         |
| STEWART, MAXWELL S                                                  |          | • •   | • • • | • • • | TRO                                   |                       |
| STONE, HARRY                                                        | • • •    | • •   | • • • | • • • | 86                                    |                       |
| STRAND, PAUL                                                        |          | • •   | • • • | • • • | 179                                   |                       |
| -STRANG, GERALD                                                     |          | • •   | • • • | • • • | 156                                   |                       |
| -STRAASBERG, LEE                                                    |          |       | • • • | • • • | 101                                   |                       |
| ~ STRONG, JOHN                                                      |          |       |       |       | 86                                    |                       |
| - STUDIO CARPENTERS                                                 |          |       |       |       | 79,                                   | 37, 169               |
| - STUDIO GRIPS 80                                                   |          |       |       |       | 83                                    |                       |
| - STUDIO LABORERS                                                   |          |       |       |       | 169                                   |                       |
| STUDIO LABORERS AND UTILITY                                         | WORKE    | rs .  |       |       | 39,                                   | L69                   |
| - STUDIO LABORATORY WORKERS .                                       |          |       |       |       | 79,                                   | 78                    |
| - STUDIO MACHINISTS 1185                                            |          |       |       |       | 46,                                   | 56                    |
| STIDIO MISCELLANEOUS EMPLOY                                         | KES .    |       |       |       | 169                                   |                       |
| -STUDIO PAINTERS 644                                                |          |       |       |       | 43,                                   | 46, 50, 168           |
| STUDIO PLASTERERS                                                   |          |       |       |       | 79.                                   | 8 6            |
| STUDIO PROJECTIONISTS                                               |          |       |       |       |                                       |                       |
| STUDIO SET ELECTRICIANS                                             |          |       |       |       | 39.                                   | 82                    |
| STUDIO TEAKSTERS                                                    |          |       |       |       | 79.                                   | 85                    |
| STEDIO TECHNICIANS CITTA                                            |          |       |       |       | 39.                                   | 58, 78, 81            |
| STUDIO TRANSPORTATION WORKE                                         | RS .     |       |       |       | 169                                   |                       |
| STUDIO UTILITY EMPLOYEES .                                          |          |       |       |       | 169                                   |                       |
| STIART CIORIA                                                       | . =      |       |       |       | 117.                                  | 118. 120              |
| STUART, GLORIA                                                      |          |       |       |       | 32                                    |                       |
| SULLIVAN, GLENDA                                                    |          |       | ```   |       | 157                                   |                       |
| SUMMARY OF COMMUNIST ACTIVI                                         | क्रमाह्य |       |       |       | 174                                   |                       |
| SUMMARY, GENERAL                                                    |          |       | • • • |       | 89                                    |                       |
| SUTHERLAND, EDWARD                                                  | • • •    | • • • | • • • |       |                                       | 69                    |
| SOTHERTWIN                                                          | • • •    | • • • | • • • | • • • | 013                                   | • ,                   |
|                                                                     |          |       |       |       |                                       |                       |
|                                                                     |          |       |       |       |                                       |                       |
| TAGGARD, GENEVIEVE                                                  |          |       |       |       | 155                                   | للكلفة                |
| TALBOT, FRANK                                                       |          |       |       |       | 86                                    | CONFIDENTIAL          |
| TASHJIAN, DR. V.A.K.                                                |          |       |       |       | 33                                    | COMETA                |
| TACHUL CARPANTACHULAN PAR ANA ANA ANA ANA ANA ANA ANA ANA ANA A | • • •    | • • • |       | •     | , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , | 66                    |
| TASKEN, ROBERT TAUROG, NORMAN                                       | • •      | • • • | • • • | • • • | 6                                     | 760 A                 |
| TAURUG, NURMAN                                                      | • •      | • • • | • • • | • • • | , 00,                                 | 0,                    |

( : ·

-2-

5.7.8

| _                                                                                                                                         |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| TASKAR, ROBERT                                                                                                                            |
| TASKAR, ROHERT TAYLOR, TED THATCHER, MOLLY DAY 73                                                                                         |
|                                                                                                                                    |
| THATCHER, MOLLI DAY TECHNICOLOR CORPORATION                                                                                               |
|                                                                                                                                           |
| TEEL, CHARLES                                                                                                                             |
| TEDDY TAGE                                                                                                                                |
| TECROEN, JOHN TEDDY, JACK TENNEY, JACK - INVESTIGATION CONCUTTEE 80, 84                                                                   |
| TERRITI MACK - INVESTIGATION COMMITTEE                                                                                                    |
| HTTP: WATER                                                                                                                               |
| TENNEY, JACK - INVESTIGATION COMMITTEE 80, 84 TERRILL, KATHERINE 33, 42, 49, 172 "THE WAVE" 132 THEATRE OF ACTION 14, 15                  |
| THEATRE OF ACTION 14, 15 THEATRE ARTS COMMITTEE 99 THEATRE COLLECTIVE 177                                                                 |
| TUE ATTO COLLEGE 177                                                                                                                      |
| THEATRE COLLECTIVE THEATRE COMMITTEE FOR DEFENCE OF CO                                                                                    |
| THEATRE COMMITTEE FOR DEFENSE OF SPANISH REPUBLIC 71                                                                                      |
| THEATRE GROUPS THE WORKERS THEATRE (Paper) THEY CAN'T GET YOU DOWN!                                                                       |
| THE MUTANIAN THEATRE (Paper)                                                                                                              |
| THOMAS CONTROL TO DOWN H                                                                                                                  |
| THOMAS, CHORGE JR.                                                                                                                        |
| THOUSAY                                                                                                                                   |
| THEY CAN'T GET YOU DOWN  THOMAS, GEORGE JR.  THOMPSON, LINDSAY  THOMPSON, REV. JOHN B.  THOMPSON, KENNETH  100  113, 115  166  170  132 |
| THOMPSON, KENNETH 132 THIRD PERIOD 76                                                                                                     |
| MELLINDER COMMANDER                                                                                                                       |
| THIRD PERIOD                                                                                                                              |
| "TILL THE DAY I DIE"  TIMBERS, RESECCA  14, 15  21, 107                                                                                   |
| TIMBERS, REHECCA 21, 107 THOMAS, LESLIE 180                                                                                               |
| THOMAS, LESLIE TONE, FRANCHOT TOOTHAKER, REV. FRANK M                                                                                     |
| TOOMS, FRANCHOT                                                                                                                           |
| TOOTHAKER, REV. FRANK M. 77, 78, 143 TORBERG, FREDERICK 130                                                                               |
| TORDERG, FREDERICK                                                                                                                        |
| TRACHERING ASSETS                                                                                                                         |
| TORBERG, FREDERICK  TOUHY, JOSEPH  TRACHTENBERG, ALEXANDER  TRADE UNION UNITY LEAGUE  130  148  153, 155                                  |
| TRADE UNION UNITY LEAGUE                                                                                                                  |
| TRADE UNION UNITY LEAGUE  TRAUBE, SHEPPARD  TRANSMISSION BELT  153, 155  25, 90  138, 142                                                 |
| TRANSMISSION BELT THETYAKOV, SERGI                                                                                                        |
| TRETYAKOV, SERGI TRIVERS, BARRY TRIVERS, PAUL TROTSKY, LEON  181 99 165 138, 165                                                          |
| TOTUCO DATE                                                                                                                               |
| TROOTEUR TYPE                                                                                                                             |
| TROTSKY, LEON 138, 165 TROWBRIDGE, CHARLES 64,                                                                                            |
| TROWBRIDGE, CHARLES 64, TRUMBO, DALTON 77                                                                                                 |
| TRUMBO, DALTON                                                                                                                            |
| 150 142 1/5, 133,                                                                                                                         |
| TUNCHINSKY, JOSEPH 170, 103, 105                                                                                                          |
| TURCHINSKY, JOSEPH  TUTTLE, FRANK  158, 163, 165  11, 12  20, 61, 67, 70, 104,                                                            |
| 100 120 200                                                                                                                               |
| 107, 120, 124, 126,                                                                                                                       |
| 131, 133, 145, 148, 164,                                                                                                                  |
| TUTTLE, TITANIA . 165, 173                                                                                                                |
| 20                                                                                                                                        |

| VAN KLEEK, MARY                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                  |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------|
| "WAITING FOR LEFTY"                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |                  |
| WAR MANFOWER COMMISSION WAR SYMPHONY COMMITTEE  WAYNE, D. T. WEATHERWAI, CLARA WEATHERWAI, JOHN M.  WEEER, JOHN WEISS, MAC WEILCH, MARIE de L. WEILES, ORSON WEILES, ORSON WESTERN WORKER 121 WESTERN WORKER 122 WEXIEY, JOHN 133  MESTERN WILTERS CONGRESS 124  WEXIEY, JOHN 136  MELLANDIER 126  MELLANDIER 126  MELLANDIER 127  MEXIEY, JOHN 124  130 | 51, 6849, 57 |

į

|                                               | CANTE              |
|-----------------------------------------------|--------------------|
| WHIPPER, IEIGH                                | CONTRACTOR         |
|                                               |                    |
| WHITE, IRVING                                 |                    |
| WHITTY, DAME MAY                              | •                  |
| WILLFORD, WILLIAM A                           |                    |
|                                               |                    |
| WILLEBRANDT, MAREL WALKER                     |                    |
| WILLIAMS, ALBERT RHYS                         |                    |
|                                               | -                  |
|                                               | 151                |
| WINTER, EILA MAY                              | 5, 66, 155, 156,   |
| WINTER, MILE MAI                              |                    |
| WILSHIRE ERELL CLUB                           |                    |
| WILSON, HAROLD F                              |                    |
| WILSON, HARDID F. WISE, JAMES WATERMAN        |                    |
| WOLF, FREDERICK                               | 108                |
| WOLF, FREDERICA 101 WOLFSON, VICTOR 1         |                    |
| WOOD, CHARLES ERSKINE SCOTT                   |                    |
| WOOD, CHARLES ENSKINE SCOTT                   | 28                 |
| WOLF, HERMAN G                                |                    |
| WOOD, SAM                                     |                    |
| WORKERS ALLIANCE                              |                    |
| WORKERS DANCE LEAGUE                          | 15                 |
| WORKERS FILM AND FOTO LEAGUE                  | 11. 12             |
| WORKERS INTERNATIONAL RELIEF 10,              | ,       |
| WORKERS THEATRE                               |                    |
| WRIGHT, RICHARD                               |                    |
| WRITERS SCHOOL                                |                    |
| WYMAN, JANE                                   |                    |
| •                                             |                    |
|                                               |                    |
| 170                                           |                    |
| YBARRA, ALFRED C                              |                    |
| YAKHONTOFF, VICTOR A.                         |                    |
| "YANKAURER, DORIS                             |                    |
| YANKS ARE NOT COMMING.                        | . 11 . 27 . 30     |
| YOUNG COMMUNIST LEAGUE  YOUTH OF MAXIM        | ,  ,,,  |
| WYOUTH OF WAXING                              |                    |
| YOUTH COMMISSION OF ADTION PICTURE DEMOCRATIC |                    |
| CUMMILIFIE                                    |                    |
| HUNG. BENTING                                 |                    |
| YOUNG PIONEERS                                |                    |
|                                               |                    |
| CHANNES IACR                                  | ~/                 |
| ZANUMA, JACK                                  |                    |
| CURIO, DECEMBER OCCUPANT                      | . 113 116 DE 13 11 |
| ZERO HOUR                                     | J. J. J. J. J.     |
| //TIBO/UNIBE WENT!                            |                    |

ᇴ

CONF. 1545+1)

ENCLOSURES FOR THE BUREAU:

EXHIBIT NO. I

Photostatic copy of portion of the proceedings of the I.A.T.S.E. convention at Louisville, Kentucky, June 3 to 6, 1940 - Pages 1 to 12 inclusive.

EXHIBIT NO. II

Photostatic copy of a portion of the proceedings of the I.A.T.S.E. convention at Cleveland, Ohio, June 6 to 9, 1938 - Pages 1 to 10, inclusive.

EXHIBIT NO. III

Page 1 is photographic copy of Page 31 of the May, 1941 issue of "The Clipper", which is headed "In Defense of Culture" and is a call of the League of American Writers to the "American Writers Congress", June 6 to 8, 1941 at New York City.

Page 2 is a photographic copy of Page 3 of the Amgust, 1941 issue of "The Clipper", which is headed "A Communication to All Writers From The League of American Writers."

- PENDING -

A Company of the second

UNDEVELOPED LEAD

THE LOS ANCELES FIELD DIVISION:

At Los Angeles, California

Will continue this investigation and will compile information showing the Communist Party connections of many of the most influential personages in the motion picture business in Hollywood. This compilation of information will set forth the numerous activities of such individuals in the Communist front organizations which indicate that the Communist Party line has been followed faithfully and argently. Attention will also be called to a large number of books, pamphlets, scenarios, plays, newsreels, speeches, letters and other material which indicate the enormous effort that has been made and is now being made by the Communist Party to get complete control of the motion picture business and use it for propaganda purposes.

-AMELUINA SARA